

PRINTED AND PUBLISHED, EVERY TUESDAY MORNING, BY Thomas Perrin Smith, (QUARTER OF THE LAWS OF THE UNION.) THE TERMS Are Two Dollars and Fifty Cents per annum, payable half yearly, in advance: No paper can be discontinued until the same is paid for.

NOTICE. By virtue of a Decree from the High Court of Chancery, TO ELIZABETH ALLAN DIRECTED, Will be sold at public sale, at William Flint's tavern, in the town of Cambridge, in Dorchester county, On the 7th day of August next, if fair, if not, the next fair day,

A valuable tract or parcel of Land, containing four hundred and five acres, clear of the water, situated on the mouth of Great Choptank and Little Choptank rivers has a beautiful prospect of the Chesapeake Bay, and is commonly known by the name of Hill's Point. The Land is fertile, well adapted to the growth of corn, wheat and tobacco, has a sufficiency of timber for the plantation use, is conveniently situated for fishing, fowling and oysters in their seasons, and has excellent drinking water. About one half of the cleared Land is a high and light soil, the other half rather stiff and low. It will be sold altogether, or in Lots, as may best suit. A credit of one, two and three years will be given, in such instalments as will be made known on the day of sale; and immediate possession given on the purchaser giving bonds with approved security, bearing interest from the day of sale.

PUBLIC SALE. By virtue of an order from the judges of Talbot county court, we shall, on WEDNESDAY the 9th of August next, if fair, if not, the next fair day, sell to the highest bidder, on a credit of 6, 12 and 18 months, the real estate of William Aendale, late of Talbot county, deceased, being part of the tracts of Land called Kingston Kellum, and Young Oakin, containing 82 acres, more or less. This property lies about nine miles from Easton, and 1 1/2 from Kingston. The improvements are in good repair, the Land well adapted to the growth of corn, wheat and tobacco, the purchaser must give bond with approved security, with interest from the day of sale.

SHERIFF'S SALE. By virtue of a fi. fa. from Caroline county court issued, and to me directed—Will be sold on WEDNESDAY 16th day of August next, on the premises, near Hog Creek, part of an undivided tract of LAND, supposed to contain 75 acres, taken in execution as the property of William A. Aford, to satisfy the claim of John Bradley & Co. Sale to begin at 10 o'clock, and attendance by James Keene, sh'ff.

FOR SALE. That beautiful FARM, situated in Talbot county, (formerly the property of Dr. Maynard,) about five miles from Easton, one from White Marsh Church, and within two miles of two grist mills; with a large brick dwelling house, and every necessary out-house—and containing 282 acres of Land. Also, 12 acres of Land, adjoining the town of St. Michaels, highly improved, viz:—a good dwelling house, with a dry cellar, kitchen, granary, carriage house, and stables, all in good repair. Also, a vessel on the stocks, of about 230 tons, that can be finished in 60 days. For terms of the above farm, apply to JAMES PARROTT, Easton, or to the subscriber at St. Michaels. Thomas L. Haddaway.

FOR SALE. That valuable FARM, belonging to the heirs of the late Doct. John Hindman, situated on one of the branches of Wye River, now in the occupation of Mr. John Green, and has for many years back been occupied by Mr. Edward Turner. This farm contains about five hundred acres of good LAND, most of it in cultivation. There are on the premises a Brick Dwelling House, with some out buildings. The advantages to be derived from the situation are many—such as its convenience to mill and market, to places of public worship, and the benefits to be derived from the water. It is thought unnecessary to give a further description here, as any person inclined to purchase will no doubt visit the premises. For further particulars enquire of the subscriber. William Chambers, Agent for the heirs

FARM FOR SALE. The subscriber, intending to leave this State, offers for sale the Plantation on which he resides, situated on Choptank river, Talbot county, Maryland. For terms apply to George S. Dickinson.

VALUABLE LAND FOR SALE, ON A CREDIT OF ONE, TWO AND THREE YEARS. The subscriber offers the Farm for sale where on Nathan Jones now lives, situated on Tuckahoe creek, in Talbot county. This Land is very fertile, and well adapted to the growth of wheat and corn. The buildings are, a comfortable dwelling house, kitchen, barn, corn house, store house, and granary; with but little expense all can be put in good repair. ALSO—A small Farm, containing about fifty one acres, part of which is well timbered, near the mouth of Tuckahoe creek, and about one mile from the above Land, which would afford sufficient timber for the above farm. The above Lands will be sold on a credit of one, two and three years, or exchanged for Bank Stock. Upon the payment of the money, a deed will be given. Apply to James G. Seth, Hillsborough, July 18

FOR SALE, A valuable tract of LAND (in Caroline county, situated immediately on the road from Hillsborough to Denton, about three miles from each of those places) containing about one hundred and seventy acres of good arable Land, which is well adapted to the growth of corn and wheat, and very productive of grass such as clover, timothy and herd. Persons wishing to purchase will please to view the premises—and the terms will be made known by an application to David Cason, living near the premises, or to the subscriber, living in Queen Ann's county, near Sudler's Cross Roads. If the above tract of Land should not be disposed of at private sale, by the last day of August, it will then be offered at public sale, and sold to the highest bidder on a liberal credit. James W. Price, may 30 14

FOR SALE, A valuable tract of about one thousand acres of timbered LAND, situated in Dorchester county, between two navigable creeks, the one emptying into Nanticoke river, and the other running into Fishing bay. This property would be a desirable acquisition to a person conducting the ship building business, as the shore of the Nanticoke is remarkably well situated for that purpose, and the Land affords an abundance of suitable oak timber, as well as a great quantity of good pine; the latter of which would make it an object of great importance to the owner of a saw mill. A more particular description is thought unnecessary, as any person inclined to make the purchase, it is presumed would first view the premises. The subscriber is inclined to sell the above property at a low rate, and to make the terms accommodating to the purchaser. James Steele, Cambridge, June 6

TO THE EARL OF LIVERPOOL, ON THE NAVAL FORCE OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA. My Lord, From the beginning, and before the beginning of the late war with America, I thought it my duty to warn you, that one of the consequences of that war would be the creating of a great naval force in that country. I endeavoured to describe to you the immense means of America for such a purpose. Her fine rivers, bays, and harbors; her excellent ship builders; her hemp, iron, pitch, and timber, all of her own produce; and, above all, her matchless seamen. Of the truth of this account you and your colleagues must, by this time, be pretty well convinced; but I cannot help quoting, and addressing to you, a paragraph from the Times newspaper of the 16th inst. in the following words: "Extract of a letter from Philadelphia, dated the 17th of March.—Congress have at length determined to have a navy; a bill has passed the Legislature appointing a navy board. Commodore Hull, Bainbridge, & Rodgers, it is expected, will be appointed Admirals, and put in commission. A very powerful force, under the command of Com. Bainbridge, is now fitting out for Algiers: it will consist of two new 74 gun ships, 5 frigates, and 10 sloops of France would revive. Example, emulation, have powerful effects.—I beg you to thing well, and in time, of these things. I beg you to take your eyes, for a little, from Hanover and Belgium, and to cast them on the other side of the Atlantic, where you will see what is much more dangerous to England than is the army of Napoleon, numerous and brave as that army may be. I am, &c. WILLIAM COBBETT. Botley, 17th May, 1815. Laws of the United States, (BY AUTHORITY.) AN ACT Supplementary to an Act, entitled "An act providing for the indemnification of certain claimants of public lands in the Mississippi territory." BE it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America, in Congress assembled, That the President of the United States be, and he is hereby authorized, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, to appoint three fit and disinterested persons, to be and act as commissioners, by virtue of an act, entitled "An act providing for the indemnification of certain claimants of public lands in the Mississippi territory," in the place of the Secretary of State, the Secretary of the Treasury and the Attorney General of the United States, for the time being; and the said persons are hereby constituted and appointed a board of commissioners, any two of whom may act as a quorum, as in and by the act aforesaid is provided. Which board is hereby declared to be intending to effect the same purpose and services as the said original board; and in every respect, substituted for the same; and is hereby authorized to execute all the powers granted to, and directed to perform all the duties enjoined upon, the said original board of commissioners, according to the intent and provision of the act aforesaid. Sec. 2. And be it further enacted, That the commissioners to be appointed in pursuance of this act, shall meet at some suitable place within the District of Columbia, on the fourth Monday of January current, or as soon thereafter as may be, to enter on the duties assigned them. And that they shall proceed therein, as expeditiously as may be, and from time to time shall report to the President of the United States, the claims they shall have finally adjudged and allowed, agreeably to the third section of the act to which this act is supplementary. Sec. 3. And be it further enacted, That each of the said commissioners, before they proceed to execute their duties as such, shall take the following oath or affirmations to wit: "I A. B. do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I am not interested in the event of any decision that may be made by this board of commissioners, and that I will faithfully and impartially discharge and perform all the duties incumbent on me as a member thereof; and will adjudge and determine all the matters, claims and controversies, subject to the adjudication and determination of this board, according to the best of my abilities, agreeably to the laws of the United States, and the principles of justice and equity." Sec. 4. And be it further enacted, That the said board of commissioners shall have power and authority to appoint a secretary, whose duty it shall be to receive, file, and preserve, the papers, documents, and claims, that may be presented to, and received by said board of commissioners, and to enter and record all the orders, proceedings, judgments, and determinations, of said board of commissioners. And one of said commissioners, shall administer an oath to such secretary for the faithful discharge of his duty. And there shall be allowed and paid out of the Treasury of the United States, to each of the said commissioners, as well as to the Secretary by them to be appointed, as a compensation for their respective services under this act, and in full for the same, the sum of fifteen hundred dollars.

Sec. 5. And be it further enacted, That further time be, and hereby is allowed to deposit in the office of the Secretary of State, releases to the United States of claims, under the act or pretended act of the State of Georgia, passed on the seventh day of January, seventeen hundred and ninety five, and assignments of rights or claims to monies paid into the treasury of the state of Georgia, and power to sue therefor; and also for recording in the office of the Secretary of State, any deed or evidence of any title or claim that hath been released to the United States, or that shall be released on or before the day hereby appointed, to wit: the third Monday in March next. And so much of the act of Congress, passed the third day of March, one thousand eight hundred and three, entitled "an act regulating the grants of lands of the United States, south of the State of Tennessee;" and so much of

Sec. 6. And be it further enacted, That the said commissions be, and hereby are authorized and empowered to consider and determine all claims, that shall have been duly released to the United States, on or before the said third Monday of March; which may be made and preferred by assignees of bankrupts, or executors or administrators on estates of deceased persons, which may be insolvent and subject to distribution among the creditors of the persons so deceased. LANGDON CHEVES, Speaker of the House of Representatives. JOHN GALLARD, President pro tempore, of the Senate. January 23, 1815. Approved, JAMES MADISON. AN ACT For the relief of Benjamin Wells and others. BE it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America, in Congress assembled, That the person authorized to transact the business of the late supervisor of the revenue in the State of Pennsylvania, be, and he is hereby authorized and directed to revise the accounts of Benjamin Wells, John Wells, Wm. Erving, James Brice, John Webster, and Joseph Junkin, late collectors of internal duties in the State aforesaid, and to audit & settle the same, admitting on sufficient evidence all legal or equitable credits, not heretofore allowed or rejected by Congress. Sec. 2. And be it further enacted, That if any one, or all of the collectors aforesaid, shall be dissatisfied with the settlement and decision of the person authorized to transact the business of the supervisor aforesaid, he or they may, within three months after such decision, appeal from the same, upon such items in the account as they shall specially designate, stating in writing their objections to the decision on the same, to the accounting officers of the Treasury Department, and upon such appeal being taken and presented to the treasury department, within the time aforesaid, it shall be lawful for the accounting officers of that department, to audit and settle the same, according to the rules prescribed by this act. Sec. 3. And be it further enacted, That if, upon the settlement of the accounts aforesaid, it shall appear, that the collectors, or any one of them, are entitled to further credits than they have heretofore received, it shall be lawful for the secretary of the treasury to allow the same, and to credit the judgment heretofore recovered against them by the United States, for the amount which may be so found to be due: Provided, That nothing in this act shall be construed to impair the force or effect of the judgments aforesaid, but the same, together with the execution which may have issued thereon, shall continue to remain in force in the same manner they were previous to the passage of this act. LANGDON CHEVES, Speaker of the House of Representatives. JOHN GALLARD, President pro tempore, of the Senate. February 12, 1815. Approved, JAMES MADISON. AN ACT To extend the time of Oliver Evans' patent, for his improvement on steam engines. BE it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America, in Congress assembled, That all the rights and privileges of Oliver Evans, under a patent issued from the department of state on the fourteenth day of February, one thousand eight hundred and four, for his improvements on steam engines, be, and hereby are extended to the said Oliver Evans, his heirs, administrators, or assigns, for and during the term of seven years, to commence from, and immediately after the expiration of the term of fourteen years, granted by said patent as aforesaid; subject to all the provisions of the act, entitled "an act to promote the progress of the useful arts, and to repeal the act heretofore made for that purpose," excepting so far as regards the extension of the term of his said patent herein authorized: Provided, That it shall not be lawful for the said Oliver Evans, his heirs, administrators, or assigns, to charge or receive from any person or persons a greater sum for the privilege of constructing or using his said improvements on steam engines, during the term for which his said patent is hereby extended, than he has hitherto charged and received for a like privilege under his said patent as now in force. LANGDON CHEVES, Speaker of the House of Representatives. JOHN GALLARD, President pro tempore, of the Senate. February 7, 1815. Approved, JAMES MADISON.
