VALUABLE LAND FOR SALE.

The subscriber will offer at public sale, (if not sold previously at private sale.)

On TUESDAY, the 14th day of November next, at the Court House in Snow-Hill, Worcester county, that well known tract of LAND where the subscriber formerly lived, containing by estimate 936 acres, situated in Worcester county, Md. ten miles from Snow-Hill, two and a half miles from the post road leading to Philadelphia; it is bounded on the east by Simpsonton Bay, on the north by Marshall's creek, which affords an excellent landing for small crafts within 200 yards of the dwelling.

This Land is well adapted to the culture of corn, wheat and tobacco—it affords fine pasturage and grazing, having 250 acres of marsh, equal to any in the county, and a sufficient quantity of fire wood and timber.

The situation is elegant, healthy, and commands a most beautiful prospect of the Atlantic Ocean and Simpsonton Bay.—The waters contiguous to this farm afford abundance of excellent fish, oysters, clams, and wild fowl, in their season.

A great part of this Land is well intermixed with oyster shells for several feet deep, which will afford an inexhaustible source of manure for the Land.

The improvements are a brick dwelling, 46 feet by 20, two stories high, a granary, corn house, kitchen, and other convenient out-houses.

The greatest part of the purchase money will be required in Cash—more particular terms will be made known on the day of sale, a more particular description relative to this Land is deemed unnecessary, as any information can be had by applying either to Wm. P. Marshall, now living on the Land, or to the subscriber living in Somerset county, near Princess Anne.

John P. Marshall.

Also, 12 acres of Land, adjoining the town of St. Michaels, highly improved, viz:—a good dwelling house, with a dry cellar, kitchen, granary, carriage house, and stables, all in good repair.

FOR SALE,

A valuable tract of about one thousand acres of timbered LAND, situate in Dorchester county, between two navigable creeks, the one emptying into Nanticoke river, and the other running into Fishing Bay.

This property would be a desirable acquisition to a person conducting the ship building business, as the shore of the Nanticoke is remarkably well situated for that purpose, and the Land affords an abundance of suitable oak timber, as well as a great quantity of good pine; the latter of which would make it an object of great importance to the owner of a saw mill.

A more particular description is thought unnecessary, as any person inclined to make the purchase, it is presumed would first view the premises.

The subscriber is inclined to sell the above property at a low rate, and to make the terms accommodating to the purchaser.

James Steele.

One Hundred Dollars Reward.

Ranaway from the subscriber, living in Talbot county, Md. on Saturday morning last, 5th of August, a negro man named NED, (calls himself Ned Benson, alias Ned Lloyd), about 22 or 23 years of age, 5 feet 9 or 10 inches high, rather slender built, very black and narrow face, has a scar on the lower part of his left jaw. Had on when he went away, a tow linen shirt and trousers, a wool hat about half worn.—It is possible he may have changed them, as he took with him a black cloth pair of pants and round-robin, with a variety of other clothing.

It is supposed he is gone on to the State of Delaware. Any person who shall take up said fellow, if out of the State, and secure him in Easton, so that I get him again, shall receive the above reward, and all reasonable charges paid; or $50 if taken up in the State of Maryland, and secured as above.

August 15

FROM THE MARYLAND HERALD.

TO THE

PEOPLE OF MARYLAND.

No. I.

At the approach of another election for delegates to the Assembly of Maryland, it is your duty to consider well which party is entitled to your support and confidence.

It is often matter of regret with many well meaning persons, that any such thing as party should exist, but parties exist under such free Constitutions and Laws as the people of the United States are blessed with—political parties are unavoidable, & under proper restraints, they will in many instances prove useful and salutary.

Governments that have no sinister, or ambitious views, will never shrink from public examination; their measures, if good, will speak for themselves, & where they are otherwise they ought to be checked, or changed.

Some governments, by their measures, direct and guide public opinion; in this country it is public opinion that directs, guides and impels the government.

It was this pressure of public opinion which secured to our country the independence—for a nation to be free, it is sufficient that she wills it.

Public opinion never has been, nor will it ever be, more clearly and plainly expressed, than it was at the time when Washington was called to preside over the destinies of this Republic; and it was this same public opinion, that put Jefferson and the Republican party into power and excluded Adams & the Federal party from power.

Public opinion urged our government, to declare War against Britain.—The measure had been delayed five years too long; when the unprovoked and unjustifiable attack was made on the frigate Chesapeake in 1807, then was the time to have declared war; the measures would at that time have been almost unanimously supported.—The patriotic glow of public spirit was allowed to subside, years were wasted in fruitless negotiations and unavailing remonstrances.

But public opinion, however mutable on some occasions, requires something more than mere thro' y to impel it to any change of system—take one instance—The late war has convinced the people of the United States that a Navy is absolutely necessary for defence and protection, and if no other beneficial results had arisen from the war, the glory our country has acquired, and the change wrought in public opinion on this one subject is worth the whole cost. America has broken the spell of English Naval invincibility, and is destined in her turn to become the mistress of the seas. May she never become the tyrant of the ocean.

Neither of the great political parties in the United States can with justice claim the honor of being the exclusive friends of a navy.—A navy has been recommended by many great leading characters of both parties, but the guns of the Constitution when she sunk the Guerriere, spoke in a few seconds more strong and convincing arguments, than all that a Jefferson had wrote, or an Adams spoke on the subject.

How important is it then that public opinion should be fairly and freely expressed, and this can be best done through a free and an independent press. The writer of these observations is openly & avowedly a friend to the Republican system of measures, because he considers them more in unison with the principles of civil liberty, and more conducive to the welfare and happiness of the people than those of the Federal system.

But while he is firm and decided in his own opinions, he is always willing to allow others the same privilege of thinking and speaking for themselves, a privilege which he sincerely prays may always be freely exercised by the citizens of the United States under every administration.

It is his intention to endeavor to shew when this subject is again resumed, that the Republican party is best entitled to the confidence and support of the people.

PORCIUS.

ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS REWARD.

Ranaway from the subscriber, at Easton, on Wednesday night, 12th inst. a negro man named JACOB, about 22 or 23 years of age, about 5 feet 9 or 10 inches high, rather slender built, very black and narrow face, and stutters. Had on when he went away a grey cloth coat and grey pants; leather hat, such as servants generally wear, and boots. It is very possible he may change his dress. I purchased him of Philip Wallis, of Easton. W. purchased him of a Mr. Lambert W. Spencer, living on Miles River, who purchased him of Jacob Looxerman, who brought him from Caroline county, in the neighborhood of Hunting Creek Mills. It is thought he has made for the Delaware State. Any person who takes up said negro, and secures him in Easton, so that I get him, shall receive the above reward, and all reasonable charges paid.
