WILL BE OFFERED FOR SALE,
AT PUBLIC AUCTION.

On the 22d day of the 11th month,

(commonly called November)

at fair, or the next fair day, on the premises, a number of valuable LOTS OF LAND, in and about the town of Easton.

A valuable LOT, fronting on Washington street, 22 feet, and running about 177 feet back to Nicks's alley. This property is an excellent stand for business, in an improving part of the town, and will be an acquisition to any person wishing to embark in the mercantile business.

Also, a LOT containing about half an acre of ground, more or less, fronting on Aurora st., on which are three small tenements, which rent for $25 per annum each.

A valuable GRASS LOT, fronting on Bay street, between the Lots of Amey Kennard and Benjamin Whitcomb. This Lot contains about 1 1/2 acres, more or less. Several other lots, situated on Bay side road, of from 2 to 4 acres. Likewise, several other lots on Cabinet street, and several on Port street, between that and Cabinet street.

That very valuable property known by the name of the Landing Woods, containing upwards of 40 acres. The last mentioned property will be divided into Lots of from one to five acres, with Lines to suit each.

A survey and plot will be prepared previous to the sale, for the inspection of bidders. The terms will be made known on the day of sale, and attendance given by

Robert Moore, ex'or of Wm. Meloy, dec'd.

Easton, 10th mo. 31st.

PUBLIC SALE.

On MONDAY the 6th day of November next, if fair, or the next fair day thereafter, will commence at Pleasant, Talbot county, the late residence of Col. Robert Lloyd Nicol, deceased, the vendue of all the personal property of the said deceased. Among this property are many valuable negroes fitted for every situation—viz a woman cook, an accomplished man cook, excellent house servants, fine hostlers, and most valuable plantation negroes of both sexes and of all ages—Every species of garden or farm utensils—a large and valuable stock of cat, sheep, both country and crossed with Merino—good hogs fit for the pen this fall, with sows, sheep, oxen, carts and horse carts and many other things adapted to a farm. There will also be offered for sale an extensive and valuable collection of household furniture, consisting of plate, plated ware, bedding, China, cut glass, bed and table linen, towels, napkins, kitchen and cellar furniture, with much other ornamental furniture, and every thing that is useful and valuable to housekeepers. A great number of books will be offered for sale, many of which are well selected, the res. constituting a mass of miscellaneous literature, with maps, charts, private, &c. &c.

And on the next WEDNESDAY week, 15th November, at Walnut Ridge, in Queen Ann's county, if fair, or the next fair day, will be exposed to public sale, all the remaining personal property of the said deceased, belonging to that farm, consisting of such of the negroes as are not sold, fine cattle, sheep (country and crossed) and hogs fit for the pen this fall, with sows, and shoats, and pigs, farming utensils, carts, oxen, and many other things too numerous to mention. These sales will begin at 10 o'clock A. M. at both places, and continue from day to day until all the property is disposed of. A considerable credit will be given, upon bond with approved security. The particular terms of sale made known at the commencement of the sale at both places, or for the purpose of being carried out of the state. There will be provided to be sold at both places, and perhaps, corn.

Oct. 26

A FARM near Easton, for sale.

Notice is hereby given, that by virtue of a writ of fieri facias, to me directed, contained in a Deed from John Hammond and Miss N. Harrison, his wife, to the President, Directors and Company of the Peopel's Bank of Maryland. All and singular that Farm and Plantation situate and lying in Talbot county, about three miles from Easton, and near the village of Hooktown, between the post road and the road leading into Mink River Neck, and adjoining the Lands of James Deany, and consisting of part of a tract of Land called "Newman's Range," and part of a tract of Land called "The Addition," and containing about one hundred and thirty acres of Land, more or less, will be exposed to sale, on TUESDAY the 7th day of November next, at the Court House in Easton, at the hour of four o'clock in the afternoon, on a credit of 4 months, 8 months, 12 months, and 24 months in equal instalments. For the nature of the soil and improvements, and the situation of the Farm, persons desirous of purchasing are referred to the premises; and for the nature of the security to be required, they are referred to the Cashier.

By order of the President & Directors,
Joseph Haskins, cash'r.
Branch Bank at Easton,
August 25, 1815

PUBLIC SALE.

By virtue of two writs of venditioni exponas, to me directed, will be exposed to public sale, on SATURDAY the 11th day of November next, on the Court House Green, in the town of Easton, for cash, the following property, to-wit:—

The life estate of Henry Thomas, of, in, and to, a FARM, lying and being in Talbot county, in King's Creek hundred, containing one hundred and fifty acres of Land, being part of several tracts. One pig and harnes, one hay horse, and one harrow. The above property was taken to satisfy the claim of the State of Maryland, at the instance and for the use of Stephen T. Johnson, use of Thomas H. Dawson, and 4 claim of Robert Jeffers, against the said Henry Thomas, and will be sold for their use. Sale to commence at 3 o'clock, and attendance given by

of Talbot county.

Oct. 24

VALUABLE LAND FOR SALE.

The subscriber will offer at public sale, (if not sold previously at private sale.)

On TUESDAY, the 14th day of November next, at the Court House in Snow Hill, Worcester county, that well known tract of LAND where the subscriber formerly lived, containing by estimate 98 acres, situated in Worcester county, Md. ten miles from Snow Hill, two and a half miles from the post road leading to Philadelphia; it is bounded on the east by Slinnuxent Bay, on the north by Marshall's creek, which affords an excellent landing for small crafts within 200 yards of the dwelling.

This Land is well adapted to the culture of corn, wheat and tobacco—it affords fine pasturage and grazing, having 250 acres of marsh, equal to any in the county, and a sufficient quantity of fire wood and timber.

The situation is elegant, healthy, and commands a most beautiful prospect of the Atlantic Ocean and Sinoipuxent Bay. The waters contiguous to this farm afford abundance of excellent fish, oysters, clams, and wild fowl, in their season.

A great part of this Land is well intermixed with oyster shells for several feet deep, which will afford an inexhaustible source of manure for the Land.

The improvements are a brick dwelling, 45 feet by 20, two stories high, a granary, corn house, kitchen, and other convenient out-houses.

The greatest part of the purchase money will be required in Cash—more particular terms will be made known on the day of sale, a more particular description relative to this Land is deemed unnecessary, as any information can be had by applying either to Wm. P. Marshall, now living on the Land, or to the subscriber living in Somerset county, near Princess Anne.

John P. Marshall.

LAND FOR SALE.

By virtue of a Decree of Caroline county court, PASSED AT OCTOBER TERM, INST.

WILL BE EXPOSED TO PUBLIC SALE,
ON THE PREMISES.

On Thursday, the 30th of November next,

Part of the real estate of John Hardcastle, late of Caroline county, dec'd. to-wit—from six to eight hundred acres of LAND, lying within two miles of Denton, and adjacent to the Mill, late the residence of the deceased. This Land is now tolerably productive, although somewhat worn. It is naturally of a very good quality, and by being managed with industry and care, is susceptible of great improvement in its fertility. On the premises is a good dwelling house, kitchen, and necessary out houses, all in tolerable repair; and one of the most fruitful apple orchards in the county, in a thriving condition.

The whole will be sold together, or in two or more parcels, as may be deemed most advisable, upon a credit of three months, the purchaser or purchasers giving bond with approved security, for the payment of the purchase money, with interest from the day of sale. Sale to commence at 2 o'clock P. M. and attendance given by

Tho: Culbreth, trustee.

Oct. 26

The creditors of the said John Hardcastle, deceased, are hereby warned to exhibit their claims, and vouchers, legally authenticated, to the Clerk of Caroline county court, within six months from the day of sale.

$1000

FOR SALE.

I will sell my FARM, near Cambridge, in Queen Ann's county.

Perhaps no property is more worthy the attention of persons desirous of purchasing a handsome Farm, than this, in its situation, for health and pleasantness of prospect, is equalled by none in the surrounding country.

The soil is remarkably good, capable of the greatest improvement, and suited to clover and plow, and is well known to produce excellent crops of wheat, Indian corn, oats, &c. — and will command at this time, an annual rent of $1000.

A further description of this property is considered unnecessary, as persons wishing to purchase, can view the same.

For terms apply to Wm. R. Bennett, residing upon the premises, or to the subscriber

John Darrah.
Kent county, Sept. 19
