APOLLO'S FOUNT.

From the Boston Centinel. SELECTIONS FROM THE NEWSPA-PERS.

A tax on hemp has been proposed-By convicts in the county prison-Strange facts have lately been disclosed-From which we learn that pork has risen.

A black was taken Friday last -Stealing Sir Francis Bacon's phrases-Within a single twelvemonth past-A coach and seven handsome chaises.

She was a style and starch old maid-The pretriest ever man set eyes on-So very killing it was said-Three worthy butchers died by poison.

Two hundred casks of shingle nails-Were brought last autumn to the hammer-The secretary, say the mails-Is publishing a work on grammar.

A farce is acting at the South-In the Virginia Convention --A lady with the sweetest mouth-Said things too scandalous to mention,

The razors made by Smith and Son-Are said to be extremely cutting-A steady man of twenty-one-Would like to get a place for strutting.

The sermon preached on Sunday night-Has been accused of taking purses-Missing, a puppy nearly white-Addicted much to writing verses. A subterranean arch was found-

By men at work upon the steeple-There now are lying in the pound-Great numbers of the starving people. A maid too false, and yet too fair-Was roundly whipped for picking pockets-

Much used for bracelets and for lockets. A fellow has been seen of late-Extremely regular at meeting-And Turkey in its present state-

Just landed, thirty bales of hair-

Is very pleasant, wholesome eating. People who do not make their wills-Require a copious ablution-The celebrated bilious pills-

Have done tremendous execution.

MODERN STATESMEN.

All would be deem'd, e'en from the cradle fit To rule in politics as well as wit. The grave, the gay, the fopling, and the dunce, Start up, (God bless us!) statesmen all at once face. We have seen nothing so admirably cal- gathered (and mingled confusedly) from Greculated to serve as the young lady's Manual, cian and Roman models, from Egypt, China. not to teach her modes and forms, and apish Turkey, and Hindostan. All nations are ranand just ideas of every thing belonging to her as a fine lady, but no son of nature could at a sex and station. The authoress is thoroughly glance, possibly find out that she meant to rep-English in her character, and has evidently resent an elegant woman." lived in the best society, and visited most of the Courts of Europe. She has a fine imagina tion which has strewed flowers over every quipoise by the exquisite delicacy of her perceptions, the correctness of her judgment, and her strong sense of religious and moral duty .-

THE MIRROR OF THE GRACES OR TH ENGLISH LADY'S COSTUME.

By a Lady of Distinction .- Calcutta.

It is unjust and dangerous to hold out false as he could wish. In the undisputed posses. Ing this service sh returned to N. York. War relieve him from his suspense, when I sneezed will be equally divided between the places as lights to young persons; for, finding that their sion of this village we remained that night. The having been declared between the United with a second and still louder explosion, that foresaid or their immediate vicinities. Terms, guides have in one respect designedly led them ensuing morning was spent in manœuvering, States and Great Britain, she sailed from this seemed to shatter the very nose from my face. $8 the Spring's chance, which will be discharge lion can be the consequence.

to mingle. Let them know its real opinions on so rapidly upon them. The lines now advan 1812. Her se and the soft avowal of mutual love was just to the fact; a thorough and practical conviction the subjects connected with themselves as wo- ced. Our regiment was opposed to the 8th of der Capt. Lawrence, was in company with the trembling upon the tip of my tongue, when I of it has induced the purchase of the fine anifrom them what society thinks and expects on strong. We gave them four successive volleys, separated from that ship on the coast of Brazil, my nose! Lady Susan, Lady Susan! - it was them oright. more estimable mind. We may safely teach a weil educated girl that virtue ought to wear an to decorate herselt in comely apparel. Bu we must never cease to remember that it is virtue beautiful form; for that, if it possess not the nous maid, that while beauty attracks its influband, the esteem of friends, and the respect of the world.

them, of the same nature."

There is graphic power, with great beauty of tory of dress :--

peach-bloom on her cheek, the downcast soft- by your gallantry, and I hope that your brat | Boston in December, having been absent near | scriber, where he can be immediately satisfie !

mess of her consenting eye.

painter.

the statues of her virgins, her matrons, and her French column, which seemed to threaten us Smith, and was employed in the West Indies empresses, show, in every portico of her an- with instant annihilation, wavered, and before it and Gulf of Mexico. In 1824, she was commancient streets, the graceful fashions of her Gre- had time to recoil, another salute served to com. | ded by capt. Stephen Cassin; and in 1825 capt.

cian presince. shape, the soft, unfettered hair, gave place to from the field.

iron bodice, stiff farthingale, and spiral coffure troops, under the command of Sir Brevet tain Claxton sailed again in May 1828, cruised each week for the space of three successive of the middle ages. The courts of Charlemagne, Spence,) lost upwards of 6,000 men. When in the West Indies, and returned to New York | weeks, in one of the newspapers printed in the of our Edwards, Henries and Elizabeth, all exhi- our regiment was mustered, it was found to in November. Captain Otho Norris assumed town of Easton. bit the figures of women as if in a state of siege. have lost 2 captains, 17 other officers killed and the command on the 19th of December 1828, Such lines of circumvallation and outworks- | wounded, and 570 privates. Many of these | and sailed from New-York, on the 4th of Feb. such impregnable bulwarks whalebone, wood, were individuals with whom I lived on the ruary, 1829, on a cruise in the West Indies and steel; such impassable mazes of gold, silver, most intimate footing of friendship; their loss and Gulf of Mexico, from which he never resilk, and furbelows, met a man's view, that. be. was deeply deplored. They had fallen far from jurned. he saw, she had passed from his sight; and he widow, an aged mother, or a plighted sweet- rous and extensive cruises of the late U. S. ship thirty. hearing, from an interested father or brother, fections, would often drop to their memory the few national vessels have ever performed great that the moving castle was one of the softer | tribute of a tear !- Eadles Recollections.

· When the arts of sculpture and painting in their fine specimens from the chisels of Greece country, taste began to mould the dress of our war Hornet. It is from the pen of J. T. Newfemale youth after their more graceful fashion. -The health-destroying bodice was laid aside essy shape and flowering drapery again resum- to the command of the Natches .- N. Y. Sen. ed the rights of nature and of grace. The bright hues of auburn, taven, or golden tresses. adorned the head in native simplicity; putting to dous burricane that swept along the coast of shame the few powerful toupees which lingered on the brow of prejudice and detormity.

. Thus, for a short time did the Graces indeed preside at the toilet of British beauty. But a these gentle handmaids. We see immodesty on one side, unveiling the too redundant bosom; on the other, deformity, once more draw-Here stands affectation, distorting the form into a thousand unnatural shapes—and there, ill This is an excellent book, with an absurd pre- taste, loading it with grotesque ornaments,

FIGHTING WITH THE BAYONET.

The great beauty of the work is, that all her lage, gave every indication of his intention to was converted into a ship. inviting aspect; that it is due to her excellence horse, and waiving his hat led us on. Never May 1813.

ence is trancient, unless it presents itself as the commenced a discharge of musketry; at this in 1814, the Hornet sailed in company with the harbinger of that good sense and principle stant I saw the reins drop from his hands, and Peacock, but separated from that ship, when which can alone secure the affection of a hus- in the next, he tumbled to the ground By the out a few days. She then proceeded to the faithful zeal of those that ran to afford him as Island of Tristan d'Acunha, the first place of sistance, he was speedily borne from the field. rendezvous, and arrived there on the 23d of Show her that regularity of features and sym He survived only a few days. His death was la March. On that day, she fell in with and capmetry of form, are not essentials in the compose mented by every one under his command. — tured his Britannic Majesty's sloop, of war Pen- tured his Britannic Majesty's sloop, of war P sition of the woman, whom the wise man would When we came to the charge with the bayonet, guin. A few days after this action, she was select as the partner of his life. Seek as an the person with whom I had to encounter in joined by the Peacock and Tom Bowline; the example, some one of your less fair acquaint. his trying and dreadful moment, exhibited ra. latter vessel being a store ship, was converted ance, whose sweet disposition, gentle manners, ther an athletic appearance. With infuriated into a cartel, and despatched to St. Salvador and winning deportment render her the light looks he assailed me, and thrust the point of his with the prisoners. of her kindred, the dear solace of her husband bayonet into my chin; but by a sudden retro- On the twelfth of April, the Hornet left the Show your young and lovely pupil, what use gression, I got rid of it. Without losing one Island of Tristan d'Acunha for the Cape of Good this amisble woman has made of her few talents; moment's opportunity, I rushed on him, and Hope, and on the twenty-eighth she was chasand then call on her to cultivate her more ex-traordinary endowments to the glory of her Cre-in as elevated a position as formerly, I buried (which lasted thirty-six hours she fired many ator, the honor of her parents, and to the main- my bayonet in his breast. I speedily extrica- shot into the Hornet, at the distance of not more tenance of her own happiness in both worlds. ted my steel, he fell, and was numbered among than three quarters of a mile. The Hornet ar-To do this, requires that her aims should be the stain. Though our charge was again suc- rived at St. Salvador in June, without guns, Bayside on Wednesday, the 24th inst. - at the virtuous, and the means she employs to reach cessful, yet the battle continued to rage in this boats, anchors or cables, it having been found Trappe on Saurday, the 3d of April, and will place as hot and sanguinary as ever, from the necessary to throw them overboard, during the attend the above stands once a fortnight during neavy columns of infantry that kept pouring in chase. After getting a supply of necessaries, the season. expression, in the following remarks on the his upon us. We had not received any orders to she left the above place for the United States, retire, nor had any regiment come to our sup- and arrived in New York on the thirtieth of Ju-When innocence left the world, astonished port. Our ranks were getting very thin. We ly, when in consequence of the ranfication of $6 the Spring's chance, $12 to insure a mare man blushed at his own and his partner's naked had two captains killed, and all our ensigns fell peace, she was laid up in ordinary until the year in foal, $4 the single leap, and 25 cents to the ness, and coverings were soon invented. For in this battle. Major -, of the 42d, came 1818. many an age the twisted foliage of trees, and and took the command of our discressed regi- In that year she was again put in commission the skins of beasts, were the only garments ment. He saw that a mournful duty had de and captain George C. Read ordered to her as which clothed our ancestors. Decoration was volved upon him, but with a countenance that her commander. She sailed for the West In- His sire the imported horse Eagle, his dam by unknown, excepting the wild flower, placked bespoke intrepidity, and lively bopes of suc- dies in February, and after cruising there for the imported horse Bedford, his grand dam a from the luxuriant shrub, the shell from the cres, he addressed us as follows :- Men of the some time, proceeded to the North Sea and the full blooded mare raised by S. G. Fauntleroy, beach, or the perry of the tree. Nature was 79 ! The honour of commanding and leading Baltic, and brought home from Copenhagen, of King & Queen county, Va. then unsophisticated; and the laver needed no you into action, has this day been conferred on our Consul General Mr. Forbes; and several A other attraction to his bride's embrace, than the me. You have already schieved many things merican seamen, (mutineers.) She arrived at be thorough bred will please call on the sun.

earth and Ambition bestrode it, the gem and one success. Let us then meet the enemy, my | neam and the coast of Spain; and was employed | the silken fleece, the various products of the brave fellows! and may the Lord protect and in carrying out our minister Mr. Forsyth; she Fifth Subscriber having removed from the form and the Tyrian mystery of dies all united bless us! At the conclusion of this animating then returned to New-York, and in June 1820 | Union to the Easton Hotel, lately occur. to give embellishments to beauty, and splendor address we again joined in combat. My com- left there on another cruise to the Canary and pied by Mr. Thomas Peacock, and formerly by to majesty of mien. But even at that period, rade at this time received a shot through the Cape de Verd Islands, and the Coast of Africa; himself, begs leave most respectfully to tender when the east and south laid their decorating body. He lingered a few hours until his spirit, she continued on that cruising ground for two his grateful acknowledgements to his numerous riches at the feet of women, we see by the emancipated from its earthly tenement, winged months; from the trades' customers andifriends who have heretofore housculpture yet remaining to us, that the dames its way to the throne of the Creator who gave to the West Indies, and cruised there for some oured him with their calls, and at the same time of Greece (the then exemplars of the world) it existence. Bullets were flying like hailstones, time, and returned to New York in January, to solicit them and the public in general for were true to the simple laws of just taste. The and on every hand of me various persons were 1821. amply folding robe, cast round the harmonious dropping off the stage of time, into the bound. In March following she sailed again for the form, the modest clasp and zone on the bosom, less ocean of eternity, while I alone remained West Indies under the same commander, she the braided bair, or the veiled head; these were as scaitbless and uninjured as if it had only was employed in giving convoy to the Spanish Is now in complete order for the reception of the fashions alike of the wife of a phocion and been a dream that arrested my midnight sium- troops and citizens from Pensacola to the Ha- travellers and others, and the proprietor pledgthe mistress of an Alcibiades. A chastened bers. Being thus so hotly engaged in repelling vana, after the entry into that place by Gene- es himself to spare no labour or expense to rentaste ruled at their toilets; and from that hour the almost overwhelming numbers of the ene- ral, now President Jackson. In September der every comfort and convenience to those to this, the forms and modes of Greece have my, the 88th or Connaught Rangers, were sent 1821, she arrived again in New York, and soon who may favour him with their custom. been those of the poet, the sculptor and the to our assistance. As they were just descend- after, Captain Robert Henley, succeeded Cap- Private parties can at all times be accommoing from a rising ground immediately behind tain Read in the command of this ship, and sail- dated and Horses, Hacks and Gigs, with careful Rome, Queen the world! the proud dicta us, they fired a volley over our heads. This ed in October following for the West India sta- drivers, furnished to go to any part of the Penintress to Athenian and Spartan dames, disdained was a most terrible discharge of musketry, and tion. not to array herself in their dignified attire; and in its effects it was awfully destructive. The 1823, she was commanded, by capt. Sidney ton, who was seven years on board of the un-

The United States sloop of war Hornet, which is supposed to have foundered in the tremen-Mexico, in the early part of last September, was built as a brig in Baltimore, in the year 1805 .-In the summer of that year, captain, now Comnet to Captain John H. Deni.

skill and grace many acts of an apparently in he succeeded in the attainment of his desired Lawrence joined her as her comminder, and sneeze, did you ever! Of all the awkard occur- are rarely combined in one of his species. His different nature are connected with some sort object. He had not, however, long time to sailed for N York, where she took on board rences! of duty, or some feeling of propriety. We give calculate upon the advantage resulting from his Messrs. Biddle and Tayloe, who were proceed. The Major started, as, indeed, well he might, mencing at the former place on SATUHDAY. our first extract from the preliminary observa- capture; for, before the dusky evening appear | ing to France and England, as bearers of des. but presently recovered himself-so did l; he the 27 h of March, and the following TUESDAY ed, he was driven out of it in as gallant a style patches to those governments. After perform- gazed at me tenderly, and I was just about to at Easton-and each week during the season nothing but disappointment, error, and rebel- respective positions, our flank companies being in the chase of the Belvidere frigate, and after- avoid the shower bath that was unintentionally and 25 cents in each case to the groom. man, compainions, friends, relatives, - Hide not Bonaparte's imperial Guards, upwards of 1500 Constitution, Commodore Bambridge; having felt something just trembling upon the up of mal whose services are offered to the public. all these matters; but fail not to show them at and then closed upon them with the bayonet. the Hornet captured many very valuable prizes, beginning to bleed!-did you ever !-Of all the the same time, where the fashions of the day Dreadfully destructive was this unsheathed west and blockaded, from the sixth to the twenty. distressing moments! I struggled to withdraw would lead them wrong; where the laws of pon, and never was it more nimbly handled in a fourth of January 1813, the Bonne Citovenne, my hand, that I might get my handkerchief, an Heaven and man's approving (though not al- field of battle than at this time. They fell in in the harbor of St. Salvador, when the Mon- action which the Major attributed to my coyways submitting) reason, would always keep heaps before it. Never can any pen pourtray tague 74 hove in sight, and chased her off - ness, and therefore did but grasp it the more the horrors of such a scene. Pressing forward, While cruising off Pernambuco, she captured firmly. In this contest, after I had frightfully Let religion and morality be the foundation and presenting the purple steel to those that the British brig Resolution of ten guns—this spotted my tabbinett silk gown, three blood of the female character. The artist may then remained, we trampled upon the dead, the dy- vessel had twenty-three thousand dollars in spe- drops of an unusually large size fell upon the adorn the structure without any danger to its ing, and the wounded, alike unheeded and un | cie on board. The Hornet then cruised some | Majors's wrist! He started up in an agony; I safety. - When a girl is instructed on the great heard The remains of this apparently formi- time on the coast of Maranham and Summam, closed my eyes and sunk into a chair, overpurposes of her existence; she is an immortal dable corps, amounting to 400, terrified at the and off Demerara. On the twenty-fourth of whelmed with confusion. Imagining I had faintbeing, as well as a mortal woman; you may, awtol slaughter which our bayonets had ocra. February, she fell in with, and captured his ed the Major hastily seized a large tumbler as we admire the beauty of the rose, as well as tion. We were not long, however, without an ter this action she returned to the United it in my face. - At such an unexpected sousing, esteem is medical power, so her personal enemy. A body of fresh troops, seemingly as States, and arrived at Holmes' Hole. in March I screamed with surprise and terror. The Macharms will be dear in the eyes of him whose superior in number as the former, wheeled in 1813, having been absent one hundred and for- reschal powder which I then wore—! was alheart is occupied by the graces of her yet with astonishing rapidity, and filled up the va- ty-five days. In a few days she proceeded to ways famous for my powder—mingling with the coum. To charge the troops, our colonel, after New York, and Capt. James Biddle succeeded water and blood, converted my face into a hide-forgot. We must impress upon the yet ingen- the batile field, or inspire us with his words. New York, intended to cruise under Commo- altogether a scene for a tragedy. As we advanced to the charge, the enemy dore Decatur in the East Indies. In January, exercions, in what yet remains to be accom- ly ten months. She very soon after sailed again In after times, when Avarice ploughed the plished, will in the end be crowned with glori- under the same commander, for the Mediterra.

plete its confusion. The havoc which was now | Edmund P. Kennedy, was her commander-in The irruption of the Goths and Vandals made among the troops was dreadful. It was 1826 capt. Woodhouse was ordered to hermade it needful for women to assume a more in vain that they showed resistance; they were cruised for some time in the West Indies, and repulsive garb. The flowing robe, the easy completely repulsed on every hand, and driven returned to Norfolk; at which place capt. Alex ander Claxion took command of her-proceed. | ratrix of William T. Clark, late of Talbot county skirts, shortened for flight or contest—to the Massena in this desperste attempt to relieve ed to the West Indies, and return to New York | deceased—It is ordered, that she give the notice hardened vest, and head buckled in gold or Almeida (which, being the only fortified town December 7th, 1827. Capt. Claxion sailed a. required by law for creditors to exhibit their that the French were now in possession of at gain in May 1828, cruised in the West Indies, claims against the said deceased's estate, and Thence, by a natural descent, have we the this time, was closely invested by a body of our and returned, to New York in November. Cap. that she cause the same to be published once in fore he had time to guess it was a woman that their country, and perchance had left a solitary From the preceding narrative of the numeer or more important services than she has done. Of her class of ships she was always considered a peculiar favorice in our navy. In We copy from the Sailor's Magazine the fol- the list of her various commanders, and other and the pencils of Italy, were brought into this lowing interesting account of the U S. sloop of officers attached to her at different times will be found the names of many of our distinguish. ed heroes, who have contributed to fill the mea -brocades and whalebone disappeared; and the fortunate ship, and has recently been appointed | hem will be seen the honored name of the late heroic and lamented Lawrence, whose expiring orders to those around him, "dont give up the ship!"-will be the watch-word of American commanders, in every furure naval conflict.

THE OLD MAID'S FIRST OFFER.

I must tell you the heart-rendering story-I modore Isaac Chauncey, was appointed to the have long wished to do so, and the time is at strange caprice seems now to have dislodged command of her. In October, Capt Chauncey length arrived. [Here her voice dropped into sailed from Baltimore for New York. Shortly a solemn confidental whisper] Poor dear Major after his arrival at the latter port, he received Ogilvie, who is now dead and gone-heigho!orders to proceed in the Hornet to Hampton had been long showing me very marked attening the steeled bodice upon the bruised ribs, Roads and on his arrival there, received further tions; in fact, paying me his addresses, though orders to sail for Charleston, and to cruise off he had never made his declaration; when one our commerce against the depredations of pri- nelli-s-the music I believe was Glucks's, -ah! vateers; which at that time so frequently annoy you should have heard the Major; he was a sweet ed and interrupted our merchant vessels along singer! - well, the Dictor had gone out to buy that coast. In the discharge of the du ies con a new invented fish-sauce, -poor, dear man, he Under the latter commander, she was fitted | went down on one knee before me-ah! there and best manner. out, and soon after sailed for the Mediterrane- | was gallantry in those days! - and, taking my | The public's obed't serv't. The small village of Fuentos de Nava, was an where she remained until ordered to re | hand, which he tenderly pressed, made a paspage of the volume; but it is always kept in e he spot where our forces were concentrated. turn to the United States. After her arrival, sionate avowal of his love! I felt myself blush-On the day following our arrival, Massena, hav. | Capt. Hunt commanded her for some time, and ling crimson deep, when, at this agitating moing crossed the river Agueda, and taken up his made several cruises in her, and in 1810 she ment, just as I was about to utter a paipualing position at no great distance from the same vil- proceeded to Washington, at which place she confession of my partiality, my eyes began to FMTHIS JACK was imported from Malta last twinkle; I felt a tingling at my nose; my mouth | June, and is 5 years old the ensuing spring. precepts and rules on the subject of conduct, dispute the possession of it. Towards the af In 1811 the Horner left Washington for Nor. opened in spite of myself, and I sneezed like Having ascertained his qualifications from unmanners, dress, &c. flow as deductions from ternoon, he commenced carrying his view into f lk, in charge of Mr. Henry E. Ballard, her an explosion of gun powder, full in his upturn- doubted authority—the subscribers can confiher code of morals and sentiment. It is plea execution; and, having made a vigorous attack first lieutenant, now commander of the Bran. ed and imploring face! Now tell me, Lady dently recommend him, as possessed of fine spising to see how far this is carried, and with what upon it, which produced a smart engagement, dywine. At Norfolk, the late lamented James Susan, you know how tremendously I always rit, vigor, and good temper-qualities which ing stolen a watch. She was, in a twofold sense, at 6 o'clock. P. M. an old offender. [Phd Journal.

Shannondale is a dark sorrel, near 16 nands high, of great son on the 23d inst.

at Easton-in the

-TERMS-

Groom in every case.

Any gentleman do bting the above Horse to JAS. BARTLETT, Jr.

REMOVAL.

heir patronage.

THE EASTON HOTEL

sula. The public's ob't. serv't.

SOLOMON LOWE.

MARYLAND: TALBOT COUNTY ORPHANS' COURT,

February Term, Anno Domini, 1930. On application of PRISCILLA CLARK, Adminis-

In testimony that the foregoing is truly copied Talbot county Orphaus' Court, I have hereunto set may hand, and the seal of my office affixed, this 4th day of March, in the year of our Lord eighteen hundred and Test, JAS. PRICE, Reg'r. of Wills for Talbot county.

IN COMPLIANCE WITH THE ABOVE ORDER,

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, That the subscriber of Talbot county, hath obtained from the Orphans' Court of said county, in Maryland, letters of Administration on the sure of their country's naval glory. Among personal estate of Wm. T. Clark, late of Talbot county, deceased. All persons having claims against the said deceased's estate are hereby requested to exhibit the same with the proper vouchers thereof, to the subscriber, on or before the 18th day of September; they may otherwise by law be excluded from all benefit of the said es ate. Given under my hand this 4th day of March, A. D. eighteen hundred and thirty.

PRISCILLA CLARK, Administratrix of William T. Clark, deceased.

mar 16

BOOTS & SHOES.

FATHE Subscriber most respectfully begs leave to inform his friends and the public in genhe harbor of that city, for the protection of morning, after having sung me a song of Fari- eral, that he has just returned from Baltimore with A HANDSOME ASSORTMENT OF tricks, but to cultivate her understanding, to in- sacked to equip a modern fine lady -and, after nected with that important service, he contin does like to have his fish well dressed -and t re and having taken some pains to prucure the spire her with pure and elevated sentiments, all, she may perhaps strike a cotempory beau ned until March 1806, when, by order of the member he took Franchette, my little beauty best of Workmen from the City, he hopes that Secretary of the Navy, he returned to New of a spaniel, with him, so that the Major and I he will be able to please all those who may fa-York, and resigned the command of the Hor- were all stone in the breakfast parlour, when, vor him with their custom, as he is determined looking beseechingly in my face, he suddenly to have his work done in the most fashionable

JOHN WRIGHT.

Easton, may 19

BASHAW.

stands will be at the Trappe and Easton, comastray, they may be led likewise to reject as but the next was a day of conflict and of death port on the 21st of January 1812, as one of the This was a confusion! Still pressing my im- ed by the payment of $5, by the 25th of Octountrue all else they have been taught; and so | Shortly after both armies had taken up their quadron under Commodore Rogers; she joined | pristoned hand, but looking downwards, as if to | ber - $10 to ensure - $2 50 the single leap sent out to the front of the lines, commenced wards assisted at the capture of eight vessels scattering around me, he swore that he would | The Mule is preferable to all animals for the Let girls, advancing to womanhood, be told skirmishing, but were soon forced to give during that cruise she remained with the never rise from his posture until I had pro- general purposes of Agriculture, and those farthe true state of the world with which they are ground, owing to the French columns advancing squadron until its arrival in Boston, August 31st, nounced his doom. I uttered a heartfelt sigh, mers who have bred and used them will testify without fearing ill impressions, show her, that sioned, turned about and fled with precipits. Britannic Majesty's sloop of war Peacock. Af. of water, which stood on a side table, and threw Via Delaware City, St. George's, Middletown, From Philadelphia to Centreville, Maryland, Warwick, Head of Sassatras, and Head of Chester, to Centreville.

N. GOLDSBOROUGH. M. GOLDSBOROUGH.

Thisline is now running, and will continue a brief but animating address, put spors to his Captain Lawrence in the command of her in our spectacle; the door flew open, the faithful throughout the Season to leave Philadelphia by Franchette, thinking her mistress had been slain, the Steam Boat BALTIMORE, Captain W. Il hillding will the appearance he had at this time be era- The Hornet was again soon prepared for sea, flew at the poor dear Major, and bit a large from Pine Street Wharf, on Monday, Wednesdicated from my mind; his bright sparkling and joined the squadron under Commodore De- mouthful out of his left leg, while the transfixed day and Friday Mornings, at 6 o'clock, for Delwe seek to adorn. It must not be merely a eyes, which manifested the courage of his catur which was chased into New Lon- and horror stricken Doctor suffered the bottle aware City; there to take the CANAL PACKIT breast; -his martial aspect, delightful to gaze don harbor in June and blockaded there. Cap of newly discovered fish-sauce to fall from his Boar Labr Clinton, for St. George's, and from charm of intelligence, the bond of rational ten- at, and the tone in which he utered his address, tain Biddle obtained permission to attempt his hand, and be smashed to pieces on the floor! thence in Stages to Middletown, Warwick. derness, is a frame without a soul; a statue, all showed that he was a true warrior; but, alast escape in the Hornet, and succeeded in evading My dearest Lady Susan! consider what must Head of Sassafras, which we look on and admire, pass away and it was the last time he was ever to head us on the British squadron, and joining a force in have been my feelings! did you ever? It was ville; arriving at Centreville the same Evening at Eight o'clock.

Returning, leaves Centreville on Tuesday. Thursday and Saturday Mornings, at 4 o'clock. A woman eighty-three years of age was con- arriving at Delaware City in time to take the victed to the Mayor's Court on Monday, of have Steam Boat to Philadelphia, and arriving there Connected with the Dispatch Line is a line of Stages from Centreville to Easton, leaving Centreville on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday Returning, leaves Solomon Lowe's Tavern.

Easton, on Monday, Wednesday and Friday, at 1 o'clock, P. M., and takes the Dispatch Line the morning following for Philadelphia.

There is also in connection with this Line a bone and muscular Stage to convey Passengers from the Baltin ore Steam Boat Patuxent, at Georgetown, to intercondition, and will and to convey Passengers from Massey's Cross Roads, commence his sea. Roads to the Steam Boat.

Passengerscoming in this Line for Newcastle or Wilmington, will meet a Stage from Lover at St. George's. From hiladelphia to Delaware City, $1 25 St. George's, Middletown, Warwick, Head of Sassafras 2 5 Head of Chester, 3 Centreville. MULFORD, BRADSHAW & Co., Proprietora

For Rent and Possession, ASMALL TENEMENT, a few doors a. bove the Union Tavern, on Washington street well calculated for an Office. For terms apply at the STAR OFFICE.