22D. CONGRESS.

IN SENATE.

WEDNESDAY, Feb. 22.

the House, on Monday, were passed.—Some for adjournment. He will resume his remarks private bills were matured.—At one o'clock, this day. Mr. Clay's resolution was taken up, and Mr. Miller spoke two hours in apposition to it, when he gave way to a motion to adjourn.

President for pare of the Treaty, concluded with the President tion thus modified, was agreed to, Yeas 92, ble : ed over to Thursday.

Clayes resolution was taken up after the mor States. floor for this day.

ning the qualifications of votes in the Territo | rent market price. Committee rose, reported the bills, and the dent in any one State. House adjourned.

communicated a letter from the Governor of any of its Branches, in payment of debts due the bers of Congress to office? See my precepts. around the inclusure. Virginia, transmitting the resolutions adopted said corporation.

Monday. In the House of Representatives, Mr. Watmough, from the Committee on Naval Affairs, ed, and others may be desirous to possess the first message. Are you for it? Read my last, ledge of the fact, that several species of them, reported a bill to reorganize the United States corpse of marines Various local bills were reported from the Standing Committee. At an early hour, the House went into Committee of the Whole, on the bill for the benefit of Mrs. Susan Decatur. An animated discussion ensued. in which Mesers, Carson, Wickliffe, Drayton, Doddridge, McDiffie, White, of Louisiana, Pearce, Howard, E. Everett, Burges and Wilde participated. On motion of Mr. Warmough the committee rose, reported progress, and the house adjourned.

The Senate did not sit on Saturday.

submitted a resolution calling on the President Measrs. Patton, Polk, and Cambreleng, addressfor a copy of the instructions to the agent who ed the House in favor of the resolution; and negociated the treaty with the Sublime Porte | Messrs. Jenifer, Branch, Huntington, in opposi-The resolutions submitted by Mr. Branch on tion to it. Mr. Mitchell, of S. Carolina, is enthe 23d inst, calling on the Secretary of the Na. titled to the floor to-day. vy for information respecting the live oak on the public lands in Florida, &c. were taken up Mr White of Florids, offered amendments proposing to extend the inquiry. A discussion of an acrimonious and personal character occurred so opportunely as did that glorious centennial between Messrs Branch and White. The a- day, which has just past. It came, as if to awaat the instance of Mr. Branch, and, together dom, and of those great virtues, under the guiwith the original resolutions, were agreed to by dance of which our nation was ushered into exthe House. The bill granting letters patent for istence. There is not a citizen who participauseful discoveries to certain sliens, were passed. ted, in any way, whether in silently witnessing which surround us and immediately administer tion, under your especial care, to New York .-- The H use resumed, in Committee of the the procession, or in his retirement, pondering to our wants by supplying us with food and rai- Tis the same canvass which was first pitched lief of Susan Decatur, et al. The amendment and the future; or as a member of the extended proposed by Mr. Pearce in favor of the nieces line of grateful freemen, who did not feel proud But had we power to embrace a more extend. as a banqueting hall, at Youn Town, to enter. round about his mule, but unable to get at him, of Commodore Decatur, was further discussed of his country, proud of those who made it free, ed view of this part of creation, we might prob- tain the gallant Cornwallis, a prisoner and a on account of the mule's constantly kicking with by Messrs. E. Everett, Watmouth, Rencher, and proud, especially proud of Washington.

TURSDAY, Feb. 28.

sented several petitions in favor of the abolition that our country was degraded; that her sons of slavery in the District of Columbia. A num | had forgotten, in the fervour of gratitude for a ber of memorials in favor of the renewal of the single benefit the respect due to our national charter of the United States Bank, were pre- character, to our private and social harmony, sented. Mr. White, from the Committee on and all that imparts dignity to us as a people ! not having concluded, he gave way to a motion to adjourn.

In the House of Representatives, numerous memorials and permons were presented. Mr. Archer, from the Committee on Foreign Affairs, that must carry conviction home to every boreported a bill to carry into effect the Convention between the United States and France. concluded at Paris on the 4th July, 1831. Mr. Archer, from the same Committee, reported a bill to smend the act fixing the compensation of the Ministers and Consule of the United States residing on the B rhary coast, and for other purposes. Mr. McDuffie, from the Com. millee of Ways and Means, reported a bill making appropriations for Indian annuities and other similar objects, for the year 1832. Mr. Plummer, from the Committee on the Public Lands, reported a bill to remove the Land Office from Mount Salus to Jackson, in the State of Mississippi. - Mr. Hall, of North Carolina, trum the Committee on Public Expenditures, reported a bill to establish a unitorm rule for computing the milesge of Members of Congrees. Mr. Barringer, from the Committee on the Milius, reported a bill to provide more eftecrostly for the national defence. The resobution submitted on Saturday last by Mr. Adams. was modified by the mover, and agreed to. -Mr. Clayton addressed the House in favor of the adoption of the resolution, and was fullowed by Mr. McDaffie in opposition thereto -When the latter gentleman had concluded, Mr. Patton obtained the floor, but the hour hereta. tore agreed upon for a recess, having expired. he gave way, and the House adjourned to meet again at 7 o'clock, P. M.

EVENING SESSION .- The House re-assembled | ded.

House adjourned.

WEDNESDAY, Feb. 29.

In the Senate, yesterday, Mr. Hayne introduced a bill extending the right of Debenture to Key West. The resolution respecting the In the Senate, yesterday, Mr. Chambers sub- Turiff, submitted by Mr. Clay, was taken up. mitted a resolution, amending the rules of the and Mr. Dallas resumed and concluded his Senate, by providing that the special order speech in its support. Mr. Forsyth then took shall not be called up till two o'clock, instead the floor, and after speaking some time in opof one .- The appropriation bills received from position to the resolution, gave way to a motion ate on the Tariff Question.

liffe, from the Committee on the Public Lands, expire, at soonest, until the 4th of March, 1833; habits of a most interesting portion of the ani Mr. Chapman grew worse rapidly; he complainreported a bill for the final adjustment of the and now you would have another on the back mal creation. In the House of Representatives, Mr. frvin, claims for land in the South Eastern Land Dis- of this! The tribes of Israel (and they were a | Another consideration naturally presents - plained of suffering the most excruciating pain, from the Committee on the Public Lands, re. per in the State of Louisiana. Wr. Doddridge, discontented set) were satisfied with one year Having shown that many small birds derive their and vomittee at intervals of ten or fifteen minp red a hill to reduce and graduate the price from the Committee on the District of Colum. In fifty. Then all debts were cancelled, all food from the insects with which they are sur- utes. Mrs. Chapman was requested to send for of he public lands, which was committed to a bia made a report on so much of the President's prisoners released and those who had been in rounded; it remains to be considered whether, a physician, but she refused. - On l'uesday a Committee of the Whole on the state of the U. Message as related to the expediency of grant lands had them re- by affording shelter and protection to the for- similar request was made, but without effect. nion. The House proceeded to the considers- ing to the ci izens of this District, a Delegate in stored. The poor Indians would, I think, be mer, they may not be multipled to an unlimited A gentleman who visited Mr. C. was driven tion of the resolution proposed by Mr. E. Eve- Congress, or a territorial government, conclu- satisfied with such a jubilee. But, on the 4th extent-and if so, whether they might not be from his room, no witstanding Mr. C.'s earnest rett. (as modified by the mover,) calling on the ding with a resolution, adverse to the views of of March. 1829, you blew the temployed to counteract the vast increase of request that he might remain. Late in the eve-

the Chickasaw tribe of Indians in the year 1830. Mr. Root gave notice, that when the bill for and I am sure more and greater blessings were have taken place within a few years. &c. Mr. Everett again modified his resolution. re chartering the Bank of the U. States should anticipated than the Israelites ever enjoyed in Every one must have remarked the salutary by Mrs. C.'s orders, not a particle was admin-

some time in Committee of the Whole on the ty-five Directors for the management of the af he can get no forther off! He has, moreover, experience in affording a sale asylum to a colo- Mina, and as soon as she became informed that state of the Union, upon the bill making appro- fairs of the said incorporation, eleven shall be invented, and sent off polices, fit for any size or my of the Purple Grakle, or common Crow suspicions were excited against her, without of. priations for the army for the year 1832, and appointed by the President of the United States, lam the fa- Black Bird. This species of birds, I am fully fering a word of explanation, she promptly atthe general appropriation bill for 1832. Va. by and with the advice and consent of the Sen- ther of the democratic party. Are you for a convinced, afford a substantial aid to the bus. tempted an escape. These are the points rious amendments were adopted, when the ste, not more than five of whom shall be resi malgamation? See my first Cabinet - poor fel. band-man, in destroying voracious worms and which the counsel for the prosecution informed bills of the Mother Bank, or any of its Branchs lected, that I was determined to make up for pecially when we reffect that even this may be pondent we learn that the trial of Mina has been In the Senate on Priday, the Vice President es shall be receivable at the Mother Bank or lost time! Are you against appointing mem- avoided by scattering a small quantity of grain postponed till the April session of the Court.

the subject of the removal of the remains of Geo. stitution of the United States gave a bonus of pursuing with the instruments of death, these reach of summary process; to be taken and used Washington from Mount Vernon. Some pri. one million five hundred thousand dollars for its the same day, embracing the same principles is harmless companions of our toil, and to whom, as evidence. vate bills were acted on, and at one o'clock, the charter. It offered the like sum for a renewal approved by Andrew Jackson! Are you for independent of any poetic embellishment, a In Mrs. Chapman's case, the prosecution clo-Senate proceeded to the consideration of Exec of its charter in 1801. The present bank of nullification? I had no power (do you see) to country life owes many of its charms. Is it not sed on Wednesday afternoon. Mr. McCall outive business, after which they adjourned to fered the United States the like bonus for its execute a law nor even a treaty, against the strange that we should suffer the abodes of pened her defence in a speech of about an hour, charter, and, upon the same principle, ought to will of a sovereign State! Are you against these innocent songsters to be visited with de which was marked by eloquence and feeling. pay that or a larger sum for its renewal or ex- it? Read my letter to the Charleston-dinner- vastation, by ever idler who may seek the bar- It is expected that the whole case will be contension. But, as some of the State having claim. eaters. - Are you against the Bank? Read my barous gratification? And with a full know. Cluded on Monday. right of 'axing the said bank or its branches And to come to he subject directly before us, have bid a final idieu to our fields and orchards, ing highly important that harmony between the that subject, I am this, that, or nothing, and pre- their wild notes to the listening waste." General and State Governments should be cher- cisely as you please, gentlemen! Now with all ished and perpetuated; therefore, bonus, the right of taxing the said bank, and 118 jubilee! What a delightful variety! - Are you served in its wing. proportional extent, as they do their own local expect to find greater than under this nondesbanks is conceded to the States, respectively, cript administration." in which the same may be situated.

The House resumed the considerations of the resolution, proposed by Mr. Clayton, for the appointment of a Select Committee to examine in In the House of Representatives, Mr. Adams to the affairs of the Bank of the United States

To the Editor of the Amer. Daily Adver.

Dear Sir-Never did a period of time arrive

McDuffie, Anderson and Pearce. The smend- The period was opportune, because it came ment was rejected A motion was then made as if to place in contrast the past with the preto strike out the enacting clause of the bill, be | sent. The history of the times of Washington fore the question was taken, the Committee, at of Adams, of Jefferson, of Madison, Monroe, and the instance of Mr Dave, of Massachusetts, of the second Adams, came with the day. Who, rose, reported progress, and the House adjour | of all the assembled multitude, was there that did not feel humbled in comparing our present head with either of those great statesmen? Who, in placing their characters side by side, In the Senate, yesterday, Mr. Webster, pre- their private and their public acts, did not feel

Indian Affairs, reported a bill establishing the Alas! .las! - How has our glory become dim! office of Superintendent of Indian Affairs. Mr. And our gold, what is it but dross! True, our Clay's resolution was taken up and Mr. Dalles country exists-the same sun shines-the inspoke two bours and a half in its support, when dustry of the husbandman produces his annual the great events of the world keep up its chanbut amidst a creaking of the machinery, a dissom, that he to whom, in evil hour, the great trust of maintaining our institutions in all their strength and vigor, has no knowledge of the el. "The sacred sons of vengeance on whose obedient servant, ements which compose them, and no skill in their management. We go on. True, Wash. Corrosive famine waits, and kills the year." the ruin of all!

Let not the people deceive themselves. Be- ting the feathered race. cause ignorance cannot efface the beautiful handy work of wisdom, which it took years of blood and toil to erect, in a day; let it not be inferred that it will not accomplish it in a week, or a year or two. The labors of a grant, work. portance of extending particular care to those ing to overthrow the pyramids, are not visible molish the pile. It is not in the nature of things that such a table kingdom. his, the structure should not fall.

rose, reported progress, and at a late hour the semblance to this great and glorious Chief. It of our smaller birds-from the Wren to the of birds for the South American market. is thus we can honor his memory. In vain are | Martin. all our parades and exhibitions of gratitude, if Many persons of leisure, have watched with ly after Mr. Chapman was taken ill. On the we do not follow his councils, and let his spirit | curious eye, the wonderful activity and perse- 19th of June, a physicism was sent for; he came, witness, that in filling the place he filled, we vering industry of these animated little crea- but thought it unnecessary to prescribe mediseek after the man who has in him, at least, tures, and have been astonished to behold the cine. On the Monday following. Mrs. Chapman some of the fitness and some of the virtues that mass of worms, caterpillars and other voraci- made some chicken soup for her husband; she adorned him. This would be true honor. AMERICANUS.

Extract from Mr. Holmes' speech in the Sen-

these blessings pouring in upon you like a tor. | I hompson. †Rogers. ‡ The fact of its branches in the same manner, and to the same not fond of varie y? If you are, you never can

> The following essay, was read by a member, before the Bucks County Academy of Natu rai Science, on the 15 h inst. and by a vote ing of the Common Council :of the Society directed to be published.

Important Auxiliaries to the Agriculturist.

tions of the earth with which we have been ton, to add lastre to the approaching celebrablessed by a boundful Providence, we are lost tion of the twenty second of February, in Now tor trial. Four of the crew appeared as witin wonder and admiration at the simple, yet York, I have to send you some of the General's nesses against him. [The ex parte preliminary efficient means, by which, in the economy of clothes: and as you propose to take charge of Nature, the chain of being is sustained. We the venerable Tent of Washington, that you ed with some grains of allowance ] shall also discover in the infinite grades of the may delight the veterans of the Revolution, enimal creation, a beautiful order and depen- whom the noble liberality of the Corporation of mendments were finally modified by the mover ken Americans to a contemplation of the wis- dence, that connect the most insignificant forms New York have invited to the ceremonial, by of animal life, with that endowed with the high- sight of the revered relique of their hero, their es giris of intelligence. Whole, the consideration of the bill for the re over the events of the past, and the present, ment, their utility is so obvious that it can be on the heights of Dorchester; and was, after pagne. A tarmer one day looking through the enhanced neither by illustration nor argument. the vicissitudes of a seven years' conflict, used edge of his garden, observed a wolf walking ably discover that we are almost equally indebt- guest. the natural history of many inferior tribes of two and thirty years. animals, that several of them derive their en- I pray you, my dear sir, to present me most few minutes, the wolf returned to the charge, tire subsistence by preying upon others. This respectfully to the Hon, the Corporation of N. and approaching as near as he could to the head has been particularly observed of several York, of which magnificent city I have some of the mule, shook himself and spurted a quanspecies of birds, whose tood is derived prin- early and interesting recollections, touching the tity of water into the mule's eyes, which caused cipally, if not entirely, from the vast swarms of first days of our happy government and the in. him immediately to shut them. That mom nt descructive insects, which annually lay waste auguration of '89. the tairest productions of our fields, orchards. To the society of the Cincinnati-the most before the farmer could come to his assistance. order in its parts, a confusion in its products, been wr ught by myria is of the insect race - of the revolution. which the poet of nature" has with much truth and feeling designated ingion and his great followers gave and sustain. But, in order to guard against this tremendous ed the impulse by the force of which our admi- evil, it will be found that the expedients of scatlarity, and harmony of the movement, and omi- orchard as recommended by the same accurate | ment : nous symptoms, show themselves threatening observer of Nature, will be far less efficacious, than the mere incidental suggestion for protec-

> " Nor while they pick them up with busy bill, The little trooping birds unwisely scares."

This brings us directly to consider the im-Various species of the feathered tribe, which peared, in a lone and distressed condition, at following copy of an anonymous note, received at the first, but give him time and he will de- derive almost their whole subsistence of Mr. William Chapman, at An by Mr. E in the course of the present week. sects—that in different forms prey on the vege. dalusia, in this county. He asked protection for with an enclosure of One Hundred and Ten Del-

man as General Jackson can maintain and keep The topic which first presents on the view of coption being cordial, as he was considered an rer of the Bunker Hill Monument Association. The resolution submitted on Thursday last by in motion, a system like ours, which it required this subject, is the fact, that many species of object of pity, he prolonged his stay. In a short Mr. Clayton of Georgia, for the app inment of the wisdem and virtue of Washington, and his birds do derive their food from those orders of time he contracted an intimacy with Mrs. Chapa Select Committee to Examine into the affairs noble band of coadjutors and followers, to build insects which are acknowledged to be noxious. man, which continued to increase daily, until of the Bank of the United States, was taken up. up. It would be a miracle if, in such hands as And this question need not detain us long : for Mrs. Cospman's affections became entirely diall who enjoy the usual opportunities of obser- vorced from her bushand, and given to the A quack may, for a season, hit upon remedi- vation must be convinced, from what they dis stranger. The evidence on this point will dis al prescriptions and keep his patient up-but cover in their daily works in the orchard, the close a scene of the bases and blackest crime. every dose he administers jeopards his life. | field or the garden, of the position. | An ill cit connexion was known to exist between In this view of the subject let the people look | l'ney will perceive in these rambles, that the the stranger and Mrs. C. Her friends and fan. at the mons rous attempt to break down the ju- principal portion of those birds which nestle in its saw it, and it aroused their warmest indigna diciary, and the U. S. Bank. These are seri- the vicinity of our barns, houses and orchards, non. So open and barefaced was the woman's ous premonitions! Let them not be disregar- lare, during many hours of the day, incessantly infamy, that no admonitions from her friends had jemployed in skimming the sir, or threading the the smallest effect upon her. She was repeat at 7 o'clock. On motion of Mr. Johnson of Ken- It is hoped that the day we have just passed mazes of foliage, in the pursuit of noxious in edly heard to express a wish that her husbantucky, the bill to establish certain Post Roads, may have shed up in us all the brightness of sects, abundant in those regions. This search was gone ther purposes, was considered in Committee of plation o' his wisdom and virtue, we may be led cies of swallows and other birds of the sparrow | dalusta and went to Philadelphia. While in to ments were agreed to, when the Committee to rate over us, except he bear at least some re- similar results, in the relation to the subsistence purpose, as he stated, of preparing a collection one ounce." - Bos. Trans.

ous insects, that they would collect in the course seasoned it while in the kitchen, and converof a single day, as food for their soung. It is it to the parlour, where no person was present stated by Mr. Bradley, in his Treatise on Hus- but this stranger. In his presence she mixed bendry and Gardening, "that a pair of Sparrows, poison with it, and took it up to Mr. Chapman, during the time they have their young, destroy Mr C partook of a small quantity, after which 3,360 caterpillars each week, or 240 for each it was thrown away, as also was the chicken of " The gentleman from South Carolina (Mr. bird daily." This fact may afford a specimen of which it was made. Ducks belonging to a Hayne) wants a jubilee !- What another, and so the information which every person may real- neighbouring farm, which were observed over In the House of Representatives, Mr. Wick- soon too? Sir, the one which you have will not ize, who has patience to examine minutely the the chicken and soup, died in a short time after.

jubilee was announced for four years at least, des ructive insects, that is acknowledged to ning, however, a physician was sent for; he directing the Committee on the Public Lands, come up for consideration, he would offer the all their jubilees. Very much was promised, influence of such projection, and the easy man- istered. In the morning the physician called ato elicit the information, which seemed to be following additional sections, as amendments and very much too was realized Editors, post. ner in which it may be afforded. 'The Mar- gain and asked if the medicine had been given. the object of the original inquire. The resolution which were read and laid upon the ta masters, and contractors were to have offices tines old, hereditary nest,' has furnished an ele- Mrs. C. replied no, and that it should not be. and it was so. Friends were to be rewarded gant poert with a most pleasing allusion to the Mr. C. lingered until the 23d when he expired Nays 77. At an early hour the House adjourn. And be it further enacted, That after the and enemies punished and it was so, with a joys of retrospection. And we are all familiar in great pair, from the effects of poison in his third day of March, 1836, there may be added vengeance; and even friends were massacred, with the domestic character of the Blue-Bird, stom ch. to the said Bank, by the United States, one hun | who were a stumbling block in the road to am- the Wren, and the Robbin. Of the last, I have | Thre months after, suspicions as to the cause In the Senate Thursday, Mr. Benton, from dead and fifty thousand shares, amounting to bition. Reform was to be thorough -and it is known a well-authenticated instance, of its re- of Mr. Chapman's death were excited by subsethe Committee on Military Affairs, reported a fifteen millions of dollars, to be created for that | so -so thorough that the President is now en- turning to the same twig of a tree for eleven | quent ransactions, and his body was disinterred bill repealing the laws establishing brevet rank purpose, and bearing an interest of three per gaged, most of his time in reforming his own re- successive years, to build, (or rather rapair) and his stomach examined, by several physicians. in the Army; also a bill to increase the num | cent per annum, pay ble quarter yearly, and formation! The Bank was to be abolished, and its nest But, let it recollected that the master | They came to the conclusion that his death had ber of Assistant Surgeons in the Navy. Mr | made redeemable at the pleasure of the United | a new one established, based on the mansion before which the tree grew, | neen occasioned by posson, and not by cholera enues; and as there is so large a surplus of these guarded the habitation of this songster, with at | morbus as had been given out. In the course ning business, and Mr. Miller concluded his And be it further enected. That it shall not all were to come and have what money they nost as much care and paternal fondaces, as it of the examination, said Mr. R. we shall lay bespeech in opposition to it. Mr. D.llas has the be lawful for the President, Directors & Co. of would! I mean all the friends of the Administ it had been one of his immediate family! And, fore you a letter from Mrs. Chapman to Mine. the said Bank to sell and transfer more than tratton-and it is to be so-that is, if the quest by practising the same kind of care in relation in which are several curious expressions, which In the House of Representatives, Mr. Clay three millions of the said stock, so to be creation can be postponed until after the next elec- to swallows, and other domestic birds to which can only be explained by reference to the heiton submitted a resolution for the appointment led, in any one year, nor to sell any part thereof, tion! - And, in addition to these you have en- we have alluded, doubtless the same happy re nous transaction, of a Select Committee to inquire into the at any time, without previously giving notice of joyed, and are still enjoying, many things which sult would be obtained. Our abodes would Mrs. Chapman ascribed her husbands death transactions of the Bank of the United States, their intention to the Secretary of the Treasactions of the Bank of the United States, their intention to the Secretary of the Treasactions of the United States, their intention to the Secretary of the Treasactions of the United States, their intention to the Secretary of the Treasactions of the United States, their intention to the Secretary of the Treasactions of the United States, their intention to the Secretary of the Treasactions of the United States, their intention to the Secretary of the Treasactions of the United States, their intention to the Secretary of the Treasactions of the United States, their intention to the Secretary of the Treasactions of the United States, their intention to the Secretary of the Treasactions of the United States, their intention to the Secretary of the Treasactions of the United States, their intention to the Secretary of the Treasactions of the United States, their intention to the Secretary of the Treasactions of the United States, the U with power to send for persons and papers. I ry, and giving the United States the refusal for a large quantity of was postponed until Monday next A bill defi fifteen days, of purchasing the same at the cur- ever did or can do; he has as it were annihila- and orchards, but by a numerous race of de- chicken; to others she called the mest beef; to ted space, and an American Minister is near to scendants through many generations. And this others pork; to others vest. In nine days after ry of Arkansas, was passed The House spent And be it further enacted, That of the twen- the court to which he is appointed so long as conclusion is exactly consonant with my own the death of Mr. Chapman, she was married to lows! Are you a federalis? See my last favor insects, which far more than counterbalances the jury they should now proceed to prove. And be it further enacted. That the notes or to one. The federalists nad been so long neg. any triffing injury done to his corn field, es. By an extract from our Doylestown corres-

Are you for 11? See my practices. Are you a. I cannot dismis this subject without advert. | condition that the prisoner's counsel should alby the Legislature of that Commonwealth, on The first bank incorporated under the Con- gainst Internal Improvements? See my Mays ing to the inhuman practice, so common, of low the depositions of all witnesses beyond the within their respective jurisdictions, and, it be- are you for or against a protective tariff! On to seek refuge in woods and thickets, 'To tune

Be it further enscied, That in lieu of such rent will you go away? No, stay and enjoy this dentity was inferred from a white feather ob-

To-day, in this city, and generally through out the land, the prople are engaged in cele sance of the charge is, that the deceased was brating the hundredth anniversary of the birth day of the Father of his country.

ARLINGTON HOUSE, Feb. 17, 1832

when you did me the honor to visit me to-day, of the decessed was Phelps - The accused un-When we contemplate the various product that I would furnish some reliques of Washing derwent an examination this morning before friend, and their country's preserver. I am With regard to the superior tribes of snimals preparing the same for immediate transports. markable degree the reflecting faculties of a

ed for the enjoyments of life, to very inferior | My old and favorite body servant, Philip Lee, agents; and that those which we generally view will at your request, accompany the reliques. sidered it unnecessary to render him any assistas insignificant and unworthy of notice, contri- Philip is the nephew of Washington's celebra | ance. After the attack and defence had lasted bute materially to administer to our necessi- ted revolutionary follower, Will Lee. Philip is fully a quarter of an hour, the wolf ran off to a ties That these considerations are not found- a highly intelligent, nay talented man, of gen- neighboring ditch, where he several times ed on mere conjecture is abundantly evinced tlemanly manners, and worthy of every confi. plunged into the water. The farmer imagined by the researches of naturalists. For, it has dence and consideration. He will not be my he did this to refresh himself after the tatigue been ascertained by those who have studied slave much longer-he has been my friend for he had sustained, and had no doubt that his and gardens. But with a full knowl dge of venerable association on earth, and to the old this fact, there are few who appear to be aware soldiers, ah! say, my dear sir, what the child of of its immense importance to the agriculturist; Mount Vernon ought to say, that I cannot honor crops—the laws of nature are the same; and aithough many of our farmers have been obli- them more than by sending to them through visitors were seen at Ashburn, the residence of ged to witness the ultimely destruction of their your most kind and liberal instrumentality, the James Peters, Esq. and in some other places on ging character And our government goes on, hopes, after months of arduous toil and anxiety. tent of Washington, and may Heaven shed its our Marsh. Their appearance at this season in-White all this waste of labor and of feeling has choicest blessings upon the honored remnants volves an interesting question in their natural

GEORGE WASHINGTON P. CUSTIS.

THE CASE OF MRS. CHAPMAN.

rable system yet revolves-but ignorance, and tering over the blooming foilage the dust of ecution against Mrs. Chapman, Mr. Ross, the passion are daily lessening the peed, and regu- pepper; or burning chaff and straw before the Prosecuting Attorney, made the following state-

" The indiciment contained three counts, in all of which Mrs. Chapman was charged with being the principal in the murder of Wm. Chapman. The following is the substance of the testimony, to sustain which Mr. R. said the prosecution, were able, and should proceed to adduce the night which was readily granted. His re fare, which has been torwarded to the Treasureturned to Andalusia in a day or two, and shore ed of burning heat in his stomach; he com-

came immediately and prescribed calomel, but

In granting this postponement it was made a CHARGE OF MURDER. The mate of the brig Triton, which arrived here on Monday last from Guayams, was apprehended yesterday on a warrant issued by the Judge of the U. S. District Court, charging him with the murder of one of the crew on the high seas, on the outward voyage of the brig. the next day after the brig left this port -The inf rmation was given by the crew. The subassaulted by the mate while the captain was in the cabin, and after being severely beaten with a rope's end, was ordered to go aloft and adjust The following letter was read at the last meet. some of the rigging. While he was engaged in that duty, the mate ascended the shrouds, and again struck him, with such violence that he tell into the sea and was drowned. The My Dear Sir-Agreeably to your request, name of the mate is Thomas Soule. The name Judge Beits, by whom he was fully committed testimony of witnesse should always be receive

N. Y. Jour Com.

A SINGULAR DEVICE. A singular circumstance exhibiting in a rewolf, is related as having taken place at Signyle-Petit, a small town on the borders of Chamhis hind legs. As he farmer perceived that his beast was so well able to defend itself, he conmule had gained a complete victori; but, in a the wolf leapt upon him, and kill-d the mule

ROBIN REDBREASTS. On Sunday last, large flocks of these welcome history as to their location during the winter. I pray you, my dear sir, to accept an assu- They have in few instances been seen in our rance of the esteem with which I remain, your forests: but whether they take up their winter quarters in our warmest and most sheltered foresis, or whether they are really birds of passage, remains a question still to be solved If those which were seen on Sunday, are some la-In opening the cause on the part of the pros. | Zy stragglers, they have erred in judgment, if they have chosen St. John as a resting place and h.if.way house in the month of January. But if the unusually mild morning of Saturday and Sunday, have lured them from their hiding places, it suggests the question-are they in a state of torpor during the winter? If not-where do they secret themselves, and upon what do they subsist ?-St. John N. B. Gaz. Jan 19.

To the Editors of the National Intelligencer. Messra. Gales & Seaton will oblige Mr. E. "About the middle of las: May, a stranger ap | Everett, by inserting in the Intelligencer, the

A native of the county of Middlesez, Massas chasetts, desirous of contributing his mite towards the completion of the Monument on Bunker's Hill, requests Mr. Evere to cause the enclosed to be devoted to that object.

Washington, Feb 21, 1832. HEAVY DRAFT.

A house in this city lately advertised for safe. a Bill of Exchange on Landon of 139 ba.' A gentleman from he South writes to his triend as follows: . Well may you speak of the proserity of the city of Boston, if an ordinary groher has funds abroad to enable him to draw so and to alter and discommue others, and for o Washington's example, and that in the contem. is particularly observable in the different spe. | . On the 16 h of June, this stranger left An | houry a bill. I have been in active business for be ir thirty years, but presume that I have nevthe Whole on the Union. Numerous amend so to admire them, as to resolve to have no man kind, but an a tentive observation will afford city he purchased a quantity of arsenic, for the er been able to draw a bill which weighted over