THE PUBLIC

The prices of all the necessaries of life have been gradually falling for several years past. Clothing is one of the necessaries of life in a civilized community and while it has somewhat faller in prices, it has not reached the Low Figures at which it ought to sell. The only reason for this is the greed of retailers. Combinations to keep up prices have been formed, and what the dealers gain ever brought to Williamsport. Remember the public lose. But Clothing must now come down. THE EXCLSIOR
