

AND MUSEUM OF POLITICS, AGRICULTURE, AND FOREIGN LITERATURE

WOL, IV.

ROCHVILLE, WEDNESDAY, MAY 1, 1844.

"THE RIGHTS OF OUR LABORING CLASSES SHOULD BE RESPECTED AND PROTECTED; THEY ARE THE POOPLE; THAT PART WHICH SUPPORTS THE POWER AND WEALTH OF THE NATION." -Andrew Jackson.

No. 18.

PRINTED AND PUBLISHED BY EDWARD WAITE: EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR.

TERMS OF ADVERTISING. For I Square, 3 insertions, every extra do. advertising an estray, notice to creditors, petitioner's notice, -Twelve lines, or less, constitute one square. Ever, my child, be thy morn's first lays

If an advertisement exceeds twelve lines, it will Tuned, like the lark's, to thy Maker's praise. be considered as two and charged accordingly.

All advertisaments are payable at the time of What is that, mother? their insertion. Advertisements ordered in till forbid will be charged one dollar per square for And that low, sweet voice, like a widow's moan, the first three insertions, and 25 cents for each Is flowing out from her gentle breast, subsequent insertion.

vance, or $2 50 cents if paid after 30 days from For the distant dear one's quick return. the time of subscribing.

MOTICE.

HEREBY forewarn all persons from | Proudly careering his course of joy, my property. ap 17-3w OTHO W. HURLEY. Gnward and upward, true to the line.

NOTICE.

ber are respectfully requested to No loved one now, no nestling night; settle their accounts, either by payment. He is floating down by himself to die; or note, on or before the 1st day of May Yet the sweetest song is the last he sings. next; otherwise, they will positively be Live so, my son, that when death shall come, placed in the hands of proper authorities | Swan-like and sweet, it may waft thee home. for collection.

ap 17-3w BENJ. THOMPSON.

LAST NOTICE.

ed with all those who disregard this Ploughman. ROB'T W. CARTER, Trustee of Thos. F. W. Vinson.

ap 17-5w

NOTICE. through the land owned by Edward terested are requested to attend.

> ISAAC BENTON, SAMUEL SHREVE, EXAMINERS.

ap 17-td NOTICE.

COND MONDAY in May next, for the the following:-

ing appeals. Administrators and execu- to Miss Frances Coon. tors are hereby notified to make a return of all property sold by them, else the bly to the acts of Assembly; and will man to the keeper of an elephant. continue in session two weeks if neces-deduction on account of the sale, trans- eyeing the animal through his glass. fer, or alienation of stock, of any de- "Surprisin!" retorted the keeperscription, or the collection or payment "we've learnt him to put money in that do it. of any public or private security for mo- box you see up there. Try him with a ney, must apply in person, according to | dollar." [The cockney handed the elean act of Assembly, passed December phant a dollar, and sure enough he took session. 1843, chap. 208. sec. 17. ap 17-td LEWIS SHOTS, Cl'k.

MEW SCHOOL.

HE Subscriber informs the Parents take it out, and 'and it back." Mr. Michael H. Letton, nearly opposite keys and punch the hyenas.—Pic. Mr. Samuel C. Veirs' Store. In this fully solicits a liberal patronage.

GEO. R. BRADDOCK. N. B. His terms are moderate, agree-[ap-17]

NEW SPRING GOODS. father wasn't Mis. Alexander a she-ro?

CHEAP FOR CASH OR GOOD PAPER.

spring supply of NEW GOODS, to which the attention of the public is should choose the least. respectfully invited, as they will be oftry produce.

LEONARD W. CANDLER. Dornestown, April 3, 1814.

POBTRY.

THE MOTHER AND CHILD. BY BISHOP DONNE. What is that mother?

The Lark, my child .-

The morn has but just looked out, and smiled, 10 00 | When he starts from his humble, grassy nest, 1 50 And is up and away with the dew on his breast, 4 00 sphere,
To warble it out in his Maker's ear.

The Dove, my son .-

Constant and pure by that lonely nest, Price of subscription will be 2 dollars in ad- As the wave is poured from some crystal urn, Ever, my son, be thou, like the dove-In friendship as faithful, as constant in love. What is that, mother?

The Eagle, boypurchasing, trading for, or selling Firm in his own mountain vigor relying, the sorrel horse, John, which formerly Breasting the dark storm, the red bolt defying; belonged to Nathan T. Hurley, as he is His wing on the wind, and his eye on the sun, He swerves not a hair, bears onward, right on. Boy, may the cagle's flight ever be thine,

What is that mother? The Swan, my love.-LL persons indebted to the subscri- He is floating down from his native grove, the aforesaid purpose. All persons in- his family to be ignorant of the current tioned. ing one or two newspapers.

Chapman the character so well known in story and verse as the premium chan- | sed! HE Commissioners for Montgome- ticler of the loco foco party has, strange ry county will meet on the SE. to say, married a 'coon,' as appears from

"That's a werry knowing hanimal of taxes will be charged to them, agreea. yours, is he?" said a cockney gentle-"Very," was the cool reply. "He performs strange tricks and han-

All persons wishing an allowance or tics, does he?" inquired the cockney, lit in his trunk, and placed it in a box high up out of reach. "Well, that is werry hextraordinary, hastonishing, truly !" said the green one, opening his eyes. "Now let us see him neighborhood, that he has opened a torted the keeper, with a roguish leer, school in the house lately occupied by and then turned away to stir up the mon- go down!

into a new hull."

for "hen truit"—meaning eggs.

"Father, wasn't Alexander a hero?" Yes my boy replied Oast. Well, then them.

"One extreme follows the other," a HE subscriber is now receiving his after his own tail.

embracing a choice and complete as- One being asked why he married so . sortment of all kinds of Merchandise; little a wife? answered, of all evils, we how long it will take to run through all little a wife? answered, of all evils, we how long it will take to run through all little a wife? answered, of all evils, we how long it will take to run through all little a wife? answered, of all evils, we how long it will take to run through all little a wife? answered, of all evils, we how long it will take to run through all little a wife? answered, of all evils, we how long it will take to run through all little a wife? answered, of all evils, we how long it will take to run through all little a wife? answered, of all evils, we how long it will take to run through all little a wife? answered, of all evils, we how long it will take to run through all little a wife? answered, of all evils, we how long it will take to run through all little a wife? answered, of all evils, we how long it will take to run through all little a wife? answered, of all evils, we how long it will take to run through all little a wife? answered, of all evils, we how long it will take to run through all little a wife? answered, of all evils, we how long it will take to run through all little a wife? answered, of all evils, we how long it will take to run through all little a wife? answered, of all evils, we have a little a wife? All evils a wif fered at a very small advance for cash, A German physician has published a the effect upon the country, of buying some and crowded cellars; and are paid noon, when he told his story and faint- publican fathers thought were the true approved judgments and notes, or coun- medical tract, in which he maintains from England, annually, many millions barely enough to subsist the life that ed away. that ladies of weak nerves should not more than we sell. It don't take long to clings to their overlooked bodies. Thoube permitted to sleep alone. It is said go to the bottom of the meal tub, when sands annually die a miserable death this book is in great demand.

POLITICAL.

[From the Mill Boy-St. Lous.]

STRANGE! That when European burst. nations without exception, impose heavy, This, be it remembered, is what the $1,75 per week, or $7,00 per month— utterly annihilated before it had issued - 1 50 And a hymn in his heart, to you pure, bright sive duties on American produce, we present wise Protective Tariff. please, and exact little or no duty from and foster the British System!

only. A Tariff, merely for revenue, facturers; consequently keeping our fits may go into the pockets of their em- defatigable little animal, "that same old by to twelve hundred-per ct. on our cotton, for us what England's does for her: of $1,75 a week or $9 a month; clear condition, no person would suppose him bacco, and other produce.

STRANGE! That when, with the country, instead of taking it out. protection of our own government, we And yet the Locofocos abhor the very live comfortably and are enabled to lay resolved to "stand up to the rack, fodcan make, at home, every thing needed name of the American System, and are up. In some of the eastern factories the der or no fodder." for our comfort, we should go 3000 miles itching for a chance to destroy it, and in laborers have become large stockholders, This "old coon" passed through here across the ocean to Great Britain to sup. doing so to build up the British System. and are going steadily on to comfort and since, on his way south from Connecti-whenever we have been without a pro- American Sytem, and he must be put try. Oh! the oppressive Tariff! Oh! seemed to notice my surprise, and plactective tariff, we have immediately quit down, cost what it may. working for ourselves, and most foolishly STRANGE! That American farmers STRANGE! Wonderful Strange! scribed the imaginary circles therewith, preferred to pay England for her produc- should not prefer a Home Market for That Americans should seek to bring and gave a sly wink, as much as to say tions, when we might make as good their produce to a foreign. FARMERS MAKE YOUR OWN CANDLES. on our own soil, from our own mate- The advantages of a home market are price of England and Continental Eu- ed-that, passing through the neighbor-Take 2 lbs. of alum for every 10 lbs. of rials, and by the hands of our own peo- ready and quick sale; saving of heavy rope. And yet Martin Van Buren and bood, he had heard there was a trap to tallow, dissolve it in water before the tal. ple. Mark! Martin Van Buren and expenses of transportation, commission, the Locofocos would do it. Here's the be set for him here, and also that the stand an arrangement is about being and we must pay it, to support British it is near a market. HE undersigned having been ap- during the evenings of the May conven- nearly the whole of this; beside giving turing, increases the demand for agricul- we must bring down the wages of our should make, and after a while came . pointed by the Commissioners of tion, with his celebrated, improved employment to thousands of our own peo- tural produce at home to supply their laborers to their standard; for the sim- back and said they were going to envent priety of opening a road from Colesville terms it, Clay Light. This will afford a Yet Mr. Van Buren and the Locolo- near the market, is benefitted. to Claysville, in Montgomery county, truly magnificent spectacle. Balt. Pat. | cos would break down the present wise | STRANGE! That American far | higher price for them, or those countries | ed to be tickled to death to think that and salutary Tariff and set us again to mers could ever be persuaded that a will undersell us and we must quit work. they wanted to fool him in that way. Dawes, (either wholly or in part,) pro- Take The Papers .- A popular wri- buying of England our own produce Protective Tariff is not to their advan- The only way which we can prevent Presently a young gentleman got up, pose to meet on the premises, on the 27th ter on etiquette, says no one that is not manufactured by British hands, and lage. day of May next, at 9 o'clock, A. M. for absolutely stupid, will permit himself or charged the enormous price above men- A very simple illustration will prove bor and capital against the competition exordium, began to abuse the Coon fa-purpose of making transfers, and hear- At Westneld, Mr. Arnold Chapman here pay only a small duty, such as get returns from it. By and by 30 of ple of the United States should fail to co sully the bright name of the greatest of course, we buy them; and our money ing pursuits. They raise no food for and the Loco-focos with their hostility distributed, he got hold of one Duncan's ing kept to help brother Jonathan along. is created at once a market at their Party; and that Henry Clay, who for the back of it, and wished to know stroying the Present Tariff. The reason. enough to eat. These thousands must people. -British and American manufactures be fed, and this begets demand for the cannot both be consumed in this coun- produce of the farmer. Hence it is a Mr. Calhoun a Candidate again. to carry the State for the very party of Rockville and the adjacent "We never learns him that trick!" re- quit the business!—Hence the British manufacturer; not only because of the short weeks Mr. Calhoun's name will by listening to the orator of the day callmanufactures go up, and the American increased demand for and higher price again be run up for the Presidency (in ing on the whigs to subscribe for the school will be taught the various branch- Good. - A steamboat captain, after from the country to pay for British goods, cheaper than the for eign. es of English education, and the sub- hearing John Quincy Adams speak, is impoverishing ourselves, and enriching STRANGE! That an American scriber pledges himself that proper atten- said to have made the following quaint British manufacturers; when, by buy- would not at any time rather pay an ex- A Night's Sufferings.—The Co- may judge from the intelligence going tion shall be bestowed upon all the pu- remark, "O, that we could take the en- ing at home, we keep the money in the lumbia Enquirer, (Penn.) relates an ad- the rounds of the whig papers from the pils entrusted to his charge. He respect- gine out of the old Adams, and put it country, increasing the general wealth, by our own laboring classes are support- venture which happened to Dr. T. A. interior of that State. CRACKLIN. REFINEMENT.—A western editor re- ent of foreigners for all our comforts. | goes, not to support and enrich the Brit- ning, 14th ult., which was one of suffer- MR. EDITOR: Whether Henry Clay ing with those of the other schools in the cently heard a young lady at table ask Yet the Locofocos would destroy our ish laborer, but the British manufacturing and peril. The Dr. had been on a is to be the next President of this Union, at it long are wholly used up! he has if he buys $500 a year more from which they go to equally wretched exhaustion, finally succeeded in reach- which he wishes to base the action of than he sells; and he can understand homes, sometimes in damp, unwhole- ing a habitation, at 4 o'clock in the after- the government, are those which our rewe put in. That is just what we do, as es, and the majority are cut off in early all past experience proves, when we life. The laborers upon whom are thus |-have no Protective Twiff. At such heaped wrongs which cry out to the STRANGE THINGS ABOUT THE travagantly of Great Britain and got deeper and deeper in debt, and finally to the British Parliament, in 1840, an Republican (?) Star, I had expected that and in some cases, enormous and oppres- Locofocos want, the destruction of the the woman about one half that amount; many numbers, and that, at the very should give the liberty to flood us with STRANGE! That Americans should Another report made to parliament in ed; but I rejoice to find that you are whatever of their productions they strive to destroy the American System 1841 states the prices have fallen at least still too hard for the soft nonsense of the

This is the one-sided liberality of the than a plan for taking care of ourselves; week or $6,34 per month; woman's local habitation and a name" among the Locofoco doctrine of a Tariff for revenue keeping clear of debt to foreign manu- about half that. All this that huge pro- inhabitants of the earth, but that the inwould impose a duty of about 20 per ct. money at home; encouraging people to players. Mark the contrust! The Ame- coon," is walking over his old grounds. on foreign goods imported into the U. depend upon themselves and establishing rican laborer works from 16 to 12 hours as though there were no such things as State; while the very country whose our entire independence of foreign coun- a day; in healthy apartments; and in steel traps and spring guns in existence. productions we charge at that trifling tries for all that is needful for our com- many cases the work is light. The men He has visited several parts of our counrate, annually suck millions out of us, fort. The British system does the same realise about 60 cents a day or $18 a ty lately; he paid our district a visit a in the shape of duties, ranging from fif- for England. A Protective Tariff does month; the women and girls an average few weeks since, and, from his very fine hemp, lead, wheat, our beef, pork, to- makes us producers instead of buyers- of their board. The American girl makes to be in the least trouble of body or and brings money constantly into the more than the English man. The result mind; his visit has quite reanimated his

Why? Because Henry Clay for nearly independence. All this is the result of cut. I was rather surprised to see him Yet our part history proves, that, 30 years has been the Father of the American Indus- in the company he appeared among; he Montgomery county to examine the pro- Drummond, or as he more properly ple. Charity, they say, begins at home. wants; and of course the farmer being plest of all reasons, that if we pay a high- something to protect the rights of man.

that it is so.

Congress does this whenever it lays consequently, send their surplus away, Is not the proof complete? aside the Protective Tariff. See the 100, 500, or 3000 miles to a market, and STRANGEST OF ALL! orator had said about him, he cared noreason. When British goods brought after great delay and many risks, they That in view of all these things the peo- thing; but when the attempt was made would be under a 'Revenue Tariff,' they the families quit farming and engage in see that Martin Van Buren, with his man of the day, it was too much for his can be sold cheaper than our own; and, mercantile, mechanical and manufactur- English coach and liveried out-riders, equanimity. When the documents were goes to enrich John Bull, instead of be- themselves and must buy. Here then to a Protective Tariff, are the British speeches, and showed us the "picter" in If, then, the destruction of our Protec- very door for the surplus productions of thirty years has clothed himself in Ame- whether it had the form or outline of a tive Tariff be not legislating for British the 70 families that continue to work rican fabrics, and has every where and coon. We were all very well convincnot what is. Yet the Locofocos would to seek a distant market. It is provided of American Industry; and the Whigs Duncan, it was any thing but a likeness STRANGE! That any American Now, a Protective Tariff, by encoura- tem, are the American Party; the true thought that it strongly resembled a fox. should want to break down American ging domestic manufactures, gives em- friends of American enterprise and in- The old chap told us what pains had been and build up British manufactures! ployment to thousands who would other- stitutions; and full ventitled to the con- taken to circulate this document, as well Yet the Locofocos would do it by des wise have to go tilling the earth to get fidence and support of the American as Tract No. 4, and one called Clay's and encouraging our own industry, which ed and helped along, than buy the Brit- H. Thornton, of Conyngham, Luzerne in a short time will render us independ- ish article, most of the price of which County, in that state, on Thursday eve-Protective Tariff, which prevents exces- ing proprietor, who works the laborer professional visit, and on his return be- is a question to be settled next fall; and sive purchases of British goods, and of nearly to death and pays him barely came benighted, and finally lost his path the confident assertions of his friends of course the export of specie to pay for enough to keep life in his body. in a swamp. While endeavoring to his success, and those of his enemies of STRANGE! That we would want to not exhibit a parallel to squalid misery encountered a huge wolf. Retreat was least, in the coming election; but, that buy more of foreign countries than we and horrid slavery of the laborers in the out of the question, but by loosening one he is the man upon whom the people sell, when the result of course is, that manufacturing districts of England. No of his riding leggins, and infusing it with can more surely depend for an honest we are always in debt, and, if we keep negro slavery ever yet known could spirits of hartshorne, he succeeded in and efficient administration of the gocompare with it. The laborers, men, keeping him at bay, walking backward vernment, can be shown in a very deci-Let a farmer worth $5000 calculate women and children work from 12 to all night! At daybreak the wolf disap. ded manuer. The principles and meawe are all the time taking out more than from the effects of these destroying causaverage price, the men, of 8 shillings, or the whig cause, in this county, would be 10 or 12 per cent. from the preceding Star, and that not only has the whigh The American system is nothing more year, leaving men's wages at $1,50 per party of Montgomery county still "a > the abominable Whigs. down the price of American labor to the that it was O. K.; and afterward explain-

HEREBY notify all persons indebtlow is put in, and then melt the tallow the Locofocos stand in relentless hostility to a Protective Tariff—the Whigs, with than can be had in a foreign market;

The same report to Parliament, before the tallow the Locofocos stand in relentless hostility to a Protective Tariff—the Whigs, with than can be had in a foreign market;

The same report to Parliament, before this kindness, were to meet at Clays sheriff and collector, for fees and taxes, ring, and it will clarify and harden the Henry Clay at their head, in its favor. | and greater security of reaching the mar- quoted, states the avarage wages of men | ville to make the machine; and as he to call at my office, in Rockville, and tallow, so as to make a most beautiful STRANGE! That the British should ket. A farm on the Missouri, Mississip- per week, exclusive of board in manu. travelled a good deal in the night, he settle the same, by the 15th day of May article for either winter or summer use, be allowed to purchase our cotton, take pi, or Illinois river, or in the vicinity of lactories in different countries, as fol- always liked to know where and how next, or coercive measures will be adopt- almost as good as sperm. __ Massachusetts it home, and send it back in its manu- St. Louis, Hannibal, Boonville, or Al- lows: __ England, $1,76; France, $1,51; they were fixed, so as to keep them from factured state, to sell to us, at an advanc- ton, is (the land being equally good) Belgium, $1,32; Switzerland, $1,22; injuring himself or his friends. I was ed price ranging from 500 to 2000 per worth more than one in the interior, as Austria, 66 cents! | somewhat surprised at the boldness of THE DRUMMOND LIGHT .- We under- cent. This advance must be charged, every one knows. Why is it? Because The wages of the same classes in the the little fellow in pushing into the room United States we have before stated. | where they were fixen for him; some of made with Professor Grant, now in this manufacturers and the British Govern- | A Protective Tariff, by increasing the | Now before we can sell our goods as the folks were sent out to consult with city, to illuminate Monument Square ment! A Protective Tariff saves us number of People engaged in Manufac- cheap as the goods of those countries, one another as to the kind of trap they er price for making them we must gef a I looked at the old fellow, and he seem-their doing this, is to protect our own la- and after a "stale, flat and unprofitable" of pauper labor of Europe, by duties on mily in general, and that " same old news of the day, or the history of events | STRANGE! That any American | A community of 1000 people, divided foreign goods sufficiently high to make | coon" in particular. This talk seemed for one or two years. This knowledge should want Congress to legislate for the into 106 families, are all engaged in up the difference between the price of to tickle the "varmint" very much, and can only be secured effectually, by tak- protection of British labor, British lab tal, and British manufactures, when $100 worth of produce over and above simple operation of a Protective Tariff; great gusto, until he began to abuse American labor, capital, and manufac- its own wants. They cannot of course which the Locofocos would destroy, and Henry Clay, and then I noticed his dantures pray for protection and are refu- sell to each other, for each has what thereby force American labor down to der began to rise; he was getting riled. every other wants to sell. They must, the European mark or stop altogether! but he restrained his feelings; and he interests and against American, we know their farms. There is no need for them always raised his voice for the protection ed that, stand for what it might with who sutain him and his American Sys- of our friend; and there were some who try, and the British being able, in free demonstration that a Protective Tariff is -A Washington letter writer (we don't they were written to traduce and vilify. competition, to undersell us, we must protection to the farmer as well as the know for what paper) says: "In a few After having amused ourselves a little, of its produce, but because the manu- 1848) and nailed to the mast, all conside- Star, as though our Journal was among STRANGE! That we should want factured articles which he needs, when ration to the contrary notwithstanding. "the things that were," we parted; our to be continually draining our specie wrought by our own people, are actually I don't give this as my opinion, but as old friend went towards Washington,

He that in this world would rise, Must take the paper and advertise. Communications.

For the Maryland Journal. and out of this they must puy their board. least, our press would be entirely silencis that instead of perishing of want, they old friends in this section, and they are

ing his paws on his nasal organ, he detold me afterwards that, for what the

Duels, in the State he had just come from, and the result of which had been whence he expected to visit New York, where, I suppose, he arrived safe, if I

For the Maryland Journal. It is a fact, that the whole world can- find his way from the swamp, on foot he his defeat, will not affect the issue in the principles of political economy-which would, in their operation, result in the prosperity and advancement of the country to strength and digatity. The tariff