DALLAS TO POLK.

TUNE—"Gossip Jones."

Good morning to you, James!
I'm full of care and sorrow—
And if you don't send hope, hope, hope,
I'll die before the morrow, Jemmy Polk

That news is shocking bad,
About Louisiana—
I thought the little fool, fool, fool, &c.
Would suck our Texiana, Jemmy Polk.

I'm very much afraid,
The South's so plaguy slippy,
That Bobby Walker's wife, wife, wife,
Can't carry Mississippi, Jimmy Polk.

Say, Jem, how many States,
Yet have you got your eyes on?
I dreamed they all had gone, gone, gone,
For Clay & Frelinghuysen J'y Polk.

Your conscience James, how's that?
Indeed mine wont stay under; [&c.
Say don't you think 'twas wrong, wrong,
To steal the Captain's thunder, Jimmy Polk.

I wish I were a pig,
Or else a jolly coon, sir;
They never know the want, want, want,
&c.
Of office, votes, or spoons, sir, Jimmy Polk.

Lord, Jem, if all the world,
Were but a big "10th Legion,"
I guess we'd rule the roast, roast, roast,
&c.
We would be little gods then, Jimmy Polk.

Confound it all, say I:
Why did they nominate us,
To play this losing game, game, game?
&c.
For Harry will check-mate us, Jimmy Polk.

Now, Jimmy, boy—good bye,
(Lord save us from the gallows)
I wish my name were Haines, Haines,
Haines, &c.
Or anything but Dallas, Jimmy Polk.

RALLY WHIGS.

Rally whigs, rally whigs, rally whigs, rally whigs
See our gallant banners streaming;
Rally whigs, rally whigs, rally whigs, rally whigs
See the eyes of beauty beaming;
Rally whigs, rally whigs, rally whigs, rally whigs
Come from the east—come from the west—
From north and south, with glowing breast—
Rally whigs, rally whigs, he!

See the fox's tail is bristling,
Fretted by the Tyler crew,
All the locos practise whistling,
But their music will not do.
Rally whigs, &c.

Tyler shouts for annexation,
What will Polk and Dallas do,
Oh, such clashing—such vexation.
How to mend the broken screw.
Rally whigs, &c.

What's food to us is loco pizin,
But the fiat has gone forth,
Shout for Clay and Frelinghuysen,
West and south and east and north.
Rally whigs, &c.

Let them gather all their forces,
We are ready for the race,
Clumsy riders—jaded horses,
Make their prospects quite a case.
Rally whigs, &c.

While the tariff flag is floating,
Let these words our motto be,
Each man must do his own voting,
If he wants the Country free.
Rally whigs, &c.

Montgomery Co. Court, to wit:*

UPON application by a petition in writing of Basil Burriss to the subscriber, a Justice of the Orphans' Court of Montgomery county, praying the benefit of the act of Assembly, entitled "An act for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors," passed at November session, 1805, and the several supplements thereto, a schedule of his property, and a list of his creditors, on oath, as far as he can ascertain them, being annexed to his said petition, and being satisfied by competent testimony that he has resided two years within the State of Maryland, immediately preceeding the time of his application, and the said Basil Burriss having entered into bond for his appearance in Montgomery county court, on the 2d Monday of November next, to answer such interrogatives and allegations as may be made against him; and having appointed Edward Waite Trustee, who has given bond as such, and received from the said Basil Burriss a conveyance of all his property, real, personal, and mixed, I do hereby order and adjudge that the said Basil Burriss be discharged from confinement, and that he give notice to his creditors, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published in said county, once a week for three successive months before the 2d Monday of November next, to show cause, if any they have, why the said Basil Burriss should not have the benefit of the said acts and supplements as prayed.

Given nnder my hand on this 25th of June. 1841.

Poole's Clay Ointment.

AN infallible remedy for the cure of Ringworm, Tetters, Scald Head, Kings Evil, Scrofula and all eruptions of the skin. It is particularly recommended to mothers, who are suffering with sore or cracked nipples from nursing, and can be used without any possible injury to the infant; it will be found no less efficacious for Scalds and Burns, Chilblains and Frost bites. By adding to the ointment mutton tallow and beeswax in sufficient quantities to form a salve, and melting the whole mass so as to unite the articles, it will be found a most admirable cure for wounds and ulcers of long standing.

Directions will accompany the bottle. Price 50 cents. JOHN POOLE.

WRIGHT'S INDIAN VEGETABLE PILLS.

IF, during the continuance of storms and floods, the channels of

OUR MIGHTY RIVERS

become so obstructed as to afford an insufficient outlet for the superabundant waters, we can expect nothing less than that the surrounding country will be

OVERWHELMED WITH THE FLOOD.

In like manner with the human body—if the Skin, Kidneys, and Bowels, (the natural outlets for useless and corrupt humors,) become so obstructed as to fail in affording a full discharge of those impurities, which are in all cases

THE CAUSE OF SICKNESS,

we surely can expect no other results than that the whole frame will sooner or later be

OVERWHELMED WITH DISEASE.

As in the first place, if we would prevent an inundation, we must remove all obstructions to the free discharge of the superabundant waters. So, in the second place, if we would prevent and cure disease, we must open, and keep open, the Natural Drains of the body.

Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills, Of the North American College of Health, will be found one of the best, if not the very BEST MEDICINE IN THE WORLD, for carrying out this beautiful and simple theory; because they completely cleanse the Stomach and Bowels from all billious humors and other impurity, and at the same time promote a healthy discharge from the Lungs, Skin, and Kidneys; consequently, as all the natural drains are opened, Disease of every name is literally driven from the body.

☞ CAUTION.—As the great popularity and consequently great demand for Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills has raised up a host of counterfeiters, country agents and storekeepers will be on their guard against the many imposters who are travelling about the country selling to the unsuspecting a spurious article for the genuine.

It should be remembered that all authorized agents are provided with a certificate of agency, signed by WILLIAM WRIGHT, Vice-President of the N. A. College of Health. Consequently, those who offer Indian Vegetable Pills, and cannot show a certificate, as above described, will be known as imposters.

The following highly respectable storekeepers have been appointed agents for the sale of Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills, and of whom it is confidently believed the genuine medicine can with certainty be obtained:

Montgomery County, Md.
VEIRS & HIGGINS, Rockville;
J. D. BEARDSLEY, Mechanicsville;
JOSEPH GILPIN, Sandy Springs;
WM. VOLDENAR, Colesville;
GEO. MOBBERLEY, Clarksburg;

FARM AT PRIVATE SALE.

I WILL sell, at Private Sale, a valuable FARM in Montgomery county, Maryland. It lies on the Little Monocacy, about 1½ miles from Barnesville, on the road leading to Greenfield Mills, and about 3 miles from the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal, and contains

120 ACRES OF LAND;

25 in Wood and 20 in Meadow. The soil is of good quality and the farm well watered—with a comfortable DWELLING HOUSE, STABLE, &c. and a never-failing Spring of Water convenient to the dwelling.

There is a good MILL SEAT on the farm with the dam built and race dug, and from the great quantity of timber in its vicinity—being at the foot of the Sugar Loaf mountain—would be an excellent site for a saw-mill; also, for a distillery, factory, grist-mill, &c.

The terms, which will be liberal, will be made known on application to the subscriber, residing in Poolsville.

Urbanity and strict attention to the comforts of his guests will, he trusts, secure him a share of the public favor. His table will be supplied with the luxuries the markets will afford—and his BAR will be provided with the choicest liquors. His Stables are commodious and comfortable, and his granary well stored with provender. DROVERS' will find it to their advantage to give him a call. He will use the best endeavor to render his house acceptable to his guests—a quiet retreat for the traveller, and with charges to suit the times.

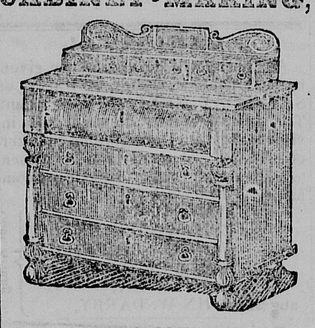
ALFRED SPATES.
Rockville, Md. Jan. 3, 1843.

BEALL'S MERCHANTS' HOTEL,

SOUTH CHARLES STREET.

THE subscriber (late proprietor of the Globe Inn,) respectfully informs his friends and the public that he has leased that MAGNIFICENT BUILDING, erected by Dr. Houck, on SOUTH CHARLES STREET. The house is in complete order and newly furnished. The location of the house being in the centre of business, and in the neighborhood of the Railroad Depot and a short distance from the Steamboat Landings, renders it one of the most central situations in Baltimore. The subscriber having had long experience in Hotel keeping, hopes by strict attention to business to merit a share of public patronage.

CABINET-MAKING,



Rockville, Maryland,

THE Subscriber respectfully informs the public that he has commenced the above business at Rockville, in the house formerly occupied by Mr. Dennis Moulden, where he intends carrying it on in all its various branches; making and repairing Furniture, Chairs, &c. ALSO, Funerals attended in the most appropriate manner.

☞ Prices to suit the Times. ☜

The Subscriber respectfully asks a liberal patronage from the public generally, as he warrants his work to be made of the best seasoned materials, and the most accurate workmanship.

Allen having removed about one fourth of a mile from Rockville, on the Falls road, he would informs his friends and the public generally, that he will in future make up all work entrusted to his care with neatness and durability, and in the most fashionable style, at the following prices, viz:

Dress & Frock Coats,	$4 50
Plain Pants & Vests,	$1 00
Whole or half Gaiter Pants,	$1 25

He will warrant a fit in all cases, and his work shall be done inferior to none.

N. B. Particular attention paid to cutting for any one who wish garments made at home.
june 26, 1844.

TO THE PUBLIC.

THE SUBSCRIBER respectfully informs the citizens of Montgomery County, that he still continues to carry on the HOUSE CARPENTERING & Joining business in the town of Rockville, and that he is prepared to execute all work in his line of business that may be entrusted to him, with neatness and despatch; and he also informs the public that he has on hand and will constantly keep a supply of Mahogany for COFFIN-MAKING, together with a quantity of first-rate Walnut, and all other materials used for that purpose.

He can furnish COFFINS of every description, and attend to interments and all other business in his line, in any part of the county, upon terms that cannot fail to give satisfaction to all who maybe pleased to favor him with their custom.

POOLE'S HEALTH RESTORATIVE.

THE subscriber, the discoverer of the Health Restorative, having been for more than twenty years afflicted with continued illhealth, experiencing all those horrible sensations attendant upon a general functional derangement of the stomach and bowels, such as nau sea, loss of appetite, lassitude, pain in the head and eyes, pain in the shoulders, soreness about the stomach, pain and soreness about the kidney and loin, sick headache, costiveness, and extreme general debility; and, under the treatment of the regular faculty, (many of whom had attained to extensive and exalted professional reputation for skill and moral worth,) received no permanent benefit.

The subscriber, during this protracted period of suffering, had watched the symptoms of his disease closely, and had not been an indifferent observer to the effects of the many remedies used, which were, in most cases, such as were brought to bear and immediately to act upon the stomach and bowels, which were already so much weakened from the disease that they were unable to supply the wants of nature, while scarcely any thing was done to act directly upon the skin and the extreme organs. Having come to the conclusion that, as the regular and natural functions of the skin were to remove a large amount of effete matter from the blood by sensible and insensible perspiration, that this continued action was absolutely necessary for the promotion and preservation of health, determined to try external applications, believing that, if the natural functions of the skin were restored by appropriate treatment, the restoration of the health of the patient would be the result; and, in order to effect this object, the subscriber deemed it necessary to use such remedies as were calculated to stimulate and strengthen the weak parts in their action—nature, in the meanwhile, throwing to the surface, by means of this preparation, the cause of the disease, which was then removed by the increased action of the absorbents, and, in the meantime, a free and equalized circulation of the blood is kept up, which is no less important to health; for certain it is that, in the same proportion as the blood fails to flow to the surface and extremities, so its action is increased upon the internal organs.

After trying a variety of irritants, stimulants, and absorbents, variously combined, to the surface, and tonics calculated to stimulate and strengthen the stomach and bowels, he was fortunate in compounding a remedy, the use of which has been the means of imparting strength and vigor, not only to the digestive organs, but the resulting good effects of which have been experienced in the whole system.

The Restorative will not only be found efficacious in dyspeptic cases, but in all cases where nature's powers, whether from weariness or ill treatment, have become weakened or morbid in their action, whether general or local, in all cases where blistering or cataplasms can be used to advantage, the Restorative will be found most efficacious, superceding, in a great measure, all other stimulants and irritants. Persons suffering with protracted Bronchitis, Sore Throats, and that form of Consumption to which many divines and others, who are in the habit of much public speaking, are subject to, Chronic Rheumatism, Pain in the Back, Lumbago, &c. Affections of the Kidney, Sprains and Bruises, Stiffness of the Joints, Nervous Affections, Affections of the Spine, Swellings of long standing, Wens and Tumors, Bites and Stings of Poisonous insects, Scalds and Burns, Chillblains, Recent Wounds, Fits and Spasms, Cholics, Toothache, Protracted Pleurisy, &c.

The subscriber is influenced in bringing his remedies before the public by an ardent desire to benefit suffering humanity. Having been, for so many years, a martyr to much suffering himself, he can readily and naturally sympathize with the afflicted; and having been, at last, in a great measure restored, he is extremely solicitous that his fellow beings, who are or may be enduring all anxieties of mind and physical distress which are the unavoidable results of ill health, as he believes, may have a remedy within their reach that is efficient and certain in imparting the inestimable blessing of health in the remedies as now offered to the public. Influenced by these views and motives, he hopes it will be in power to do much good in his day and generation.

☞ A direction will accompany each bottle, signed by the subscriber in his own handwriting. JOHN POOLE.
