

FOR PRESIDENT, HENRY CLAY, OF KED CKY.

FOR VICE-PRESIDE.NT,

THEODORE FRELINGHUYSEN. OF NEW JERSEY.

MARYLAND PRESIDENTIAL ELECTORS. For the State at Large. WM. LINGAN GAITHER, of Montgomery. JAMES B. RICAUD, of Kent.

Congressional Districts. 1. THOS. S. ALEXANDER, of A. Arundel. 2. WILLIAM PRICE, of Allegany. CHAS. R. STEWART, of How. District. AUGUSTUS W. BRADFORD, of B. city. HENRY E. WRIGHT, of Queen Anne's. 6. SAM'L HAMBLETON, JR. of Talbot.

FOR GOVERNOR,

For the Assembly. GEORGE C. PATTERSON, WILLIAM B. HOWARD, ALEXANDER KILGCUR, SAMUEL D. WATERS.

For County Commissioners. Dis. No. 1—ENOCH B. HUTTON. 2-CHAS. H. MURPHEY.

3-NATHAN'S WHITE. 1-HENRY H. YOUNG.

ry's District, convened at Mrs. Baker's treat them not to be backward in their and BENJAMIN BONIFANT appointed Secretary.

The object of the meeting having been tributing papers, documents, &c. who, after consultation, reported the will be raised on that day. names of the following gentlemen, viz:

Washington Bonafant, John M'Cutchwho were unanimously adopted.

several speakers expected to be there. BENJ. BONAFANT, Sec'ry.

Unable to pay their own debt, the peo-Providence. Elsewhere all is well.— dangers.
Locofocoism is doomed. -- Southern (Tuscaloosa) Advocate.

sing, sing, SING!-Lockhaven Whig.

country, we incline to think so too.— Ib.

ROCHVIELE, NID. WEDNESDAY, SEPT. 4, 1844.

turday next.

who are indebted to us for advertising or lative ticket. Mr. Burgess Willett, and this intrepid David who so gallantly any other citizen, and if any man of vesubscription to the Journal will oblige Dr. J. W. Anderson, of Rockville dis- stepped forth, sling in hand, against the racity will assert that he ever heard me us by settling their bills, at least in part, trict, Col. Robert T. Dade, of Medley's, Goliath of locofocoism at Unity. if not in full. The increasing expense and George D. Spencer, of Berry's, were attending the publication of our paper, has exhausted our fiscal ability, and renders it necessary to urge our patrons to Messrs. Clay and Pratt in true Locofoco had justice done him, on Saturday night recollect that they have a bill unsettled- style. which, even as small as it may be, will aid us by liquidating it as soon as possible.

A MASS MEETING .- Having consultat Rockville, on the 25th inst. In order mity. The greater portion of the peothat the necessary preliminaries may ple immediately left the village, expresbe entered into, and to consult as to the sing their disapprobation to pole raising for rendering this essential piece of serpropriety of giving a barbecue—which and solemnly protesting against participa- vice. by all means, should be adopted—the ting in another. Whigs of the several districts, and the officers of the Clay Clubs, are recommenthe 10th inst. for the purpose. We par-5-HAZEL B. CASHELL. ticularly urge this notice upon the At a meeting of the Clay Club of Ber- Whigs of the county—and earnestly en-Tavern, August 10th, on motion JOHN zeal, as this day four weeks: every Whig small children, first viewed the corpse. Johny a fip, but don't tell the Whigs. POOLE. Esq. was called to the Chair, will be expected to do his duty at the stated by the Chair, on motion of Edwhich was called on Friday next, at which was called on Friday next, at peal association of Washington, which was death. orator, was the President of the Irish Repeal association of Washington, which carefully avoided; which was called on Friday next, at Orator, was the President of the Irish Repeal association of Washington, which Orator, was the President of the Irish Repeal association of Washington, which appointed by the Chair for the purpose Gaithersburg, conflicting with others, it age, in perfect health—a poor, but an has been instrumental in sending Daniel shows pretty plainly that you are guilty Capt. Kephart, who took the bet, placed of appointing a Committee of Vigilance, is thought expedient to postpone it to honest, hard working farmer, who leaves O'Connel, and other Irish patriots to the of the charge. to consist of ten, for the purpose of dis- Friday the 13th inst. The voters, can- a helpless family. The Chair appointed Edward Dawes, didates, and Rockville Clay Glee Club On Monday night, the same reckless late President of the Native American of the Advocate is not a man of veraci of deposit, which should have read in Frederick Gittings, and Richard Kirk, are invited to attend. A Whig pole party of locofocos assembled who were Society, which we learn is a mistake— ty, and that you are not willing, from this wise:

en, James Brooke, Benjamin Marlow, VILLE.—In attempting to record a faith- another pole, higher than the one that kil- cur. Roger Brooke, jr., John White, sen., ful history of the proceedings of the Lo- led Mr. Beckwith. How far this inde-Samuel Cashell, and Richard Cissell, cofoco pole raising, which took place on cent haste, (before the tears have ceased Saturday last, in this village, we do it, falling for the dead) will be approved, After which, it was Resolved, That the not with the purpose of censuring any remains to be known. We predict howin the Maryland Journal, and that it now one, or for effect politically or morally. ever, that it will find little favor among adjourn, to meet at John White's Tavern If the dark catalogue of that day's pro- the thinking and feeling portion of that on Friday the 6th of September, when ceedings could be blotted out forever— party. The community will not sanc. Dallas as Mr. Dallas (in the song) does thought, from your letter, that you were he presented an acceptable one—he also a full attendance of the Club is expect- life restored, and hands red with human tion such recklessness, which is well tance to attend to; and the people gene- blood, washed of the crimson dye—a calculated to lead to a similar accident rally are invited to attend as there are husband to a widowed wife, raised from the cold earth that rests upon him-a ing took place on Saturday last, about much, if not more than any other indifather to three helpless orphans restored ALABAMA ELECTION. - The Texas | - if these things were possible, we would flag waves over the State in triumph.— rejoice with those that now mourn, and ple vote to assume the immense debt of pass by the unhappy event as a delinious ple vote to assume the immense debt of Texas! The Whigs have struggled no- dream. But alas! it is no fiction; it is Texas! The Whigs have struggled no- dream. But alas! it is no fiction; it is The Whigs of Carolina, Alabama, Mississippi, Texas! The Whigs have struggled no- dream. But alas! it is no fiction; it is The Whigs of Carolina, Alabama, Mississippi, The Whigs of Carolina, Arkansas, Missouri, Louisibly for their principles and for protec- too true that the good portion of the comtion to our own citizens, but it has been munity are now borne down with sorin vain. The fancied benefits of foreign aggression and war have dazzled row and condolence for the untimely Club, who favored the audience with a said, "Nothing is to be hoped from the Saturday last at Unity. The fact is, Hundred Dollars that each of the above States will the eyes of the Locos, all to save Texas, death of an honest man, who, led on by few of their songs. The anticipated en- Presidential election. Mr. Polk has aland have caused them to lose sight of what he supposed to be correct motives, what their own country stands so la-mentably in need of. Steady, Whigs! in the exercise of his political opinions, ed by the unfortunate accident which His professions in favor of a Revenue. steady! Strike earnestly from this to sell a sacrifice to the follies of more zealto the election in favor of the good cause. ous partizans, who reap the fruits, if any Do your duty, and leave the result to are to be gained, while others share the

Singing, in times of political excite. the County, for the past two weeks, ment, has a powerful influence. There about 150 persons assembled to raise a their homes. is something in the melody of the hu- hickory pole, at this place. Several man voice, celebrating the praises of a trees were spliced by means of iron bands, meritorious Statesman or hero, which zoes at once to the heart, and calls into until the length reached one hundred rited Whig meetings we have had the ing hypocritically and dishonestly, in lively exercise all the warm and noble and fifty feet; a streamer, with the pleasure of attending this year, was held presenting a different batch of principles deelings of our nature—inspirits and in- names of Polk and Dallas inscribed upon at Middlebrook on Thursday last. A to suit different sections of the country, end, we would advise our friends to in- it, together with a red piece of tin, cut beautiful Whig pole, 97 feet high, was to try to get the support of the Tariff as tersperse the exercises of their Clay to represent a rooster, were to decorate erected, with a streamer bearing the well as the free trade party, their lying engraft yourself in the confidence of the Club meetings with singing. It invaria- the top. The pole, about two o'clock, names of Clay, Frelinghuysen and Pratt editors and leading partizans (with few bly adds to the interest of the proceed- P. M., had been elevated to about forty upon it, which does great credit to the exceptions) all over the country are talkings, and creates an enthusiasm which the most energetic speaking sometimes degrees, when it commenced crack- patriotic Whigs of that place. The ing about the unity of their Democratic fails to excite. Then, brethren, sing, ing. The more cautious were for lower- Rockville Clay Glee Club was present, principles, and charging the Whigs with ing it to repair damages-but the reck- and savored the company during the eve- slandering them, in making the charge The Locofocos say that "Democracy" less, who constituted the greater portion ning, with their excellent political songs. against their party of lying and double is the salt of the earth. From the man- of the crowd, cried, "go on, go on," - They were received with enthusiastic dealing. But here is the proof, concluner in which it is licked all over the and at the next pull the pole broke, the applause, and not unfrequently required sive proof, and that by one who they Georgetown, D. C., do hereby certify of agreement, proposes but $600 in all; end striking Mr. John Beckwith upon to repeat them. Messrs. Braddock, Graff must admit is a thorough and competent that the last sermon preached by the the original was $2,100. There cannot subscription was immediately proposed, at the Unity Barbecue, will agree with and about $50 in cash, and one hundred us, in saying that this spirited and eneron credit, subscribed, to pay the funeral getic Whig association, could not have expenses of the deceased. Before the secured the services of one better informthe choice of the meeting. Mr. Bouic has not yet been hanged, or is now out then made a political speech, abusing of the penitentiary, because he has not

We understand that Mr. John A. Carter, the present County Clerk, and the Rev. Johny Norris, the abolitionist, attached to it. There was a stuffed coon

It was indeed heart rending, to hear a James Hoban, who has flourished in the charge of being an abolitionist, why a certain time and place designated.—

WHIGMEETING .- A large Whigmeet- South Carolina, and one that did as five miles below Rockville, at the tavern | vidual, in getting Polk nominated, is alof Mr. James Rabbitt. A fine Whig ready out upon him charging him (and do so in another; and we can say with of Maryland, of the first part, and David Conpole was erected, bearing a flag and with truth too) with duplicity and dou- truth, that we never, in the course of rad, of Virginia, of the second; the bets are as streamer, with the names of Clay and ble dealing in relation to the Tariff. In a the District were up in strong numbers, Carolina, on the 5th of August, and rethusiasm of the day was entirely destroy- ready been trimming his sails so as to occurred in Rockville to our political opponents. The meeting organized by His professions in favor of a Revenue day Tariff for incidental protection—for procalling Mr. A. Kilgour to the Chair .- tecting all interests, and his adoption of After a few appropriate remarks from the Baltimore Resolutions, are three gi-After drumming up the democracy of Mr. Joseph A. Bradley, of Washington, gantic humbugs, which might blind, and the meeting adjourned, and retired to would certainly betray us. There is no

Locoroco Principles.-A little Ta- the head, and killed him instantly! ano- and Kilgour addressed the people in witness, that what the Whigs charge upwas knocked down and considerable in- ner.

jured, though not dangerously. The life- & lt will be seen, by reference to & A slangwhanger for the Locofoco, less body of the unfortunate victim was our political advertisements in another party, who calls himself Revi John removed a few paces off, when a few of part of our paper, that the Cracklin Clay Norris, is out in the Globe of lac the more obdurate wretches went deli- Club purpose holding another very inte- in a long letter, asserting in the m berately at work, to splice the pole. - resting meeting on the 7th (next Satur- hement terms possible, that he [The persons foremost in this matter day.) This meeting is to be held at abolitionist. Not he; not a bit m, shall be mentioned in our next.] But Triadelphia: and is to be addressed by than the chaste Dr. Duncan is. John y this was too much for those who at least that able advocate of Whig measures, you swear too hard to it; the people racter of this remark being an entirely knew the propriety of exhibiting some T. P. Lovegrove, Esq., of Baltimore. — wont believe you, although you are a uncalled for illustration of the truth of degree of respect and feeling for the in- We are sure that all who heard the able parson. You see parsons will lie some. the remissness which he was endeavordividual their recklessness had killed. A opening speech made by this gentleman times, Johnny. He says in his letter: The Hon. WM. Cost Johnson, will body was removed from the ground, a ed than he is, on the great questions of citizens of the District and of Montgo- convictions, we never can consent to his The Hon. WM. Cost Johnson, will body was removed from the ground, a led than he is, on the great questions of mery county. * * * I have been occupying the pulpit of said church living in Washington nearly five years, again. house, (a place refused to the Whigs for Whig brethren in Cracklin district to during which time I have spoken as A word with you.—Those persons the same purpose) to bring out a Legis- turn out and give a hearty welcome to much in public, on various subjects, as

> A scoundrel, who by some accident, last, cut the pole down which was erected by the Whig boys in front of our office, and stole the streamer which was foco friends should give him an office these words:

with was conveyed to his residence, fol- Democracy.—On Saturday last, a sub- tion was taken to a sermon of his, on Conrad selected sixteen States, to bet one ded to meet in Rockville on Tuesday lowed by a large concourse of people, scription was taken up among the loco- account of its abolitionist character, that hundred dollars on each of them casting lowed by a large concourse of people, after he got out of the pulpit, good care lowed by a large concourse of people, where the funeral rites were performed scription was taken up among the loco-focos, of "fips and levies," to defray the was taken that he should never again and five hundred dollars that he will be by the Rev. Mr. Mines. The most af- expenses of the Rev. John E. Norris, get in." fecting scene here transpired, when the the abolitionist and loco orator, for honofamily, consisting of a wife and three ring Rockville with his presence. Give letter, and with your special pleading, A hundred dollars was put up as a forfeit, little girl calling upon her father to get this county, as the great locofoco caravan Postponed.—Owing to the meeting up, to kiss her—not realizing his death. orator, was the President of the Irish Re. from the Advocate? But this you have the day selected, the parties met to depenitentiary. We-stated that he was for proceeding immediately, and agreed and we hasten to correct it, as we will any his testimony, to declare yourself "a re-THE HICKORY POLE RAISING IN ROCK- to proceed as soon as practicable, to erect other mistake, if any should hereafter oc-

Polk, who is indebted to the South Caro- tain the editor of the Advocate—citi- to hold the stakes, who, to his surprise, lina traitors for his nomination, will in zens, too, that you nor your backers found "and return of this certificate" a very short time, discover how little he will dare say are not gentlemen of ve- erased; and refused to accept it. Furcan, with reason, expect from them; and racity. Now, sir, if we had never heard ther time was given Mr. Conrad to promay, with great propriety, say to Mr. any thing of you before, we might have cure a correct certificate of deposit, when to him, "Why did they nominate us?" innocent of the charge; but from what presented the following articles of agree-Mr. Rhett, one of the leading traitors of we had heard of you, and what we ment, which differed from the one preredress to be expected from him."

Now when the Whigs not only charge, Pole Raising.—One of the most spi- but prove that Polk and his party are actiff; little Banks; little Economy; large the nead, and kined in instantly; and little Banks; little Economy; large the nead, and kined in instantly; and little Banks; little Economy; large the nead, and kined in instantly; and little Banks; little Economy; large the nead, and kined in instantly; and little Banks; little Economy; large the nead, and kined in instantly; and little Banks; little Economy; large the nead, and kined in instantly; and little Banks; little Economy; large the nead, and kined in instantly; and little Banks; little Economy; large the nead, and kined in instantly; and little Banks; little Economy; large the nead, and kined in instantly; and little Banks; little Economy; large the nead, and kined in instantly; and little Banks; little Economy; large the nead, and kined in instantly; and little Banks; little Economy; large the nead, and kined in instantly; and little Banks; little Economy; large the nead, and kined in instantly; and little Banks; little Economy; large the nead, and kined in instantly; and little Banks; little Economy; large the nead, and kined in instantly; and little Banks; little Economy; large the nead, and kined in instantly; and little Banks; little Economy; large the nead, and kined in instantly; and little Banks; little Economy; large the nead, and kined in instantly; and little Banks; little Economy; large the nead, and kined in instantly; and little Banks; little Economy; large the nead, and kined in instantly; and little Banks; little Economy; large the nead, and kined in instantly; and little Banks; little Economy; large the nead, and kined in instantly; and little Banks; little Economy; large the nead, and little Banks; lit whom it may concern, that the charge our minds, that he was on Abolitionist; is wholly unfounded, and was malicious- or, at least, sympathized with those misly concocted, with special purpose to in- chievous fanatics in the accomplishment jure me in the estimation of my fellow- of their evil designs. Adhering to these I stand ready to declare myself a recreant to moral rectitude."

Now all this is very pretty; and it only wants one little item to exculpate Johnny from the charge of being an abolitionist, and that one item is TRUTH. And as you have said in your letter, "that if any man of veracity will assert that he ever heard me advocate the tenets held by abolitionists, I stand ready to demade speeches; but, (with a slight ex- skin on the pole which the thief did not clare myself a recreant to moral recti- Not long since, a Locofoco bragger, who ed with many of the prominent Whigs ception on the part of the latter,) nothing touch—it appeared like Macbeth's ghost tude," we ask you, sir, when you wrote hails from Waterford, Va. and calls him-THOMAS G. PRATT. of the county, it is thought by them ex was said but what was appropriate to to him, and he fled. Had he espied the that letter if you had not seen the inquiself David Courad, proposed betting upcoon in the first place, it is thought he ry made by us, and the reply of the on the result of the Presidential election, would not have cut the pole. His loco- Georgetown Advocate; which are in and even appointed agents to procure Locofoco orator) was never turned out, ing a customer; and the following terms in the common acceptation of the term. Please help poor Johny for the sake of from a church here, yet so much excep- were agreed upon, in substance: Mr.

did you not reply to this short extract Mr C. selected his stake-holder, and on creant to moral rectitude." But this to his credit, subject to his order and rewill not avail you; for we give below turn of this certificate. the names of fifteen other gentlemen of MR. POLK AND THE SOUTH.—Mr. the District of Columbia, who fully suswitnessed on Saturday last at Unity, viously signed, and entirely altered the compels us to believe otherwise. A man character of the bet. that will speak falsely in one case, will "An agreemnt of a bet entered into this 31st. our lives, heard half so many falsehoods space of time, as were told by you dur. ana, Georgia, New York, Tennessee, and Indiing the hour that was allotted to you on The said Kephart bets'the said Conrad, One was made up of low scurrilous false- President of these United States—the money to be hoods in abuse of Mr. Clay, which even disgusted the more honorable of your whom it is won. Given under our hands this own party. And to conclude, sir, we 31st day of August, 1844. must say that notwithstanding your letter denying the charge made upon you, out of the bet, or, in the mildest terms your conduct has been such as to convince us, that we should not only 'write acknowledge what you promised in your letter, "a recreant to moral rectitude," > and also an abolitionist, of the most dangerous kind; and that your object is to purposes. But recollect the fate of the Rev. Chas. Torry, one of your compeers. GEORGETOWN, District of Columbia, August 27th, 1844. The undersigned, members of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and others, of ing to enforce, and especially the manner and emphasis of its delivery, did "I wish, therefore, to certify to all not fail to establish the impression on

> JOHN PICKRELL JOHN WILSON. FRAN'S WHEATLY, JAS. A. BURNS, WM. H. CRAIG, WM. SHANKS. JAS. M. KNOTT, CHAS. MYERS. JOHN MITCHELL. JUDSON MITCHELL, THOS. G. WARREN. J. T. BANGS, FRANCIS A. LUTZ. WM. H. EDES, JOS. NICHOLSON.

A Locofoco Mode of Betting .persons willing to "cover his money." "Though the Rev. Mr. Norris (the He had, however, no difficulty in find-Now, sir, instead of writing this long elected President of the United States. Perhaps you may say that the editor and Mr. Conrad produced a certificate

I hereby certify that A. B. has this day

J. K., Teller.

Capt. Thomas was the person selected day of August 1844, between George Kephart cast their electoral votes for Henry Clay, and Fire that full fifteen-sixteenths of your speech Hundred Dollars that Henry Clay will be elected D. CONRAD."

Now, this second attempt to shuffle that can be used, to practice deception, was too much Locofocoism to satisfy a you down" an abolitionist, but also an ass. highminded and honorable Whig, and Read the following certificates, Johnny, C. was left to "go in his hole," and forand you will, if you are a man of truth, feit his hundred dollars, or "go to law for its recovery." The Locofoco party of Virginia, particularly those of Loudon, Farquhar, Jefferson, Warren and Clark counties, have people, to carry out your unhallowed attempted to "bluff off" every Whig that has mentioned betting once, and have tried to make considerable capital out of it. But we hope that after this exposure of trickery, nothing more will be heard of them, in the betting line.

The bet as it stands, in the last articles Rev. J. E. Norris in said Church, was, be a doubt but that the mistake was made er things, in substance, whilst speaking Whigs attend the Darnestown meeting.