

DEPOSITION

Case of Charlotte Johnson, No. 838.960.

On this Nathan day of 190, at

State of Illinois, before me Nathan Johnson, a

Special Examiner of the Bureau of Pensions, personally appeared

Nathan Johnson, who, being by me first duly sworn to answer truly all interrogatories propounded to him during this special examination of aforesaid claim for pension, deposes and says:

1 Since then claimed to have been 2 lawfully married - They were
3 never divorced but lived together
4 till my brother died on Nov. 27/1905
5 and she has not since then 6 remarried or cohabited with 7 any man as wife -

8 My brother owned no property
9 that I know of or heard of - I
10 claimant has owned none
11 since he died, and has had 12 no income from any source
13 since then except from her
14 own manual labor -

15 I have no interest in this claim.
16 I have understood your questions
17 and my answers are correctly
18 recorded in this deposition which 19 has been read over to me
