

(3-446.)

DEPOSITION

Case of Melvin Johnson, No. 253,678

On this 18 day of May, 1888, at Baltimore, County of Harford, State of Maryland, before me, W. Brooks, a Special Examiner of the Pension Office, personally appeared Annie Pinkett, who, being by me first duly sworn to answer truly all interrogatories propounded to her during this Special Examination of aforesaid pension claim, deposes and says: My age is 83 years

Residing at 209 Duke Street Baltimore, Md.

Clara is my daughter.

When you present at the birth of any of your daughter's children I only attended her in one of her confinements, that was at the birth of Thomas. She was living then on Dallas St. That was about the year that the war closed, but I don't know what year that was, but I remember that she was born on the 24th of April, but I can't tell you just the year, but the war had closed.
Before the war Henry Johnson was in good health, I had my little brother-in-law. He did not have anything the matter with him then. No; he did not have a cough then but did when I first saw him after he was discharged from the