

DEPOSITION A.

Case of Chas. A. Wilson, Gt. F., No. 576.648

On this Relamant day of Relamant, 189 , at County of Relamant
State of Relamant, before me, Relamant, a Special Examiner of the Pension Office, personally appeared Relamant who, being by me first duly sworn to answer truly all interrogatories propounded to him during this Special Examination of aforesaid pension claim, deposes and says: a year after my discharge.

Yes, I can positively say that I had rheumatism not later than a year after my discharge. No sir, I could not say that I had it within six months after my discharge. The first place that the rheumatism affected me was in the arms and afterward in the legs. No sir, I don't claim that I got my rheumatism in the army, because I never felt it while I was in the army. I only claim that the rheumatism that came on me after my discharge was caused, as I believe, by my army service. Yes sir, it is true that I did not feel any symptoms of rheumatism for about one year after my discharge from the army. I had no other sickness, or disability in the service but frosted feet, only I was sick for a while during the time I was with the wagon train. Indeed, I can't tell you what ailed me then. No sir, I was never in hospital. When I was sick that time while I was with the wagon train, I used to report to the "doctor" in the morning, but that was all. No sir, the spell of sickness I had when I was with the wagon train, did not leave any bad results. I don't know of anyone now living who bunked with me in the service. The only mess-mate that I had
