DEPOSITION 6

Case of Rebecca Emolds, No. 580,094

On this Entered day of ..., 189 , at ...
County of ...
State of ..., before me, ..., a
Special Examiner of the Pension Office, personally appeared ...
..., who, being by me first duly sworn to answer truly all interrogatories propounded to h during this Special Examination of aforesaid pension claim, deposes and says:

Rebecca and Miss Loveday were the only persons there with me. I cannot say what day in the week it was at the office. I am positive I was never there but one time. I cannot read and write. My name is not Carney. It is Comish. I lived at 1035 Gordmans Alley when I testified. I cannot identify any mark but the statement you read to me. (Affd 6 July 19 1893) is correct and true. I do not know how long before the war that Rebecca and Jim Emolds were married. I understood they had a license to get married. Now Rebecca has had no man living with her since Jim Emolds died and I do not she has not married again. If she had remarried I would know it. Now Jim Emolds was never married before he was married to Rebecca Smith, this claim. Jim was free born as I always understood. I do not remember signing two papers at that office. I remember Miss Loveday signed me papers and I signed me papers signed by that lady (B. B. Tuer) at the office, and I remember we were both sworn by a Notaire at another office near there. I have no interest in this case. I cannot write my name
