

A. Those who have already testified for me, I can't think of any others.

Q. Do you desire to be present or represented by an attorney or other person during such examination?

A. No sir, I can't afford to lose any time which might throw me out of employment.

Q. Was the deceased soldier affected by any disease or disability other than that alleged at any time subsequent to discharge?

A. No sir, truly he was wounded in his right arm during the war.

Q. State the name of the proprietor of the lumber yard in which the deceased soldier commenced to work soon after your marriage as above mentioned.

A. That I am unable to do, but I will try and find out and inform you at once.

Q. Did the deceased soldier reside here - in Baltimore - from the time of his discharge up to his death?

A. He resided here with me from the time of our marriage up to the date of his death, and I think he lived here all the time before our marriage from the date of his discharge.

Q. Have you remarried since the death of the soldier?

A. No sir.

Q. When did Dr Brown first treat the deceased soldier?

A. I am unable to tell you, I think he had been prescribing for him before our marriage. He prescribed for him off and from soon after our marriage, attended him in his last illness and was present at time of his death.
