Address your reply to the COMMISSIONER OF PENSIONS with return of this letter.

Gentlemen,

In the above cited claim, it will be necessary for the claimant to have soldier's minor child, Greenberry, taken before some physician of good standing by two credible and disinterested witnesses who are able to speak from their own personal knowledge as to the identity of said minor child; and their affidavits should be filed to that point and to the name of said physician and the date; and the affidavit of the physician should also be filed, stating the date and circumstances, and the names of said witnesses, and that upon personal examination of said minor child his judgment is, that his age is [ ] or between [ ] and [ ] making it as precise as the case will permit. Such evidence
