General Affidavit

State of Maryland
County of Dorchester } ss:

DEPT. OF VETERANS AFFAIRS
SEP 20 1914
DIVISION

Personally came before me, a Justice of the Peace in and for aforesaid County and State, Lavinia Bennett aged about 65 years residing at Cambridge, County of Dorchester, State of Maryland, who, being duly sworn, declares:

and says, that William Williams my first Husband was in the army, I only knew this from what he told me before he died and before his mind got affected, but he never showed me any papers about his service in the army and he told me that he did not enlist under the name of William Williams, but under the name of George Burk, but he never showed me any papers, I never applied for any Pension from William Williams service in the army, as I did not know any thing about pension in those days after his death, all of which I subscribe to and affix my name, to the best of my knowledge & belief
