

My father has two or three brothers living <sup>some</sup> place, or atleast they were living when he last heard of them, but I dont know where they are. If my mother has any brothers or sisters living I dont know where they are or who they are.

There are people living in Queen Ann County who knew my father and mother from childhood up.

Joseph Boyer, at M. Ginnes, Queen Ann County, Maryland is one of those and he can tell you of others. I dont know the name of any other person who knew my father and mother while they lived in Queen Ann County, but Mr. Jo. Boyer can tell you plenty of them, both black and white.

My father and mother never went back to Queen Ann County to live, after he got home from the army, but stayed here in Baltimore until the death of my father.

Edward Wooden has known my father and mother ever since the war. He lives in this City and I think he can give you the names of others who have known them ever since they came to this City.

My father died in this City last April, 1901, and my mother has not remarried. My father left no property and only a little over one hundred dollars in cash, which is now all gone. My mother
