DEPOSITION a

Case of Henrietta Frisby; No. 738989

On this 3rd day of Jan, 190*2*, at Deposition of Charles Frisby Continued.
 State of _____, before me, _____, a special examiner of the Bureau of Pensions, personally appeared _____

_____, who, being by me first duly sworn to answer truly all interrogatories propounded to him during this special examination of aforesaid claim for pension, deposes and says:

has no property of any kind, no cash stocks, bonds or investments of any kind and no income from any source.

She is entirely dependent upon me for her support. My father and mother lived together as husband and wife from my earliest recollection continuously to the time of his death and were never separated or divorced.

I have one sister living in this City, Mr. Adaline Snowden, on Dover St. between Penn. & Fremont. She is younger than I.

There are no other brothers or sisters now living.

I am my mother's only support and her whole dependence and in this way I have an interest in this claim for pension. My father was a pensioner and I promised him on his sick bed, just before he died, that I would take care of my mother and look after getting her pension.

You have read this deposition to me, I understand it and it is correct.
