

dollars ($200.00) to his wife and children. He left no other property of any kind and this $200. is all gone now.

She has no property of any kind and no income from any source except what her son Charles Frisby does for her.

She is partly crazy and has had spells. She has been more or less crazy for ten years that I know of, and Benjamin her husband, moved around several places trying to help her, but could never do her any good.

Hewnetta has not remarried, but is still the widow of Benjamin Frisby.

I have no interest in her claim for pension. You have read this deposition to me, I understand it and it is correct.

John<sup>his</sup> Thomas
mark

Attest: } Adil Thomas
(A.H. Davis)

Deponent.

Sworn to and subscribed before me this 2 day of Jan, 1902, and I certify that the contents were fully made known to deponent before signing.

A.H. Davis

Special Examiner.