

3-289.
(Old No. 3-446.)DEPOSITION Case of Henrietta Frisby; No. 738989

On this 7th day of January, 1902, at Baltimore City, county of _____ State of Maryland, before me, At Davis, a special examiner of the Bureau of Pensions, personally appeared Becky Wooden, who, being by me first duly sworn to answer truly all interrogatories propounded to her during this special examination of aforesaid claim for pension, deposes and says: I don't know my age, occupation Laundress and my residence & P.O. address is No. 38 Carlton St., Baltimore Maryland.

I knew Benjamin Frisby ever since he come home from the Army and continuously up to the day of his death. The war of the rebellion was not over when he come home.

At I knew Henrietta Frisby, the wife of Benjamin Frisby before he returned from the Army, because she and her children were living with Old man Perry Frisby, Ben's father, here in this City.

She told me that when her husband Benjamin Frisby went into the Army, he wrote to his father to come after Henrietta and the children and keep them at his house till he (Benjamin) got back from the war, and he did bring them here to Baltimore and they lived with Old Man Perry Frisby until Ben got home.

I knew Henrietta and all her children well. I lived in the same house with them two or three years.

They come from the Country someplace but I don't know where. I never knew any of them till they come to Baltimore to live. After Benjamin Frisby came home from the Army, he and this
