MRS LARENCE PERIN

THE CITY

Important to Advertisers.

Because of the large number of casual them properly classified.

Detectives in Pulpit.

of the alliance, called the meeting to order. He introduced Rev. Charles Fiske, rector of St. Michael and All Angels Church, who delivered the invocation, an, Feldeinsamkeit, The Moon Hangs After a brief speech by Rev. Charles L. Mead, pastor of the church, he introduced Mr. Joshua Levering as chairman of the meeting. Mr. Levering, after dwelling on the importance of fighting for a pure Sabbath, presented Mr. Burns. that detectives were needed in the pulpit as well as ministers. After telling the difficulties he encountered in cleaning out Francisco and other cities, Mr. Burns said that the blame for such conditions was on the good citizens of those munici palities, who neglected to evince an terest in politics.

The noted detective drew applause when he stated that he was not after "the small fry," but after the "big guns." "My life is an open book," he said. "I have never done anything that I should ashamed of. I'm not holding myself up as a paragon of virtue. My character has been investigated by crooks so much tha it is worn out. Mighty few crooks ever got away from me. If they did, it was because of a fixed jury. Providence is always on the side of right and the Lord has always been with me. Detective work is nothing more than the application of common sense. Anyone of you can be

"There never was a time when the nation needed patriots more than it does today," he continued. "I am urging the bar associations of the country to weed out their evil lawyers before I send them to the penitentiary. I hope to worry a lot of criminals before I die. The ran and file of the police departments of al the big cities are honest men," Former Mayor J. Barry Mahool offered a resolution congratulating the Lord's Day Alliance upon its splendid work.

Harlem Church to Celebrate.

tion who attended the dedication, be- Maryland and Dixie. ard which caused several of them to lose Bottsford; quickstep, Army Life, Welch their way while going home through the march. The Marvel. Fillmore: terrific storm. The service of dedication | Down the Line, Hager: march, Back was conducted by Dr. Z. T. Sweeney, Dixie, Berlin; march, America-Maryland, who later served as minister to Turkey | Myrant; Star-spangled Banner. during the McKinley administration and who is now in New York. The present pastor is Dr. Henry C. Armstrong, who is the fourth since the church has bee

Not the least interesting feature of the program will be the attendance of form pastors. Already four have signified their By means of moving pictures he made affiliated with the church will hold anni- turer exhibited scenes at every stoppin by Dr. Peter Ainslie, of the Christian industries and characteristics of the Temple: Rev. C. B. Bagby, of Twenty-inatives. fifth Street Church; Rev. Francis H. One picture taken in India, and cial music, and the evening will be de- Surf riding by the natives of Hawaii voted to the renewing of acquaintances was another interesting picture. between the visiting clergymen and the congregation.

The "Burglar" Was Angry.

that he don't get away," cautioned Har- though several of his children were. The Raymond is from New York. vey as he hurried up South street. with a long ladder hanging over one caveators allege testamentary incapacity shoulder. Quickly placing it against the and make other allegations of the usual windows. Once inside he quickly made attorney. his way to the third floor, where the light was burning. Hanrahan followed close

Instead of a burglar they found Thomas D. Cruit, of 1070 West Fayette street, Public Service Commission, has taken a coiled up on a couch sound asleep. The stand against the proposition that the slumberer was soon awakened and asked city erect and operate its own lighting to give an account of himself. In a few plant on the Gunpowder River, using the Maryland Branch of the Woman's Foreign well-chosen words Cruit, who was angry waste water. at having been awakened, informed the "I see absolutely no need for a mu- estant Church will be held in West Baltibluecoats that he was a chemist at the nicipal lighting plant such as is pro- more Methodist Protestant Church, Lafayplace and after completing some work posed." said Mr. Phelps. "There can be ette avenue and Gilmor street, on March which kept him until a late hour he had no saving to the taxpayers through its 12 and 13. decided to sleep in the warehouse. | establishment. At the present time the the warehouse verified the information Power Company is furnishing current for given them by Cruit and the patrolmen the municipal buildings and the street left—this time via the stairs and front lights at a rate which allows them pracdoor. They departed, taking their lad- tically no profit." der with them, and Cruit returned to! complete his broken slumbers.

Florestan Club Entertainments. Club, 522 North Charles street, has ar- motorcar owners who enter the District ranged a varied and interesting series of in their cars on March 4 will have to Tuesday evening entertainments to be have a District license, the same as at Temple tomorrow Rabbi C. A. Rubenstein given for the members at the clubrooms; any other time. during the month of March. The pro- Some car owners who wish to go to fort. This is the title of a play descriptive gram is as follows: March 4-Musicale, in which selections District law would be suspended for one achieved great success on the German will be given by Orlando Apreda, violin- day, but the feeling against Maryland is stage last year. ist; John T. Elliott, barytone, and Arthur so strong over there on the motorcar li-Oehm, pianist. March 11-Kinder Symphony and other lowed.

humorous musical numbers. March 18-Illustrated lecture by Prof. Robert W. Woods, of the Johns Hopkins University.

On Monday evening, March 10, a reception will be given at the clubroom to Joseph Stransky, conductor of Philharmonic Society Orchestra of New York, and Rudolph Ganz, pianist.

Observer Going to Nebraska. A. W. Schilling, who for the last three years has served as one of the assistant directors of the local Weather Bureau, has been transferred to the station at At the annual meeting of the members order from Washington. Mr. Schilling exchange rooms yesterday, the following terday at Wyncote Lodge, her home, at mission is yet to be determined, as Chief, Tuesday after a lingering illness, took was due to the infirmities of age.

Sings Lieder Delightfully. especially those intended for The Sunday came Franz Schubert, with O How Fair dispatch continued: American. It is no small task to prop- the World is Dight, the beautiful words | Miller came here from Baltimore six erly arrange these little advertisements set to glorious music by the amiable months ago and secured employment in as "Male Help Wanted," "For Sale," she were inspired by them. Then a love were two brothers others. The American, however, for the serenade and the crown of all Schubert's proposed, and was accepted. served as the unattainable model of boly

Detective William J. Burns, who is next great composer from whom she very the wedding must be postponed. regarded as one of the brainiest sleuths truthfully recited in her lovely song, Du When found groaning on the girl's in the world, gave some of his opinions Meine Seele, du Mein Herz, du Mein porch Miller had in concerning crooks, politicians and good Wonn, O du Mein Schmerz. Then came Miller, resides at 713 Fourth street, Highcitizens at a meeting last night, held the beautiful Waldesprocht, and Mond- landtown, Baltimore.' under the auspices of the Lord's Day nacht, followed by the Spring Night, all When seen last night the brother at Alliance, in the First. Methodist Episco- in the richest vein of the unselfish and Highlandtown stated that about one week pal Church. Dr. W. W. Davis, secretary spirited composer of the genuine lieder, ago he received a letter from his brother six songs beginning with the immortal been married. Von Ewige Liebe, Schwalbe Sag Mir

Hear, and his dearest of all cradle songs, As evidence of the regard in which Guten Abend, Gute Nacht. Mme. Culp responded to several en- employes of the Daniel Miller Company cores, the old song, Long, Long Ago, presented the firm a handsome silver arousing the greatest enthusiasm, but pitcher, suitably engraved, last night at the admiring audience would not leave the banquet which the firm tendered to Mr. Burns began his speech by saying the hall until she sang the very appro- them at the Hotel Stafford. The pitcher, priate and beautiful closing song. At which stands about two feet high, is a Parting, the words by Petersen and the splendid specimen of the silversmith's music by Rogers. The song was simple, | art and was presented to members of vice and detecting graft in Seattle, San but the sentiment intensely poetic, and the firm on behalf of the employes by impressed by her wonderful stage pres. L. R. McClure, traveling salesman of the ence as she left she carried all ears and firm in Virginia. Mr. McClure told of the hearts with her. For perfection of pro- kindly feelings which had always exgram and artistic rendition, Mme. Culp's isted between employers and employes, recital has not been surpassed.

Over the Mountain, My True Love I

To Parade With Hikers Monday. At the regular weekly meeting of the Just Government League last night there was a general discussion of the plans for the part Maryland women will take in the suffragist parade at Washington Monday. All arrangements have been completed by the local suffragists for their trip to the capital, and they assert that! they will make the antis give up opposing votes for women.

About 300 from Baltimore will leave Union Station at 11 o'clock Monday morning on a special train. These will assemble on Charles street, near Read, at ernment 10 o'clock and march to the depot, headed by Farson's Fourth Regiment Band of 50 cert in Union Station, Washington, at there by Jack Mulvey, who was senchief musical organizations in the inaugu- in 1902 on the charge of counterfeiting ration parade on Tuesday. Besides the band, Farson's Fourth Regiment Drum Corps of 48 pieces will be in line. The band's musical programs for both days

The Harlem Avenue Christian Church Monday-March, Silvery Bells, Botts ford: march, Military Maids, Hengler will observe the twenty-fifth anniversary march. National Capitol. Santleman; sereof the dedication of its present structure, nade at station in Washington, Beautiful Harlem and Fremont avenues, on March Lady; march, Luxembourg, Lebar; march. 11. This anniversary will be recalled The Thoroughbred, Engleman; march, sharply to the members of the congrega- Spirit of Independence, Holzman; My cause they were caught in the great bliz- Brookins; march, Medley Silvery Bells,

Quick Trip Around World. Oscar Phelps Austin, connected with government service and secretary of the Geographic Society, carried a large last night around the world in 80 minutes intention to be present and speak. The this remarkable trip. Starting from New anniversary exercises will begin on Sun- York for London, thence to Belgium, to day, March 9, and will be carried over Paris, to Rome, to Algeria, to Egypt, to on Monday evening, and will close Tues- India, to Java, to Australia, New Zealand, day evening. All of the organizations to China, to Japan, to Hawaii, the lecversary rallies. There will be addresses point, the pictures portraying the various Scott, of Calhoun Street Church, and which the Asiatic elephant was exhibite Rev. E. C. Baker, of Fulton Avenue doing some marvelous stunts, reminded Church. The several departments of the the young folks in the audience of scene church will have exhibits of their work. in a circus. Another interesting picture Tuesday evening the anniversary re- was that portraying the native Austraception will be held. There will be spe- lians engaged in sports and in dancing.

Would Break Kaufman Will. | yesterday in the Orphans' Court, filed | notable Bible lecturer, will speak at the was held in the Casino at Patterson Park | tees. Advancing years and ill health re-"Hist! burglars!" whispered Patrolman a caveat to the will of John W. Kauf- New Academy of Music tomorrow evening last night and the following officers elect- cently caused him to relinquish his po-Harry Harvey, of the Central district, man, who died January 20, 1912. The at 8 o'clock, according to an announce- ed for the ensuing year: Benjamin F. sition. early yesterday morning, as Patrolman caveat stated that the petitioners are ment in the advertising columns of The Woelper, Jr., president; Dr. H. R. Cop-Hanrahan came upon him while he was brother and nephew of the deceased, re- American this morning. His subject will page, first vice president; Dennis Drisstanding on South street, near Lombard, spectively. On January 26, 1912, the will be Election and Free Grace. It is an- coll, second vice president; G. W. Willooking intently at a light on the third of John W. Kaufman was filed for pro- nounced that the expense incurred in giv- liams, third vice president; Charles floor of the warehouse at 125 South bate in the same court, and it disposed ing the lecture has been provided for, Koebrich, corresponding and recording "Watch him until I get back, and see Martin Kaufman was not a legatee, all nor will any collection be taken up. Mr. cording and corresponding secretary; will was dated January 19, 1912, the In a few minutes the bluecoat returned day before the testator died. The > Opposes City Lighting Plant. Charles E. Phelps, chief engineer to the ford, of the First Branch.

A telephone message to the owner of Consolidated Gas Electric Light and Maryland Autos Inauguration Day. Among its earlier editors was Prof. George State Motor Vehicle Commissioner Lyman Kittridge. Roe has been notified by the District of The music committee of the Florestan Columbia authorities that all Maryland

> the inauguration had hoped that the of the life of the Rothschild family that cense question that no grace was al-

Another Appeal for St. Luke's. March 25-Manuscript Night of orig- out by St. Luke's Hospital recently as a Weedon, Benjamin Hayward Wallis, Leo years ago the company was consolidated the fight they are making to raise $3,000 Arthur S. Duncan. to pay off the old debts of the hospital. which have accumulated since its founding seven years ago. More than $1,000 has been subscribed by the friends of the peal, which was sent out early in Janu- tomorrow afternoon, March 2, at 3:30 attend yesterday's meeting. ary, and much of this money has been o'clock. The organist will be John T. spent to pay something to each creditor Elterman, now holding the position at

Real Estate Exchange Election.

there until three years ago, when he was Benjamin F. Hearn, Julius Mintz; B. 1 sent to Baltimore. Mr. Schilling will Howard Richards, William Merriken, Dr. leave for Nebraska the first part of next | George C. Wegefarth, Philip Morgan, William E. Ferguson and Charles J. Dobler.

Drinks Poison on Fiancee's Porch. advertisements which are received by The A superb recital of vocal music was Despondent because his fiancee, Delia Daily and Sunday American, it is abso- given yesterday afternoon by Mme. Julia L. Duffy, would not marry him during lutely essential that advertisers who de- Culp, the celebrated Dutch contralto, as- Lent, Charles R. S. Miller, aged 26, of sire to have their ads properly classified sisted at the piano by Conrad Bos, who 713 South Fourth street, Highlandtown, should have their copy in the office at achieved distinction as an accompanist attempted suicide by drinking laudanum the earliest possible moment. The Ameri- by his recital tours with Dr. Ludwig in front of her home, in Pittsburgh, at can is recognized as the most valuable | Wullner in past years in America. Mme. noon yesterday, according to a dispatch medium for these advertisements and Culp's program was a fine example of from that city. Miller was rushed to they pour into the office in great volume. art and taste, taken from her great Mercy Hospital, where he was said to be Therefore, it is difficult to classify them, repertoire of the best composers. First in a serious condition last night. The under the many different headings, such Schubert and sung by Mme. Culp as if the copper works of C. G. Hussey & Co., "Real Estate Wanted," "Rooms for song, The Poet, and the ever-memorable Through them he became acquainted with Rent," "Business Chances" and many Du Bist die Ruh. Then the unforgettable the sister and, after a rapid courtship, benefit of the advertisers, desires to have works, the divine Ave Maria, which has On January 15 the couple secured a sentiment for all other Ave Marias since to perform the ceremony during Lent. The parents of Miss Duffy also objected Robert Schumann was Mme. Culp's and then the bride-to-be also decided that

Brahms was chosen for a group of which read as though he had already

Firm Banquets Its Employes. they hold the members of their firm, and in the speech of acceptance James M. The Kneisel Quartet comes next Fri- Easter, treasurer of the company, said that the members of the firm felt sure that they had the best commercial men that could be found in the city and that the firm appreciated their splendid work. Covers were laid for 140 and all of the traveling salesmen of the company were called in from the road to attend the affair. Following the serving of the courses, a number of informal speeches vere made regarding the business prospects of the company and an informal discussion of the best way to increase its Find Buried Counterfeit Coins. Capt. Charles E. Wright, of the gov-Secret Service, yesterday revered a lot of the coins which were discovered in the bed of Jones Falls and pieces. This band will also give a con- which are said to have been those thrown Captain Wright said that he had learne that other coins had been discovered and were in the hands of some of the workmen on the new Fallsway. All must be returned to him as, under the law, he states anyone is liable to prosecution if after warning, he retains counterfeit coins in his possession.

> Archbishop Talks to Women. Archbishop James J. Keane, of Dubuque. Iowa, delivered an interesting address before the members of the Cathedral Tabernacle Society yesterday morning at 10 o'clock, in the Cathedral School Hall, on West Mulberry street During his remarks the Archbishop expressed his approval of the work carried on by the women and encouraged then to continue their work in the future. The members of the Tabernacle Society busy themselves in the making of vestments for churches too poor to purchase them. The society has been in existen

Left a Wife and Son. ounted Patrolman John H. Warner pub shed in The American January 31 the statement was made that he was survived by his mother (Mrs. Anna W. Warner), three sisters (Mrs. Alfred Langdon and Misses Emma and Anna Warner) and one brother (Edward Warner). Patrolman Warner also left a widow and son. who reside at Medford, Carroll county Mrs. Warner resides with her father. John T. Richter, a prosperous farmer. She is sister of the wife of Mayor David E. Walsh, of Westminster. Her son is 15

G. B. Raymond to Speak Here.

For Opening of Wyanoke Street. City Council recently by President White- | Koch and E. M. Thomas.

Missionary Society to Meet.

Missionary Society of the Methodist Prot-Baltimorean on Harvard Paper.

Harold C. Greene, of Baltimore, a men of the junior class at Harvard, has been elected secretary of the Harvard Advocate. The Advocate is the oldest publication in continuous existence at Harvard

Five Men From Frankfort. will speak on The Five Men From Frank-

Admitted to the Bar. The Supreme Bench yesterday admitted the following gentlemen to prac- The Virginia Railway and Power Comtice at the bar: Benjamin Kann, Edward pany is one of the most prosperous trac-Fifteen hundred letters have been sent A. Darr, J. Milton Brandt, Edward P. tion properties in the South. About two > Free Organ Recital Tomorrow. The next organ recital of the Peabody the Fulton Avenue United Brethren

Mich. about nine years ago, and served ant secretary, John Elmer; directors, with pink roses and pink-shaded cande- | pendent railroads of this city to secure Sacred Heart Cemetery.

Mrs. Perin was formerly Miss Eliza Washington Perine, and her elopement on Thursday came as a great surprise to her friends.

labra. The favors were exquisite little reasonable rates from both the Pennsyl- closed. bouquets of tiny pink rosebuds in paper | vania and Baltimore and Ohio for switchalso in the form of pink roses.

Perins Now at Seaside. make their future home.

most intimate of the friends of the cou- from Baltimore to the capital city. ple, and Mrs. Philip Haxall Harrison, Immediately upon arriving in Wash- as to his condition. her mother's residence on North Charles to Detective Captain Boardman, who imstreet during the latter's stay in Atlan- mediately took steps to recover the valutic City, was kept busy answering the ables. A description of the articles lost telephone yesterday. The family of the by Mrs. Pridham was telephoned to local Bradford Perin, the youngest brother of lavaliere. the groom, who is an artist of some note, painted a beautiful portrait of her last summer. She is one of four attractive sisters, the others being Mrs. Holmes Thomas, of Chicago; Mrs. Douglas Freeman and Miss Mildred Perine.

Fair Waitresses at Banquet.

the Madison Avenue Methodist Episcopal viduals, but no body representing the Church in the Sunday school rooms of association will attend." the church. In addition to the members of the class, more than 160 fraternity men who live in the vicinity of the church Samuel M. Hann, the teacher of the class; J. W. Galloway, president of the class; Rev. Dr. Polemus H. Swift, pastor of the church; Charles Abrams, superintendent of the Sunday school; Harry best-known residents of Parkville, Balti-Schad and M. Pitts Hooper responded to more county, took place Thursday afterappearance of 40 young ladies, who be- road long to the Sunday school, as waitresses. A musical program, rendered by the Johns Hopkins Glee Club, helped to en- body was taken to St. John's Evangelical liven the evening. George Gillette, Jack Lutheran Church, Harford road, where Fulton, Ben Tappan and Walter Geisel, Rev. William Ahl, pastor of the church, neuritis. who formed the club, with Wilmer Ray, conducted services in both the English E. L. Bishop and Herman Frank, sang or played some instrument, while Miss Mary Virginia Ward acted as the accompanist. After the banquet there was an informal gathering in the church parlors.

Election in East End. Martin Kaufman and Elmer E. Snyder | G. B. Raymond, who is described as a East Baltimore Improvement Association | years was president of its board of trus- known residents of East Arlington, and Oscar Koenig, financial secretary; William Koebrich, treasurer; Robert F

The Topographical Survey Commission | The following is the board of goverhas filed with the Commissioners for nors: Henry Marshail, William McCor- Cemetery. The pallbearers—members of He was born in East Baltimore 41 the second story and opened one of the nearly $10,000. S. Colquitt Pardee is the Opening Streets a plat for the opening of mick, Charles J. F. Steiner, W. W. Lee, the Holy Name Society of the church— years ago, and after being in several Wyanoke street from Greenmount avenue | Harvey Fautz, William Eisenbrandt, John to Star lane. The ordinance authorizing A. Becker, James F. Thrift, Harry Mcthe improvement was introduced in the Cosker. George Schanberger, Charles

Bad-check Man Caught.

Robert D. Carter, for whom the police The thirty-third annual meeting of the of this city had been looking for the past month on four charges of issuing bad checks, was arrested yesterday afternoon in front of the Hotel Kernan, where he had been stopping. The arrest was made by Patrolmen Kaufman, of the Northwestern district, and Squires, of the Western district.

Carter was about to be released from the Northwestern Police Station as the man who ordered his arrest refused prosecute him, when Lieutenant Dillon de cided to summon Betective Berney, who and who alleged that Carter was wanted on several other charges of giving ba checks, not only in this city, but also in Washington and New York. In the custody of Detective Berney and the two policemen who made the arrest Carter was then sent to Police Headquarters.

Dividend Increased.

cent., or 1 per cent. for the year.

Decision to Be Reviewed.

Whether the decision said to have been made by the Interstate Commerce Commission at Washington on the switching lace frills, and the ices and cakes were ing carload freight from the tracks of

Mrs. Pridham's Jewels Missing.

spending the early part of their honey- and Gwynn Oak avenues, West Forest physician, Dr. B. F. Benson, and Dr. moon at Atlantic City and will sail next | Park, lost several diamond rings and W. McElfresh and Dr. John W. Chambers came as a great surprise to even the lis Electric Railroad Company, going ner Fertilizer Company. Many friends sister of the groom, who is occupying ington Mrs. Pridham reported her loss her manner, is very popular in social with five turquoise; two gold bar pins, school. circles. She is a pretty girl, and Mr. two gold pins attached to chain and a

M. & M. and the Inaugural. Merchants and Manufacturers' Associa- on Ingleside avenue with appendicitis. widow, three sons (Harry, Warfield and Mrs. Henry B. Davis have retion, stated yesterday that the associa- Miss Reich's condition is serious and it Brent Rieman), four daughters (Misses turned from a visit to Atlantic City. tion would not attend the inauguration of President Wilson in a body. "A large number of members of the An elaborate banquet was given last association," said Mr. Beacham, "will night by the Young Men's Bible Class of attend the inaugural exercises as indi-

George Klass.

The funeral of George Klass, one of the toasts. A feature of the affair was the noon from his home, on the Old Harford morrow afternoon.

After a short service at the house the and German languages. At the close of the church ceremonies the body was carried to the cemetery adjoining the church, where burial was made. The pallbearers were Jacob and Leonard Key and Charles. Edward, George and William Klass. Mr. The annual election of officers of the John's Lutheran Church, and for many

Richard F. Flannery.

Catholic Church. Rev. Patrick Conroy the family physician, resorted to the Western Cemetery. Scholer, sergeant-at-arms, and Lawrence S. Kaufman, counsellor.

S. Kaufman, counsellor.

The following is the board of gover- Little Burial was in New Cathedral Little. Burial was in New Cathedral his family, passed away peacefully. were Col. Jerome H. Joyce, M. McEna- lines of business, was appointed to a ney, Timothy Walsh, Bartholomew Kane, place in the Census Department, where John E. Norton, Edward Flannery, Austin Martin, Michael Doyle, John Anderson, Frank J. Barlage, Miles O'Connor and William Hudson.

Mrs. Caroline D. Morgan. The funeral of Mrs. Caroline Dallam lam 'Morgan, rector of St. John's Prot- | completed, but the ceremony, which will estant Episcopal Church, Waverly, who probably be conducted by one or mo died Tuesday night at her home, 1325 of the organizations with which he was Linden avenue took place Thursday connected, will take place tomorrow aft- group and, going behind the bar, looted morning at 11 o'clock. The services were ernoon. held at Madison Avenue Methodist Epis opal Church. They were conducted by Rev. Dr. Polemus H. Swift. Burial was in Mount Olivet Cemetery.

Capt. James J. Reynolds. The funeral services of Captain James moves for betterments. . Reynolds, formerly of No. 32 Engine Company, who dropped dead while at a fire Tuesday, were held yesterday morning from St. Thomas' Catholic Church. where a requiem high mass was cele-Directors of the Virginia Railway and brated by Rev. Father William Cahill. Thursday at her home, 2100 Mount Holly room and stole three gold bracelets, a Miss Elizabeth Waters. These girls, who Power Company, at a meeting held in Eight fire captains were honorary pall- avenue, Walbrook, after an illness of a watch, a breastpin and three baby pins, are all members of the school set, work New York, declared a semiannual dividend | bearers and 65 firemen escorted the body | week. Death was due to a complication | aggregating about $60. Detectives are at | most industriously for their pet charity, of 1½ per cent. on the common stock, as far as Edmondson and Fulton ave- of diseases. Mrs. Stauff was born in work on both cases. which is an increase of one-half of 1 per | nues. Burial was in Bonnie Brae Ceme- Baltimore and was the daughter of Mrs.

Thomas W. Gough.

Inal compositions by members of the special appeal to the public for help in James Dougherty, Charles M. Balder and with the Norfolk and Portsmouth Trac- Gough, formerly with the Norfolk and Portsmouth Traction Company. The securities of the cor- | Steamship Company and for many years husband, Mrs. Stauff is survived by her guests included Miss Helen Whitridge, poration are largely held in Baltimore. | employed by the Merchants and Miners' mother (Mrs. Lula Gittings Walton, of Miss Nancy Brewster, Miss Frances Sling-R. Lancaster Williams, of the local Transportation Company, were held yes- Harford county), and four brothers luff, Miss Rebecca White, Miss Jean Marbanking-house of Middendorf, Williams | terday morning at 9 o'clock from the | (Chester, William, Webster and Robert shall, Miss Frances Kenny, Miss Rebecca | yesterday afternoon at her home on St. & Co., is a director of the Virginia Rail- home of his son, J. Louis Gough, 113 Walton, and one sister (Mrs. Grace Walinstitution as a result of the first ap- | Conservatory of Music will take place | way and Power Company, but he did not | Roland avenue, Roland Park. Mass was | ton Hall). later celebrated at St. Ignatius' Catholic | The funeral will take place tomorrow Church. Mr. Gough was 69 years old afternoon at 2 o'clock from her home. and had been seriously ill for the last

Michael Noeth.

THE COUNTY

Play at Catons High School. A remarkably fine production of The tomorrow afternoon. Services will be con- Harry A. Orrick, at their home, on North Merchant of Venice was given at the Catonsville High School last night by the St. Lucas' German Lutheran Church, of graduating class before a large and fashionable audience. Emory Morsberger, as | Shylock, stood out prominently in the from among the officials of the church, after a visit to New York. cast. Miss Evelyn Gillespie appeared as Interment will be in Western Cemetery. Portia and Miss Florence Caines as Nerissa, Ellicott Hewes as the Duke, Herbert Adams as Antonio, Marion Zimmerman as Bassanio and Reese Wilson as the Clerk. Several musical numbers were anniversary of the death of her hus- Miss Adele Daly left yesterday for given by Mrs. Louisa M. Raabe, contralto, pand, Henry Voight, Mrs. Georgiana Pittsburgh, where she will be the guest and Miss Erma Raabe, violinist. The Voight, 48 years old, died at her home, of Miss Ursula Reilly.

Taken to Towson Jail. The three boys who were given a hear- paralysis which caused her death while at her home, on Madison avenue. ing before Justice Powell at the Canton hanging clothes in her yard last Tues-Police Station on Wednesday, charged day. She fell unconscious to the ground with burglarizing several stores in Balti- and the cries of her little daughter at- tante sister, Miss Frances Wilson, will more county recently, were taken to Tow- | tracted the neighbors, who carried her be among the Baltimoreans to attend the son Jail late yesterday afternoon in de- into the house. She regained conscious- inauguration. fault of $2,000 bail each. Their cases will ness the following day, but again lapsed ty Grand Jury next week. They are: never revived. Albert Allen, 19 years old, of New York, | Since the death of her husband, two non Place, after a visit to New York. and James Jubb and Benjamin Thompson, years ago yesterday, Mrs. Voight had Mrs. George C. Jenkins, who of this city. Allen was arrested early in the week daughter by washing for a number of residence, on Chase street, will move and confessed to a chain of robberies in neighbors. She had maintained the little early in April to Seven Oaks, their home the county, implicating Jubb and Thomp- home and had sent her child to school, in the Green Spring Valley. son. The other two lads were arrested despite the great need for her at home. on warrants sworn out by Patrolmen Besides her daughter, Mrs. Voight is sur-Feehley and Flynn, of the county force. | vived by a sister.

Sue B. & O. for Damages. Claiming $25,000 damages for the death | George W. Kelly, 58 years old, for the from a short visit to New York. of Mrs. Lizzie Thomas, Joseph Thomas, last five years an employe of the city Thomas and Lillie Gross, her children, died Wednesday afternoon at his home, will arrive shortly for a visit to Miss yesterday, in the Superior Court, filed a 1615 North Carey street. The cause of Sara Guest Gibson at her home, on suit against the Baltimore and Ohio Rail- his death was a complication of dis- Park avenue. road Company, through Attorneys Fisher eases from which he had been suffering E Fisher. The declaration alleges that for the last two years. Mr. Kelly was killed by a train at St. Denis. alleged that the gate was allowed to remain open when it should have been schools of this city. He is survived by Miss Lydia Miller and the Messrs. Mil-

Joyner and Minna Hartman.

Joshua Horner Critically III. Joshua Horner, the well-known retired banker, is critically ill with kidney trou- | tion). ble at his home at Ashland. A consulta Mrs. Frederick Pridham, of Penhurst tion was held yesterday by his attending week for Europe, where they expect to other pieces of jewelry worth about $400 | Mr. Horner is 66 years old and was yesterday while a passenger on a car of formerly president of the American Na-The announcement of their marriage the Washington, Baltimore and Annapo- tional Bank and head of the Joshua Hor-

Govans School Closed Again. The Govans public school, which was bride were also kept busy answering the headquarters last night. The jewels were prevalence of scarlet fever in the neighquestions of friends as to where they in a box, which Mrs. Pridham placed be-borhood was reopened last Monday, only and Sons, died Thursday at his home hear Easton, Md. He had been ill sevelry consisted of two opal rings sur- cases of scarlet fever developed this week eral months and death was due to the Naples and Genoa and will spend some Mrs. Perin, while quiet and retiring in rounded with diamonds; two rings set among the children of the infirmities of age. The body will be time traveling abroad.

Miss Reich Has Appendicitis.

Miss Starr's Brother III in West. by falling.

Andrew Myer Dead.

Mr. Garlting Improving. John Garlting, of Chestnut Ridge,

George W. Gibson.

Klass was one of the founders of St. chial pneumonia and Bright's disease, George W. Gibson, Jr., one of the best-

> Union Lodge, No. 60, and Phoenix Royal Arch Chapter, of Masons; Jallopolis were out of sight. Grotto, of Washington Masons, and Baltimore City Council, Royal Arcanum, ive Headquarters yesterday morning and He is survived by a widow and four children-Morgan, Gilbert, Julian Robert-and a brother and sister.

gressive residents, as he had been recently made in that section. He was the East Arlington Improvement Asso-

Mrs. Mabel Walton Stauff.

Lula Gittings Walton, of Harford county. She had been apparently in very good health until one week ago, when she was taken ill and on Tuesday after a sudden

Mrs. Martha Yeakle. Mrs. Martha Yeakle, 86 years old, died at the home of her son-in-law. City Counland since that time she had made her up.

home with Mr. Heintzeman. She is survived by two daughters (Mrs. Charles H. Heintzeman and Mrs. George Ziegler), two sons (Henry and William Yeakle), eight grandchildren and one great-grandchild. The funeral will be held at 2 o'clock for a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. ducted by Rev. Hubert Klemme, pastor of Calvert street.

Mrs. Georgiana Voight.

Succumbing to paralysis on the second entertainment concluded with a panto- 1634 North Durham street, yesterday mime entitled A Fairy Gift. In the pan- morning. During the three days of her Mrs. Arnold Elzey Waters and Miss tomime appeared Sarah Smith, Mary Wag- illness her only child, Minnie, seven Annie Davidson have returned from Atner, Margaret Hoffman, Anna M. Aleer, years old, with whom she lived at the lantic City, where they have been spend-Guy Stapleton, Gretchen Ebert, Helen Durham street address, had remained at ing the past week at the Marlboroughher bedside through day and night. When Blenheim. the end came Mrs. Lopf, a neighbor, and the child were the only ones present.

Mrs. Voight suffered the attack of York are the guests of Mrs. M. N. Perry be brought up before the Baltimore coun- into a state of coma, from which she earned a livelihood for herself and have been spending the winter at their husband, and Alexander Claire engineer's department at the City Hall. Miss Gertrude Widner, of New York, born in Baltimore and was the son of Frick, who are spending some time travis Edward and Ellen Kelly. He received eling abroad are now in Florence. his education in the Catholic parochial ington, and John E. Kelly, telephone after Easter. clerk at the Northwestern Police Sta-> ing at 8:30 o'clock. After a brief ser- which place they will sail for Bermuda. vice at the home the body will be taken ant pastor. Burial will be in Bonnie Preston, in New York. Brae Cemetery. The pallbearers will be of St. Gregory's Church, of which Mr. visiting friends in Pittsburgh, has re-Kelly had been an active and prominent turned to her home at Roland Park.

George W. Kelly.

Henry Rieman.

brought here for burial. Mr. Rieman received his education in this city and a visit to friends in Washington. then joined the firm which his father founded. He remained as a partner un- Mrs. John M. Blankenship will be Miss Carrie Reich, daughter of Henry til his retirement about 20 years ago. among the Baltimoreans to attend the in-Reich, the contractor, of Catonsville, was He then moved to his Talbot county auguration. stricken Thursday afternoon at her home farm. Mr. Rieman is survived by his is feared that an operation will be nec- Clara, Mary, Lucille and Mildred Rieman), and a brother (Howard Rieman).

Gave Flag to Lee; Dead.

Miss Mary Starr, of Cockeysville, re- Mrs. Emily Watkins Jean, 75 years old ceived word of the serious illness from widow of George B. Jean, died yesterday erysipelas of her brother, George Frame at her home, 1533 Linden avenue, after Starr, of Cincinnati, O. The trouble re- an illness of about four weeks. Death sulted from an injury to his arm, caused was due to a complication of diseases. Mrs. Jean was a native of Anne Arundel from New York, where she had been county, being a direct descendant of John spending a fortnight with friends. S. Selby, the original settler of Selbys Cove, Anne Arundel county. When the Mr. and Mrs. John Fife Symington gave Andrew Myer, aged 43, a farmer, died Civil War broke out Mrs. Jean's sym- a beautifully arranged dinner last evening on Wednesday at his home at Rossville. pathy went out to the Confederacy, and at their home on West Monument street. He is survived by a widow and five chil- during the war she made a silk battle Their guests were Mr. and Mrs. Miles dren. Funeral services will be held to- flag, which she presented to General Lee. White, Jr., Dr. and Mrs. Hugh Hampton He later gave it to one of the Virginia Young, Miss Alice Lee Thomas, Miss regiments, and when the war closed and Louise Carey, Mr. Francis B. Harvey and the Southern flags were returned by the Dr. John Ruhrah. federal government this flag was sent to Annapolis, where it is at the present Mrs. Donnell Swann has returned to her time. The deceased leaves three children apartment at the Arundel after a visit to (Stanley G. Jean, of Harrisburg, Pa.; Atlantic City and has as her guest Mrs. Mrs. Charles A. Ware and Miss Sally Edmund H. McCullough, of Philadelphia. Lucas Jean). The funeral will take place this afternoon at 3 o'clock from the Protestant Episcopal Church of the As- give a small dinner on Saturday, March cension, where services will be conducted 8, at their home on Cathedral street in by Rev. Dr. Richard Hogue. Burial will honor of their daughter, Miss Doris F.

be in Mount Olivet Cemetery. Mr. Gfeller Burled Tomorrow. The funeral of John Gfeller, the veteran member of the reportorial staff of weeks in Atlantic City. Washington, died Thursday night at 11:15 | the German Correspondent, who died at o'clock at his home, 100 West Woodland him home, 914 Sharp street, on Wednes- a small dinner last evening at their home day, will take place at 2 o'clock tomor-Mr. Gibson suffered an attack of acute row afternoon. Services will be conindigestion two weeks ago while on his ducted by Rev. D. H. Steffens, pastor of way from Washington to his, home Martini German Lutheran Church, and issued invitations for a dinner to be given which brought on a fever. He contract- the pallbearers will be selected from the on March 13 at their home in Annapolis. of his property to relatives and friends. and therefore no admission will be asked, secretary; E. A. Stuerken, assistant reday, took place Thursday morning with a ed a cold, which later developed into editorial and repertorial staffs of the high mass of requiem from St. Joseph's pneumonia, and although Dr. G. G. Rusk, Correspondent. Interment will be

Thieves Succeed in Bold Game. Three strange men entered the saloon of Vincent Gaulis, at 113 West Pratt street, shortly before midnight of Thursday, engaged him in a cheerful conversation and when they left took $9 in money-all the change in the cash register-with them. Gaulis discovered his loss after the men had left the place, Florence, Italy. and when he went to look for them, they Gaulis reported the matter to Detect Detective Quirk was assigned to the case. Gaulis declared to Captain Mc-

Thursday night by thieves, who made to the hospital school. off with a quantity of clothing worth The officers of the auxiliary are: Presi-

Mrs,. Mabel Walton Stauff, 27 years another boarder, stole a safety razor Miss Eleanor Cottman, the Misses Harriet old, wife of Edward A. Stauff, died worth $5. He also entered Mrs. Boon's and Helen Gibbs, Miss Frances Clapp and Dance for Miss Thompson.

The funeral services of Thomas W. sinking spell, the physicians realized Spring Valley Kennels for her young selves to furnish the new playroom. Poultney, Miss Priscilla Dawson, Miss Paul street. The cards were followed by Lucy Dawson, Mr. Horace White, Jr., Mr. tea. The table was decorated with jon-Clinton MacSherry, Mr. Daniel Brewster, quils and yellow shaded lights. Mrs. C. Mr. Charles Stewart, Mr. Charles Gillett, Graham Archer poured tea. The other Mr. Julian Marshall, Mr. Stewart Cott- guests were: Mrs. Louis E. A. de Goll and man and Mr. Douglas Lovell.

Butter and Eggs.

North Platte, Neb., according to a recent of the Real Estate Exchange, held in the William H. Grafflin, Miss Achsah Preston conducted by the Public Service Com- Foster avenue, who died at his home last Charles street, yesterday morning. Death ways have to bother with a basket of William H. Grafflin, Miss Achsah Preston leggs and a jar of butter when one goes and Miss Anne Jackson. has been with the Weather Bureau for officials and directors were elected to Roland Park, a beautiful luncheon, in Counsel Bruce declared yesterday morning. After a short | Mrs. Yeakle was born in Germany and to town, especially when he has on his counsel Bruce declared yesterday morning. about 12 years, and during the last nine service at the home the body was taken her maiden name was Eberlein. She was best clothes; but it certainly makes one years has been doing observation work. jamin F. Hearn; vice president, George and Baroness von Giebeleben of Ger- Commission's findings in the matter. to Sacred Heart Catholic Church, Third brought to this country by her parents feel like wearing good clothes when it is a sacred Heart Catholic Church, Third brought to this country by her parents feel like wearing good clothes when it is a sacred Heart Catholic Church, Third brought to this country by her parents feel like wearing good clothes when it is a sacred Heart Catholic Church, Third brought to this country by her parents feel like wearing good clothes when it is a sacred Heart Catholic Church, Third brought to this country by her parents feel like wearing good clothes when it is a sacred Heart Catholic Church, Third brought to this country by her parents feel like wearing good clothes when it is a sacred Heart Catholic Church, Third brought to this country by her parents feel like wearing good clothes when it is a sacred Heart Catholic Church, Third brought to this country by her parents feel like wearing good clothes when it is a sacred Heart Catholic Church, Third brought to this country by her parents feel like wearing good clothes when it is a sacred Heart Catholic Church, Third brought to this country by her parents feel like wearing good clothes when it is a sacred Heart Catholic Church, Third brought to the sacred Heart Catholic Church, Third bro He was made observer while serving as C. Wegefarth; treasurer, William E. Fer- many. Covers were laid for 10 guests. A dispatch from Washington stated the and Fleet streets. Where a requiem high when she was quite young. Her husband, comes to settling grocery bills at the end

Mrs. Stockton Buzby arrived yesterday which Mrs. Yeakle was a member for Mr. Thomas A. Whelan has returned many years. Pallbearers will be selected to his home, on North Calvert street, Miss Elizabeth Rogers, of Washington, is the guest of Mrs. Tilghman Goldsborough Pitts at her/home, on St. Paul

Dr. and Mrs. Malcolm Goodrich, of New

Mrs. Philip Francis Lee and her debu-

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Pratt Janes have returned to their home, on Mount Ver-

Mr. and Mrs. James L. Murrill and Miss Annie H. Wheeler have returned from a visit to Atlantic City.

Mr. Eugene Levering, Jr., has returned

Mrs. Charles Frick and the Misses

Mr. and Mrs. Decatur H. Miller and his widow, by three daughters (Misses ler, who have had an apartment at the Helen, Stella and Rosie Kelly), and by Latrobe for the winter, will return to two sons (Maurice T. Kelly, of Wash- their home in the Green Spring Valley

Major and Mrs. Eric Bergland will The funeral will take place this morn- leave next week for New York, from to St. Gregory's Catholic Church, where Miss Ellen Frances Preston has rea high mass of requiem will be cele- turned to her home on Preston street brated by Rev. P. L. Ireton, the assist- after a visit to her sister, Miss Rita

the members of the Holy Name Society | Miss Rosalie Rutherford, who has been Mrs. Herman R. Harrigan, Miss Pearl V. Kellam and Mrs. Chris. Glover, of

Miss Helen Gail will sail today from Philadelphia, are visiting their aunt, Mrs.

Thomas Evans, 3130 O'Donnell street.

Mr. John Philip Hill has returned from

Mrs. John Witherspoon Frick has returned to her home at Roland Park after a visit to friends in Philadelphia.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter B. Brooks and Miss Frances Brooks, who are spending some time traveling abroad, are now in

Mrs. Ezra B. Whitman has returned

Reid, who will be one of next season's

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Fielding Reid will

Mr. and Mrs. John H. Wight, of the Green Spring Valley, are spending several Mr. and Mrs. William Ellis Coale gave on University Parkway. Mr. and Mrs. Daniel R. Randall have

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene de Bullet will give a small turkey trot party next Wednesday evening at their home on North Calvert street. Mrs. Edgar Allan Poe is spending the week-end with friends in Philadelphia.

some time traveling abroad, is now at

Mr. E. H. Hutton is registered at the

Mrs. T. Dudley Riggs and her daughter are spending a few days in New York.

Collingwood, New York, for a few days. To Give Dance for Charity.

Invitations will be issued next week funeral arrangements have not been fully place they called him in front of the by the auxiliary of the Orthopoedic bar and engaged him in conversation. Guild of the James Lawrence Kernan While two of the men kept up a rapid- Hospital and Industrial School for Cripfire talk the third slipped away from the pled Children, for a subscription dance to the cash register. They then made good be given on March 27 at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. William L. Marbury, 159 Harris Silverstein, 1427 Gough street, West Lanvale street. The proceeds are reported to Detective Headquarters yes- to be used for the open-air playroom instigator of many of the improvements terday that his home was entered on which will be a part of the new addition dent, Miss Mary Washington Stewart; Declaring that he wished to become a secretary, Miss Catharine Brinton, and boarder at her home, a stranger was treasurer, Miss Sylvene Marbury. Among admitted to the home of Mrs. Mamie the members are Miss Florence Harrison, Boon, 319 East Lafayette avenue and, Miss Augusta McLane, Miss Elizabeth going to the room of Jesse Meyerhoff, Wood, Misses Eleanor and Sarah Thomas, and last year raised money enough to purchase three wheel chairs and a stretcher. Every other Thursday they meet to sew for the little cripples, and Mrs. Frank G. Baldwin gave an infor- they are very anxious for this dance to mal dance last evening at the Green be a success, as they have pledged them-

Miss Mary Archer entertained at bridge

Miss Mary Brogden, Mr. Douglas H. Gordon, Mrs. G. W. C. Whiting, Mrs. Richard H. Pleasants, Jr., Mrs. Henry D. Harlan, Mrs. George T. M. Gibson. Mrs. McKim In Honor of Baronesses. | The funeral of Michael Noeth, 3302 cilman Charles H. Heintzeman, 922 South | It makes a good deal of trouble to al- Murdoch, Mrs. James Teackle Dennis, Mrs.

> And He Did, Now that Castro can come in he will messenger in the office at Marquette, guson; secretary, H. F. Audoun; assist- who were seated at one table, arranged decision will enable shippers and inde- mass was celebrated. Burial was in Henry Yeakle, died about 18 years ago of the year that have already been paid probably want to go right away.—Memphis Commercial-Appeal.

©Maryland State Archives, msa_sc4150_1_215-0003