REUBEN T. BOYD
TAILOR, Easton,
NEXT door south of the Bank, feels truly grateful to those who have reached to him in business, and promptly discharging their bills. Having a young and growing family to provide for, and as an inspired writer tells us, "whosever does not provide for his own household is worse than an infidel," and has denied the faith," he is induced to make this appeal to public sentiment, and say he is still willing to earn his bread by the sweat of his brow, and that all orders in his line will be executed in the best manner and utmost dispatch; in cases of marriages, weddings or mourning, his arrangements are such as to enable him to make a suit of clothes at a very short notice.

N. B. Country produce will be taken from persons living in the country for work done, who find it inconvenient to pay the cash.

OFFICE OF THE LADY'S BOOK,
119 Chestnut street, opposite the Post Office.
L. A. G. & Co. offer their services to collect for their city and country friends, and all others, having claims against individuals and others in Philadelphia. They have determined to devote a considerable portion of the time to this new branch, and are well convinced that their exertions will give satisfaction to their employers. There are no doubt many persons at a distance having claims that might be collected, were they aware of responsible persons to address. The great expense in such cases, when paid for Lawyer's fees and where there has been no necessary such a proceeding, prevents many lawful accounts from being adjusted. They will receive bills and accounts from any part of the country, which will be immediately attended to and the proceeds applied in this city, or forwarded by mail as may be directed. No charge in any case will be made unless the money is actually collected. The commission is very instance, to be charged on collections will be 10 per cent. Postage must be paid, or all letters will be re-enclosed and returned to the person sending.

JOHN OF ROANOKE.
THE Trustees of the Maryland Agricultural Society for the Eastern Shore, with the view of purchasing a Stallion of the first order, as well for their own accommodation, as to improve the breed of that noble animal throughout the Eastern Shore, by letting him to mares on such terms as would enable every farmer who had a good brood mare, to avail himself of his services, have, for some time past held a correspondence with some of the most distinguished breeders of horses in the country, and after examining the characters and qualities of the many valuable stallions recommended to their attention, have purchased and offer to the public the celebrated horse
JOHN OF ROANOKE.
THIS horse is a beautiful mahogany bay, sixteen hands high, and combines beauty of form, with great strength, fine action, and perfect docility of temper. To the lovers of fine horses for the turf, saddle, or quick draft, they feel much pleasure in recommending him, being confident that no judge can see and not admire him.
This horse, with his dam, was purchased by General Callender Irvine of Philadelphia, from the Hon. John Randolph of Virginia; his pedigree will be seen to be equal to that of any horse of the country, by the following extract from the letter of Gen. Irvine to the board of Trustees:
"He was foaled the 19th of March 1824, in colour a beautiful bay, having a satin-like coat, with a small star and snip, black mane and tail, and legs—tail full and long and well set on. He measures within a fraction of 16 hands high, by a proper standard, without shoes, and would be rated, as stallions are usually measured 16 hands. He is in fine form, strong at all points, of great action, and is fit for all kinds of service; turf, saddle, coach and even for the wagon, having always been now just in his prime, and being a remarkably healthy horse, never having been sick to my knowledge, for a moment since he was foaled, excepting with the colic distemper. He is a vigorous stallion, and a remarkably sure and capital foal getter. His colts are large, in fine form, and generally bays. That he is a thorough bred horse, of blood equal to that of any horse of this or any other country, (and there is no mistake about it, a matter of some moment to breeders), will appear by his pedigree, which is as follows:—
"Dam, Grand Duchess, (bred by John Randolph, Esq. of Va. of whom I purchased her) got by Graecus; grand dam Duchess (imported by Mr. Randolph) bred by the Duke of Grafton, got by Grouse, son of Highflyer, out of Georgiana, own sister to Conductor and Alfred, by Matchem; Magnet; sister to Johnny, by Matchem, Babraham, &c. &c.
"John of Roanoke was got by Mr. Randolph's elegant horse Roanoke, he by the far famed Sir Archy, out of his imported mare Lady Bunbury, bred by Sir Charles Bunbury, who also bred Highflyer, and the imported old Diomed, sire of Sir Archy, by Trumpeter, grand dam Theophia, by Highflyer, grand dam, Plaything, by Matchem, grand dam Vixen, by Regulus, he by the Godolphin Arabian."
"Graecus, sire of Grand Duchess, dam of John of Roanoke, was got by old Diomed, out of Cornelia, by Chanciller; Vanity by Celer; Mark Anthony; Jolly Roger, &c.—Thus you see there cannot be better blood in all its ramifications; and what is of great importance in the blood horse, all the progeny of this mare, Grand Duchess, are large, strong, in good form, of good action, and like their ancestors, Diomed, Sir Archy, Highflyer and King Henry, are healthy and stout, and suitable for all kinds of work. I have bred five colts from this mare, all of which are large and have fine constitutions.
JOHN OF ROANOKE
Will stand at Easton—Terms twelve dollars for the spring's chance, payable on or before the first day of September next, and eighteen dollars to insure a mare to be in foal, payable on the first day of February next.—When mares are insured if they are parted with before it is ascertained whether or not they are in foal, the persons putting them to the horse will be charged with the amount of insurance. Fifty cents to the groom in every case, to be paid during the season.
NS. GOLDSBOROUGH,
ED. N. HAMBLETON, } Committee.
RICHARD SPENCER, }
April 6
N. B. Mares from a distance will be furnished with good pasturage, and grain if requested, on moderate terms, but no damages will be allowed for estrays or accidental injuries.

April 26

Virginia Tennessee Hunter.
THIS celebrated Horse will be let to mares this season, at the following reduced prices: Two dollars and fifty cents the single leap; five dollars the chance of the season, which will end on the 20th of June next; when there are two mares or more put to from one farm there will be a deduction of fifty cents per mare; and in all cases where the money is paid by the first day of October next, there will be a deduction of fifty cents on the single leap; and one dollar on the springs chance.
The price to ensure a mare in foal will be eight dollars, payable on the first day of February next.
Twenty-five cents to be paid to the groom in each case.
This fine horse is in great stud condition, and is handled by a first rate groom.
NIMROD BARWICK.
Seven years old this spring, full sixteen hands high, lofty carriage and his movement equal to any horse; he was foaled in Warren county, Tennessee; at four years old he was taken to Bradford county where he remained for two seasons, and proved himself a sure foal getter and his stock promise fair to be valuable. Tennessee Hunter, his sire was the noted horse Hero, who was got by the noted DeCATUR, who was got by the celebrated horse old Messenger, a full bred racer. DeCATUR's dam was got by the noted horse Figure, his grand dam by old Rockingham, Hero's dam was got by the imported horse Cub, his grand dam Highlander. Tennessee Hunter's dam was got by the Virginia horse Florozel, his grand dam by the imported horse Yorkshire, great grand dam by the imported horse Rockingham.
A further description is thought unnecessary, as the size of the horse, colour, bone and sinew will recommend him to any gentleman.
march 23

The Beautiful Spotted Horse YOUNG DIOMEAD.
Commenced the season on the 24th inst. he will be at Easton on Tuesday the 6th of April, in Ferry Neck on Wednesday and Thursday, and at St. Michaels on Friday and Saturday, the week following. He will be at Denton on Tuesday and Wednesday, at Hillsborough on Thursday, and the residue of the time at the Subscriber's stable, and will attend the above stands once in two weeks through out the season. Season commenced on the 24th instant and will end the 20th of June.—He will be let to mares at $5 the Spring's chance, $24 the single leap, and $8 to insure a mare in foal. No insurance only by special contract with the subscriber, and in each case 25 cents to the groom. Diomead is 7 years old this spring, and is pronounced by the best judges to be a horse, of beautiful form, fine bone, sinews of great strength, and fine action; the strength of the dray and activity of the sprightly saddle horse are united in him, which added to his beauty, promises the useful, elegant, and valuable horse, either for the saddle or harness. His pedigree may be seen in handbills.

We will also bring to our freighters, all articles they may wish, free of freight—Hogsheads, Bricks, Plank, and similar heavy articles excepted, which shall be moderate.
The public may most positively be assured that our unremitting endeavors shall be evinced to do them strict justice, and facilitate their interest, in whatever business they may feel disposed to entrust us with.

As we have been in the shipping business for six years, from one place, we beg leave to refer you to the respectable gentlemen whose names are inserted below.
