FELLOW CLIVENS,-It was with mingled sentiments of indignaed with a malign jealousy of every individual, ed by enlightened citizens from both sides of whose fair and bonorable course of life seem- the old political dvision. ed to his darkened imagination likely to cross culiar object of its batred and vengeance.

ed precisely according to the views of the luckless political schemer, who has thus called jection of his petentions, is a matter of much astonishment to some. How any man, pos ry self-respect, could betray to the world the he portrays himself-true as he professes himthe hardihood now to censure the free exercise of a power so bestowed, is cause of "startling wonder." But there are others who do have before marked the man and the operatemper, when chased with disappointment, and who remember to have seen, on a similar oclike "fantaronace of gloomy vexation, fury, this time attempt an interpretation of those spite, hatred and nonsense." Just in these mystical expressions: but from that hour that very terms I had occasion, in cool contempt, to describe the insinuations of this same indi-Caroline alone came in for a sneering and haughty rebuke in the condescending sentence then passed upon her by this would be political autocrat,—that he would leave the motives for refusing to sanction the scheme for his pro motion "to operate in the bosoms of those stroke to his ambititious projects has raked up the embers of his former griefs and blown his passions of hatred and revenge into a fire that "burns like the mines of Ætna." His rage seems to know no bounds and "the majority" of the Deputation, who thought proper to prefer another to himself are subjected to his bitter taunts, and lashed for their disobedience to his will.

What those gentlemen may think of this procedure, I know not; as their addresser says that he approaches them "with most becoming to acknowledge the error of their ways in submission to his high reproof. But I must address myself to you, fellow citizens, on this occasion, with some serious you, I feel it an indispensable duty on my part to repel the unfounded and malignant aspertions which have been thrown out by this reckless political desperado. I have given him no provocation, other than that which he draw, from the act of the National Republican De putation, at Hillsborough, in selecting me as a citizen in whom the party to which they be long might best concentrate their confidence and their votes, as a representative of the District; for, since the events of 1829, to which he has referred and without the remotest expectation on my part, he tendered me the hand of reconciliation, which, with a sincere disposition to be at peace with all mankind and from a due regard to some peculiar relations in which we stood, I did accept; but I have perceived, with deep regret, that no generous feeling can long prevail in a bosom once blighted with the rancor of political jealousy .-Notwithstanding the most conciliatory and cautions line of conduct, I am never it seems to be exempted from his malignant attacks .-This man talks too of his emotion and becoming tenderness, in recurring to considerations of a delicate nature. His emotions, I have had the misfortune to find, are those of an heartless hypocrite and his "becoming tender ness" prompts him to wound as deer-ly as he can. In the annals of political rivalry, a more as I did for the Adams elector of 1824, not- formerly Mr. John G. Stevens' outrageous and groundless attack was never withstanding the fact that both those gentle-made on any man than that which the recent men were opposed to me in my first and sedisappointment of his ambitious views has mompted him to; and I cannot be held blam-Chis person affects to speak, throughout his of doing so. farrage of contumelious epithets. politically,of political sins of mine and of political in- or political intrigues? It is easy for any man advanced, which have no foundation in truth, fore they condemn; and more especially when ly.

I shall leave for the Deputation to Hillsho- | dence to establish his sincerity and truth. and galling punishment they can inflict on of clear demonstration that I obtained a much ra political intriguer and tergiversator," and that man himself, with his device of blank mere rancorous assertion of it by the same tion, gained only by a trifling majority of 19 opprobrious epithets reiterated throughout Will any intelligent man, who views the Terms as to the time of payment made nimest every paragraph. The coinage of a conduct of this infatuated individual at this new word was hardly necessary with so many time, as well as on the occasion of the defeat other convenient phrases as have been used to of his nomination in 1829, hes itateto impute express the same idea and nothing but that to him the motive I have assigned for his virpitch of malignant fury to which the mind of ulent opposition and recent ebullition of imthe writer was evidently wrought up, by his potent malice? recent defeat, could have produced that endless repetition. It is to this charge I will first ed him, and the chalice of mortification which reply. I regret that the time will not now he had prepared for me, has been returned to allow me to give you such a review of the his own lips. former state and progress of political parties The insinuations introduced with regard in this district as I feel to be necessary to a my seeking office are wholly unworthy of no perfect understanding of my whole political | tice except to say that whatever office I may But to every liberal and well informed man sented for it by my friends or the ground of I may appeal for a necollection of the state merit and qualification.

ulmost endeavours to allay those party feelings and to discard them from my own mind It had been, long before that period, as we then had recently discovered, the grave and Easton Gazette, of the 17th instant, addressed, carnest advice of the present incumbent in & NEW YORK ENQUIRER. in the form of a letter, to the members of the Presidential chair to President Monroe, FIHE Morning Courier and New York En-National Republican Deputation, which as- on his accession to it, to avoid in his selecsembled at Hillshorough, on the 18th of Au- tions for office, party and party feelings-"to Co. in the city of New York daily and semigust, for the purpose of nominating a candi- exterminate that monster, called Party spirit," date for Congress. It bears the signature of and to choose characters "most conspicuous Robert H. Goldsborough-a man with whom for their probity, virtue, capacity and firm-I once stood in the relations of friendship and ness, without regard to party." I called this intimacy, but whose heart becoming pervert- authority to my aid. I succeeded in gaining ed by a vain and restless ambition and taint- the approbation of the People and was elect-

My course at that time certainly met the his path to preferment and public station, has general approbation of my old Federal friends, for a series of years marked me out as the pe- as a was assured from different parts of the district by letters and personal communications. The appearance of this tirade of insolent and I have still the satisfaction to believe that and hectoring invective against the deputation, by my humble exertions I did as much towards to whom it is addressed, and who were select- allaying the violence of party spirit, as any other individual in the State and thereby to open he doors of honor and confidence to all men them to account for their most ungracious re- of the Federal party. For some length of time, before this period, other individual Federalists were warm in their professions of sessed of common sense and the most ordina. desire to put down the old party division, and earnest appeals were made to the people, workings of a mind writhing in agony from through the Federal press, on this interesting this mere discomfiture in a plan of political subject. But, from the moment of my becomadvancement seems to tax the understanding ing a candidate for Congress on these grounds, of many; how a man so circumstanced as a gloomy discontent seemed to hang upon the brows of some men, and from that hour to the self to be to party discipline-having thus sub- present I have been the object of their suspimitted his claims to party honors, could have | cion and dislike. By almost the whole Federal party my acceptance by the people was riewed as a cause of just congratulation; but I have since had reason to suspect, as I have not feel so much surprise; there are those who heretofore expressed it, that my blundering honesty ran foul of some deep laid plot for tion of the same ridiculous and overbearing the personal aggrandizement of a certain individual, with which I was not entrusted. I have been told that it was said that I "shook the casion, from the pen of this unhappy wight a tree before the fruit was r pe": I will not at individual became my enemy.

I have referred with as brief a retrospect as vidual directed against myself, in 1829, when possible, to the first tender of my service to the people as their representative in Congress, & I have done so to test the truth of this charge of political intrigue. These same insinuations were made, against me by some men in the time of my first canvass; but I openly discussed the matter before the people, at a large who cherished them"!-But, this last fatal meeting, specially called, in Easton, and I proved to the perfect satisfaction of every liberal and candid mind, that there was not the slightest proof that I had ever compromitted my political consistency in any way, with any set of men; and now, at this distant day, I reiterate my defiance of any such proof. This is all that an upright man, conscious of rectitude, can be expected to do.

I pass on to the canvass of 1826:- I had served one Session in Congress, and my conduct there had never to my knowledge been the subject of complaint amongst the people, respect," I presume they will confide in his and my general and fair support of the Adsincerity about as much as they will be willing ministration of Mr. Adams, to whose election I in this district, was so far from being a matter of doubt that my enemies, upon my return from Congress, were compelled to resort to ness, and I will do so with frankness and with the paltry intimation that I supported it be truth. Being at this time a Candidate before cause it was the strong side!—Would that it Daily Paper had been the strong side! I most sincerely wish that the present incumbent had never been elevated to his high station and that the administration of the Government had remained in more competent hands. But I was soon again engaged in another doubtful canvass in competition with a highly respectable citizen of the same old party denomination as that of my first competitor. I was again elected by trouble. the free voice of the people and with a fair and increased majority. Where, I again ask, was the evidence of my "intrigues" or political "tergiversation?" Who were my completters? They were the People! At both those elections of mine, the gentlemen to whom I was opposed. were of the same opinion in regard to the Presidential question, and all of us, from the beginning being in favor of Mr. Adams, there was no discussion about it.

re-election of Mr. Adams, and no man can assert with the semblance of truth, any devia tion on my part, from that sentiment. My opposition to the elevation of Gen. Jackson to the Presidential chair, was at all times unequivocally expressed, from the first mention of his name, and my original opinion of his incompetency and unfitness, has been lamentably confirmed since his election. I voted cond elections. They both, however, as have every reason to believe, supported me, able by any liberal and honorable man in this in 1829, doubtless convinced of the propriety rough an explanation, if they shall conde- Of the circumstances of 1829, which are so months. scend to make any, to this man's representa- fresh in the recollection of my fellow citizens, tion of their views in honoring me with their I need not make any recital; but so far from decided preference, although the best reply the allegations of my accuser being true,they can give to such an indelicate attack on that I was discarded at the last election by the themselves, as it will be the most appropriate Anti-Jackson party,—it is a matter susceptible their forious assailant, is a steadfast and vig. larger Anti-Jackson vote than I had ever teorous sulfilment of their common pledge to ceived before, if it be taken that the men who sustain my election by all fair and honorable then composed the Anti-Jackson party were the same who constituted the Adams or Ad-One of the charges exhibited against me in ministration party in 1826: and it is equally this extraordinary production is that of being clear that the intrigues and sly opposition of it is supported by no other proof than the lickels, kicked the beam in a close party elec-

Where are the proofs of my tergervisation

His long labored caucus schemes have fail-to him for course and to prove the consistency of it have desired to obtain. I have been ever pre-of things when I first announced myself as a I am obliged, my fellow citizens, to conclude candidate for Congress, in 1824. It is noto- this hasty address, which the interruption of from the age of twelve to twenty five years, he tain the highest prices for SLAVES without the subscriber's field about three ijous that at that period the causes and polit- business has caused me to delay till the latest will give higher prices than any real purchaser being sent out of the State-Also, those for a ical principles which had divided us under the moment allowed for its going to the Press. 1 that is now in the market, or may hereafter term of years, such as house servants of good day morning, 28th ult. He has no particular denominations of Federalists and Democrats could not pass by the bitter and malignant at come. Any person having negroes, of the character, can find ready sale. Any com- mark, trots and gallops. The owner can have were fast subsiding, and with them, were pas tack, which has been timed for effect on the above ages, will do well in giving the prefrence mands will be thankfully received and prompt- the horse, by calling on the Subscriber and sing away those feelings of personal opposi approaching election and for the purpose of to tion, which that party designation had long throwing into confusion the arrangements of presert al. It was at such a time, I frankly I my friends. But I confidently trust that it will I offered myself to the whole body of the peo- prove a futile effort and be received with merple, with a sincere determination to use my ited contempt. JOHN LEEDS KERR. Easton, 19th Sept. 1831.

quirer, by JAMES WATSON WEBB & weekly, on fine paper of the largest size. its Politics it is purely Democratic, -adhering to the principles and usages of the Republican Party, and advocating the re-election of Genecontrary, inculcates those principles of moral- has gone over to the Eastern Shore again. ity and religion only, which are founded upon peace and good-will to all mankind—the Intelligence, Agency and Collector's Office, truit of which is tolerance and brotherly affection instead of "persecution for opinion's sake. All Bigots, Fanatics, Sunday-Mail Opposers, and Church-and State-men, are opposed on principle, and their hypocrisy and machinaations fearlessly exposed.

In consequence of the other Daily Papers in New York, determining not to board vessels and receive their news on Sunday, the Courier & Enquirer have lately invested nearly $4,600 in a separate "News Establishment, the support of which will add about $5,000 to their annual expenses. Vessels from Eu rope will be boarded at sea, long before they reach the harbor, and their news disseminated through the country with more than ordinary despatch. In incurring this heavy increase of expenditure, the Proprietors look for remunertion to all who feel an interest in the affairs the Old World, and if they have properly estimated the popular feeling in relation to this matter, they will be efficiently sustained in the course they have adopted.

It does not become them to speak of the manner in which their Editorial Department is conducted.—It may be stated, however that Assistant Editors and Reporters are en ployed at liberal salaries; and if the Commer- to law. cial Political, Literary, Foreign and Domestic News, were not at least equal to any other Journal, it would scarcely have acquired in the short period of five years, a greater daily circulation than any other paper in Ameri-Yet such is the fact, that at this moment the Courier and Enquirer circulates daily in the city of New York more than one hundred per cent. more papers than any of its Foreign arrivals, are inserted in a SECOND E- of, at the suit of Joseph Martin, against Nancy DITION—so that the Daily Subscribers in the James, will be sold at public sale for cash, Courier and Enquirer outv.

will be published weekly, and the Second E- Barnston, 'Cox's addition,' and part 'Samuel' ever appears in the Daily Paper, will of course, also be published in the Semi-weekly.

TERRIS.

$10 per annum. ? Pagable in Semi-weely Paper Aper annum & advance. N. B. All Post-Masters who have no objection to act as our Agents, are requested to receive subscriptions and to remit the money FILE Subscriber being desirous of Collectat the risk of the Publishers, at the time of ordering the paper.-It is expected that they present year, in the course of this fall, reswill retain in their hands 10 per cent. of the pectfully requests all persons holding assessaamount received, as a remuneration for their | ble property in the county, to call on him at am again under the necessity of calling the attention of those who stand indebted to me, tive districts. and regret they paid no respect to my first notice, I therefore have lengthened out the credit to the first day of October next and in form all those who are found delinquent on In 1828, I was a decided advocate for the that day that their accounts will be placed in an officer's hands for collection without res JOHN G. STEVENS.

THE Subscribers, respectfully inform their friends and the public, that they have now cheerfully for the Anti-Jackson elector of 1828, on hand at the saddlery Shop of Mr. Higgins A LARGE ASSORTMENT OF probity is called in question and charges are telligent community will demand the proof be- for cash, hides and country produce general- proved security, bearing interest from the day I speak morally when I assert their utter false- the allegation is set forth by a prejudiced wit- all descriptions, for which cash and the mar- five portions. Sale to take place between 10 ness, they will require even confirmatory evi- ket price will be given. Also, Hides tanned o'clock, A. M. and 5 o'clock, P. M. on Shares, and the Leather returned in 12

> LEATING. consisting of Coarse upper, Kips, CALF-SKINS, HORSE LEATHER, Lining Skins, Sole LEATHER, &c.

HENRY E. BATEMAN, & Co.

Land for Sale.

N WEDNESDAY, the 5th of October

that land, (except 5 acres,) which I purchased He is at one of the subscribers, Nicholas in Easton. of John Arringdale, Trustee for the sale of part | Goldsborough's farm, near Easton. Mares the estate of Daniel Caulk-containing 145 a- from a distance, if left, will be well taken care cres; about 100 of which is cleared, and the of on reasonable terms; but no responsibility taken on the best terms. residue in WOOD and young growing tim- for accidents or escapes, known on the day of sale. Sale to take place at Mrs. Newnam's adjoining the premises. LOTT WARFIELD.

CASH FOR NEGROES THE subscriber agent for Austin Woolfolk of Baltimore, takes this method of acknowledging the many preferences in the purchase land. of negroes, and wishes the citizens of the Eastern Shore to still continue their preserence who may be found at the Baston Hotel.

FOR ONE HUNDRED

530 BBWABD.

RAN AWAY from his master, in the eighborhood of Baltimore, about ten days since, a very remarkable negro man named aged 35 or 40 years, his complesion rather white, his face much In freented, his hair very short, curly and red; has a down cast countenance, rather clumsy and fond of chewing tobacco. The above reward will be given to any person who will ral Jackson to the Presidency. Its columns bring him to me, or ten dellars to any person are alike devoted to Foreign and Domestic In- who will lodge him in any gaol in this State, telligence, Morals, Literature and the Fine and give me reasonable notice thereof. He Arts. In morals, however, it does not act up- was lately purchased from W. W. Eccleston, of Cabinet Furniture, which he is disposed to on the creed of Fanatics or Bigots, but on the Esq. Cambridge, Md. and it is probable he of the cities, for cash, or for country produce

MOSES;

LEWIS F. SCOTTI. No. 2 West Fayette street, basement story of Barnum's City Hotel.

The Centreville Times, Easton White and Cambridge Chronicle, will publish the above to amount of one dollar and charge the office of the American, and send one pape Two Journeymen Tailors Wanted

A BUNAWAY. WATAS COMMITTED to my custody as a runaway, on the 3d day of this inst a Mulatto Boy, calling himself he belongs to Richard P. Snowden, business by the subscriber. of Anne Arundel county. He has a large scar on the inside of the side of the left knee, also a small | der the firm of Rhodes, Kennard and scar over the left eye, and two scars on the Loveday, in Easton was on the 15th inst. disright wrist; about 18 years of age-had on solved by mutual consent.

CHARLES BACON,

JOSHUA GUYTON, Sheriff of Harford county. business of the late firm. The Editors of the Easton Whig, the They respectfully solicit a continuation of Caroline Intelligencer, Denton, will each in-Baltimore Republican, and the Washington the dealings of the Customers of the late firm, Globe, will insert the above four times and and the public generally. forward their accounts to me for payment. JOSHUA GUYTON.

Aug 23

SHERIFF'S SALE.

Daily papers sent out of the city, are not DY virtue of a writ, of venditioni exponas printed until 3 o'clock, P. M., when all the D issued out of Talbot county Court, and to news received by the morning mails, or by me directed and delivered, by the clerk therecountry, literally receive a Morning and Even- the front door of the Court House in the town ing Paper combined; and this being the only of Easton, on TUESDAY, the 4th day of Occourse that the news by all foreign arrivals on A. M. and 4 o'clock P. M. the following pro- ing utensils, a four wheeled carriage in good Tuesday and Friday mornings at 7 o'clock and claim, of her the said Nancy James, of, in Hogs, Horses, and a pair of young well broke Easton on Wednesday and Saturday mornthat day, will be found in the columns of the perty to wit, all the estate right, title, interest A Price-current and Review of the Market and to that tract or parcel of land, called work mules, late the property of the said de-lings at 7 o'clock, for Cambridge, Annapolis dition will always notice any change which Beginning,' situated on Island Creek, in Talacres of land, more or less, taken to satisfy The Purchaser will be required to give note, Passage and fare the same as last year. may occur in the state of our market. What- bot county, containing the quantity of 128 the aforesaid venditioni exponas, and the in terest and costs due and to become due there-Attendance given by WM. TOWNSEND, late Shift.

> I ing the Tax of Talbot county, due for the sept 20 his office in Easton, where he will attend ev-

BENNETT BRACCO, Collector. N. B. The Collector respectfully informs ill those who have not paid their Taxes for 1930, that he has an order from the commisquests them to call at his office and settle the sold for the taxes due on the same.

on Tuesday, 27th day September next, at the terest on the whole or such part of the pur-Court House door in the town of Easton, all chase money as shall be unpaid, at the end the farm and improvements, belonging to the of each year, from the day of sale heirs of Henry Conncell, dec'd. situated on the head waters of Wyc River, adjoining Skipton Landi z .- This property will be sold on a credit of one two and three years, the pur trigues & equivocations; but, when my political to insiminate or to assert a charge, but an in- which they offer for sale on pleasing terms chaser, or purchasers, giving bond with ap-We wish to purchase Hitles and Skins, of of Sale, to the several heirs, for their respec-

WM. H. TILGHMAN, CHARLES JUMP. Comm'ers. JOSEPH TURNER, WM. ROSE.

next between the hours of 2 and 4 o'- TOW in fine condition, has commenced a clock P. M., I will offer at Public Sale, (if L fall season, to end the latter part of Oc-

> N. GOLDSBOROUGH, RICHARD SPENCER, E. N. HAMBLETON.

Two or Three Carpenters wanted, ENGREEDERSEE. TATHO will obtain Employment, and libeal wages given, by the subscriber,

Aug. 30

the Head of Chester, Kent County, Mary-BENJAMIN KIRBY

INTELLIGENCE & AGENCY OFFICE.

No 48 Baltimore street, Baltimore. THE SUBSCRIBER can at all times ob-SAMUEL REYNOLDS. ly attended to-charges moderate. JOHN BUSK.

may 10

Branch Bank at Easton.

Sept. 14, 1830. THE President and Directors of the Far mer's Bank of Maryland, have declared a Dividend of 3 per cent. on the stock of the Company for the last six months, which will be páyable to the Stockholders or their legal rep resentatives, on or after the first Monday in October next.

JOHN GOLDSBOROUGH, Cashier.

THE Subsceiber grateful for past favors. begs leave respectfully to say that be has on hand at his ware room, a general assortme

JOHN MECONEKIN. N. B. Persons indebted to the subscribe are reminded that the time is fast approaching when he must lay in an assortment of materials; he hopes therefore that they will call liam Hayward, Jun. and settle without delay. Easton, sept. 20 1931

IMMINIBIDITATE TO

TWO Journeymen Tailors may find ememployment and liberal wages, by applying to JAMES L. SMITH.

Easton, Sept. 20 N. B. Two boys from 12 to 15 years of age . About 5 feet 6 inches high; says will be taken as apprentices to the tailoring J. L. S.

DISSOLUTION. right thigh, a small scar on the left THE co-partnership heretofore existing unwhen committed a pair of black striped pan- The Subscribers having purchased the in- regularly for the accommodation of passentaloons, striped swansdown vest, a striped terest of Mr. Robert H. Rhodes, in the busi- gers from and to the Steamboat Maryland. roundabout, black fur hat. Unless the said ness of the late firm, will in future conduct Passengers carried to any part of the adjacent boy is released he will be disposed of according the Mercantile Business in all its variety at country at a moments' notice. the old stand under the firm of Kennard and Loveday; who are authorised to settle up the Herald, Princes Anne; Messenger, Snow Hill;

ROBERT W. KENNARD,

WILLIAM LOVEDAY. Sept. 20

Public Sale.

N Wednesday the 29th of September inst. will be offered at public Sale, by order of the Orphan's Court, at the late residence of John R. Plater, dec'd. on a credit of 9 months, all the household goods, and furniture, (including a small library of valuable books) farm- until further notice, viz: leaving Baltimore on bred mare 5 years old last spring, bred in St. mornings at 6 o'clock for Chestertown, by Ma y's county, of good size form and colour. | Corsica landing, and return the same day.and satisfactory security, bearing interest from the day of Sale, and payable in 9 months to the risk of the owneror owners thereof. the administratrix for all property, the amount of which shall exceed five dollars, and for all of and under that amount, the money must be paid before delivery of the articles sold.

Sale to begin at 10 o'clock A. M. C. M. PLATER, Adm'rx.

ON Saturday the 8th of Oct. will be ofery TUESDAY for the reception of the same. fered at Public Sale at the Court House door It is hoped that those who cannot make it con- in Easton, the property of Wm. Towers, defore the delivery of the articles purchased. JAMES. C. WHEELER, Auctioneer.

Easton Sept. 20

years; It will be required of the purchaser Dawson's Drug Store, in Easton, will be faithvirtue of an order of Talbot county that he shall pass his Bond, with approved se- fully attended to, by D Court, at May Term 1931, the under- curity for the payment of the purchase money, signed comissioners, will offer at Public Sale in three equal annual Instalments, and the in-

JOHN GOLDSBORUUGH, Cash, Branch Bank, Easton Sept. 6

Come on! Come on!! ye who want Thursday, Sept. 29.

Cheap Goods!

T have just returned from the foreign markets with one of the BEST ASSORT-MENT OF GOODS ever opened in this town -which will be disposed of LOWER than can be had at any other Store in Easton. do not think it necessary to enumerate articles and prices, as those who consult their own interest, will certainly giv me a call.

JOHN W. JENKINS. N. B. FLOUR, of the best quality for fanot previously disposed of at private sale)—all toher next—Terms as advertised in the Springs [mily use, lower than it can be had of any house

Feathers and other country produce Cents. To be had at

THE subscriber wishes to purchase from FIFTY TO ONE HUNDRED LIKELY from ten to twenty five years of age, of both sexes, for which the highest market prices will be given in cash. Apply to the subscri ber, or, in his absence, a letter left with Mr. S. Lowe, Easton Hotel, or directed to the subscriber at Centreville, will meet immediate at-THOS. W. OVERLEY.

STRAY HORSE. A sorrel Horse, supposed to be about 12 years old, was found in paying the cost of this advertisement.

sep 6

THE Subscriber begs Jeave to inform his I friends and the public in general, that he has removed from Cambridge, Dorchester county, where he has been engaged for near twelve years in keeping a public house, and has the gratifying assurance of his friends and customers in that place, as well as those travelling through, who favoured him with a call that heretofore he has given general satisfaction.

He has taken that large and commodique house in Easton, Talbot county, so well known as the Union Tavern, on the corner of Washington and Goldsborough safeets, immediately sell as low as it can be purchased in any opposite the Bank, in the most fashionable and pleasant part of the town, within a few steps of the Court House, and immediately adjoining the office of the Hon. John Leeds Kerrand nearly opposite to that of the Hon. Wil

He is still further gratified in assuring the public that he has many advantages that he never before had, viz: A much more splen did house, and a market equal to any for a like population, in the world, and with his knowledge of his business, and a disposition to please, he flatters himself he shall receive a liberal share of the patronage of the public. Private parties can always be accommodated, and every exertion will be made to make all comfortable that give him a call.

WILLIAM C. RIDGAWAY.

W. C. R's STAGES will run to the wharf

The public's obedient and humble servant.

The Star and Gazette, Easton; Village Times, Centerville; American, Baltimore; and sert the above to the amount of two dollars and forward their bills to the subscriber.

march 23 The Steamboat

Will continue the same routes as last year,

All baggage, packages, parcels, &c. at LEMUEL G. TAYLOR, Captain.

AND THE PROPERTY OF THE PARTY O BUSION BUGGET. THE subscriber takes the liberty of inform-Ling the public that he has taken the Granary and wharf of Messrs. Kerr and Goldsborough, as also that new substantial and fast

The Schooner ARIELS which he intends running as a regular packet from this place to Baltimore. The ARIEL will leave Easvenient to call on him, will be prepared for a ceased, consisting of household furniture, and ton Point every Wednesday morning, at nine call from him, or his Deputies in their respect a valuable milch cow and calf -This property o'clock, A. M. returning will leave Baltimore will be sold on a credit of six months, the pur- on every Saturday morning at the same hour. chaser giving note with approved security be- The Ariel is now in complete order for thereception of freights and passengers, and can go to and from Baltimore as quick as any sail hoat that sails our bay; as I have been empleyed for the last six years in the packsioners of the Tax-for the sale of the real property of those taxed for that year, and re-WILL be sold at Public Sale on TUES- tisfaction to all freighters that may entrust same, as his engagements will not enable him DAY the 8th November next, at the Court their freights to me. The schooner Ariel will to call on them but once—after that call if House door in the town of Easton, between be commanded by Capt. Thomas P. Town not paid the property will be advertised and the hours of 12 o'clock A. M & 4 o'clk. P. M. send, who is well known for his industry and The House and lot where Thomas Kersey us- sobriety, and with whom I have no doubt the ed to live, situate near the western precincts public will be pleased. All orders given to of the town, on a credit of one, two and three the subscriber, or left at Doctor Thomas H.

> The public's obedient servant, SAMUEL H. BENNI march 8 CLARK'S NEXT SCHEME,

ODD AND EVEN SYSTEM, by which the purchaser of two or more chances, must draw, gross, at least one half of the sum invested .- Maryland State Lettery, No. 7, for 1831, will be drawn in Baltimore, or

Highest Prize, $6000. SCHEME: Half Tickets, One Dollar. -Quarters, Fifty

Offices, N. W. corner of Baltimore and Cal vert, N. W. corner of Baltimore and Gay, I E. corner of Baltimore and Charles-sts. ICP Where the Highest Prizes in the State Lotteries have been oftener sold, than at any "Orders either by mail (post paid) or private conveyance, enclosing the cash or prizes. will meet the same prompt and punctual attention as if on personal application. Address

JOHN CLARK. Lottery Vender, Baltimore

sept G TIOUSLY EXECUTED AT THE

HAND BILLS. POSTING BILLS. CIRCULAR LETTERS, PAMPHLETS. VISITING AND OTHER CARDS. Magistrages, and all other BLA. KS.

ELECTION TICKETS, &c. &c.