POETBY

From the Hartford Mirror.

The annexed feeling and beautiful lines are There is a devotedness-a spirit of religion touch the most obdurate heart.

Jesus-I my cross have taken, All to leave, and follow thee; Naked, poor, despised, forsaken-Thou, from hence, my all shalt be! Perish every fond ambition-· All I've sought, or hoped, or known; Yet how rich is my condition-God and heaven are all my own!

Let the world despise and leave me-They have left my Saviour too: Human hopes and looks deceive me, Thou art not, like them, untrue; And whilst thou shalt smile upon me, God of wisdon, love and might, Friends may hate, and foes may scorn me-Show thy face and all is right.

Go, then, earthly fame and treasure-Come disaster, scorn, and pain; In thy service, pain is pleasure, With thy favour, loss is gain: I have called thee Abba Father-I have set my heart on thee, Storms may howl, and clouds may gather-All must work for good to me!

Soul! then know thy full salvation---Rise o'er sin, and fear, and care; Joy to find in every station, Something still to do or bear! Think what spirit dwells within thee---Think what heavenly bliss is thine; Think that Jesus died to save thee---Child of Heaven-canst thou repine?

Haste thee on, from grace to glory, Armed by faith, and winged by prayer-Heaven's eternal day's before thee-God's own hand shall guide me there, Soon shall close thy earthly mission, Soon shall pass thy pilgim days, Hope shall change to glad fruition-Faith to sight, and prayer to praise!

From the Baltimore American. strongly recommend. By the Cadmus, at this port from Rio de Janeiro, the following address from W. H. D. C. WRIGHT, Esq. has been received, and is handed to us for publication:-

Rio de Janeiro, Jan. 18th, 1832. TO MY COUNTRYMEN:

Having been removed from the Consulate of the United States at this place, "by request of the Brazillian Government," and knowing there will arise many conjectures as to the cause of such request, and placing a value upon your good opinion beyond estimation, I cannot in justice to myself, consent to your remaining ignorant of the fact in relation to my case.

The subjoined letter from Mr. Livingston, received on the 18th ult., conveyed to me the first intimation of my having incurred the displeasure of this government. In utter ignorance of the complaints against me, but confident in the correctness of my whole course, I was prompted more by curiosity than any other motive, to seek for information on the subject; and my inquiries have resulted in ascertaining, that I have been complained of as possessing "a troublesome disposition."

I have filled the Consulate of the United States at this place for the last six years -During which time, upon two occasions (the retirement of Mr. Raguet, and the decease of Mr. Tudor) all the duties of Charge des Af fairs devolved upon, and were discharged by me at this Court, for spaces of time making together twenty five months. Upon one or both of those occasions, it must have been, that I rendered myself troublesome to this government, as in my Consular capacity I was not within reach of its higher functionariesdid not correspond with them-and could not have given them offence.

As far as consistent with the honor of our government, I always endeavoured to preserve the utmost harmony between it and this government, but many acts of injustice having been practised upon our commerce, in the ports of this Empire, during the periods of my diplomatic services, please or displease to.-W. H. D. C. W. this government, it was my duty to complain. As an American identified with my country, it is true, I was sensible to every act of insult or injury offered her, but my private feelings were always held subservient to my public trusts, and unless truths were offensive, my communications should not have been excep-

I cannot tax our public journals to detail the various occurrences against which it became my duty to remonstrate; but as an index to inquiry, I will name the cases of the brigs Margaretta and Aspasia of Baltimore, Orient of Philadelphia, Thule of New York, Ceres of Duxbury, Hardy of Marblehead, and ship Maria Tufton of Portsmouth, N. H., all of which occurred during the short space of time embraced between the 28th of August and 17th October, 1830.

It is certain that I never permitted any violation of the rights of the citizens or of the commerce of our country to pass unnoticed. My language was invariably that of an American, sensible of the dignity of his government and the justice of his demands-never servil or supplicating, but always courteous. Our government is in possession of my correspondence, and to it I refer for a confirmation of my statement.

to complain of the most palpable wrongs) was heirs of the said Frederick Purnell, and re consisted of an old fur bat, coarse linen shirt, this government, then will every American congratulate me, that I am not in possession of its friendship.

Letter from Mr. Rebello to Mr. Wright. Washington, 14th August, 1827.

SIR-I had the honor to receive your letter of the 23d June, and am very obliged to you for your kindness in sending me the newspapers, and for every one of your troubles and paid no attention to my repeated calls and ressions. courteous attentions.

Your government has appointed Mr. W. Tudor, Charge des d'Affaires for Rio; it is to be expected, that he will try every thing in his power to accommodate matters, with that courtesy, and politeness always useful, and that has been more than once forgotten by U. S. Agents there, declaring themselves servants of governments foreign to them, and treading under foot the laws of neutrality. I must declare to you, now that peace is made, that if the state of war" had continued, probably more than one of the U.S. Agents near H. I. B. Majesty, would have had to evacuate the country.

I remain sir, your most obedient servant, JOZE SILVESTRE REBELLO. W. H. D. C. Wright, Esq. U. S. Consul, Rio de Janeiro.

Letter from Mr. Wright to Mr. Rebello RIO DE JANEIRO, Nov. 30th, 1827. Sir-Your letter under date of the 14th o August, has been received, and I beg that for all my unimportant services in facilitating your correspondence with your government, you

I take the liberty also to enclose a copy o my reply to Mr. Rebello, to show you that I have made it personal, forbearing to introduce his government in a correspondence he has forced upon me. Although I have felt it my duty on some occasions to make strenuous remonstrances against the acts of this Government, I am not sensible of having given it offence; on the contrary I believe my communications have received as much attention as any other foreign agent's. Mr. Rebello has certainly ill-timed and misplaced his indelicate remarks. I have used as much forbearance as consistent with my duty to the American character and to myself, but still apprehend he will not find my letter very conciliating. Begging your indulgence for thus occupying your attention with unofficial matters, I have the honor to subscribe myself,

THE WEEKLY the proprietors of the Morning Courier and New York Enquirer, intend publishing on the largest solio sheet ever issued, a Weekly Newspaper to contain all that appears during the week in their daily paper. It will be published on fine paper, with new type; and to place it within the reach of all classes of the community, it will be afforded to subscribers at the reduced price of WHREE DOLLARS, per annum payable always in ad-

In consequence of the other daily Papers in New York, determining not to board vessels & receive their news on Sunday, the Publishers of the Courier and Enquirer have lately invested Thirteen thousand dollars in a seperate news establishment consisting of one Schooner of nincty tons, one of sixty tons, and the necessary row-boats. This establishment is supported at an annual expense of Nine thousand dollars, and vessels from Europe are boarded at sea and their news disseminated through the country with great despatch, long before they reach the harbour.

In its politics, the Courier & Enquirer is purely Democratic-adhering to the principles and usages of the Republican Party, and advocating the re-election of General Jackson to the Presidency. Its columns are elike devoted to Foreign and Domestic Intelligence, Morale, Literature and the Fine Arts. In morals however, it does not act upon the creed of Fanatics or Bigots, but on the contrary, incalculates those principles of morality and religion only, which are founded upon peace and good will to all mankind-the fruit of which is tolerence and brotherly affection instead of "persecution for opinion's sake." Upwards of Four thousand copies of the Courier & Enquirer are published Daily, and more than three thousand Semi-weekly; and in the City of New York its daily circulation is known to be more than an hundred per cent greater than any other paper.
