Sates have not extended their jurisdiction, ment semi annually. Indeed from the im could be seen from there; man was tall with lips; pale-paleness might have been induced by following week; can't say what day. The whole views of the Executive, were so mense circulation and expenses of a few Lonrected to state to you clearly, that the opin | rate which prove its value to be estimated at | village. tion in the matter. And I am instructed fur- Standard. ther to express to you the opinion of the President, that the immediate removal of your people, in conformity with the very liberal terms held out to them, offers the only prospect of their permanent and prosperous estab-

obedient servant, ELBERT HERRING. John Ridge, Esq and others, head of Coosa.

PLYMOUTH, Mass. May 18. SUPREME JUDICIAL COURT. A term of this Court commenced in this town on Tuesday last, Judge Wilde presid revocation of Wills, and from the result of and William R. Staples.

found after his death. Two of his sous presented to the Judge of C. Easton, John Sherman. Probate a paper as being a copy of the will, [Two days, the 6th and 7th May, were oc found some difficulty in loosening the cord; of opinion she died by strangling. which the Judge received and allowed accor | copied in selecting a jury.]

the will before his deata. the sisters certain legacies.

It appeared that the testator kept his valua locked and to which all the members of the and my country." family had access.

ther the testator ever revoked his will; that character of the act-it could be no other than them drop in. that the testator destroyed it.

made, and that the will had never been re voked by the testator.

From the Philadelphia Gazette.

DICKINSON COLLEGE. Under an arrangement made with the full consent of the present Board of Trustees, of Dickinson Cotlege, at Carlisle, Pa. the buildings, land, library, apparatus, and other property joint committee of the Baltimore and Philadelphia conferences of the Methodist Episcopal Church acting in behalf of those bodies This transfer has been made, from a laudable desire on the part of the present I rustees, to place the College again in a flourishing situin the hands of the Methodist Society, it may the cause of education and literature general bers of the Society, in equal numbers, has been nominated, who will meet at Carlisle, to organize on Thursday, the 6th of June. Those appointed on behalf of the Philadelphia Con ference are-Rev. Samuel Harvey, Dr. J M. Keagy, John Antes, Esq. Rev. Jos. Lybrand, Rev. Charles Pitman, Thos. A. Budd, Esq. Rev. Joseph Holdich, Benj. Matthias, Esq. Samuel Parker, Esq. Dr. M. Anderson, J. B. Longacre, Esq. Dr J. Higgins, Richard Benson, Esq. -- Hicks, Esq. John Davis, Esq. Dr J. Roberts.

the Board.

From the Boston Morning Post. TRIAL OF THE REV. EPHRAIM K. AVERY.

Very respectfully, I am, gentlemen, your Report of the trial of Rev. Ephraim K. Avery Maria Cornell, at Tiverton, on the 20th of December, 1832.

SUPREME JUDICIAL COURT. Newport, R. I. May 6, 1833. Present-Hon. Samuel Eddy, Chief Justice. Charles Drayton, Justices.

Job Durfee, Justices.

causing that death, was read to him. The round the neck. sion until about nine months before the tened a small cord round her neck, and stran wards on left breast; shoes muddy on on side; a prize death of the testator, when he delivered it to gled her; the 2d that he tied the cord round bandanna silk handkerchief on the other stake Friday, May 10. Dr. Wilbour cross exam him, and that he the witness, never saw it af her neck, and hung her to a stake; the 3d that about 5 feet high, cord fastened 6 inches from ined. - When witness first saw the body didn't they should pay to the other brothers and to compressed her throat, strangled her, and a strongle; went into the cloud surfour as that which Mr. A. has larger than a kind used in the factory, for hung her to a stake.

Fall River to discover the author ..

Agam, the enemies of religion, who may have but before witness was examined, went to of a circular comb; (identified in court;) on 20th to see one of their number humbled by an in ness believes he had stated that he believed he by W. of yard blasting rocks; about half an tamous punishment. And lastly, the progress mailed a letter for Bristol on 19th Nov. wafer hour after sunset, having got ready to blast a ation, and with a belief and confidence that of the Methodist Church may have produced appeared to be wel; does not remem rock, and going from it, saw a man get off a feeling of jealousy in other sects, some of ber where he first said so; witness was surpri- wall, and go in the direction of the blast; man miliation of a rising rival. He begged the ju twice, as he had previously heard she com head towards us; thought he had on dark By the joint committee a new Board of ry to dismiss every such consideration from mitted suicide. Trustees, consisting of Methodist Ministers, their minds, and assured them that if they Samuel W. Briggs, Postmaster at Bristol, than common; thought he bore to S W. part situation was more awful than his.

Examination of Witnesses.

ber 21, about 60 rods from his house, and with | thodist ministers; recollects seeing a pink let- | saw a dark bruise on the back; print of fingers | m 10 rous from his stack yard, saw the body of term his box in November or December; has on sides; with thumb pointing forward, one a kemale hanging to a stake, called his tather, no recollection of seeing a letter in the post arm drawn up very stiff; green stain on knees R. Durice, William Allen and Benj Negus, to office for Betsy Hills-does not know her. come and see it; hair hanging over her face; Cross Examined .- Witness does not rememparted it to see if she was dead or alive; she ber the receipt of the said letter-relies on the nad a cloak on, one hook open opposite the book for the fact; it was his practice to make no breast; calash on; calash back on right side, his charges on the day the letters were receiv the cord in contact with the right cheek, pass ed, before they were put in private boxes; at body out; there were two marks on shoulder Both committees also joined unanimously ing forward of the ear; shoes off, feet close the end of the quarter Mr. Avery's bill was blades; thought that rash violence had been in the nomination of the Hon John McLean, together, toes touching the ground, knees presented to him by witness's son, and paid, done; darkness extended down to both thighs; man; could not point out any difference be- sa ion, &c. about the apron, as testified above; and Bishop Emory, as ex officio members of bent forward, within four or six inches of the as he supposed, by Mr. A., when absent his did not think she had attempted to produce ground, clothes bent under her knees, and son makes the charges in the small book, but abortion. Arrangemen's will be immediately made by reaching close to the instep; her shoes laying does not enter the way bill on the mail book; Susanna Borden identified a small piece of the new Board, for re opening the College about 18 inches on right side of her feet, mud has no knowledge that the two letters charged paper found in Sarah's bandbox; it was car under the direction of able and experienced on one; handkerchet some distance on left 6 cents each (on 12th and 19th) came from ried to Rev. Mr. Powler; also a letter from her professors, and on a basis which will ensure side; gloves on; could not slip the cord up the Fall River; has compared his way bills with brother. the permanent usefulness of the Institution. | stake, and cut the cord within half an inch his book. from the stake, and 4 from her neck; procu- Elihu Hicks, coroner of Tiverton, saw the which he found about 23 rods from the stake, The manufacture of newspapers, for so they red the Coroner, who charged the jury in the body on Friday morning, December 20; jury among some briars, in a bushy lot, &c. call it in England, differs in many respects in stack yard, after which the body was remov sworn at stack yard, where the body was that country from our way of managing the ed to witness' house in a wagon, wrapped in viewed and the charge delivered; witness re Minchester in blasting rocks, on the evening business. The most important point of differ a blanket, and laying on some hay; carried ceived certain letters from John Durfee; han of the 20th December, and saw the man as ence is in the relation between publisher and slow; when taken down laid on her side, her ded them to the jury; jury did not agree on testified by him above; saw a man in the Court reader; the London journals have no "sub bent knees preventing her being laid other- Friday; met again on Saturday morning; did House, at the Bristol examination, that rescribers"-no patrons, at ten dollars a year wise; at the house was told that things might not agree; Saturday evening part or the jury sembled the man he saw get off the walleach, whose individual and conflicting tastes be wanting from her trunk to lay her out in. seemed a written verdict of Suicide; does not that man was 20 spectacles; it occurred to witness at the time | Rebecca Diamond, lived in the house with and opinions must be followed by the editor and went to Mr. Hathway's, in Fall River, know who did not sign it; the witnesses were rods off when first discoverd; and 19 when on pain of losing their individual amount of for it; got the trunk and a bandbox; key of the not sworn; on Monday witness summoned a nearest the witness himself running; the bags patronage. The editor of a London newspa- trunk was found in the pocket of deceased; new jury, he supposing that two of the former which they sit on about there are sewed by pers is rarely known, and his name never ap- this was about two hours and a half from the jury were not freeholders; on the roll the pla twine or cord, similar to that found round the pears at the head of the journal; the opinions time of finding the body; was told there were ces of said non-freeholders were filled by 2 neck of the deceased; found one of the bags and doctrines which he advocates are consid letters in the trunk; found there 4 in number; new jurors; does not know what become of the unlaced; was induced to examine them from ered as those of the paper, and not as those identifies them in court; saw in bandbox a verdict of suicide; papers, &c. relating to the an idea that the strugs might have been used tel in Fall River; on 20th Dec. 4 before 6, a ness was at Mrs. Gladden's party, but heard of the individual who for the time prepares piece of pencil, and a small piece of pencil, and a small piece of paper; inquest, not considered important, were des in the hanging; had been talking about it when gentleman came to bar room door, and called nothing about the island; A generally wore a the contents of it. The argument is judged did not examine it; minded that it was not a troyed on Monday night; Dr. William, one witness returned to pick up his tools; saw the lor a supper; went into setting room, and cloak on the Sabbath, and on occasions when of therefore according to its merits, and not clean piece; next day (Saturday) sister showas we too often observe here, according to the ed it to him; had requested her to search to readers opinion of the editor. The distribu- see if any thing could be found showing her tion of the journal to its patrons forms a dis- native place; the way from Fall River to stack tinct branch of business, carried on by persons (yard is the main road, so far as witness' house, who are called "newsmen;" these have their which is S. W. of the village; stack yard then regular customers, who give standing orders lays S. W. on a descending road, in sight of and they purchase every morning from the the house, partly obstructed by trees; 8 win eeveral journals as many copies as will supply dows of the house only can be seen from the the regular demand and any extra orders that | yard; knot round the stake was a slip knot, of late according to the interest which any new round the neck as to be, in some places, invi on; 1st inquest not under oath; could not in the carotial arteries.

citement which existed relative to the cause, ty; mentioned about the two letters in Fail Cease to breathe before the cord was so tight and stated that it had not been equalled since River prior to the examination; did not say as the present instance. the settlement of the State; that she was a any thing about them at the Bristol examina factory girl, -one of a very numerous class of tion, until Grindell Rawson arrived there; had demale operatives, and that the cause of her | been told that Rawson was married to Sa death had been investigated very generally, rah's sister; did not hear of him till the con and uncommon zeal had been manifested at nection was spoken of; could not remember hind the amount of postage to Bristol on 19th, nev On the other hand, the defendant is a minis | cr knew Mr. A.; had an impression for some telt the rebukes of its ministers, may desire Bristol post office to examine the books; wit. December witness was at work 50 rods N.

John Dursee resides in Tiverton, half a mile those days finds a letter charged to Mr. Ave- cord from slipping. from Fall River Bridge: morning of Decem | ry-Avery had the box set apart for the Meter the inquest, Dr. W. called on witness, and ing the bags.

be of no use on the trial. Foster Hooper practices medicine in Fall marline ecutive to apply military force, to the removal of persons from any part of the Indian country over which the laws of the proper States have over which the laws of the proper States have over which the laws of the proper States have over which the laws of the proper States have over which the laws of the proper States have over which the laws of the proper States have over which the laws of the proper States have over the laws of the laws of the proper States have over the laws of the over which the laws the laws the proper States have been extended. My latters to Mr. Ross and of the press is promoted to an extent which is of the 14th March, and to Col. Mont gomery of the 15th March, were intended to unknown in this country, and by this also the ber, when driving cattle to the barn saw a ance of the incipient state of putrefaction; a on above evening; thinks his watch 15 min from his father's house, on morning 21st; had gomery of the 15th alaren, were factory time; spectacles on; witness asked him if he had relate solely to that part of the Cherokee business is made more lucrative. The pub man 20 rods from the yard—was 80 rods from contusion above left hip; a female factus was utes faster than the Fall River factory time; spectacles on; witness asked him if he had retate solely to that part of the Onestone country lying within the States of North Carelina and Tennessee, and over which these are unchanged, and that no interference with employed must be immense. If senti-annual minister at Fall River, told witness the girl's lower down; two bruises on the back, 2 inches prise at hearing the noise, which resembled her father say 'twas half past 9 when A. look. the laws of the respective States on this sub- payments were substituted for this cash sys name; is not uncertain that cloak was not unject, must be expected. These views have tem, the amount of capital necessary would hooked when the body was first discovered; er part of abdomen extended so as to almost Mrs. Ruth Cook assisted in laying the body tol examination it was a large one; now does been communicated to Col. Montgomery, be vastly increased, and the cost of the jourthough they cannot be necessary for his ac nal would be enhanced in proportion .- N. Y. and showed him the piece of paper; Chroner | vagina dark livid—different color from other fingers, &c. &c. advised him to talk with Dr. Wilbour about parts; foetus 8 inches long, and weighed 5 oz; Wm. Pearce, Jr, is ferrymen at Bristol; car- Cornell boarded with witness; on evening of

swear that 2d was; is certain that he but the Cross Examined-The lungs presented the cane or bundle; Avery inquired of him about the door unlocked and a light, Sarah had her cord half an inch from stake, and that four appearance as if hung, strangled or drowned; coal mine, and witness pointed to the direction supper, by request before dark; had been quite strands hung down; 2 jurors were to en of could not draw any conclusion from the ap in which it lay; weather cold in the morning, cheerful through the day; wore her best cloak; at Newport, R. I. for the murder of Sarah because they were not supposed to be free pearance of the womb whether violence was but moderated very much towards 2 o'clock; had bearded with witness 3 weeks; wore a holders, viz Joseph Work and Isan Ni- done or not; neither Mr. Avery, nor any of his no other passenger in the boat, and Mr. Avery shell comb [identified 2 pieces shown her in chols; heard from Dr. Williams the there friends, had any notice of this second exami paid double ferryage; more likely to be after court; hair short; saw her have three letters. were letters in the trunk; had no ider when nation. Witness had delivered an anti-ma than before 2 o'clock. he first saw the piece of paper that it as im- sonic lecture in Swanzey; while there he stated | Jeremiah Gifford, at Portsmouth ferry, saw | cept at class meeting on Sabbath evening; she portant; when his sister showed it to im on in a tavern that he had heard that Mr. A. was Mr. Avery when he landed on the wharf, a- appeared to be cheerful sometimes, and somethe Saturday (22d) he saw the writing on it, a mason, and also Justices Howe and Haile, bout half past 2; did not know the direction he times not; at times was not so cheerful as on which he identified in court. When e amin and that fears were entertained that he had met took: at a quarter before 10 that night, witness which she left; Mr. Joseph Durfee then beed at Bristol described the knot as a slik knot, with favour; object of second examination was being in bed and asleep, was waked by a noise; longed to steamboat plying between Fall Riv.

interest was tried on Thursday, touching the Greene, Attorney General; Dutee J. Pearce the letters were opened, and one sealed, ad Dr. Thomas Wilbour, physician in Fall-Ri | there, went to back door, and found Mr. A. in dressed to Mr. Bidwell, minister, at Fall River | ver, saw the body in the stack yard, on Friday | sink room; he wished to cross the ferry, his away-worked in the same mill with deceased; Counsel for Mr. Avery-Jeremiah Mason, Williams Durfee resides in Tiverto's saw 21st December; the cloak hooked, except a family not being well, and would expect him; Sarah left the mill on the above evening at to take evidence of the destruction of his will, R K. Randolph, H. Y. Cranston and George on Friday, Dec. 21st, as a juror, the body of bout 12 inches opposite the abdomen; livid the wind blowing fresh, and witness said there half past 5; stated that she wanted to go home Sarah M. Cornell, at the stack yard; saw it about the mouth; not so purple as sometimes were physicians in Bristol, if needed; A. said early because it threatened to storm, adding that Job Sherman, of Middleborough, in the Jury-Eleazer Trevett, Charles Lawton, carried to Durfee's house and laid on bed; seen; abdomen fuller than common; on Mon- that brother Warren had told him that he that she did not care how much it rained, if year 1817 made his will -that he died in George W. Tilley, Gideon Peckham, Edwin saw a deep dark indentation round the neck; day following an examination of the body might cross at any time; said he had been on it cleared off next week, as she was going June, 1830, and that the will could not be Wilhour, Milton Hall, Joseph Martin, William found a small knot near the right ear was a took place; witness confirms Dr. Hooper's the island on business, and would have stop somewhere on Thursday; identifies the comb Read, Horatio G. Taylor, Noah Barker, Jas close hitch; cord passed twice round the neck, statement in general; adds that there was ve- ped at brother Cook's if he had known it was as belonging to Sarah, by rivet; more cheerful even; strings of calash underneath the cord, nous blood in the chest; stomach healthy—is so late; got him some water and he went to than usual; sometimes sad, especially on Tues-saw Williams Durfee and Jos Cook bosen (I foot at least) she might have hung herself, on now. Mr. A. having pleaded not guilty, was asked the cord; 'twas a double hitch; put his hand notwithstanding the cloak was hooked up Dutee J. Pearce, Esq opened the case in Witness was assistant Postmaster at Fail could not have drawn the cord so tight when had a right to set up a will, by proving a copy, were three distinct counts in the indictments; up a mill for Bristol, with only one etter, the indent; is decidedly of opinion that her ry must be satisfied that the paper offered was deed was committed in any manner analagous. Avery; also a mail for South Woodstock, for cions increased by observing the mark to be substantially a copy of the will and embraced to the allegations in the indictment, it would Grindell Rawson; two minutes before sa I let equidistant under the ears; also bruises on all its important provisions; that if they were be sufficient; he stated that if the killing was found a half sheet corressatisfied of this, they then must inquire whe found, there could be no controversy as to the box; was two feet from the box when seard there are bushes, briars, and rough stones in wards middle of the day. the lot were her comb was found; his testimothey must consider all the circumstances of the murder with make aforethought. He did Cross Examined. —Witness was one of the murder with make aforethought. He did Cross Examined. —Witness was one of the murder with make aforethought. He did Cross Examined. —Witness was one of the murder with make aforethought. family—the motives which might be supposed not propose to establish the guilt of the defen- Fall River Vigilance Committee, choose to establish the guilt of the defen- Fall River Vigilance Committee, choose to establish the guilt of the defento influence the testator—the opportunities dant by positive proof, but by a chain of cir take measures to trace out the murderes suit newspaper, with explanations and additional which others who were interested in the de cumstantial evidence, and reminded the jury dry persons signed a paper stating the facts; gave it to a man in Fall River for an edstruction of the will had of obtaining posses that an unbroken chain of such testimony was would be willing to be taxed to pay the extitor in Providence; witness is shown a newssion of it, and upon the whole matter deter ever more conclusive than positive evidence, penses of finding the supposed murdered had paper containing it, which he states to be a the death of girl remembered meeting the mine whether they were or were not satisfied as in the latter case perjury might be more signed it; has expended 17 or 18 dollars expended 17 or 18 dollars expended by him; could not beeasily committed; and also that it was a case to Bristrol to get Mr. A. removed to Ne port heve that a hard substance had been intro-The jury found that the paper offered was which precluded the possibility of a conspira to be examined; saw Squire Howe at Existol. duced into the os frontis: may become open substantially a copy of the will as originally cy or perjury He then alluded to the ex. and told him that he thought Mr. A. was guil without such an introduction; a person would

> Wittem Allen, of Tiverton, saw the body, &c. as before described in the stack yard; hair over her face; one lock on her mouth; 4 trands in the cord; hair short and bushy be-

Benjamin Manchester saw the body, &c.; saw the cord round the stake-4 strands of brown surtout, large hat, wide brim, taller on the 12th and 19th of November last a letter | where comb was found rough and swampy was received from Fall River, and on each of there was a knot in the stake which kept the

> Mrs. Borden assisted in laying the body out did not wash-off; thought the girl had been shamefully abused.

Ruth Borden confirmed the above testimo Mrs. Dorcas Ford assisted in laving the

Thomas Hart identifies a piece of comb,

Abner Davis was engaged with Benjamin of the physicians who examined the body, de man in a lot north; no cane nor bundle; must thence to dining room; took his supper; the he went to preach, but at other times a surhered his testimony in writing; sometime at have passed within 6 or 8 rods of cart contain. house girl came into the bar for a glass of tout, the same which he has on new in court;

River; saw the body of Sarah M. Cornell on | William Hamilton, on the evening of 20th | Cross Examined.—A clock pedlar was at morning of the above week, before sunrise, in Monday following her death, in Dursee's barn; Dec. was in Benjamin Hambley's store, in the tavern at the time; witness went to Bristol Main street, with a handkerchief round his round the neck was an indentation a to I inch Fall River; heard some one reading the Go- during the examination there to satisfy him- hand. may occur. For the latter they must calcu hemp cord, less than a goose quili; so tight deep, and horizontal, an inch and an eighth vernor's speech; took some drink; heard some self whether Avery was the man he had seen; Iram Smith, of Fall River—On 8th Dec. below each ear; skin in the indentation dry one say it wanted 17 minutes to 9; went home Margaret B. Hambley was the girl who car Mr. Bidwell and Mr. A. were in his store; topic or event may have for the public, and sible; after inquest, by agreement of Coro like parchment; neck not broken; under right then to Tiverton print works; going home ried the brandy to him; Dr. Hooper asked him thinks Mr. A. asked for some paper; thinks he the difference is offer very great in the de- ner, buried her on Saturday; jury of inquest lear the skin a little ruffed, as if pinched be- heard screeches, just after passing John Dur to go to the bridge to see Mr. A. when brought saw Mr. A. at his desk; about that time thinks and on different days. One newsman in the did not agree on Friday-met again on Satur tween two strands of the cord; the skin lay- fee's house; stifled cries seemed to issue from N. H; did not see him. St and, keeps constantly ten horses for ex day, at nine A. M. and agreed; Monday ing in thin plates, as if scaled off; a deep the bottom of a hollow, below the orchard John Burden, of Twerton, 3 miles from Fall identifies the half sheet of paper referred to in well known to your people, that it was not don journals, this system is indispensable; the higher crown than common; sawonly his back; not examine the lower part of the abdomen. stack yard from her window, when the meet- on morning on 21st, while talking about his well known to your people, that it was not don journals, this system is indispensable; the wen known to your prope, that it was not being on the Island, A. told witness that he supposed that any misapprehension on this Times for instance, sells between 13,000 and did not see him move; shortly after a heavy supposed that any misapprenension on this supposed that any misapprenension on this subject, could have existed. And I am districted to state to you clearly, that the opin rate which prove its value to be estimated at village. Cross Examined.—Mr. Bidwell, Methodist tion; found that the discoloration extended from there; expressed at the time some sur- was sick; night before thought she heard it—did so; on Monday, Hicks, Coroner, sum when the head was turned back the indenta ried Mr. Avery across the ferry from Bristol to 20th about dark, Sarah went out, and said she moned another jury, and ordered the Hody to tion was horizontal—is of opinion that the Portsmouth on afternoon of Dec. 20th; might was going to Jos. Durfee's and might return be taken up again -2 of the former jury not rope was tight enough to stop the circulation be a little after 2 o'clock; had on a surfout or perhaps immediately, or not till 6 o'clk; waited box coat; thinks he had no spectacles on; no till 10 for her, and then went to bed, leaving

Counsel in behalf of the State-Albert C. with only 2 strands hanging down; tree of to see if the arm was broken-was not. got up, went to the front door, found nobody er and Bristol. bed; after the conversation was over they day evening before her death; knew her one called for a knife; cord unwound in two lieces; On the 26th of January witnessed attended looked at the clock wanted 20 minutes to 10; week before she came to board with witness's On Wednesday, 12th May, the jury being cord cut two or three inches below k of on a second examination of the body agrees with saw no bundle; does not recollect if he had mother. Did not know till after her death at law appealed. The issues tried by the Ju- duly sworn, the indictment, setting forth the the stake, leaving ends on the neck quite short; Dr. Hooper's statement of that examination in spectacles on; nighest road from ferry to Fall what her situation was; knew her to receive a ry were, whether this is a copy substantially of manner and form of the death of Sarah Maria close hitch will not tighten, except by fulling general; witness had seen Sarah M. Cornell River bridge is to walk to Robert Bicks, and white letter on Saturday afternoon following the will, and whether the testator had revoked Cornell, and charging Epraim K. Avery with the ends horizontally; indentation with Mrs. H; witness weeks before she had called to ascertain her house, and crossing lots might gain the differ The gentleman who wrote the will proved indictment contained three counts:—The first Seth Darling, of Fall River, saw the body, situation; after different calls become satisfied ence between 1 3 and 1 4 of a mile in reach on afternoon of 20th, Sarah lent some money its contents—that he retained it in his posses alledged that the defendant on the 20th, fas- as before described; the right arm be to under- ing the main road; a pond and creeks inter to one of the girls to buy an apron, and asked cept the north road from his house to the the girl to buy her one, and advised witness to Cross examined .- Thinks A. arrived at his was to have time to make the apron while her terwards.—By the will the whole estate was he inflicted certain mortal bruises on her back, top, consisted of 4 strands; fence 4 feet high, think whether she hung herself, or whether house about half past 9; does not recollect given to two of the sons, upon condition that side, and abdomen; that he then squeezed or grass, or fog, not trampled; no appearance of hung up; from tightness of rope had doubts, what he said at his examination at Bristol;

William Anthony, of Portsmouth, on 20th ble papers in a desk which was never kept how he chose to be tried; replied "By God on prints of the cord on the neck, and found it wards; when standing up her neck was about Dec. saw a tall man, with dark clothes on, the height of knot on the stake, and thinks she between his house and pond, travelling S; was in the swamp lot; did not notice him again till The Judge instructed the Jury that a party behalf of the State, by observing that there River on Monday. 19th November, and made standing, nor could her weight much increase he saw him at S. end of pond, travelling e st, some time after dinner; had no gun; when if the original could not be found; that the ju but that if the government proved that the links he recollects it was for the Reg Mr. death was produced by strangling; his suspi man was at S. end of pond, was 90 rods from witness, thinks he remembered it was on 20th: had reference to a receipt he took on that day;

met a tall person, with dark clothes, black court the two half sheets. Col. Harnden then broad rimmed hat, walking fast; witness's related the manner in which he apprehended brother Charles with him; when first heard of Mr. A in Rindge, N. H.]

Charles Carr, brother of, and in company izens of Fall River on the 24th. After Mr. A with preceding witness, said the man had a was discharged, at Bristol, heard Mr. Bullock handkerchief round his face and mouth, the offer, in behalf of Mr. A. to give recognizance, man did not look round, and witness said to if the people of Fall River were dissatisfied his brother, "he is rather proud not to look with the result, to stand trial; a proposition round on us;" about 3 o'clock.

William Cranston, keeper of the Fall River dall would issue a warrant; proposition not toll bridge; on 20th Dec. 11 foot passengers accepted by witness, who was deputed by Mr. crossed; a gentleman, with dark surtout but | Staples to attend to the result of the examitoned up, but rather large and black, about nation. Witness obtained a copy of Judge 6 feet high, passed; gentleman said it was a Howe's decision, and carried it to Fall River, blustering day; had his money in his hand; no | where he read it before a third meeting of the of that institution, have been transferred to a ter of a most numerous and respectable class years that the name of the church minister at the said of christians, and standing high among his Bristol was Avery, had an impression that the round the standing post; tied very snug to Fall Ri meeting resolutions were passed authorizing brethen, who are anxious to know the truth. letter was for Mr. A during the examination, the stake; 20 rods N. of stack found a piece ver; shut gates about sun down; at low water further investigation. [Witness here related people can come round the gate by going the legal steps he took to obtain authority to down on one side and getting up the other; arrest Mr. A again, also acknowledged the saw tracts next morning, fresh tracks, as tide publication of his "Narrative," stating that he washes out the old ones; does not know of had ordered 13,000 copies to be printed.] a more than one track; was a witness at Bristol, | William Lawless, lives in Bristol; on mornand if he had known A. to have been the ing of 21st, before sunrise, saw Mr. A. walkbe made eminently serviceable in promoting whom may not be unwilling to witness the hu | sed when he found that the cord went round halted when the blast occurred; canted his man he saw on the 20th, would have pointed ing north with a rol! in his hand, 12 to 15 in-

Robert P. Lee walked from Fall River to coming from the ferry; witness asked him Newport on 20th, started at 12 o'clock; got to where he had been, he replied on the island; Methodist Laymen, and gentlemen not mem were prejudiced against the defendant, their finds by a reference to post office books, that of Fall Biver, could not identify him; ground stone bridge half past 1; crossed to Oliver D said he would have crossed on preceding Green's, 3 miles from the bridge; stopped 3 4 nigh, but the wind was high-did not mention of an hour, not meet any person between his business on the island. Green's and the bridge looking like a miniser; arrived at Newpot at half past 6; at 2 o on Tiverton side of Fall River village; about clock weather very comfortable. walking from Fall River to Capt. Lawton's the side of her Louse, and pass by Mrs. Owen; north side of the bridge; on 20th Dec. in knows Mr A. On Tuesday preceding 20th the afternoon, saw a man coming off the Dec. witness called at A.'s house, and requesbridge, walking very rapid, witness observed | ted him and his house to visit her in the course to the family, "if he walks at that rate he of the week; witness proposed that they should will reach Ohio before night;" as the man come on Thursday, 20th, but Mr. A. preferred drew near thought it might be the methodist to put it off till Friday, because both his wife minister from Bristol, or the island, had on and child were not very well; on Friday they broad brim hat, dark mixed box coat; saw Mr. | came; heard nothing in the course of the visit A. once prior to this at Bristol, in the street, of his absence from home on previous evenin the evening, walking from her; did not see ing; "his whole deportment on the visit was his face then; the man who crossed the bridge becoming of a christian and a gentleman and was of dark complexion; had a cane but no just as usual;" had visited wifness before. that it was Mr. Avery; all witness ever said Mr. A. on the 20th December, at that time was that A resembled the man she saw from Betsy Hills did not live with Mr. A, she went the windows; when witness first saw the man away sometime in the fall; cannot remember coming towards house, thought he was com- when; Mr. A. wore at that time a dark caming to the post office.

Avery is the man.

brandy; the man soon went out, and witness | made a prayer on the morning of the 21st in borrowed the copy of his testimony; did not Richard Durfee saw the body, &c. Dec. 21 did not see him again; the man came alone, his usual manner; lives in harmony with his return it again; the Dr. told witness it would as before described; no appearance of any took tea alone, and went alone; was tall, had family; is a kind and humane husband and fatrampling in the yard; the line was called a flat fur cap on, no bundle; witness thinks he ther. could not recognize the man.

Harriet Hathaway, of Fall River; Sarah M 1 pink, 1 red, 1 white; did not go out late, ex-

Lucy Hathaway, daughter of Mrs. H Hath. get one, that they might a I have aprons alike; loom was put in order. Saw the cord that the deceased was hung with, it is similar but been unwell since she went to Thompson camp meeting; had taken pills from Dr. Wilbour. Hirvey Harnden, of Fall River, was present at the Bristol examination, as one of a committee from Fall River. On Saturday eveing of first week of examination, called at Iram Smith's store, in Fall River, for the remainder of a ream of paper which was in his store on the 8th of December; in the midponding exactly in every respect with the half William Carr lives at Portsmouth; started sheet on which the letter dated 8th Dec. was

> Cross examined.—Was a member of the committee of investigation, appointed by citwas also made to give the bail, if Judge Ran> ches long, wrapped in a dark handkerchief,

Zuriah Hambley, lives at corner of a street 7 o'clock, on evening of 20th Dec. saw a tall Isaac Burdict was one hour and 10 minutes gentleman and short lady go down a lane by north side of bridge, in good health; thin shoes | lady had a cloak on; gat within 10 feet of them, but did not overtake them.

George Layton lives on north side of bridge; Amey Durfee-worked in next alley to S. on 20th Dec. saw a gentleman indark clothes M. Cornell; Sarah asked her in the morning cross the bridge; had on surtout coat; had no to tend her loom in the evening, as she was cane or spectacles; thought when he saw Mr. going to Joseph Durfee's; Sarah left the mill A. at the Bristol examination that he was the between 5 and 6; witness related the convertween the two men; will not swear that Mr. had seen the pink and straw colored letters, and identified them.

Annis Norton lives at the post office, near | Mrs. Nancy Gladden, lives in Bristol;

blet cloak. Did not hear any conversation Gardner L. Coit tends bar at Lawton's Ho | before or after his return from the island; wit-

Sylvester Luther, of Bristol, saw Mr. A. one

he went out to borrow a wafer for some one; presses, and he sells upwards of one thousand another jury was summoned, body rais- print on right cheek and temple skin not bro- back of Durfee's; thought 'twas a woman in River village, on the main road, 20 minutes | Harnden's testimony; found it in the middle