PROPOSAL
FOR PRINTING
THE JOURNALS OF THE CONVENTIONS
OF THE PROVINCE OF MARYLAND,
Held in the City of Annapolis in the years 1774, 1775, and 1776.

The subscriber proposes to publish the Journals of the Conventions of the Province of Maryland in the years 1774, 1775 and 1776. It is believed that there is not one complete copy of these Journals now extant; and from the circumstance that they were printed in pamphlet form, and unbound, it may be fairly concluded that it is now in a few years be destroyed by the mere decay of time. They are the only authentic evidence of the Political History of Maryland, during that interesting and important period. Although we have, in an abundance, histories of Maryland, as connected with the association of Provinces and Colonies, at that time formed for mutual protection against the oppressive assumption of power on the part of the Mother Country, yet none of these works embrace what may be termed the Domestic and Internal Political History.

This part of the history of Maryland it should be her pride to hand down to posterity, not only on account of its deep interest, but as a public Record of the voluntary sacrifices, during the spirit, and determined resolution of her citizens, during this period of doubt and dismay.

In the confident expectation that the citizens of Maryland will consider the proposed publication of sufficient importance to entitle it to their patronage, the subscriber is induced to issue this proposal.

J. GREEN.
The JOURNALS will be printed in one or two volumes, on good paper, and with a new type. Price, per copy, two dollars.

PEDIGREE of the celebrated horse Red Rover. Red Rover was got by Chance Medley, out of the late James Nabb's Forest Girl, who was got by Col. Chance Medley was got by Col. Taylor's imported horse Chance, (see pedigree of Chance, "Fur Register, Mar. JOSHUA M. FAULKNER.

CERTIFICATE—We do hereby certify that Red Rover has been located as a stallion, since he was four years old, in this county, that we have seen many of his colts and believe him to be a vigorous and sure foal getter; his colts are large and well formed, and in general do him much credit. The blood of his sire, Chance Medley, cannot be excused, either for its purity, or the value of its crosses; his dam by Oscar, his grand dam by Vingt-un, and g. g. dam an excellent racer, descended by Col. Lloyd's Traveller.
