revenue, and comparative statements showing read: the relative amounts of revenue accruing in the first quarter of 1833 and the first quarter of

The Vice President communicated the report of the Secretary of the Treasury containing the information called for.

reading of it. Mr. Webster moved to dispense with the reading, and reter it to the Committee

It had been called for under circumstances posites did not destroy commerce. that the answer to the call would prove the the Treasury had over-estimated the revenue of the year; that there would be a great falling off, -a decline, -a bankruptev; that confidence was destroyed, -enterprise checked, -industry paralyzed, -commerce suspended! that direful act of one man, in one dire order, changed the face of the country, from a scene of Canadian lakes to Cape Horn.
unparalleled prosperity to a scene of unparaltions and predictions under which the call was made, and to which the public attention was attracted by every device of theatrical declato stop the reading! to stop the reading of such | a report! called for under such circumstances! while whole days are given up to reading the monolonous, tautologous, and endless repetitions, of distress memorials, the echo of our All these can be read, and printed too, and lauded with studied eulogium, and their con-

themselves. The people have a right to know whole distress that did exist to the Bank of the the contents of this report, and know them they United States, and the Senate of the United shall; and if there is any man in this America States—to the screw and pressure operations of try equal to what it is at this day!

they had ever attained. To appreciate the statements which he ed, they would amount to one hundred and te policy permitted her to do it, commerce was busy multitudes, now silent and sad. A whole the patriot's heart, rejoicel full of high and five millions for the whole year; an enormous for money as at the very time that it was prosion, the sales of the public lands were selected as one of the criterions by which the ruin and desolation of the country was to be judged .-It was then predicted, and the prediction put forth with all the boldness of infallible prophecy, own speeches, and the thousandth edition of the that the respond of the deposites would stop same work, without emendation or correction! the sales of the public lands; that money would disappear; and the People have nothing to buy with; that the produce of the earth would rot predictions; and if the sales had really declined, marked upon it, that it presented a clear ba- would be more than that amount of gold in cir- the former. tents sent out to the people, treighted upon upon the hands of the farmer. These were the every wind; but this official report of the Secretary of the Treasury upon the state of their own corresponds and of their own corresponds are corresponds and the corresponds and the corresponds are corresponds and the corresponds ar pected, but it is what is true, and what will ing that actual distress had existed. He had the first of October, 1833, to the lith of June, rejoice the heart of every patriot in America. admitted the fact of that distress heretofore, not instant.

874,492,527 70,876,920 103,191,124

A pit was dug for Mr. Taney; the diggers of to the extent to which it was charged, but to the pit have fallen into it; the fault is not his; a sufficient extent to excite sympathy for the and the sooner they clamber out, the better for sufferers; and he had distinctly charged the whose heart is so constructed as to grieve over the Bank, and the alarm speeches in the Senthe prosperity of his country, let him prepare ate. He had made this charge; and made it himself for sorrow; for the proof is forthcoming, under a full sense of the moral responsibility Senate to send him the report, and comparative and through the Senate to the People, that he ed at the Custom-house, which being done Mr. D. copped and through the Senate to the People, that he ed at the Custom-house, which would make bank is a nuisance. It is the dog in the mannot over-estimated the revenue of the year; by the Secretary of the Treasury. Mr. B. months. This, he said, was prosperity. It the fall elections in Pennsylvania, New York, of the session The actual receipts into the muslin; and on examining it after her return, that the revenue was in fact, superior for the that the revenue, was in fact, superior to the said he must be pardoned for repeating his re- was wealth itself; and besides, it showed that the important type and that the important response would be attempted. Treasury from customs for the first quater of the lady thought it very indifferent for that and Ohio. If that game should be attempted, and besides, it showed that the important response would be attempted, and besides, it showed that the important response would be attempted. quest to the Senate, to recollect how often they the country was not in debt for its large impor- Mr. B. said, it would have to be done without the present year, amounted to the sum of $4,- price, and interrogated the little girl if there equal, if not exceed, the highest amount that had been told trade was paralyzed; that orders tations, and that a larger proportion of foreign excuse, for the Bank was full of money; with- 435,386 13; and the duties secured by bonds was not some mistake. for foreign goods were countermanded; that the imports now consisted of specie than was ever out pretext, for the deposite farce is over; payable in the second quarter, amount to the "No ma'am, there's no mistake. The genimporting cities were the pictures of desolation; known before. Mr. B. particularized the imshould make, Mr. B. said it was necessary for their ships idle; their wharves deserted; their ports and exports of gold; how the former had will not be in session. articles was new greatly reduced. Many armariners wandering up and down. Itow, said increased, and the latter difficulties were now free of duty, which formerly which formerly increased, and the latter difficulties were now free of duty, which formerly increased, and the latter difficulties were now free of duty, which formerly increased, and the latter difficulties were now free of duty, which formerly increased, and the latter difficulties were now free of duty, which formerly increased, and the latter difficulties were now free of duty, which formerly increased, and the latter difficulties were now free of duty, which formerly increased, and the latter difficulties were now free of duty, which formerly increased, and the latter difficulties were now free of duty, which formerly increased and the latter difficulties were now free of duty. ticles were now free of duty, which formerly of the accruing revenue, it was found that there of gold, both foreign and domestic, was now be more strange than to find, in our own counpaid heavy duties; many others were reduced was no decline of commecre, except at places waiting in the country to see if Congress would be fair effect of these abolitions. in duty; and the fair effect of these abolitions, where the policy and power of the United States raise gold to its fair value. If so raised, this lustration of the ancient doctrine of the metemp- fourth quarters should be only equally productions, where the policy and power of the United States raise gold to its fair value. If so raised, this and reductions, would be a diminution of re- Bank was predominant! Where that power gold would remain, and enter into circulation; sychosis. Stranger still, if that doctrine should tive with the two first, the receipts will equal your even without a diminution of imports: venue even without a diminution of imports; or policy was predominant, revenue declined; if not, it would immediately go off to foreign be so far improved, as to take effect in soul-less the amount at which they were estimated in present the Shuretary's estimate, made at the comyet the Secretary's estimate, made at the comwhere it was not predominant, or the policy of countries, for gold was not a thing to stay bodies; for, according to the founders of the the annual report. But under our present mencement of the session, was more than rethe Bank, not exerted, the revnue increased, where it was undervalued. He also spoke of doctrine, the soul alone could transmigrate.—

system of duties, the receipts from customs in doctrine, the soul alone could transmigrate.—
system of duties, the receipts from customs in a live and showed the gratifying spectagle of a alized, and showed the gratifying spectacle of a and increased fast enough to make up the defifull and overflowing Treasury, instead of the ciency at the other places. Mr. B. proceeded but could not remain without law. Unless laid down by all the books; and of all corporable ciency at the other places. Mr. B. proceeded but could not remain without law. Unless empty one which had been predicted; and lef to verify this statement by a reference to specito Congress the grateful occupation of further fied places. Thus, at Piladelphia, where the that at full value as money, and not at the mint the Bank of the United States, was most soul- which form so large a portion of our imports, the Bank of the United States, was most soul- which form so large a portion of our imports, the Bank of the United States, was most soul- which form so large a portion of our imports, the Bank of the United States, was most soul- which form so large a portion of our imports, the Bank of the United States, was most soul- which form so large a portion of our imports, the Bank of the Odious task of the Odious task of the Colors the Color borrowing money, as had been so loudly anticipated for six months past. The revenue fell was 797,316 dollars for the cipated for six months past. The revenue fell was 797,316 dollars for the cipated for six months past. The revenue fell was 797,316 dollars for the cipated for six months past. The revenue fell was 797,316 dollars for the cipated for six months past. The revenue fell was 797,316 dollars for the cipated for six months past. The revenue fell was 797,316 dollars for the cipated for six months past. The revenue fell was 797,316 dollars for the cipated for six months past. The revenue fell was 797,316 dollars for the cipated for six months past. The revenue fell was 797,316 dollars for the cipated for six months past. The revenue fell was 797,316 dollars for the cipated for six months past. The revenue fell was 797,316 dollars for the cipated for six months past. The revenue fell was 797,316 dollars for the cipated for six months past. The revenue fell was 797,316 dollars for the cipated for six months past. The revenue fell was 797,316 dollars for the cipated for six months past. The revenue fell was 797,316 dollars for the cipated for six months past. The revenue fell was 797,316 dollars for the cipated for six months past. The revenue fell was 797,316 dollars for the cipated fell was 797,316 dollars for the cipat cipated for six months past. The revenue first quarter of 1833, and only 542,498 for the accruing from imports in the first quarter of 1834. At N. B. recapitulated the evidences of national prosperity—increased imports—revenue after submitting to death in her present form, and try in the tintuation to the first quarter of the cracks to see accruing from imports in the first quarter of first quarter of 1834, At New York, where from customs exceeding the estimate—increasthe present year, was 5,344,540 dollars; the the bank has not been able to get the upper ed revenue from public lands—increased a one, should be ready for the old sinner, come in venue; and being now payable in cash, they what is going on.' payments actually made into the Treasury hand, there was an increase of more than 120,- mount of specie—above eleven millions of the body of what beast it might. No form enter into the receipts of the third and fourth from the Custombouses, for the same quarter. from the Custombouses for the same quarter, 000 dollars; the revenue there for the first available funds now in the Treasury—domestic should deceive him; not even, if it condescends the same quarters of the year sign of his mother to go ball. She told him the treasury—domestic should deceive him; not even, if it condescends the same quarters of the year sign of his mother to go ball. She told him the treasury—domestic should deceive him; not even, if it condescends the same quarters of the year sign of his mother to go ball. She told him to go be a sign of his mother to go ball. She told him to go be a sign of his mother to go ball. was 4,435,386 dollars; and the payments from quarter of 1833, was 3,122, 166; for the first of lands for the same time, was 1,398,206 dollars. The receipts of the year sion of his mother to go to a ball. She told him and foreign commerce active—the price of product of the lit was a bad place for little hows. Why, mother to go to a ball. She told him and foreign commerce active—the price of product of the lit was a bad place for little hows. The two first menths of the second quarter where the Bank is again predominant, the re- where finding employment and reward—more where finding employment and reward—more declarations dellars. were producing in a full ratio to the first venue fell off about one-third; at Salem (Mass) and the actual amount of available it fell off four-fifths. At Baitimore, where the funding employment and reward—more where finding employment and reward employment and funds in the Treasury on the 9th day of this Bank has been defeated, there was an increase for the purchase of slaves, in the papers of this bad deluded an hundred thousand people to will no doubt be gratifying to the Senate to "Well, mother," exclaimed the son, "I want many ten thousand people to will no doubt be gratifying to the Senate to "Well, mother," exclaimed the son, "I want many ten thousand people to be gratifying to the Senate to "Well, mother," exclaimed the son, "I want many ten thousand people to be gratifying to the Senate to "Well, mother," exclaimed the son, "I want many ten thousand people to be gratifying to the Senate to "Well, mother," exclaimed the son, "I want many ten thousand people to be gratifying to the Senate to "Well, mother," exclaimed the son, "I want many ten thousand people to be gratifying to the Senate to "Well, mother," exclaimed the son, "I want many ten thousand people to be gratifying to the Senate to "Well, mother," exclaimed the son, "I want many ten thousand people to be gratifying to the Senate to "Well, mother," exclaimed the son, "I want many ten thousand people to be gratifying to the Senate to "Well, mother," exclaimed the son, "I want many ten thousand people to be gratifying to the senate to "Well, mother," exclaimed the son, "I want many ten thousand people to be gratifying to the senate to "Well, mother," exclaimed the son, "I want many ten thousand people to be gratifying to the senate to "Well, mother," exclaimed the son, "I want many ten thousand people to be gratifying to the senate to "Well, mother," exclaimed the son, "I want many ten thousand people to be gratifying to the senate to "Well, mother," exclaimed the son, "I want many ten thousand people to be gratifying to the senate to "Well, mother," exclaimed the son, "I want many ten thousand people to be gratifying to the senate to "Well, mother," exclaimed the son, "I want many ten thousand people to be gratifying to the senate to "Well, mother," exclaimed the senate to "Well, mother," exclaimed the month, was ELEVEN MILLIONS, TWO in the revenue of more than 70,000 dollars; at city, for the Southern market, which indicated send memorials here, certifying what those learn that the receipts from lands are equally to see the folly of it too." HUNDRED & FORTY-NINE THOUS- Richmond, the revenue was doubled, from 12,- the high price of Southern products-- and af-AND, FOUR HUNDRED & TWELVE 034 dollars; to 25,810 dollars; at Charleston, it firmed his conscientious belief, that the coun-DOLLARS. The two last quarters of the year was increased from 69,503 dollars to 102,310 try as more prosperous at this time than at any were always most productive. It was the time were always most productive. It was the time dollars; at Petersburg, it was slightly increas- period of its existence; and inveighed in terms of the largest importations of foreign goods. To RATION of the DEP OSITES, or the during the first quarter of the present period of its existence; and inveighed in terms of the present and inveighed in terms. of the largest importations of foreign goods which pay most duty—the woollens—and the which pay most duty—the woollens—and the Potomac, there was either an increase, or the fices, which for the last six months, had disseason also for the largest sale of publice londs: slight falling off which might result from diit is well believed that the estimate will be minished duties without diminished importions. The re- newed; and yet the distress is gone! What is turns already received for the present quarters of this more largely exceeded in those two quarters. unore largely exceeded in those two quarters Mr. B. said he knew that Bank power was gretted the miscarriage of the attempt to exthan in the two first; and that the excess for predominant in some of the cities to the south; amine the Bank of the U. States, which he be- victed, and condemned, upon their own argu- year from lands, may be safely estimated at the whole year over the estimate, will be full the whole year, over the estimate, will be full but he knew also, that the Bank policy of distwo millions of dollars. This, Mr. B. said, tress and oppression had not been practised that institution for its share in getting up an unwas one of the evidences of public prosperity there. That was not the region to be govern- which the report contained; and which utterive of the evidences of public prosperity there. That was not the region to be govern- natural and factitious scene of distress, but the shows that the anticipated income from this which utterive of the evidences of public prosperity there. That was not the region to be govern- natural and factitious scene of distress, but the shows that the anticipated income from this which the report contained; and which utteriy ed by the scourge. The high mettle of that midst of real prosperity. But he did not limit declared, for six months, upon this floor, that shows that the anticipated income from the contradicted the idea of distress and commerce as well as from the customs, will be contradicted the idea of distress and commerce as well as from the customs, will be contradicted the idea of distress and commerreigion required a different policy: gentleness, his invective to the Bank, but came directly to the removal of the deposites made the distress, source, as well as from the customs, will call embarrassment which had been propagate.

Mr. B. said that the imports of the last year ed all the real commercial distress which has has gone off; would to God he could follow out the more of less than the major of the last year ed all the real commercial distress which has the most of the more of less than the major of the more of the ten upon the Bank the odium of having produc- solation. The lamentation has ceased; the panic The Secretary of the Senate commenced the were greater in proportion, than in any previhave been expected; such declines always wanton and wicked oppression. It was not that. There were wrecks! wrecks of merhave been expected; such decimes arways wanton and where is, howtake place after excessive importations. If it in the Secretary's reports, but it was in the chants in every city, in which the Bank tried Sir: In compliance with the resolution of the ever, no reason for apprehending that the retake place after excessive importations. The many section of the Bank; and showed that its cruel policy, and wrecks of banks in this Senate, of the 7th of May last, directing the sources of the present year can fall short of the Bank; and showed that its cruel policy, and wrecks of banks in this Senate, of the 7th of May last, directing the sources of the present year can fall short of the Bank; and showed that its cruel policy, and wrecks of banks in this Senate, of the 7th of May last, directing the sources of the present year can fall short of the Bank; and showed that its cruel policy, and wrecks of banks in this Senate, of the 7th of May last, directing the sources of the present year can fall short of the Bank; and showed that its cruel policy, and wrecks of banks in this Senate, of the 7th of May last, directing the sources of the present year can fall short of the Bank; and showed that the fall this last is the fall this last the fall this l had occurred now, though naturally to have been trum- in the beginning of March that institution had District, where the panic speeches fell thickest Secretary of the Treasury "to report as soon estimate contained in the annual report. And been expected, the fact would have been trum- in the beginning of March that institution had been trum- in the beginning of March that institution had been trum- in the beginning of March that institution had been trum- in the beginning of March that institution had been trum-Mr Benton demanded the reading.

The Secretary of the Senate resumed the Proof of the Senate resumed the period of the Senate resumed the positive—of commercial distress, occasioned by sum of about 800,000 dollars in specie, which derrifted community! positive—of commercial distress, occasioned by sum of about 500,000 donors in specie, which during the first quarter of the year 1834, with I have the honor to be, sir, very respectfully, the fatal removal of the deposites. But as there it had been collecting all the winter by a wan-Mr. Webster moved to refer, and print it.

Mr. Benton rose, and said that this report was of a nature to deserve some attention, be other side of the account; and set, it down as other sides of the account; and set, it down as other sides of the account; and set, it down as other sides of the account; and set, it down as other sides of the account; and set, it down as other sides of the account. was or a nature to deserve some attention, before it left the chamber of the Senate, and went | Senate | Sen fore it is the chamber of the Senate, and went to a committee, from which it might not reto a committee, from which it might not re-turn in time for consideration at this session. The more hands are desired at each pert."

The more hands are desired at each pert."

Also, "whether any thing has happened since and consequently, that the removal of the de-The next evidence of commarcial prosperity when they ought to have been accommodated pelled forever, the ghost of alarm from the ment of the present session of Congress, to vary, which Mr. B. would exhibit to the Senate, was with loans. The price of produce was there chamber of the Senate. All ghosts, said Mr. in his opinion, the estimate contained in the mation which deserved to be known. It was in the increased, and increasing, numbers of the whole west suffered from the B. are affraid of the light. The awing of the said report, of the proceeds of the duties on called for early in May, in the crisis of the light the most of the duties on the light the most of the light the proceeds of the duties on the light the most of caned for early in May, in the crisis of the duties on the depression; and now it is proved that the mo-cock,—the break of day,—remits them all, the foreign imports for the year 1834:" I herewith alarm operations, and with confident assertions of arrivals for the month of May in New here were not wanted to supply the place of the wanted to supply the wanted to supply the place of the wanted to supply the place of the wanted to supply the wante York, was 223, exceeding by 36 those of the deposites, but was sent to Philadelphia, where abodes. How then can this poor ghost of alarm, resolution above mentioned, by which it apmonth of April, and showing not only a great, there was no use for it, the Bank having more which has done such hard service for six months pears that the duties which accrued from cuswas confidently asserted that the Secretary of but an increasing activity in the commerce of the Transport had over-estimated the revenue but an increasing activity in the commerce of the secretary of the sum of 25 798 114 87 and in the commerce of the secretary of the sum of 25 798 114 87 and in the commerce of the secretary o that great emporium—he would not say of the ation was a wanton and wicked measure to glare, the clear sunshine of the Secretary's re- the sum of $5,798,114 87, and in the corres-United States, or even of North America—but coerce the west to cry out for a return of the port? "Alas, poor ghost!" The shade of the ponding quarter of 1834, to the sum of $5,341,- ing to the House, he had been informed that e he would call it that great emporium of the two deposites, and a renewal of the charter, by at a mobile Dane" never quit the stage under a 540 40, and that the actual receipts into the since the last adjournment of the House, intel-Americas and of the New World; for the goods tacking their commerce in the market of New more inexorable law than the one which now Treasury rom the same source in the fermer ligence had been received of the occurrence imported to that place were thence distributed Orleans. This fact, said Mr. B., would have drives thee away. This report, replete with quarter, amounted to $6,966,437 09, and in of a calculate which had befallen the whole had been proved tropp the been proved trop to every part of the two Americas, from the been proved from the books of the Bank, if plain facts, and luminous truths, puts to flight the latter to $4,435,386 18. A few of the minor race of civilized man. He had not time to they had been inspected. Failing in that, the the apparition of distress, breaks down the ports have not been heard from; but they can-prepare a resolution fitting such an occasion, A third evidence of national prosperity was proof was intelligibly found in the weekly re- whole muchinery of alarm, and proves that the not materially vary the result.

Year ending September 39, 1833. MPORTS. Gold bullion; $43,267 Silver do. 6,160,676 87,670,368 talk! But he, Mr. B., did not mean to suffer this report to be despatched in this procession.

It was as follows. From October 1st to June 11th. EXPORTS #11,177 256,617 899,638 $998,761 statement, which being done, Mr. B. opened and turough the senate to the record and the lead to the six millions; and added to the six millions ger. It might lend money to business men, at bonds already taken, confirm the opinion that the report, and went over the heads of it to show that the Secretary of the Treasury had not over-estimated the revenue of the very not over not o millions more than in the time of Mr. Adams's Where the power of the Bank enabled her to administration. At the rate they had commenced the lake a desert waste of waters. That po-for the time that President Jackson has served, but where her policy required a different course, poverty, and plunged into unutlevable woe, by tation over the desolation of the land now, and duties, must mainly depend on its own importafor the time that President Jackson has served, have regularly advanced from about 74 million to 108 millions. The fellowing is the state-Monday, June 16, 1834.

Mr. Clay's resolution calling for the state of the what Philadelphia and other bank cites; have merica, whose true condition you have just seen to the what Philadelphia and other bank cites; have merica, whose true condition you have just seen to the what Philadelphia and other bank cites; have merica, whose true condition you have just seen to the what Philadelphia and other bank cites; have merica, whose true condition you have just seen to the what Philadelphia and other bank cites; have merica, whose true condition you have just seen to the what Philadelphia and other bank cites; have merica, whose true condition you have just seen to the what Philadelphia and other bank cites; have merica, whose true condition you have just seen to the what Philadelphia and other bank cites; have merica, whose true condition you have just seen to the what Philadelphia and other bank cites; have merica, whose true condition you have just seen to the whole the result of the second cites and the provided and the provided cites and the provided cites and the provided cites are t what Philadelphia and other bank cites have merica, whose true condition you have just seen Treasury,—would be stared at, as the Tropended on the duties which had accrued in prelost; and the federal Treasury is just as well off, exhibited in the faithful report of the Secretary jans were accustomed to stare at the frantic cedling years, and which were ascertained and as if it had got its accustomed supply from eve- of the Treasury. Not even the "baseless fabric exhibitions of Priam's distracted daughter, secured by bonds before the time the estimate of a vision," was over more destitute of foun- while vaticinating the downfal of Troy in the were presented. This view of facts, Mr. B. said, must fas dation, than those lamentable accounts of des- m dst of the heroic exploits of Hector.

the lake a desert waste of waters, the ocean without ships, the commercial towns deserted, silent, and sad; orders for goods countermand-ed; foreign purchases stopped and that the answer of the Secretary would prove all this, in showing the falsity of his own estimates and increase of money in the U. States during the limitation and unnatural. It was in the great tre of distress could never be made to cross the involved in the decease of one of the most emisior time instrument. It was in the great tre of distress could never be made to cross the involved in the decease of one of the most emission that the involved in the decease of one of the most emiss in showing the falsity of his own estimates, and the revenue and the report decline in the revenue and invested in the revenue and invested in the first last year and a half. He spoke of money; not last year and a half. He spoke of money; not last year and a half. He spoke of money; not last year and a half. quarter of 1833. The receipts for lands, for paper promises to pay money, but the thing King of Floods. A letter from St. Louis intions of the country. Such were the asserthat quarter, were, $668,526; for the first itself,—real gold and silver,—and affirmed that quarter, were, $668,526; for the first itself,—real gold and silver,—and affirmed that quarter, were, $668,526; for the first itself,—real gold and silver,—and affirmed that quarter, were, $668,526; for the first itself,—real gold and silver,—and affirmed that quarter or 1858. quarter of the present year they were, $1,398,- there was a clear gain of from EIGHTEEN to get up a distress meeting in the town of St. port, it was considered as a safe one; because, and States of this Union, and to the merits of

Mr. B. having read over this state neat, re- Gold Bill passed, and raised gold 16 to 1, there portations in the latter had not exceeded those of of General LAFAYETTE.

Mr. F. remarked, upon this statement that receivable, by law, in all federal payments; does not arise from any fluctuation in commerce From Indiana mong nations, was the prosperity of the counthing from this elevated theatre. He had, it presented a clear gain of more than ten miltherefore given his proofs to accompany the lions of dollars. He was of opinion, that two current, at par, although the Bank itself migt casioned by the alterations in the times of pay- From Illinois Mr. B. then requested the Secretary of the charge; and he had now to say to the Sanate millions ought to be added for sums not enter- be wholly unable to redeem them. Such a ment introduced by the act of 14th July, 1832. From Alabama millions ought to be added for sums not enter- be wholly unable to redeem them. Such a ment introduced by the act of 14th July, 1832. From Alabama millions ought to be added for sums not enter- be wholly unable to redeem them. Such a ment introduced by the act of 14th July, 1832. From Alabama millions ought to be added for sums not enter-less. Yet, the rumor was, that this Bank in- are for the most part brought into the coun- An effective Laughter.-The editor of the cial embarrassment which had been propagatconciliation, coaxing! If the South was to be the Senate, and charged a full share upon the last six months. ed, from this Chamber, for the last six months. gained over by the Bank, it was to be done by the arrival distress speeches, delivered upon the newal of the Bank charter, could relieve it, upon the whole; the information received the proceeded to the next evidence of the next evide Mr. B. proceeded to the next evidence of favor, not by fear. The scourge, though so floor of the Senate, in imitation of Volume's and that they would sit here until the dog-days, since the annual report on the finances was floor of the Senate, in imitation of Volume's and that they would sit here until the dog-days, since the annual report on the finances was floor of the Senate, in imitation of Volume's and that they would sit here until the dog-days, since the annual report on the finances was floor of the Senate, in imitation of Volume's and that they would sit here until the dog-days, since the annual report on the finances was floor of the Senate, in imitation of Volume's and that they would sit here until the dog-days, since the annual report on the finances was floor of the Senate, in imitation of Volume's and that they would sit here until the dog-days, since the annual report on the finances was floor of the Senate, in imitation of Volume's and that they would sit here until the dog-days, since the annual report on the finances was floor of the Senate, in imitation of Volume's and that they would sit here until the dog-days, since the annual report on the finances was floor of the Senate, in imitation of Volume's and the senate is the senate of th commercial prosperity; it was in the increased much the most congenial to the haughty spirit soliloquy over the ruins of Palmyra. Here and the winter solstice, to effect the restorations of foreign goods. These imports importations of foreign goods. These imports, of the moneyed power, was only to be applied peated some passages from the five first months, would be where it would be with the where it would be where it would be with the would be where it would b seven millions more than they were two years ago, when the Bank of the U. States has sevenago, when the Bank of the U. States has seventhe whole region south of the Potomac, was exempted from the lash. Mr. B. with great emphasis, by millous loaned out; and they were twenty the attention of the Senate upon their seven the section of the Senate upon the section of the section of the senate upon the section of the se ty millous loaned out; and they were twenty millions more than in the time of the Senate upon these facts. Where the power of the Rank and in the time of the Rank and exclaimed, Mr. B. with great emphasis, ry during the present year will be greater than in this city—a praiseworthy example of liber the amount at which they were estimated at lity. Three hundred dollars have been col-millions for the year. This will exceed what-depressed, and the revenue was sunk, and the nation, in the midst of unparalleled prosperity, About the same time a similar was known in our country. The imports, prophecies of the distress oraters were fulfilled; and Arcadian felicity, suddenly struck into piace at Crawfordsville, Indiana.

206; being two to one, and $60,000 over! The to TWENTY MILLIONS OF SPECIEs Louis, but without effect. The officers were although the imports of 1831 and 7032 had him to whose memory this tribute should be receipts for the two first months of the second within the time that he had mentioned. It obtained, and according to the approved rule of been unusually large, those of 1833 had gone paid. This he supposed would be in the form quarter, were also known, and would carry the then took up the custom-house returns to veri- such meetings, they were converts from Jack- still higher, and the general state of commerce of a joint resolution of the two Houses of Con-The Secretary sends in his report, with every revenue from lands, for the first five months of fy this important statement, and to let the Peo-

and pregnant with evidences of national pros-perity. How is it received—how received by a reduction in the price of lands. Mr. B. bega reduction in the price of lands. Mr. B. beg- ports of specie and bullion for the year ending of the U. States, and said that its notes might quarter of the present year, and the correspond- lity of the nation, on the event of the decease, those who called for it? With downcast looks, and said that of the memory of the decease, and some who called for it? With downcast looks, and some the memory of the decease, and some the decease the Expones L Moverified this statement by shewing that the quarter in the preceding year. Several ar- lution: precise amount which that gigantic institution duced on others; and the difference between the and affection it may be proper for the Congress $2,211,801c now contributed to the circulation of the coun- amount of duty which accrued in these two of the United States to express the deep sensitry! Only four millions and a quarter. If the quarters, would have been greater if the im- bility of the nation on the event of the decease own revenues, and of their own commerce, called for by an order of the Senate is to be trust. led for by an order of the Senate, is to be treatorder of the Senate, is to be trea ed like an unwelcome and worthless intruder; one set of banking houses to another! But which was brought up passengers, and not put each paper doller which the Bank issues, and quarter of 1833, were delayed until the first compose the said Committee. received without a word,—not even read,— one set of camering houses to another. But which took of the former upon the custom-house books. It might be for which took of the benefit of the reduced to a the product; and a fair conclusion thence deduced assumed, he said, that there was a clear acces- dissolution of the Bank would turn out twelve the benefit of the reduced tariff which took ef-Abbe Sieves voted for the death of Louis the that the new States, in the interior, are as pros; sion of six millions of specie to the money of millions of species to the mone the United States on the morning of that very mong the People; and the sooner that is done the cumstance has enlarged, in some degree, the From N. Hampshire Henry Hubbard. this report to be despatched in this unceremon country from these infallible data: flourishing distress orators in the country to date the root.

The Bank is now a nuisance, said Mr. B.— making a due allewance for the increase which From Connecticut distress orators in the country to date the root.

The Bank is now a nuisance, said Mr. B.— making a due allewance for the increase which From Connecticut distress orators in the country to date the root. ed for to be given to the people, and the people rivals of ships—and increased sales of public Mr. B. then showed a statement of the image of the rivals of ships—and increased sales of public Mr. B. then showed a statement of the people rivals of ships—and increased sales of public Mr. B. then showed a statement of the rivals of ships—and increased sales of public Mr. B. then showed a statement of the people rivals of ships—and increased sales of public Mr. B. then showed a statement of the rivals of ships—and increased sales of public Mr. B. then showed a statement of the rivals of ships—and increased sales of public Mr. B. then showed a statement of the rivals of ships—and increased sales of public Mr. B. then showed a statement of the rivals of ships—and increased sales of public Mr. B. then showed a statement of the rivals of ships—and increased sales of public Mr. B. then showed a statement of the rivals of ships—and increased sales of public Mr. B. then showed a statement of the rivals of ships—and increased sales of public Mr. B. then showed a statement of the rivals of ships—and increased sales of public Mr. B. then showed a statement of the rivals of ships—and increased sales of public Mr. B. then showed a statement of the rivals of ships—and increased sales of public Mr. B. then showed a statement of the rivals of ships—and increased sales of public Mr. B. then showed a statement of the rivals of ships—and increased sales of public Mr. B. then showed a statement of the rivals of ships—and increased sales of public Mr. B. then showed a statement of the rivals of ships—and increased sales of public Mr. B. then showed a statement of the rivals of ships—and increased sales of public Mr. B. then showed a statement of the rivals of ships—and increased sales of public Mr. B. then showed a statement of the rivals of ships—and increased sales of public Mr. B. then showed a statement of the rivals of ships—and increased sales of public Mr. B. then showed a statement of ships—and increased sales of public Mr. B. should hear of it. It was not what was ex- lands, Mr. B. sail that he was far from deny- ports and exports of specie and bullion, from long fifty-two millions of loans, it pretends that year, the amount of duties which accrued in From New Jersey ports and exports of specie and bullion, from long fifty-two millions of loans, it pretends that year, the amount of duties which accrued in From New Jersey ports and exports of specie and bullion, from long fifty-two millions of loans, it pretends that year, the amount of duties which accrued in From New Jersey ports and exports of specie and bullion, from long fifty-two millions of loans, it pretends that year, the amount of duties which accrued in From New Jersey ports and exports of specie and bullion, from long fifty-two millions of loans, it pretends that year, the amount of duties which accrued in From New Jersey ports and exports of specie and bullion, from long fifty-two millions of loans, it pretends that year, the amount of duties which accrued in From New Jersey ports and exports of specie and bullion, from long fifty-two millions of loans, it pretends that year, the amount of duties which accrued in From New Jersey ports are larger than the long fifty-two millions of loans, it pretends that year, the amount of duties which accrued in From New Jersey ports are larger to the loans and the loans are larger to the loans and the loans are larger to the larger it cannot lead a dollar, not even to business the quarter, are sufficient to show that the im- From Pennsylvania men, to be returned in sixty days; when, two ports of the present year will most probably From Delaware years ago, with only six millions of specie and exceed the amount at which they were esti- From Mary and twenty-two millions of circulation, it run up mated in the annual report, and be fully equal From Virgina its loans to seventy millions. The President of to those of 1833, which were unususually large. From North Carolina Lewis Williams. the Bank then swore that all above six millions If this expectation should be realized, the pro- From South Care na Henry L. Piackney. of specie was a surplus! How is it now, with coeds of the customs will exceed the amount at From Georgia near double as much specie, and five millions which they were estimated by more than 1,- From Kentucky less of notes out, and twelve millions less of 000,000 dollars. The difference in the com- From Tennessee debt? The Bank needs less specie than any parative receipts of the two first quarters as From Ohio other banking institution, because its notes are shown by the statement herewith transmitted, From Louisiana

Mr. B. said, that among the strange events which may yet be called for, and for deben- -and then he did!"

*About the same time a similar failure took partment, that as the receipts of each year, un- on foot of soliciting contributions in the several der the present system of short credits and cash | wards.

And as all calculations on the amount of revenue hereafter to accrue, must be more or less June 16th, 1834. 5 equal to the expected income. There is, how-

Secretary of the Treasury. HON MARTIN VAN BUREN. Vice President United States and President of the Senate.

TWENTY-THIRD CONGRESS FIRST SESSION.

Saturday, June 21, 1834.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

After the reading of the Journal-Mr. J. Q. Adams rose to state, that on com-American People are, at this day, the most In answer to the second resolution, I have person that it was an occurrence peculiarly this year, to two millions of dollars; indicating ple see that the country was never so well off and took another turn. The tarce could not be belief that there would be no serious diminu- motion that a committee should be appointed and took another turn. From the comparative statement of the tion and respect may be shown by the Congress

> 826,775. Bank had twelve millions and a quarter of spe- ticles which form important items in our or- Resolved, That a Committee of --- le ap-F | cie in its vaul s, and but sixteen millions and a dinary imports, and paid duty in the first quar- pointed on the part of this House to join such half of notes in circulation. The difference was ter of 1833, were free from duty in the first committee as may be appointed by the Senate, four millions and a quarter; and that was the quarter of 1834, and the rate of duty was re- to consider and report by what token of respect

> > The Committee on the part of the House

Rufus McIntire. Noyes Barber. Heman Allen. C. C. Cambreleng James Parker. Henry A. Muhlenberg

John J. M Ligan. Isaac McKim. William S. Archer. "Richard M. Johnson, John Blair, Elisha Whittlesey. Philemon Thomas. John Carr.

Harry Cage.

Joseph Duncan.

William H. Ashley.

John Murphy.

Delicate compliment-A young lady being addressed by a gentleman much older than herself, observed to him, the only objection she had to an union with him, was the probability of his dying before her, and leaving her to feet the sorrows of widowhood; to which he made the following reply: "Blessed is the man that Go ahead .- A fellow who was always making use of David Crockett's phrase go ahead, and who was rather apt to fall asleep in the church, attended meeting a few weeks since in the city. The clergyman had pronounced the words, 'in conclusion,' when up jumped the fellow and exclaimed, well then go ahead.

The opposition or Bank Schators represent States containing 4,305,666 voters. The republican Senators represent States, containing 7,952 508 voters. Majority on the side ofrepullicanism and against the Bank, three million six hundred forty seven thousand eight hundred and forty-two! And yet these wigs, or wage, talk of consulting the wishes of the country!

A New York paper says-Bishop Dubois yesterday paid over to the Polish committee, administration. At the rate they had commenced and the distress is gone—and the distress is gone