Pennsylvania. to him only by his accidental association with Stevenson. another's name; which could never be breathed tative of the People, I have in the estimation

I shall remember in all time to come, with back upon the capitol, under the imposing For land documents in proud satisfaction, fellow citizens, that you have form of distress memorials. his day pronounced the impulse to be good.

sarroun I me, I believe that the 4th of Ju'v. 18 will long be remembered as the second jubil when the sons of those honored fathers re-assembled about the same altar, rekindled the integrity, talents, and assiduity, have so richly eight thousand dollars to more than fifty thou- of a great monied corporation. A Corporation, say, "could the editor of the Telegraph leave no fear of the issue. themselves from an enemy still more danger--- a foul blot upon their legislative page-an odious moneyed oligarchy!

patrio ic multitude, I see and feel that the blood of the Revolution is not extinct. The spirit of tekel" of its eternal overthrow!

filere the pressure became so great on on end of the outer tables, that it tell with a pro digious crash to the ground. Cries of "go on, "proceed," &c. came from all quarters, when Mr. Le resumed.]

bones broken by this occurrence; for being little superstitions in my nature, I had agreed in my own mind that it was an omen auspici ous of the greatest good, that it indicated us in the right time and way, the speedy and certain downfall of the United States Bank, falling as this board has fallen, beneath the re sistless power of a great "Jackson pressure Of all the matters of interest, fellow citizens which have occurred to day, I know of none that has filled me with more pleasure and surprise, than the contrast presented between the state of public feeling, the high and all pervad ing excitement that now exists among or political friends, and the temporary paralysis under which you seemed to labor some weeks since, when as an humble member of the "strolling committee, '-['he classic cognomen given by "all the decency," to committee of their own appointment, I vis- 1:6 greater for your worthy Marshal to have collected to rother by a search warrant, a corpopul's guard of the faithful, than it was to summon the retractory directors of the United States Bank to the North America Hotel, to ans ver for the sins done in their body, if they has this day been kindled, and I doubt not by People - That the days of this political antichrist are numbered-that this great mother of abomination has exhausted her spells-that her incantations have become ridiculous—and the Bank to extend its discounts, was known that popular virtue, guided by the lamp of to a favored few in New York and Philadeltruth, is now digging the grave of political phia some days before it was announced to the necromancy? What has become of all the public. our council halls groan in sympathy with the mechanics cannot get a thousand at six, visited speech have since settled all that! The Senate regular rank and file they were marshalled a mass of lacts, not accessible to a great portion several great staples of the land are all upthis morning by your orator of the day, and of the People, and so involved in complicated and the poor prophets are all down. in detail they were swept into oblivion by the accounts as not to be easily understood without We are reminded by an article we have just the U.S. Telegraph upon it: their funcies he produced facts—for their conject. At once we shall state the conclusion to anecdote we have recently heard, of a very inture he furnished opposing proofs. For their which these facts lead our minds, in which telligent but impassioned Politician. Some Jour and six month's predictions of national every candid reader will concur when he has months since, he was sorry that the crop of the existing order of things, there is no concert, and bitter as that which rested upon Arnold come and ensolvency, he produced official regiven them a full examination. It is, that the wheat would not sell for more than 50 or 60 cents of the militial and now haunts his memory terns, showing an increased revenue, a full increase of the public expenditure, beyond the a bushel—that Jackson was mad, and was the administration all is concert, impelled by a treasury, a stable credit, a sound currency, and moderate advance necessarily occasioned by the ruining the country, &c. &c. The other day, common purpose.—U. S. Tel. a picture of commercial and general prosper- growth of our country, is the bitter fruit of the he was reminded of his predictions—and he ity, which the country had for years been a political ambition and management of Messrs. exclaimed, that the Country was mad, and from a late number of the Telegraph, with a have seen too much of political men, not to the payment of the 25,000,000

| uncontradicted facts of Bank injury, corrup- for the whole People; and in part from the de- and all the arts of the Se at . The Market is resounds with their ses of anticipated triumph is to select the individual, who are to be put Garden, Philadelphia, by the Democrats the turbulance of the popular branch, and by him have unfortunately retained sufficient in removal of the Deposites; and if they could be would soon discover a deep and determined we can well conceive how the partisans of himself the credit of a compliment which came they had already dug for your Taney and your public moneys, Congress are pecularly its con- ingenious calculations.

of that reckless and vituperative spirit, which the country would have enjoyed undisturbed been directed by Congress. in carrying out the true interests of the People, terests, its power, and its perpetuity. Who now The printing expenses of this body for have made him all that the nation had expect- doubts that the speeches produced the panic, and 1831, were ed; their revered benefactor-their time hon- caused the suspension of credit, which for a time | For 1832 they were orect and meritorious public servant, I am harassed the community? They were the fruit- For 1833 they wereamply rewarded, by the discharge of a duty ful parents of all the excitement under which For documents and jourwhich my nature impelled me to perform, and the country groaned, and which were reflected nals

Fellow-citizens, you have with you an em-It would be impossible, my countrymen, not | inent member of this body, who more perhaps | For 1834, already paid, to connect with the spirit stirring associations than any other, has aided in undeceiving the Special appropriation for of this day, the name—the memory of Jackson: People, as to the tricks and fallacies of the opas well might you think to separate the glori- posing party; and one who has reared for himous incidents, which more than half a century | self an elevation among the democrats of this ago, gave rise to this anniversary festival, from country, which must endure as long as that Unfinished work estimated the deeply interesting events in our political party endures. Notwithstanding the efforts of history of the present day. The two periods his enemies to defeat and crush him; notwith- Printing names, residence, constitute distinct and memorable eras, of al- standing the miserable efforts made to s' h most equal importance in the patriot's calendar. to underrate, and to disparage what they could The 4th of July, 1776, witnessed the glorious not equal and feared to encounter, the march of declaration of our fathers, to emancipate them- this strong man of the West, has been proudly selves from an oppressive foreign thraldom; and onward, and the labors and the triumphs of from the unquestionable evidences that new your Benton during the last session alone, have been more than enough to compensate him for the enduring malignity of inferior minds, and ous-a fungus growth upon their constitution has so long been preparing the way, will gain never before seen? Tell me not that I am mistaken!—In the coin, will be rememberd, when the me mory for printing Senator Ewing's report on the at short periods, if they do not conduct their otal overthrow of their oppressors."

those sacre linstitutions which he had in former | waste paper! days so well defended, and so fondly cherished, The truth is, that books and documents are the planter's heart. The fact is with us; and and when nominated, it is treason, against the tion can deprive us. I hope, my friends, there are no hickory vens, and calmly sunk to rest beneath the wes- waste, and corruption, at which a British to 75 or 80 cents a bushel! await the course you had already finished, with They do not hesitate to reward their instru- ing. The Bank screw had not then been so to look upon the votes of theri partisans as so known we do not approve.

"The Republic lives for ever!!" From the Globe. It is confidently asserted; that the purpose of failures, or rotting fleets, of revolutions, "blood- hinself of the information, purchased from to the minimum price—Tobacco almost a drug for the purpose of compelling Congress to re- idolatry are destined to reap a bitter disappoint." less' and bloody' of insolvent's chronicles, and $300,000 to 500,000 in stocks, that he upon the hands of the planter, and wheat down store the deposites—and now, when they and old party load as the young men permit the e of prostrate credit? What of all the tales of might make a fortune from the expected rise, to 50 or 60 cents.—And all this would be ow- their friends in the Senate have failed in brow- old party leaders, who have been tried and conwe—of popular agony, of starvation that MIGHT It is said that Thomas Biddle, the "accoming to Gen. Jackson, and the removal of the beating the Representatives of the People, demed by the people; to seize upon every such which will exhibit a falling off, what it was to examinations conducted in times past, in a American People. Their first object should experiment of boiling his fleas, he was compelvanish at the touch of the spear of Ithuriel-in. tigation by collecting together and elucidating their labours. Tobacco, flour, cotton, the 9,159 10 7,209 00 printing land laws, none of which is included in the above, rank, &c. of pensioners, (over 40,000 in number) ordered by Senate, on motion of Mr. Preston, but not yet executed, estimated at

so much usefulness and credit to yourself and ments, and the hirelings of the Bank, out of severely turned; but when the rapid curtail- much capital, will not relinquish their dictacountrymen! May the God of our fathers bless, the Public Treasury. Their custody of the ments of the Bank did begin, for the purpose tion. Fellow-citizens, I will detain you no longer instruments and favorites!!

the efforts of the President to prevent it .- 1b.

From the Richmond Inquirer.

THE MARKETS.

under a favorable balance of trade. their hopes of its resurrection re-t act on the mg notes of victory. minish at their own discretion; but we put it following reply; sand in four years? Why have immense that can make money abund at or scarce, as the city—that great theatre of political intrigue, The Reporter advis sus to "go on with the The prisage of the coin bills, for which he EX PRAS been added, the like of which was may best suit its own purpos s-a Corporation, and mingle with the people, he would soon dis- same fearless spirit which has hitherto guided again been impelled to enter the lists, to strike an avowed advocate of the Bank of the U. price of wheat up from 110 and 115 c. up to abuses. one more blow for the institutions of his a- States, an institution which he denounced as 130 c." We thank them too for this confes-

tice, may fairly compete with the ministerial ditures requires the careful attention of the ver was more disappointed, when in trying his son. The Kentucky Observer, the organ of w Alas, sirs! they were seen all, just now, to We shall endeavor to aid them in the inves-factious prophets have been in the results of the Telegraph; and exhorting him to continued relief, exertion. The following is the article from

We give Mr. Lyrlu's speech at the CeleWe give Mr. Lyrlu's speech at the CeleTion, and oppression, made him, with his estitermination of the triumvirate to acquire polthey expected to Blast the Administration in of the Telegraph, who has borne so conspicution, and oppression, made him, with his estitermination of the triumvirate to acquire polthey expected to Blast the Administration in of the Telegraph, who has borne so conspicuTraitors to whom? Do not the Editors of the bration of the 4th, in Philadelphia. It has been twice published in the Pennsylvanian, to the Bank! and truths too that been twice published in the Pennsylvanian, to the Bank! and truths too that bad got down to 60 cents, and tobacco to 3 or great revolution, now at this moment of expension of the Pennsylvanian, to the Bank! and truths too that bad got down to 60 cents, and tobacco to 3 or great revolution, now at this moment of expension of the Pennsylvanian, to the Bank! and truths too that bad got down to 60 cents, and tobacco to 3 or great revolution, now at this moment of expension of the Pennsylvanian, to the Bank! and truths against the Bank! and never will rally, under meet the wishes of the Democracy in that could not be controverted or denied, was an this increase of expenditures, by recommend- 34, then we should have heard the Waltion, puts forth the disheartening declara- the National Republican banner. By what State, to which Mr. L. has endeared himself by off sice too heinous for the with clamour and abuse—Then we should have a should hav his patriotic principles and fervid eloquence. Remarks of ROBERT T. LYTLE, RepreRemarks of ROBERT T. LYTLE, Repredispassionate. that dignified, that disinterested, opportunity; and on several occasions he has lraseen public nicetings called; the Richmond bar and magnanimons body—that 'serene' tribuand magnanimons b sentative from Ohio, a guest at the Cele- nal, the sworn counsellors of the Executive; to check extravagant and unconstitutional ap- should have heard the most thundering denun- graph leave the city—that great theatre of they are honestly entertained, so will they be bration of the 4th of July, 1834, at McAran's constituted for the express purpose of acresting propriations. The political intrigue—and mingle with the people, pertinaciously adhered to.

of the Second Congressional District of their superior age, and prolonged term of ser-fluence in Congress to thwart his purposes by have screwed up their courage to the sticking-spirit of resistance, in the great body of his Mr. Clay, in Kentucky, of Mr. McLean, in vice, placed at a greater distance from the in- forcing upon him appropriations in such shapes place, we might have had the national Bank fellow citizens, which will, at the appropriate Ohio, and of Mr. Webster, in New England, Mr. Lytle rose, and remarked in substance that deeply impressed as he was with gratitude, their deliberate counsel and cautious action, at the daily use of a power on multitudes of small once more upon the Public. But the fleas their oppressors. "On the part of those opposed a belief that opposition to the election of Mr. by the unexpected warmth and high wrought once the Executive arm and the popular im- matters, which was intended to be used only will not turn out lobsters—and the whole to the existing order of things, there is no con- Van Buren is a paramount daty, and that all commendation of the sentiment, which had just pulse of the Republican Branch. But alas! his on great occasions for the vindication of the sentiment, which had just pulse of the Republican Branch. But alas! his on great occasions for the vindication of the sentiment, which had just pulse of the Republican Branch. But alas! his on great occasions for the vindication of the sentiment, which had just pulse of the Republican Branch. But alas! his on great occasions for the vindication of the sentiment, which had just pulse of the Republican Branch. been uttered from the Chair, he yet knew too sin was too enormous, and he was doomed to a tant principles or the preservation of essential tables are turned upon them—and the Money- we would tell him not to form his opinion too pose should be denounced as traitors, so long as

Sir, I have only to congratulate him on his tial principles can justify the use of the veto to other string to its bow. It is insidious caough | will find that the people, they who have no other are destined to experience a disappointment, in the presence of a free, a just, and grateful peo- rejection by the Senate; it is a sort of political defeat their will. Hence it is, that millions of to ascribe to the other party a claim which never interest in this great struggle than to live un- bitter in proportion to the degree of hope with ple, without awakening the deepest enthusiasm. martyrdom, which will embalm him with the money have been appropriated since Gen. entered into their heads. "Trey represent der a wise a judicious administration of govern- which they are now animated—for we believe If, in the humble path, (said Mr. Lytle,) democracy of the country; a martyrdom that Jackson came into office, and its expenditure (says this political wiseacra) the high prices of the elevation of that they will each insist on adhering to his own which it was my lot to perform, as a Representant Provided their interests are favorite, while the State Rights party will who is there, that hears me who will not be- President never asked for the appropriation, beneficence of the Deposites"! secured, and their rights vindicated against the hader no circumstances go for either. of my fellow-citizens, been able to arrest from lieve that but for the triumvirate of Presiden- disapproved the making of it and would never -And in pursuance of this idea, the same print laring usurpations of this administration-If But we will be told that the National Rethe torrent of abuse, or check the licentiousness that aspirants in the Senate of the United States, have caused the money to be paid, had it not takes an infinite deal of pains to prove that these our political friends are too much animated by publican party is merged in the Whig party!! high prices are owing to other causes than the personal hostility or rivalry, to unite in cordial A change of name without a change of princisought incessant opportunities to display itself tranquility. The Bank, unaided by that body, As a first and one of the Deposites. A very elaborate or harmonious action, the people must come to ples, argues a knowledge that their principles against the person and conduct of our venera- would naturally have yielded to the public judg- trations of the trumwirate, article to establish a truism which no one de- the rescue. If the supporters of the administra- are unpopular, and a belief that the people ble Chief magistrate; if I have succeeded in the ment for its dissolution, but each of the three, we may refer to the printing of the Senate, nies, would see a to nost men as a very usaless tion, stimulated by the love of office, and the will adopt unpopular principles and unpopular attempt to show that his purity of heart, his dreading the influence it would give the other, which is government can be impelled leaders, if they will but change their party integrity of conduct, his inflexibility of purpose | became arival in this zerlous warfare for its in- alliance, Mesers. Culhoun, Clay, and Webster. object. We repeat, its purpose is to circ that | y a common purpose, we can see no reason name. An argument which has deluded the the idea that the friends of the Administration way those who are engaged in a great consti- old federal party in all its phases; and will con-$7,804 00 had attributed the present workers to the a tanonal struggle, should be animated by less time to delude them until the old leaders die 17,035 87 of the government. But what, in truth, is the zeal or unity of purpose, or stop by the way, to off, or the young ones learn common sense. only point for which they have contented in quarrel about differences of opinion upon mere For ourselves, we are free to confess, that of all > the specie is flowing into the United States Arnold whilst living, and now haunts his sense of the dangers which impend over us. memory while in the grave. - Let our friend of We do not believe that any case will arise, in that can regulate the value of every man's pro- cover a deep and determined spirit of resistance our course, in exposing the secret corruptions bim the lasting gratifude of the whole country, Upwards of FOURTEEN THOUSAND, perty as it pleases.* The People have it in in the great body of his fellow citizens, which of this corrupt and corrupting adminstration." and the Jackson currency, with the Benton DOLLARS have already been part their power to change their Servants, or rulers, will at the appropriate time, display itself in the We can assure the Editors that we do not flashing eye balls, the beaming countenances, of the Bank and its attorneys will enjoy an un- Post Office, which has been shown to be full affirs to their satisfaction; but they cannot have a first to their satisfaction; but they cannot be full affirs to the satisfaction; but they cannot be full affirs to the satisfaction; but they cannot be full affirs to the satisfaction; but they cannot be full affirs to the satisfaction; but they cannot be full affirs to the satisfaction; but they cannot be full affirs to the satisfaction; but they cannot be full affirs to the satisfaction; but they cannot be full affirs to the satisfaction; but they cannot be full affirs to the satisfaction; but they cannot be full affirs to the satisfaction; but they cannot be full affirs to the satisfaction; but they cannot be full affirs to the satisfaction; but they cannot be full affirs to the satisfaction be affirst to the satisfaction be affirs to the satisfaction be affirs > could have brought this venerable champion ordered to be printed in many cases, for the we leave it to the disappointed politician to party, to refuse support to the party candidate. Prepared, did we say? The warfare has alagain into the field, clad in the full armor of sole purpose of giving jobs to printers; and to mystify the cause, since he cannot deay the Hence the aspirants for popular favor do not ready began. The indications of the growing democracy-I mean Duane, Duane the elder that motive is Duff Creen indebted for NINE- phenomenon. They may tell us if they please, look to the people, but to their leaders; and these popularity of Mr. Calhoun, and of the doctrines do ted land, I am scarcely more amazed than if threatening the overthrow of the liberties of sion-110 or 115 is given after we were grave- present administration would have contributed all, and especially those whom it most concerns had finished its diurnal course through the hea- Who are the promoters of this extravagance, would ruin the farmer, and bring his crop down of the dangers which surround us, but we are been long suffering and slow to anger, yet the tern horizon, start back by some mysterious Premier might well turn pale? Messrs. Clay As to Tobacco: it asserted that generally, it party arrangement, and such the selfishness of pel assaults by carrying the warfare where it now fully convinced that such is the force of day of forbearance has gone by, and we will reimpulse, some strange revolution of nature, up- Calhoun, and Webster—the political partners is not as high now as it was in October and the old party leaders, that the struggle in that will tell most. We defend our principles aon the track he had abandoned, and ascending —the counsel and advocates of the Bank—the November last. But would it not be as well ection will sink into a mere scramble for office. gainst every assailant, and more especially the empyrean steep, throw out new light, and father, godfather, and guardlan of the "A- to tell the truth? Every one knows, that the The system has accustomed the people to party, against the attacks of these who assume to be ited this city. At that time it seemed to world. Admirable old many against the attacks of these was owing to in-dictation, and the leaders, who have made a allies; and in doing so, throw upon us the reworld. Admirable old man, may new honors practised by them for years, now blazes forth! ordinate speculations and excessive over-trad- trade of politics—who have taught themselves sponsibility of acts and principles which it is public money consists in bestowing it on their of producing a pressure on the money market, We witnessed the proceedings in the Musi- may think for themselves. these unfortunate speculators were forced to cal Fund Hall. We saw that a few managers As soon as our means are complete, we will hip their tol'acco "off of season," in order had called the people together to approve, and have one. Why is it then that I now gaze on the next October, we shall triumph together in ed by the Bank party in the Senate at the late have been their losses! And who are they to we saw these resolutions, placing all the politigive more specifically the sums of money wast- to raise money; and great, we are sorry to say, adopt resolutions prepared by themselves; and session. In the mean time, we shall proceed thank for it? The President of the U.S., or cal power and influence of the party in the conto show how, in other respects, they have the President of the Bank? The removal, or troi of one man, a lopted by acclamation, and needlessly and enormously increased the ex- the curtailments? If the Bank of the U.S. we asked ourselves, is it possible that these are penditures of the Government in opposition to had then pursued the course which it is now for face men? Two days before we had been met. its own good purposes doing, these unlucky at the steam boat; we had been greeted as a re," "distress," "alarm," and "scarcity." shippers would have been enabled to keep their patriot, on the next day, our opinion being tobacco at home, until the proper season for asked, we expressed our apprehensions as to mittee" upon these cheering signs of the prosshipping had arrived .- They would not have the future, and our nonconcurrence with the perity of the country, and of the unfruitfulnsss The political prophets have all been thrown sustained one-fourth of the loss to which they past. For daring to express this opinion, we of their panic-making efforts. The price paid bathos of your faise prophets—what of their lis said that James Watson Webb, one of to take place. The State Banks were all to be calculating conduct of this very institution. The State Banks were all to be calculating conduct of the canals from the rates of former years, as does the trade of the canals from the business. alarming predictions, what of national banks the Bank's confidential Editors and Agents in New York was of that number and availing to take place. The State Banks were all to be broken. The Merchants were to be bankrupt, We call it miscalculating, because it is now hospitality. We then saw, what we now foreof 1833. up to the old standard, and a little ruptcies—of commercial palsies-of mercantile New York, was of that number, and availing broken. The Merchants were to be bankrupt, We call it miscalculating, because it is now no purchased from the information purchas piles of pathos that oppressed them, the cords and tops of namer agony that broke down your just before the late announcement of the Rank it no change of men is to bring with the close of the session of Congress, Duff Green, it no change of men is to bring with it no change of men is to bring with it no change of men is to bring with it no change of men is to bring with it no change of men is to bring with it no change of men is to bring with seizing on $158,020 of the public dividends to and tons of paper agony that broke down your just before the late announcement of the Bank. panic speeches as they thought would be calcuiated to restore the Deposites, and overwhelm in an editorial article, expressed great desponsing and rest assured that the people whose general rest and overwhelm in an editorial article, expressed great desponsing and rest assured that the people whose general rest and the restore the Deposites and overwhelm in an editorial article, expressed great desponsing the restore that the people whose general rest and the restore that the people whose general rest and the restore that the people whose general rest and the restore that the people whose general rest and the restore that the people whose general rest and the restore that the people whose general rest and the restore that the people whose general rest and the restore that the people whose general rest and the restore that the restore the restore that the the Administration—but from some cause or dency in relation to the result of the combined ous confidence has once been abused and be-citizen that you have need to be justly proud sprung in part from a preconcerted determination of the public money that and the subject of the public money that are the segentlemen, most graph from which we extract it, is written in they must forgive us for declaring, that so far indemnity for spoliations committed upon our conceal the undeniable, and, to this hour, and enriching a few aristocrats at the expense souls,) in spite of all the power of the Bank, Journal. Why is it, when the whole country our fears. Who is to judge between us? Who favorable.—Journal of Connecree.

"On the part of those who are opposed to resting upon him in all future time, as deep ple, that their "King can do no wrong."

well his own want of merit, to appropriate to political resting place, in the same tombs which interests. In relation to the appropriate to politicians, as display- they believe that the result of that union would ed at Washington, but look at public sentiment, be the elevation of their particular favorite; but stitutional guardians, and nothing but essen- But the aforesaid Opposition print has an- as exhibited in every portion of the union. He we foresee that each and all of these partisans is, that the state of the markets shows how he speculative subjects. There will be union. he candidates who are before the public on lacious are the predictions of the Opposition- There will be concert of action. Never again bat side of the question, we prefer that Mr. ists, that the country would be ruined by the well our political opponents posit by our Webster should be elected. Not that we met ures of Gen Jackson. Let us deler as we lissentions. That man who now interposes would give him our support, under any cir-16,458 10 may about the policy of the removal, when and all own selfish feelings, whereby a great pol- cumstances, but because he will be the reprehow it was effected, yet this point seems clear accal victory is thwarted, will feel the curse of sentative of undisguised federalism and consoenough, that if the U.S. Bank is to be wound, nation resting upon him in all future time, as lidation, and, we fear, that nothing but the cup at all, it is ar better it should be done, whom deep and bitter as that which rested upon lection of such a man will rally the north to a

We well know it must be gall and worm- the Telegraph not despair. -The day of deliv- which we could give Mr. Webster our support; wood to the bankites, to see the business of the erence is at hand. Let him go on, with the because we will not so far compromit our princountry carried on prosperously without them. same fearless spirit which has hithorto guided ciples, as to support for the Presidency a can-Some of them would pechape the see half his course, in exposing the secret corruptions of didate fundamentally opposed to them, yet if the nation in a state of bankrupte, han sur- this corrupt and corrupting administration and our destiny throws us into the opposition under render their favorite "pet;" and upon what do his ears will ere long be saluted by the gratify- the next administration, we prefer that Mr. Webster should be the President, because if embarrasments which they can a rease or di- The editor of the U.S. Telegraph makes the he is elected, his administration will, we have no doubt, be the best which his party could Why have even the ordinary printing ex- ple, whether it be not a degrated condition for porter, a paper supposed to be the organ of consolidation or nullification, would be airly To place him on that proud pinnacle which his peases of the Senate increased from less than any country to be subject to the severeign will Mr. Clay, and his political friends. The editors put to the people; when it is so put, we have of false charges from beginning to end, and change the Bank Directors. A National the source of our despondency. We are aware establishment of our principles would be, can Fellow-citizens, we cannot mistake the more than THREE THOUSAND DOG Bank is a great despotism for twenty years, that circumstances have conspired to arouse the be easily accomplished. We are prepared to present current of affairs. The decided and resist- LARS have been paid in part by the Sen- and exempt from all popular control. Sup- dormant spirits of the people, but we have gone see the Reporter, and the whole National Refreedom is again abroad in our land—Philadel- less reaction in public sentiment, is too palpa- ate alone for printing distress memoriale, &c. pose a proposition were made to appoint the publican party making war upon us because phia has arisen from her slumber; she has broke ble for misconception even in this proud city. for the benefit of the Bank of the United States. President and Congress for twenty years, midst of the rejoicings for the result of the New we will not surrender principles, upon the from her lethargy—yes! that shout, my coun- Alarmed at the extent of the delusion they were real Republican in the U. York elections; we there saw and understood maintainance of which, we believe depends the trymen, tells me that she is awake, and oh God, under, the People, upon a just discernment of whole force of the Telegraph office will be States protest against the outrige. But how the manner in which the old party leaders seizmay it be swept along to yonder venerable pile, the truth, are again returning in armies of employed until the ed upon that occasion to establish their control. the country—Yet will we preservere, regardstrength to their first love and it is a glorious and wagon loads of documents will be printed value of all their property to a great corpor- The fact is, that in the north and cast party less of the consequences. What if we thereby and gathering a new impulse as it passes, send specialle to lead of the base o day, as auxiliaries, such of the fathers of demor were, would not be of the slightest use to the same alarming space of time, and armed with are amused with the empty parade of an uni- hostility of the National Republican part? We jecent marble palace, and record in words of board who could have looked for the market stalls the right, or the power, of perpetual succes- versal suffrage, while a few party leaders ex- will have discharged our duty, maintained our abe champion of popular rights, who is now ping paper through these means for years to As to the specifications which are now paral- The great mass of the people are so much en- pect, considerations which are worth more to jercise a despotic control over all their elections. independence, and preserved our own self resa nong you, after so long an absence from the come; for after being printed and paid for out of ed about the prices of wheat and tobacco, it is gaged in their daily avocations that they do not us than the paltry lucre, which no man should stormy field of political confroversey; and what the public Treasury, these public documents not necessary for us to enter into an elaborate undertake to inform themselves on political seek but as the means of doing good. These, but the peril which he saw gathering round are sold in thousands and tens of thousands are beyond subjects. Their candidates are not put in nom- thanks to the Author of all good, are beyond cent a bushel, it b cco is at a price, which cheers ination until a short time before the election, the reach of party. Of these no man or combina-

> -the Irish American, the American Irishman TY THOUSAND DOLLARS worth of that the milling power in Richmond exceeds are a few individuals who make politics a trade of the State Rights party, have already excited -philanthropist, philosopher, and patriot-the work this very year from the Senatorial tri- the demand; that the millers, who are perhaps and live upon its abuses. In fact, the village the jealousy of Mr. Clay's organs in Virginia; rebel against tyranny in Europe -and the un- unwirate! More shocking abuse and corrup- as sagacious judges of their own interests as o- and city politicans of the northern States have and, accordingly, the Lynchburgh Virginian daunted advocate of constitutional liberty in tion was never witnessed in any government of ther poeple, have up too many pairs of stones, established a species of political idolatry more, and the Richmond Compiler have anticipated. may be against us. When I think of the extra- And who is Duff Green? An avowed (for which piece of advice, the farmers will no a young man who seeks political preferment, ing him. If this movement in the Virginian ordinary and trying circumstances under which Nullifier, who declares he will support none doubt duly thank them!) - and that it is "com- has no other altenative than to chose one or the and the Compiler, is not the result of accident, venerable disciple of republicanism, has but Nulliners for the office of President; and petition, and competition alone, which put the other of the two parties and conform to all its we will see the leading organs elsewhere do justice to the character of Mr. Calhoun; but We had hoped that the usurpations of the let their course be what it may, we can assure

> > But we will lay before our readers the entire article of which we speak, that seeing it they

For the Albany City Advertiser. Wool .- The prices paid for this article are now ranging from 40 to 70 cents per pound. The demand is brisk, and cash is paid in the hand. Farmers are receiving the fair rewards of their labors, notwithstanding the efforts of certain politicians to produce "panic," "pres-We congratulate the Albary "distress com-come, of penury that had arrived? What of plished broker," cousin to Nicholas, who someall the panic memorials and distress speeches, times gets a million of dollars from the Bank bounded by the public Treasury was to be extended by the pub it no change of measures or principles. They cover a pretended claim against the Govern-The alarming increase of the public expenditures the careful attention of Gen. Jack- trayed by a popular favorite, will never rally generally, think it prudent to be silent on the certain religious institution, within the dobe to ascertain the source of the mischief, and led to exclaim, "Fleas are not Lobsters; G—Mr. Clay, takes an extract from that article, fidence. Rather will they bear their present we believe, has condemned it! Barfaced pubthen they will know how to apply the remedy. d—their souls"—than our panic politicians and and comments on it, encouraging the editor of ills than seek a change which brings them no lic plunder escapes their animadversion; and We are told, "there will be union." "that equally subservient will they be found, when there will be concert of action "findwork will out the Bank shall, as it has already indicated, there will be concert of action," "never will our proceed to seize on all the millions of public the Kentucky Observer, with the comments of political opponents profit by our dissentions," stock and money within its grasp, to meet the and that "that man who now interposes his own damages of removing the deposites. One would selfish feelings, whereby a great political vic-tory is thwarted, will feel the curse of a nation ance to the Bank, were acting upon the princi-

Roan

Alin

slaves

Bank

Engli

in the

such s

Balt. Rep. General to the first section of the public money, that an assincerely. Their zeal was worthy of a better a spirit of despondency, which very rarely appropriate the columns of that hold and animated.

The columns of that hold and animated these energetic commerce. The disposition of the King and Ministry of the public money that hold and animated the columns of that hold and animated. evided gentlemen, whose honesty in refusing pology may remain for keeping up high duties cause. The State Banks stand fast, (——their pears in the columns of that bold and animated assurances, we read in them the coefficient of the subject, has been uniformly assurances, we read in them the coefficient of the subject, has been uniformly