From the Boston Transcript. THE URSULINES.

Our readers will be gratified to learn that the ladies of the Ursuline Community, after the great inconveniences and vexations they have experienced since the destruction of the Convent at Charlestown, have found a delightful retreat and resting place; where, God grant. they may not be again molested. They left the city on Saturday for Brinly Place, in Roxbury, formerly the seat of Gen. Dearborn, where they hope once more to realize the domestic quiet and religious peace of their once law requires in the Orphans' Court of Caroline happy home at St. Benedict.
