MEW FALL GODDS.

WILLIAM LOVEDAY

AS just returned from Philadelphia and Baltimore, and is now opening at his Store House in Easton,

A very handsome and general assortment of Fall and Winter Goods. Among which are,

A HANDSOME VARIETY OF CLOTHS, CASSIMERES, AND CASSI-

He thinks he has purchased his goods at low and solicits an early call from his friends and the public generally. sept 30

BUCKWEEAT FLOUR, CRANBURRIES, &O.

UST received and for sale by the subscri-Fresh Buckwheat Flour, Cranberries Almonas and Currants, Fresh Bunch Raisins, Fine and Coarse Salt, &c. ALSO, CAST STEEL AXES, of superior quality and warranted. Constantly on hand, Family Flour, by the barrel. WM. H. & P. GROOME.

NEW FALL AND WINTER | As it is usual to wish in behan his father, so GOODS.

JOHN STEVENS.

AS just returned from Philadelphia and room opposite the Court House, A HANDSOME & GENERAL ASSORTMENT OF Fall and Winter Goods, ware, Queen and Glass are, &c. &c. And as they have been laid in on the very best terms, he is determined to sell them unusually low. nal plan. His friends and the public generally are respectfully invited to give him an early call.

MEW FALL GOODS.

WILLSON & TAYLOR

Baltimore and are now opening at their store their usual supply of ...

FALL AND WINTER GOODS; and solicit their friends and the public general ly to give them an early call. Feathers, Linseys and Kerseys will be ta ken in exchange for goods.

NEW FALL GOODS.

AVE just returned from Philadelphia and Baltimore with their fall supply of goods, comprising a very

GENERAL ASSORTMENT OF

ENGLISH, FRENCH AND DOMESTIC parlours DBT GODDJ, which will be offered at a small advance.

PAGE 3 HOTEL

THIS is a new and superior Hotel attached to the Exchange Buildings in this city. It has been erocted and fitted up at great cost by Wm. Patterson, Esq. Robt. Oliver, Esq. Messrs. John Donnell & Sons, and Jerome Bonaparte, Esq., with the intention of making it a first rate and Fashionable house of entertainment. It will be called PAGE'S HO-TEL, EXCHANGE BUILDINGS, and will be conducted by the subscriber in such manner as shall make it for comfort, respectability, &c. &c. fully equal to any Hotel in the United States. J. H. PAGE. Baltimore, -dec 2

THE Subscriber, having been employed by Mr. Spencer to take charge of his Smith's Shop, has now on hand and intends keeping,

AN ASSORTMENT OF

Broad and Narrow Axes, which will be warranted equal in quality, and be able to render satisfaction. In the other tion of the literary department. branches of my trade, I am willing that my work should speak for itself.

sept 36

CATPILIE

JOHN RINGROSE.

MAKEN to winter at 50 cents per mont Enquire of the Editor.

dec 2 TAILORING. in Easton for the purpose of carrying on 1200 pages, or three volumes, of Rees's Cyclo-the Tailoring, respectfully offers his services pædia. Each volume is accompanied with a to his friends and the public. His shop is near Title-page and Index.

D. M. SMITH.

Great Literary Enterprise.

PROSPECTUS OF TWO NEW VOLUMES OF WALDIES LIBRABIS FOR 1835.

for some time fairly classed amongst the estab- volumes, lished periodical publications of the country, having obtained a credit and circulation unprecedented, when the price is considered; this certainty, by allowing greater freedom to our efforts, is calculated to render them at once strenuous and more effectual. The objects THE PORT FOLIO AND COMPANION that Waldie's Library had in view, was the books at the London prices.

the work free from any objection that may contents of a magazine. have been made by persons of weak eyes.

from the newest and best books as they come also, $2.50. from the press; literary intelligence from all parts of the world, and a register of the new publications of England and America, being the carliest vehicle to disseminate such information, and by the perusal of which, a person, however remote from the marts of books, may keep pace with the times.

we, without meaning any particular reflection on our former volumes, received with such distinguished favor, hope and trust that our future may surpass them; for experience ought always to produce improvement, more especially Baltimore, and has opened at his store when, as in our case, it lessens the number of difficulties we had to encounter in the outset.

The objects the "Library" had in view, were fully detailed in the prospectus; the following extracts from that introductory paper viz: Dry Goods generally, Groceries, Hard- will prove the spirit of that liberality in which the work was undertaken, and also that we have had no occasion to deviate from the origi-

> Extracts from the original Prospectus. In presenting to the public a periodical, entirely new in its character, it will be expected that the publisher should describe his plan, and the objects he hopes to accomplish. There is growing up in the United States a numerous population, with literary tastes, who are scattered over a large space, and who, distant from the localities whence books and lite-AVE just returned from Philadelphia and rary information emanate, feel themselves at a great loss for that mental tood which education next. Likewise, those persons indebted to the effect from the first of January next. The each. has fitted them to enjoy. Books are cheap in subscriber on executions, will please bear in semi-weekly paper will be published on Tues- 4. As the work will not be commenced, un- berths, furnished with the best beds and bedour principal cities, but in the interior they mind that the abovementioned time will be the day and Saturday mornings, the weekly paper less a sufficient patronage be obtained, no pay- ding—the table will be supplied with every ar cannot be procured as soon as published, nor extent given on any execution in my hands as on Tuesday mornings. Subscribers to the ment is required at present, only the name, sent ticle in season calculated to minister to the comwithout considerable expense. To supply this Sheriff or late Deputy Sheriff, and if the plain Whig are requested to communicate to the ed- free of postage. Those wishing to support the fort of the passengers—and every attention will desideratum is the design of the present under- tiff directs, I shall be compelled to advertise iter which paper they would wish to receive; publication will be pleased therefore to announce be given to the wants of those who may patrotaking, the chief object of which emphatically sooner. Therefore, I say again LOOKOUT! in the absence of such instruction, the semi- their intention as early as possible, as it is in- nize the packet it in a form that will bring it to every man's Books cannot be sent by mail, while the "Select Circulating Library" may be received at WM. 2. & P. GROOME, the most distant post office in the Union in from fifteen to twenty-five days after it is published, at a little more expense than newspaper postage; or in other words, before a book could be bound in Philadelphia, our subscribers in the most distant states may be perusing it in their only necessary to compare it with some other Hardware, Cutlery, China and Glass, Groce- publications. Take the Waverly novels for ries and Liquors Among which are a varie example; the Chronicles of the Canongate octy of Cloths, Cassinetts, Merinoes and Blan- cupy two volumes which are sold at $1,25 to kets, superior old Godard Brandy and Hol- $1,50. The whole would be readily contained land Gin, old L. P. Madeira, Sicily Madeira, in five numbers of this periodical, at an ex-Pale Sherry, Lisbon and Teneriffe Wines, pense of fifty cents, postage included! So that Fresh Teas, Java Coffee Cheese, &c. all of more than three times the quantity of literary matter can be supplied for the same money by adopting the newspaper course of circulation. But we consider transmission by mail, and the guishing seature of the publication. Distant sub- advances will be n'ade when required. scribers will be placed on a footing with those nearer at hand, and will be supplied at their of the common London novel size for Five > Arrangements have been made to receive from London an early copy of every new book printed either in that mart of talent, or in Edinburgh, together with the periodical literature of Great Britain. From the former we shall select the Novels, Memoirs, Tales, Travels, Sketches, Bio raphy, &c. and publish them with as much rapidity and accuracy as an extensive printing-office will admit. From the latter, such literary intelligence will regulartertaining to the lover of knowledge, and sci-sequences, detrimental or otherwise, that will a call. follow the dissemination of noxious or wholeas cheap as any the market will afford. These some mental aliment. His situation and enespecially wishing to get old axes re-steeled, gagements afford him peculiar advantages and will do well to call. Having worked for a long facilities for the selection of books. These, time with WILLARD, the well known axe- with the additional channels by agencies at smith of the city of Baltimore, I feel assured London, Liverpool, and Edinburgh, warrant that in this line of my business at least, I shall the proprietor in guaranteeing a faithful execu-

> It would be supererogatory to dilate on the general advantages and conveniences which sold low for cash, it taken away immediately. Fairbanks. such a publication presents to people of literary pursuits wherever located, but more particularly to those who reside in retired situationsthey are so obvious that the first glance cannot fail to flash conviction of its eligibility.

weekly on a double medium sheet of fine pa- to give us a call, as we will give higher prices per of sixteen pages with three columns on in Cash than any other purchaser who is now each, and mailed with great care so as to carry in this Market, or that may come in. We with perfect safety to the most distant post of- can at all times be found at Mrs. Disharoon's

It is printed and finished with the same care and accuracy as book work. The whole fiftytwo numbers form two volumes well worth pre- place will be punctually attended to. THE undersigned having located himself servation, of 416 pages each, equal in quantity to workman, but simply to ask his friends and er $20, and a proportionate compensation for a him a chance, by addressing him at Baltimore, the public to give him anotehr trial. If ease com- larger number. This arrangement is made to and where immediate attention will be paid Sutton, Esq'rs. of Kent county Md. make it an object to pay liberally. Clubs of five individuals may thus procure the work for mer Advertisement, will copy the above, and $4.00, by uniting in their remittances.

Mir. Lowe's hotel, and adjoining the Post Of- The price is Five Dollars for fifty-two num- As owners of negroes, in Maryland, Virgin-

Subscribers, living near agents, may pay their subscriptions to them; those otherwise situated may remit the amount to the subscriber at his expense, if payment is made in money at par in Philadelphia. Our arrangements are all made for the fulfilment of our part of the con-

forwarded, in order that the publisher may one of as much interest and usefulness as the that many occurrences in the literary, work The "Select Circulating Library" has been know how many to print of the forthcoming

ADAM WALDIE, No. 207, Chesnut street, basement story Mrs. Sword's Philadelphia House. Philadelphia, December, 1834.

TO THE LIBRARY. prices, and can offer them on the same terms, dissemination of good new books every where, A. WALDIE also publishes "The Port Folio& lished but once in the week, to keep pace, even | More extended experience has shown other at the cheapest possible rates, and experience Companion to the select Circulating Library, has proved that a year's subscription will pay in the same form, every two weeks, at half the the day, as furnished by the papers published to supply. While reading for the "Library" for one hundred and sixty-six dollars worth of price of the Library. It contains extracts in the cities; its readers are therefore driven to a large mass of material accumulates on the from the best English periodicals, and a vast the necessity of taking the city papers, at hands of the Editor, vian interesting, entertain-New and enlarged type. Volume 5, to be amount of popular information on Literature. higher prices, with greater charges of postage, ing, and instructive description, such as would commenced early in January 1835, will be Science, History, &c. adapted to all classes; al- or of losing much, which would be both amusing properly come under the designation of Maga-

The Journal of Belles Lettres, printed on the copies, being the cheapest reprint ever atcover, will be continued without any charge. tempted in any country. Individual sub-It contains every week, reviews and extracts scriptions $3.00; to those who take the Library

TO BE RENTED

THE UNION TAVERN

IN EASTON.

COMMODIOUS new dining room having been just finished, and a very agreeable Dwelling House and Lot adjoining the pay in advance will be charged two dollars and short interval of two weeks between the publipremises having been purchased and attached fifty cents. to the Tavern, the entire establishment is supe rior to any other on the Eastern Shore. In a few days the stables and enclosures will be repaired and the whole premises will be in complete order for the reception of a tenant. Possession may be had immediately.

JOHN LEEDS KERR. Easton, Sept. 30, 1834

OFFICERS' FEES. possible; therefore lookout for a visit from my make the difference in price between such as to pages of the size of the present. brother Thomas Graham, jr. who has positive pay in advance, and those who wait to be call- 3. The price will be three dollars for a sub- leaving Easton every WEDNESDAY morning instructions to levy in every case, if the fees ed on.

JOSEPH GRAHAM, Shift.

Valuable Property for sale The very commodious STOR HOUSE and DWELLING on Washington street, at present occupied by Mr. Samuel Mackey is offered for sale on accommodating terms. gether with the lot attached to it on Dover a This is one of the best stands for business in the To elucidate the advantages of the "Select town of Easton, being immediately opposite the Circulating Library' such as we propose, it is front of the Court House. For terms apply to

JAMES C. WHEELER, Easton Point.

WOOL. LYMAN REED & Co.,

COMMISSION MERCHANTS No. 6, South Charles Street Baltimore, Md. DEVOTE particular attention to the sale of WOOL. All consignments made them, will early receipt of a new book, as a most distin- receive their particular attention, and liberal Baltimore, Apr 126, 1834-may6

DONE BY

SOLOMON MERRICH.

ly be culled, as will prove interresting and en- THE Subscriber begs leave to inform the citizens of Easton & the public generally ence, and literature, and novelty. Good stan- that he has taken a shop in Court st. between the dard novels, and other works out of print, may store of Mr. John T. Goldsmith and the tailor also accasionally be reproduced in our columns | shop of Mr. James L. Smith, where he may at The publisher confidently assures the heads all times be found by those who may feel disof families, that they need have no dread of in- posed to favor him with work, and assures the troducing the "Select Circulating Library" in public that he will pay strict attention to his at our risk. The notes of any specie-paying be considered a sufficient guarantee of the comto their domestic circle, as the gentleman who business, and humbly hopes to meet with a Bank will be received. has undertaken the Editorial duties, to litera- share of their patronage. He flatters himself ry tastes and habits adds a due sense of the re- that from his own experience, and the assist- unless the money accompany it. sponsibility he assumes in catering for an ex ance of good workmen, he will be able to give tended and moral community, and of the con- satisfaction to all who may please to give him

The public's obedient servant, SOLOMON MERRICK.

Lumber for Sale. FOR SALE, at Easton Point, a vessel load

GOLDSBOROUGH & LEONARD. Easton, july 8 Cash for Negroes, WNCLUDING both Sexes, from 12 to 25 years of age. Persons having likely ser-"The Select Circulating Library" is printed vants to dispose of will find it to their interest Tavern, Princess-Anne, Md.

OVERLEY & SANDERS. All communications addressed to us at this

A CARD. WOOLFOLK wishes to inform the els per hour. twenty years in various places, as a practical have a receipt in full by remitting the publish- having Negroes to dispose of, will please give Hardcastle, Esq'rs of Caroline county, Md.

N. B. All papers that have conied my for discontinue the others.

PROSPECTUS

For publishing the EASTERN SHORE WHIG AND PEOPLE'S ADVOCATE, semi-weekly throughout the year.

admit of. With this view I have determined without an extension of the plan. To establish twice a week, it is impossible for a paper pub- as an evidence of his acknowledgments. in advance will be charged $4 per annum.

the first three months, will be deemed pay- lies. ments in advance, and all payments for the year, made during the first six months, will be deemed payments in advance. The importance of prompt payment to the British periodicals.

are not settled by the first day of September | The above arrangement, will be carried into and upwards will be supplied at two dollars Baltimore, every SATURDAY at the same hour. port. The effort now made must afford evidence sufficient of a disposition to give them a valuable consideration for the amount paid. will fail to receive them.

RICHARD SPENCER. Oct. 28, 1834.

Supplement to the Globe.

PROSPECTUS FOR THE CONGRESSIONAL GLOBE.

The Congressional Globe, which we commenced publishing at the last Session of Congress, will be continued through the approaching one. It will be published in the same form, and at the same price; that is, once a week, on a double royal sheet, made up in quarto form, at one dollar per copy, during the session. When any important subject is discussed, we propose to print an Extra sheet. Subscribers own homes with equal to about Fifty Volumes Boot & Shoe making & repairing may calculate on at least three or four extra sheets. At the close of the session, an Index will be made for the 1st and 2d sessions, and sent to all the subscribers. We shall pay to the reporters alone, for pre- obtain the two for six dollars; the postage paring the reports that will be published in this very important consideration) to the the most paper, more than one hundred dollars a week, distant post office, on the two, will be one dolduring the session. In publishing it, therefore, lar and ninety-five cents, divided into seventyat one dollar for all the numbers printed during eight payments, and half that sum for 100 cotton shirt, fine leather shoes, and a wool hat. the session, we may boast of affording the most miles or a less distance from Philadelphia; important information at the cheapest price.

give this Prospectus a gratuitous insertion; and form would be eighteen dollars, and the postage those friends to whom we may send it, will as three to one. We make this assertion ad- law. please procure subscribers.

TERMS.

I copy during the session, 11 copies during the session, . . . 810 00 Or No attention will be paid to any order,

To Rent for 1835

John Harper. of Lumber, among which is some nice House and premises adjoining the above on Eastern Shore. Chestnut fencing and flooring plank. It will be Harrison Street, at present occupied by J. B.

Street lately used as a Cabinet Shop and ad- with a Blacksmith Shop, &c. joining the Store of W. H. & P. Groome. All the above property is in good repair and ton, now occupied by John Stevens, Esq. beau possession can be given immediately of the tifully situated and in fine condition.

Store Room if desired. For terms apply to WM. H. GROOME. Easton, sept. 30.

FOR SALE.

THE subscriber has appointed Lambert W. Spencer, his agent for Talbot county, for the sale of RICE'S PATENT WHEAT FANS, of wheat per hour. No. 2, seventy five bush | me to give indulgence, as I am bound to make according to law, and will press them by order fice, where he will attend to business with bers of sixteen pages each,—a price at which has been artfully represented by his apponents.

References, Perry William III. Clay-pected that you will be prepared to pay them pect, that as they have a large sum to raise and when called on. Those who do not comply the collection of these fees is the principal

> THOMAS R. PERKINS. Centreville, Queens Ann's co. Md. ? Oct. 14 3m

James Gale, William Perkins and John C

Companion to Waldie's Library.

The cheapest reprint from English Periodicals ever offered to the public.

Before the SELECT CIRCULATING LIBRA-Having assumed the entire management of RY had been long in existence, it was discov-Subscribers' names should be immediately the Whig, I am anxious to render the paper ered that there was still something wantingcircumstances under which it is published will must pass unknown, as regarded our agency to issue it semi-weekly throughout the year, a fuller medium of communication and suppl of for the convenience of the citizens of this coun- the desideratum, the Journal of Belles Lettres and Saturday at 7 o'clock, for Cambridge, (via ty, and of such other of its patrons as can ob- was added; which we have reason to believe ing much important and interesting matter, duced the proprietor to give that gratuitously in a tolerable degree, with the current events of desiderata which the "Companion" is intended printed with new and enlarged type, rendering so Tales, Sketches, Biography and the general and interesting to them. To obviate these dif- ziniana, interspersed with the Reviews from ficulties therefore, and to be able to supply the the English Quarterlies. To publish every desirable STEAM BOAT NOTICE. Clubs remitting $10.00 receive five citizens of Talbot and the adjoining or con- thing of this nature which we deem desirable tiguous counties with a paper, which will in- would encroach too much on the columns of the form them at an early day, of most matters of "Library" designed for books, and yet to pass interest which the press of our country is daily them by is constantly a subject of regret. To evolving, I have determined on this change. concentrate, therefore, the publication of Books In adopting it, however, it is not my intention | entire, Reviews, lists of new works, the choicto make any advance on the price of subscrip- est contributions to Magazines, &c. &c. the tion to the paper to such as pay in advance. "Companion to Waldie's Library" will be of-All such will receive it at the exceedingly low fered to the patronage of the present subscribers TATILL leave Baltimore every Thursday rate of $3 per annum. Those who do not pay and the public at large. It is believed that with the "Library," the "Journal," and the It is further my intention to publish a week- "Companion," such an acquaintance with the ly paper throughout the year, to meet the views literature of the age may be cultivated as to of such of the patrons of the Williams may not leave little further to be desired. Being all feel disposed, or may not find it convenient to published from the same office, more facility take the semi-weekly paper. The weekly pa- offers for subscribing, and having fewer people per will be reduced to two dollars per annum, to deal with, mistakes are less liable to occur, prietors solicit for her a share of public patroto such as pay in advance; those who do not and more readily corrected when they do. The page cation of each number, it is thought too, will All payments for the half year, made during be an advantage over monthlies and quarter-

The following plan is respectfully submitted. 7. The "COMPANION" will contain the earliest possible reprints of the best matter in the publishers of newspapers, must be obvious to | 2. It will be issued every fortnight, and the every one. To have one's debts scattered over form will be the same as that of the Librarythe country in such small sums, renders them each number containing sixteen pages—thus, almost valueless; to correct this evil as far as every six months, giving thirteen numbers, FILIIS splendid new coppered and copper faspracticable, and at the same time to extend which can be bound with the Library at little ALL persons indebted for officers' fees, will the circulation of the paper by offering an ad- or no more expense, and making a better sized the most complete and commodious manner for please take notice that they are now due, and ditional inducement to subscribers, in the re- volume; and to those who do not take the Li- the accommodation of passengers, (with dining that it is my duty to collect them as speedily as duced price of the WHIG, I have concluded to brary itself, a volume every year, of 416 quar-scriber-five dollars for two-and clubs of five at 9 o'clock, and the Maryland wharf (Corner's) weekly will be considered as ordered by them. tended to commence the work on the first of Freights will receive the same prompt and It is useless to give any assurance to the pa- January next. On the issuing of the second punctual attention as ever, and the smallest ortrons of the paper, that it is my intention, if number payment will be expected, as its ap- der thankfully received and strictly fulfilled, as possible, to render it more worthy of their sup- pearance will evince a sufficiency of patronage. far as practicable.

The proprietor of the "Select Circulating Library," fully aware from experience of the the paper should prove itself worthy of public advantages to the public of the rapid diffusion confidence and support, I have no fear that it of cheap and select literature, has been induced to add the important feature to the work, and of course leaves it optional with the present subscribers and others to take it or not.

It is confidently believed, that, with the attention on the part of the Editor, who has althe really valuable matter of the English lite- times be given for SLAVES. All comrary and amusing publications may be com- munications will be promptly attended to, it postage, so trifling as scarcely to be selt. It which place the subscribers can be found, or at will form the cheapest reprint of reviews and their residence on Gallows Hill, near the Mismagazines ever attempted in any country; a sionary Church—the house is white. comparison with others it were useless here to enter upon, the "Library" itself being the best test by which to judge of the difference between an octavo and a quarto page. It will be the study of the Editor to embody a record of the day, adapted to the wants of this country. which can have no competitor forvalue or cheapness; how far he is likely to do this he must leave at present to the decision of his readers.

Clubs of five individuals, who subscribe to the "Library" and "Companion" both, will while the same matter, in the usual American negro man, is requested to come forward, prove Editors with whom we exchange, will please reprints of reviews and magazines in octavo

Subscription to the "Companion" will be aken either with or without the "Library." The proprietor trusts that his punctuality and exactness in executing his part of the contract in the publication of the "Library," will of November, 1834, by N. G. Bryson, Esq. a pletion of his proposed undertaking. ADAM WALDIE.

TO RENT.

Grist-Mill, Saw-Mill and Carding Machine, on the left side of her forehead, and a scar on THAT framed Dwelling House and pre- all in complete order; together with a Dwell- her left wrist. Had on when committed, mises on Washington street adjoning Dr. ing and Lot. This Mill enjoys the advantage dark calico frock, red striped plaid cape, blue Ennalls Martin and at present occupied by of being eligibly located and of having an ex- otton striped apron, cotton handkerchief on her cellent stream of water. It is probably one of head, and a pair of fine leather shoes. Also, a small two story Brick Dwelling the very best establishments of the sort on the

Also, the property formerly belonging to the prove property, pay charges, and take her alate William Haskins, likewise at Upper Hun And a Brick Store Room on Washington ting Creek, being two Dweilings and Lots ding to law. Also, the two story brick Dwelling, in Eas

Also, two Dwellings and Lots, with 1 Store

House, at Crotcher's Ferry. To good tenants, the above property would be rented on reasonable terms, if early application be made to persons; as my duty as an officer will compel that there will be no difficulty presented in any me to this course. Persons bolding property in quarter, as the collection must be made. the county and residing out of it, will please pay attention to this notice. JOHN HARRINGTON, Collector of Talbot county

JACOB C. WILLSON.

Collector's Notice.

THE STEAM BOAT

TATILL as usual leave Baltimore every Tuesday and Friday morning at seven o'clock, for Annapolis, Cambridge (via the company's wharf at Castlehaven) and Easton; returning will leave Easton every Wednesday

Castlehaven) Annapolis and Baltimore. Pastain it twice a week by means of the existing has afforded general satisfaction. The very sage from Baltimere to Castlehaven or Easmail facilites. Receiving the mails, contain- liberal patronage extended to the Library in- On Monday the 21st inst. she will commence her routes from Baltimore, to Corsica and Chestertown, leaving Baltimore every Mon day morning at 6 o'clock and return same day. Passage as heretofore. Al Ibaggage, packages, &c. at the risk of the owne for owners thereof.

By order, L. G. TAYLOR, Commander.

THE STEAM BOAT

GOVERNOR WOLCOTT. morning at 9 o'clock for Rockhall, Corsica and Chestertown, commencing on the 27th inst.-Returning will leave Chestertown on every FRIDAY morning at So'clock, Corsica at 10 o'clock, and Rockhall at 12 o'clock, noon. The Wolcott has been much improved.

WM. OWEN, Agent.

Easton and Baltimore Packet Sloop Thomas Hayward,

GEORGE W. PARROTT, Master. tened sloop, just launched, and finished in cabin and state room,) has commenced her re, gular trips between Easton and Baltimore-This packet has two ranges of commodious SAMUEL H. BENNY.

Easton Point, may 6 A House keeper Wanted. respectable and careful woman who un-Al derstands house-keeping, may secure a good situation by applying immediately to MATTHEW SPENCER.

Parsonage, Talbot co. Nov. 4 ready at hand the material for such a work, all ASH and very liberal prices will at all prised in this form at a rate of subscription and left at SINNERS' HOTEL, Water street, at

JAMES F. PURVIS, & CO.

TATAS COMMITTED to the Jail of Balmore City and County, on the 6th day of November 1834, by Joseph Shane, Esq. a Justice of the Peace in and for the City of Baltimore, as a runaway, a negro man, who calls himself JACK BURLEY; says he belongs to John C. Sellman, of West River, near Herring Creek Church, aged about 20 years, 5 feet 8 inches high, has a scar on his left ancle, caused by a cut of an axe, and a scar on his left hand, and two thumbs on his right hand. Had on when committed, a blue country cloth roundabout and pantaloons, yellow rock striped vest,

The owner (if any) of the above described property, pay charges, and take him away; therwise he will be discharged according to

D. W. HUDSON, Warden Baltimore City and County Jail.

TAY AS COMMITTED to the Jail of Baltimore City and County, on the 1st day Justice of the Peace in and for the City of Balimore, as a runaway, a negro woman, who calls herself MILLY SNOWDEN; says she was born free, was raised by her mother, Nelly Bond, who lives in St. Mary's county, NO RENT, for the ensuing year, the Up- twelve miles below Leonard's-town, aged aper Hunting Creek Mill, comprising a bout 22 years, 5 feet 31 inches high, has a scar

The owner (if any) of the above described negro woman, is requested to come forward, way; otherwise she will be discharged accor-

D. W. HUDSON, Warden Baltimore City and County Jail. nov 25

SPECIAL NOTICE.

law having been passed by the last General Assembly, and being now in force, to authorize Joshua M. Faulkner, late sheriff of Talbot County or his assigns to complete his ollection of fees, &c. and the said fees being assigned by Faulkner to his securites, who are with said Faulkner, under executions to the next court, May term: The subscribers being A LL persons indebted for county Taxes for duly authorized and required by said Securities of the State of New York, manufactured by the year 1834, will please take notice that to complete said collections by next Court, him in Centriville, Queen Ann's county, Md. they are now due, and the time specified by hereby give notice to all concerned, that they No. 1 will chaff and clean one hundred bushels law for the collection of the same will not allow will immediately enter upon said collections of what he will or can do, by way of recomised. 03 Payment at all times in advance.

but that he still lives, to give them CASH and
Dr. Edward Harris, of Queen Ann's county, with this notice may expect the letter of the source of relief for them, and the amount due William M. Hardcastle and Robert law enforced against them without respect to from each individual being comparatively small

> WM. C. RIDGAWAY, District No. 1. JNO. HARRINGTON, Dictrict No. 2. J. D. BROMWELL, District No. 3. EDWARD ROE, District No. 4.