From the Boston Recorder. DEATH OF MESSRS. MUNSON AND LYMAN.

the deceased, and indeed in the whole Christian to their eternal rest. community, to know more of the distressing Mr. Medhurst, after stating a variety offacts | the bill and report of the Post Office Commitparticulars.

All has probably been communicated to the to venture into the interior, addslated, is as follows:

advice they received from those whose opinions above. And with regard to the mission itself, might be read the second time by its title, for ganization of it, if those who had been fatten- good could result from it. But here, said Mr. were most entitled to respect, that is, the Eu- they will not be found in the great day of account the purpose of reference to the Committee.— ing on it were still to be kept in? If the Pre- P., we are in a minority, and it was his sworn ropeans residing at the place, but after weigh to have rendered it a partial or an inferior ser- He stated that all the members of the Commiting every thing, the two missionaries determin- vice. The soldier who falls in the forlorn hope, tee had not had an opportunity of examining ed to proceed, trusting in God.—The day be at the storming of a citadel, has as much share If it was perfect in all its provisions so far as mit the subject to. And should we stand by levelling every thing in the land. He wanted

"We have made preparations to penetrate as crificed their lives in to good cause. far as the great lake, which is in the heart of "The sufferings of their disconsolate widows pressure of other business upon the members might lay his hands upon him, and hold him disgraceful to the United States. And when it here, who, though a Catholic, treats us with lief ever since the melancholy event happened. was willing, therefore, that the motion should when he should think it his duty to brand him day with the same coolness and indifference at great kindness, has himself been in the coun- We have endeavored what little lav in our prevail, that the bill should be read the second as a culprit before the people of this country. It nothing of the sort had occurred. try. He thinks we may be able to accomplish power, to alleviate their mental agonies, and time and recommitted, under the assurance the journey in a month. All testimonies con- the community generally have felt the liveliest that it should be reported without delay. cur in pronouncing the way very difficult, owing to high mountains and impenetrable forests. Our arrangements are now completed, and to-morrow we start. Should we return in hearts and not how one of the General Post Office."

that it should be reported without delay.

The bill was then read the second time by the purpose of correcting the evils which had and love can effectually bind up their broken owing to the altered tone of the genleman's last of the inquiry of the remarks, he would not have risen. He was a purpose of the same spirit upon his feelings when the first role, which now operated upon him, and love can effectually bind up their broken owing to the altered tone of the genleman's last of the inquiry of the remarks, he would not have risen. He was a purpose of the same spirit upon his feelings when the first role, which now operated upon him, and love can effect all that it should be reported without delay.

The bill was then read the second time by the purpose of correcting the evils which had and love can effect all the inflution of the Duke, and the owing to the altered tone of the genleman's last of the inquiry of the remarks, he would not have risen. He was a purpose of the same spirit upon his feelings when the first role, which now operated upon him, and love can effect a purpose of the community generally have recommended in the community gener we labor cheerfully. Our greatest danger is, "I sincerely hope that the Board will not be Mr. Grundy said that if it was re-committed President ought long since to have removed which prevailed, and that our faith will fail us, and the grand objects deterred by this afflictive occurrence from carit would be printed to-night. But he was not them. Perhaps the other branch of Congress The Senate adjourned.

menced their journey on the 23d of June. — mand, 'Go ye,' still stands in the sacred records, Mr. Clayton said he had attended to the pro the sacred records, I have been determined to the pro the sacred records, I have been determined to the property of the sacred records, I have been determined to the property of the sacred records, I have been determined to the property of the sacred records, I have been determined to the property of the sacred records, I have been determined to the property of the sacred records, I have been determined to the property of the sacred records, I have been determined to the property of the sacred records, I have been determined to the property of the sacred records and the sacred records and the sacred records are the sacred records.

Monday, accompanied by a number of coolies sand, and two put ten thousand to flight. ing sun. It was only at the end of each day's journey, that they found any thing like a villed the occasion of this violence to our brethren.

The occasion of this violence to our brethren the blow."

The occasion of this violence to our brethren the blow."

The occasion of this violence to our brethren the blow."

The occasion of this violence to our brethren the blow."

The occasion of this violence to our brethren the blow."

The occasion of this violence to our brethren the blow."

The occasion of this violence to our brethren the blow."

The occasion of this violence to our brethren the blow."

The occasion of this violence to our brethren the blow."

The occasion of this violence to our brethren the blow."

The occasion of this violence to our brethren the blow."

The occasion of this violence to our brethren the blow."

The occasion of this violence to our brethren the blow."

The occasion of this violence to our brethren the blow."

The occasion of this violence to our brethren the blow."

The occasion of this violence to our brethren the blow."

The occasion of this violence to our brethren the blow."

The occasion of this violence to our brethren the blow."

The occasion of this violence to our brethren the blow."

The occasion of this violence to our brethren the blow."

The occasion of this violence to our brethren the blow."

The occasion of this violence to our brethren the blow."

The occasion of this violence to our brethren the blow."

The occasion of this violence to our brethren the blow."

The occasion of this violence to our brethren the blow."

The occasion of this violence to our brethren the blow."

turday, June 28th, they came suddenly upon a log fort, occupied by a number of men armed with muskets spears etc. They had advance with muskets spears etc. They had advance the formulation of the property of the property of the property of the property of the age.—We are glad to see government or was the government or some imminent collision is expected. They had advance the following the foll sooner had he arrived at the fort, than they found about 200 armed natives coming upon

A prediction accomplished.—About five and saw Mr. Lyman fall. The Battas shouted, the shout was returned from the fort, and a rush a rail road across that State, he was asked ra
But the accusation had gone out from the that honorable gentlemen should make this a twenty years ago, when the venerable Col. Stevens of Hoboken, first applied to the Legishout was returned from the fort, and a rush a rail road across that State, he was asked ra
But the accusation had gone out from the that honorable gentlemen should make this a twenty years ago, when the venerable Col. Stevens of Hoboken, first applied to the Legishout was returned from the fort, and a rush a rail road across that State, he was asked ra
But the accusation had gone out from the that honorable gentlemen should make this a party question. The minority themselves did not do so. Who ever dreamed of making it a guards which are to be at the disposal of the former shall be considered as subserving and promoting those of the latter—while been fixed at 110,000 men including 12,000 to the former shall be considered as subserving and promoting those of the latter—while been fixed at 110,000 men including 12,000 to the former shall be considered as subserving and promoting those of the latter—while been fixed at 110,000 men including 12,000 to the former shall be considered as subserving and promoting those of the latter—while been fixed at 110,000 men including 12,000 to the former shall be considered as subserving and promoting those of the latter—while been fixed at 110,000 men including 12,000 to the former shall be considered as subserving and promoting those of the latter—while been fixed at 110,000 men including 12,000 to the former shall be considered as subserving and promoting those of the latter—while the former shall be considered as subserving and promoting those of the latter—while the former shall be considered as party question.

A petition to remove the remains of Napole
The army of France for the United States, and was marked to the unit to Tappanooly.

our brethren, after being thus barbarously de- Com. prived of life, were eaten by the Battas. I The account of the death of the Rev. Samuel | would be gratifying could the contrary be prov-Munson and the Rev. Henry Lyman, mis- ed. This much, however, can be said-there sionaries of the American Board in the Indian is no conclusive evidence of the fact; it rests up-Archipelago, came too late for the February on report. Whatever disposal the Lord saw fit number of the Missionary Herald, and it is to make of their lifeless remains, it was unimthought best, therefore, to publish without de- portant in respect to them. And if they must lay a statement in the Recorder. An imme- die a violent death, the circumstances of it diate publication is the more desirable, as the were mercifully ordered. They appear to accounts which have appeared in some of the have had no apprehension of their danger till newspapers, are fitten to awaken an intense the moment of their departure, and then they and painful desire in the numerous friends of were dismissed suddenly & with a single pang,

and considerations which induced the bretheren | tee

the northwestern part of the island, and com- dence, a reason must not only evist for this dis- held in his hand, as containing the views of the bining some of the more common indications pensation, but it may actually tend, in a way minority of the committee. them, and was much interested in them as a bereaved widows, and to the encouragement of little danger of violence. They were the more interest in the new convenant, made death to together with the documents, and 5,000 extra at Tappanooly, an European had gone among their end, but a more rapid transition from printed for the use of the Senate. the Battas, not long before unhurt. Some of their labors, travels, sufferings, and care, to a The Chair here remarked that such motion the result of the journey, and urged them to de- We might think that it was a pity they were by the committee should be read. tained as to the manner in which the Rajahs of by their continuance in the vineyard on earth, bill was read the first time, and ordered to a sebut our great Head may have designed them | cond reading. The accounts differ as to the nature of the for higher and holier service before the throne Mr. Grundy expressed a wish that the bill melancholy. Why propose the mere reor- was no use in existing party spirit now when no of the Secretaries of the Board, of which the spoil; and when the list of worthies is made be ingrafted upon it, which would be likely to the present state of things in that Department this plague spot from this young country.

and we may be guided by unerring wisdom, with ardor to come to the help of the Lord a- as if it was formally referred.

They travelled of course on foot, making ten or twelve miles each day. When they arrived at a village, they were immediately surrounded a village, they were immediately surrounded to an audience with the gentle-self with it. If he could, and the public sentiment could bear it, and the provisions of the bill. But he would submit to it there.

would write them from Tobah. The brethren the hand of violence to be even raised against propriation for the relief of the Post office want the voice of party again to resound activity; boats are moving in all directions will contribute largely by his labor towards his own support—on account of the babits of inreplied, that they came with peaceable intention, and that there was no necessity for such a measure.

The brethren the hand of violence to be even raised against the missionary, much less to cut short his days.

A strange thing has happened. Let the fact of party again to resound through these Halls: If it was to be made a proper time, and not mingle it with the proceedings of this belonging to the squadron of evolutions. In additional transfer of the habits of instance that the missionary is a square to resound the party cause, let it to made at a proper time, and not mingle it with the proceedings of this belonging to the squadron of evolutions. In About four o'clock in the afternoon of Saturday, June 28th, they came suddenly upon a

A strange thing has happened. Let the fact of gratitude, and not be converted into a cause of agriculture and the mechanic trades, and the ployed in finishing such ships as are under toserves to be recognised as a motive for gratitude, and not be converted into a cause of the proble were incapable of seeing and corserves to be recognised as a motive for gratitude, and not be converted into a cause of the proble were incapable of seeing and corserves to be recognised as a motive for gratitude, and not be converted into a cause of the proble were incapable of seeing and corserves to be recognised as a motive for gratitude, and not be converted into a cause of the proble were incapable of seeing and corserves to be recognised as a motive for gratical r

Missionary Rooms, Jan. 20.

shout was returned from the fort, and a rush a rail road across that State, he was asked, rawas made upon Mr. Munson, who was immediately to construct of majority of the committee, but he was asked, rahe assented to all other documents, the general step forth. Here were volumes of documents on from St. Helena, was agreed by the Chamin the prescribed course of this Institution, not the prescribed course of this Institution this Institution the prescribed course of the prescrib diately pierced through with a spear, and fell. on his hobby. He replied, with his usual enon a jacket given him by Mr. Munson, was steam carriages would run on New Jersey the next victim. On seeing the fate of the two Rail roads as first as piggons flow. A few day, here. What he said was, that the people proprietor of Le Nationnel newspaper was proposed by the Chain-17

TWENTY-THIRD CONGRESS SECOND SESSION. -

THE DEBATE ON THE INTRODUC-POST OFFICE COMMITTEE. SENATE.

TUESDAY, January 27, 1835. After the Journal of yesterday had been read Mr. Ewing moved that the Senate take up of all our efforts be lost in the shades of minor rying on their operations in these islands; and particular with regard to it, if the Committee considerations. With many prayers that you that the youth of America, who are burning would feel it as much their duty to examine it

The residue of the sad story is derived from the and He who gave the command still lives and visions of the bilt as they had been read, and ther member of the Senate, as from the Comnarration given by Sr. JAN, a faithful atten- reigns, and has power sufficient to turn the tide he thought many of the utmost impor- mittee. The labors of the Committee were dant who had accompanied them from Batavia. in favor of his cause, and bless the efforts of tance, particularly that submitting the money before the Senate, and therefore, they did not He is described by Mr. Medhurst as an honest, his effurch and people; therefore lift up the operations of the department to the governsimple-hearted man, who has long been con- hands that hang down, and the feeble knees; let ment of Congress. He always considered, and late—they had reported their views, and left the weak be as David, and David as the angel still believed, that the distribution of the public them to the Senate to dispose of. The brethren commenced their journey on of the Lord Then shall one man chase a thou- treasure without the intergention of Congress, Mr. Calhoun Loped some Senator would a village, they were immediately surrounded the way, and acquainted the Rajahs with their he thought if the Committee could improve it bear it, and the people would submit to it there King. by multitudes of natives, men, women and views and intentions, by letters, or messengers; in its details, it ought to be recommitted, and was an end forever to freedom. He hoped Admiral de Rigny has been re-elected a children, who showed no sort of timidity, but or had they known the language of the people, their nersons and dress with great eagerness.

Their nersons and dress with great eagerness and propose some resolution suitable to the occurrence.

The interval of timidity, but or had they known the language of the people, there would be no difficulty it getting it printed.

But with regard to printing the reports, he and propose some resolution suitable to the occurrence.

Admirat de Rigny has been re-elected a beginning the reports, he and propose some resolution suitable to the occurrence.

Admirat de Rigny has been re-elected a beginning the reports, he and propose some resolution suitable to the occurrence.

An eloquent address was delivered at the inaugurery contains the faculty by the Rev Changery contains the faculty of the faculty by the Rev Changery contains the faculty of the faculty by the Rev Changery contains the faculty of the faculty by the Rev Changery contains the faculty of the faculty by the Rev Changery contains the faculty of the faculty by the Rev Changery contains the faculty of the faculty by the Rev Changery contains the faculty of the faculty by the Rev Changery contains the faculty of the faculty by the Rev Changery contains the faculty of the faculty of the faculty by the Rev Changery contains the faculty of the fa desired to make the request he did, on this attachment of the people to it, and the institufloor, from the circumstance, that in an address tions of this country? published in the newspapers bearing the signa- Mr. Benton said that the honorable gentle- and Carabout, Vice Presidents, and M d' the College shops, gardens, and farm, as an imthem from one side and from the rear. The respondent of the New Heaven Herald states United States.—his honorable colleague (Mr. be understood him correctly, was in favor of sons present was the intrepid English traveller, and truly liberal and valuable education, the sentiment of Plato is adopted as fundamentally A Green Meteor at New Heaven.—A corture of a high officer—the president of the man from South Carolina, (Mr. Calhoun), if Avezac, Secretary General. Among the percoolies immediately threw down their burdens, and fled on the other side.

The interpreter also disappeared. The Bat
The interpreter also disappeared. The Bat
The purpose of subarrassian that down their burdens, and fled on the other side.

United States.—his honorable colleague (Mr having voted against traveller, and thus having voted against traveller, and the purpose of subarrassian that description for the purpose of subarrassian that description imparts to the mind and that it "ought to be every where maintained, that it good education imparts to the mind and that a good education imparts to the mind and the colleague (Mr having voted against traveller, and truly moral and valuable colleague (Mr having voted against traveller, and truly moral and valuable colleague (Mr having voted against traveller, and truly moral and valuable colleague (Mr having voted against traveller, and truly moral and valuable colleague (Mr having voted against traveller, and truly moral and valuable colleague (Mr having voted against traveller, and truly moral and valuable colleague (Mr having voted against traveller, and truly moral and valuable colleague (Mr having voted against traveller, and truly moral and valuable colleague (Mr having voted against traveller, and truly moral and valuable colleague (Mr having voted against traveller, and truly moral and valuable colleague (Mr having voted against traveller, and truly moral and valuable colleague (Mr having voted against traveller, and truly moral and valuable colleague (Mr having voted against traveller, and truly moral and valuable colleague (Mr having voted against traveller, and truly moral and valuable colleague (Mr having voted against traveller, and traveller, and truly moral and traveller, and trave tas came on shouting and brandishing their weapons in a very alarming manner. The two brethren pushed their weapons aside with their brethren pushed their weapons aside with their perfection of the State they had the honor proceed in any manner which was constitution—

The department of the purpose of embarrassing that department, and preventing it from granting mail facilities to the citizens of the State they had the honor proceed in any manner which was constitution—

The Moniteur publishes officially the Quadbody, all the power, all the beauty, and all the perfection of which they are capable."

The Moniteur publishes officially the Quadbody all the power, all the beauty, and all the perfection of which they are capable."

The Physical Department of Education is brethren pushed their weapons aside with their er persons who may have seen this singular to represent. This was the reason for his al, and leave his conduct to say whether he Britain and Portugal, dated so far back as the hands, and entreated them to wait a little and meteor, to communicate their observations asking the question. He did not accuse that was governed by the trammels of party. come to an explanation. Mr. Lyman then through the medium of the Hearld.

The prediction accomplished — About five and the interpreter. St. Jan but not accuse that honorable gentlemen should make this a prediction accomplished — About five and the interpreter. St. Jan but not accuse that honorable gentlemen should make this a prediction accomplished — About five and the interpreter. The minority themselves did been fixed at 10,000 men including 12,000 men including 1 gelf in a thicket, and at length found his way for pigeons. The birds flew in the line of the provisions of the bill, fdy? Did the Hon, gentleman from Georgia persons in the capital. M. Dupin, President o Tappanooly.

The newspapers have said, that the bodies of killed two of their number.—N. Y. Jour. it was very desirable that it should be re-com- the Post Office and its management? He ham were also present. M. Rouen made a yesterday morning, when he was not able to found malancholy, that so much rottenness net had published expressions offensive to the give it a very attentive examination. Since should have found it sway into a department in Peers, and the House of Peers judging in it then he had been very much engaged. Some so short a time. And the expression of opin- own case, it is not surprising that M. Rouen of its provisions he should fully concur in, per- ion he suggested, was the only way in which was found guilty. The vote stood 128 to 15. haps all of them—he did not know. But he it could meet the people of this Union. If a They then proceeded to pass sentence upon TION OF THE REPORT OF THE was satisfied that the bill was susceptible of diversity of opinion existed, it was due to the him which was two years imprisonment and a further important improvements that were not in it, and in which all the members of the would present a resolution he would move it. est punishment, in both respects, which it was committee, he thought, would concur fere in the disposition which was proposed to were invited to pursue any course which their with the following note:-The motion was agreed to, and the reading of be made of the bill, but he was anxious to be party zeal demanded. What he said was, that Secretaries of the Board, through the kindness of the Revd. Mr. Medhurst of Batavia, that the re- would put a question to the honorable Chair- party with the efficient proceedings of this and their the report was concluded.

I ARIS, 19th De Mr. Grundy then rose and said, that the re- party with the efficient proceedings of this and their the report was concluded.

I ARIS, 19th De Mr. Grundy then rose and said, that the re- party with the efficient proceedings of this area. can ever be known. The narrative, briefly re- minds of all who knew their dispositions and port which had just been read embraced, the man of the committee. We had heard a most Committee. circumstance, be a sufficient guarantee for hav- opinions of three members of the committee. voluminous report with regard to the Post Mr. Preston said, he asked of the committee, culpation (rehabititation) than the hero im-Messrs. Munson and Lyman left Batavia on ing acted with the utmost prudence and cau- The gentleman from Illinois, (Mr. Robinson,) Office, together with the views of the minority, whether it was intended by order of foreign rs. This was my the 7th of April, and proceeded to Padang, an tion. It has pleased the Lord, however, whose and himself, being the remaining members of and a bill for the reorganization of the De- resolution expressive of their opinions on this opinion when I gave my daughter in marriage: European settlement on the southwestern coast ways are higher than our ways, to bring mat- the committee, had prepared a paper contain- partment. He would ask whether it was the subject. He knew he was a party man, and At that time I would alone have paid the fine of Sumatra. They then visited the islands of ters to this melancholy result, cutting off our ing their own views on most of the subjects conclusion of the subject conclusion of the Batu and Nias; and when they had made the dear bretheren at the very commencement of upon which the majority had given their opinnecessary researches in those islands, they pro- their missionary career, bursting asunder the ion, and without reference to their report.— for the evils prevailing there, or in other words, having actuated others. Now, the committee the sale of my furniture. Receive, &c. ceeded to Tappanooly, a Dutch settlement, al- tender bonds of connubial affection but lately When it was found that they could not agree whether all the evils set forth in the report had a right to report by bill or otherwise, and so on the southwestern coast of Sumatra.— formed, and crossing the designs of the Board upon the report, it was thought the better were the result of an improper organization of the bill certainly did not express the feelings of the Court of Peers assembled again on the They reached that place on the 17th of June, for evangelizing the savage race of the Battas at course for each branch of the committee to preand remained there till the 23d, making prepatheir outset. To us this event appears dark, sent its own views upon the subject of their inreport were the result of such an improper pressive of their feeling with regard to it. Was tion, and ordered such of them as were in cus try of the Battas, which are a people inhabiting but in the adorable workings of divine provi- He moved for leave to present the paper he organization? It would be recollected that there party in that. So far from it, party tody to be set at liberty. this was not the first occasion on which deve- spirit had subsided on that occasion, quite a opments of an extraordinary character had calm ensued, and the Hon. Chairman of the of civilization, such as reading, writing, and of which we cannot now perceive, to the spee- Leave having been made, and that on the other occasion, there committee, who was always a zealous defender laws, with some of the worst customs of savage dier and more certain salvation of the Battas, life. Sir Stamford Raffles travelled among the higher and more spirtual advantage of the which, was a unanimous vote of the Senate, strongly censuring the Post Office Department. The with us in voting for the resolutions. In relanation. So did Mr. Burton, the Baptist mis- the Board and their agent to more earnest and there was a great diversity of opinion as to declaration of a high personage in allusion to but those of disapprobation at the palpable fraude which had been disclosed from the palpable fraude which the palpable fraude which the palpable fraude which the p velled safely. The inquiries of Messrs. Munson and Lyman induced them to believe that,
son and Lyman induced them to be consistent to the case seems stripped of much of its glown;
son and Lyman induced them to be consistent to the case seems stripped of much of its glown;
son and Lyman induced them to be case seems stripped of much of its glown;
son and Lyman induced th what number of copies of the report should be himself, and he (Mr. P.) would call to mind frauds which had been disclosed. For no Peel's address to the electors of Tamworth both appearance as travellers, they also should incur known love to the Saviour, and their evident rected to move that 2,500 copies of the reports, And while the declaration was fresh on the among what individuals they existed. inclined to this opinion, as the presiding officer them sudden glory; and the hurried manner of copies of the reports, without the documents, be for the whole Executive power of the Govern- against this Administration. But he hoped ment, was he to be told that these abuses re- the committee would report a resolution which of peace, the scrupulous and honorable fulfiltheir native friends, however, had fears as to state of perfect, complete, and everlasting rest. was out of order, until after the bill reported Department. He was very foath to form an Senate, and that it might act upon those who lay until more definite information could be ob- not spared to render the Saviour much service | Mr. Grundy then yielded the floor, and the any man doubt the turpitude of the Post Office? honorable gentleman from Georgia had alopinion from hearing the report read, but did wielded the destinies of this country. The When, hardly of the age of man, it was found luded to party. Why stir up party feelings is Now, were we to be put off with only a pro- Mr. Cuthbert said, if he had felt the influought to have brought them before this body. Nothin ;, however, could be done here, but With such feelings and wishes they comthe fall of these soldiers of the cross. The comprinted, he had no objection to the reference.

Mr. Clay replied, that if the bill was to be which should elicit the opinion of the Commitlegislation-prospective legislation. The Com-which not one-hundredth part of the people bers to be laid before the President of the to be dispensed with.—Laws of Bristol College, missionaries, he attempted to escape, but was ago one of the locomotive engines of the Cambursued and cut down by a blow from a cleavable while and Ambay Bail Road while and the bill be made the ber of Peers on the 15th of December. It had rectary of the Treasury, superintendant of Light Houses for the State of Maryland, vice D. F.

this report made here.

steeped in corruption the most foul, the most now? We were beaten. He felt it, and there acted improperty, was this the House to sub- torrent of corruption that was flowing through & following is an extract. It was probably the out, those may perhaps stand among the "first meet the unanimous approbation of the Com-Mr. Ewing said that owing to the great the culprit, whoever he might be, that he to be for the honor of this nation—that it was and to-morrow we start. Should we return in hearts, and pour the oil of consolation into their hearts, and pour the oil of consolation into their hearts, and pour the oil of consolation into their hearts, and pour the oil of consolation into their hearts, and pour the oil of consolation into their hearts, and pour the oil of consolation into their hearts, and pour the oil of consolation into their hearts, and pour the oil of consolation into their hearts, and pour the oil of consolation into their hearts, and pour the oil of consolation into their hearts, and pour the oil of consolation into their hearts, and pour the oil of consolation into their hearts, and pour the oil of consolation into their hearts, and pour the oil of consolation into their hearts, and pour the oil of consolation into their hearts, and pour the oil of consolation into their hearts, and pour the oil of consolation into their hearts, and pour the oil of consolation into their hearts, and pour the oil of consolation into their hearts, and pour the oil of consolation into their hearts, and pour the oil of consolation into their hearts, and pour the oil of consolation into their hearts, and pour the oil of consolation into their hearts, and pour the oil of consolation into their hearts, and pour the oil of consolation into their hearts, and pour the oil of consolation into their hearts, and pour the oil of consolation into their hearts, and pour the oil of consolation into their hearts, and pour the oil of consolation into their hearts, and pour the oil of consolation into their hearts, and pour the oil of consolation into their hearts, and pour the oil of consolation into their hearts, and pour the oil of consolation into their hearts, and pour the oil of consolation into their hearts, and the oil of consolation into the Mr. Ewing replied: As to the inquiry of the remarks, he would not have risen. He was Distressing Deaths by Poison.—A most

LATEST FROM EUROPE.

The packet ship Erie, Captain Funk, has inclusive. These papers contain advices from London some hours later than was received via Liverpool and Boston. FRANCE.

Mr. Porter said he agreed with the gentle- would rise here to defend it, and identify him- bassador to London instead of the Duke de sidered convalessant.

M. Roux de Rochelle, formerly Minister at laws;

er. St. Jac now ran for his life, secreted him- great speed, with no cars attached, upon a flock Mr. Calboun said if the committee could be ments in a resolution for the action of this bo- was attended by many of the most respectable Carr, resigned.—Republice could not believe he did. On hearing the re- bold defence, and was assisted by M. Carrel. Mr. Grundy said he never saw the bill until port read, he (Mr. C.) felt a deep and pro- The ground of accusation was that Le Nation-He was not to be deterred from it by any fear in their power to inflict. A subscription was Mr. Calhoun then moved to re-commit, but of consequences whatever. His object was set on foot, and almost the whole amount of the withdrew the motion, on the suggestion of the that the people should know what impression fine immediately subscribed. The banker, Lafitte whose daughter married the son of Mr. Preston said, he had no wish to inter- Mr. Cuthbert said that the Hon. gentlemen Marshal Ney, accompanied his subscription

PARIS, 19th December, 1834.

Sin,-The judges stand more in need of ex-

ENGLAND.

Great efforts were making in most parts of the kingdom preparatory to the great struggle at the approaching election. The appointment of Lord Londonderry as Minister to Russia has created, we perceive, illustration of the fair and amicable principle of foreign policy laid down by him when he declared his intention to abide "the maintenance ment, without reference to their original policy of all existing engagements with foreign

The London Globe of 20th December has also the following paragraph on the same sub-

The promises of foreign policy in Sir Rocert Peel's address, are in themselves satisfactory. But we cannot agree with our credulous contemporaries who think that fine promises fore their departure, they wrote a letter to one in the glory of the conquest, as he that divideth it went, still some additional provisions might the present state of things in that Department? This planter should be done, ical attachment to the King of Holland, or to are to be taken as sufficient guarantees on this Don Carlos, or Don Miguel. But will be be yet he was anxious for an occasion of exposing Office, and that it was not conducted as it ought Minister in perfect obediency to his own views the Batta territory, and return by another route have been great in the extreme; tears have of the Committee, they were unable to spend tunity would be afforded him for doing so: was it proper to pass on to the orders of the to this place. Mr. Bennet, the post-holder been their meat, and sighs have been their reast, and sight have been their reast, and sight have been their reast, and sight have been their reast, and si colleagues? What avail the promises of the Premier against the tendency of his party, the known inclination of the Duke, and the pre-ly in September. Thus far the Lord has pros- for ashes, the oil of joy for mourning, and the Mr. Clay thought it would be better to or- evils which had been exposed, arose from the his voice, but when he spoke of the defeats of Whenton Examination of the Department of the Paramization of the Department of the family of Eber pered us beyond our expectations. We trust garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness. I der the bill to be printed, and then the Comthe board and the churches will follow up these feel satisfied that the Board will do everything mittee could have it, as well as other members in a great degree to the monstrous exaggera- a yellow earthen jar, which was glazed on the incipient efforts, and to thurst in laborers in their power to alleviate their burthen, and of the Senate, and they could prepare any a- foul corruption among some of the individuals tions of the period alfuded to, which magnified inside with a preparation of lead; the acid of the wherever the fields are white and ready for the harvest. The work that has been assigned us is beset with perplexities. It is laborious and trying both to the body and the mind. Yet meet not enlarge.

In their power to alleviate their burthen, and that the churches of Christ in America will leave nothing undone to soothe their sorrows after as human means and efforts go, so that I was a sovel proceeding to report a bill and then rose to speak, but gave nothing undone to soothe their sorrows after as human means and efforts go, so that I was a sovel proceeding to report a bill and then rose to speak, but gave nothing undone to soothe their sorrows after as human means and efforts go, so that I was a sovel proceeding to report a bill and then rose to speak, but gave nothing undone to soothe their sorrows after as human means and efforts go, so that I was a sovel proceeding to report a bill and then rose to speak, but gave nothing undone to soothe their sorrows are also the constitution of the most hemost feel on the lead in the glazing, dissolved and then recommit it before it was principle.

Mr. Southard then rose to speak, but gave accepted the corrupt individuals, the Committee thought that the President quark of lead, which was dissolved in the vinegar. Nearly all the family of Mr. W. partook of the pickles, and especially his eldest daughter, (nineteen years of age,) a niece of his, and his three youngest children. On the 9th January, his youngest child, (a daughter,) was attacked arrived from Havre—sailed the 24th of De- the 14th in great agony, but without any one cember. By this arrival the New York Com- suspecting the cause of her death. During this interval of five days, his next eldest child, (a boy, seven years of age,) was attacked with similar symptoms, as was also the next eldest daughter; the boy, after suffering dreadfully, died five days after he was first attacked, but The packet ship France, which carried out the daughter is still living. The directle effects to carry their baggage, an interpreter, and one The most back and The journals of the brethern up to the debill proposed to bring this department back and with sorrow and the decountry, but the the youngest child died, the eldest daughter or two other natives.—The postholder and anopartine from Tappanooly, will be forwarded place it under the supervision and contral of bad been twenty-two voirs attanded them become twenty-two voirs attanded to the inflexible was also artacked, together with a young lady ther Dutch officer attended them beyond Tappanooly, will be forwarded place it under the supervision and contral of to the Board as soon as they can be copied out.

Congress. He saw no reason for recommitting the bill, unless the provisions in it were to be conomy which the Chamber intends to practice, says: 'Let the famous bill for 25 millions' the bill, unless the provisions in it were to be conomy which the famous bill for 25 millions in the supervision and contral of to the Board as soon as they can be copied to the Board as soon as they can be copied to the Board as soon as they can be copied to the Board as soon as they can be copied to the Board as soon as they can be copied to the Board as soon as they can be copied to the Board as soon as they can be copied to the Board as soon as they can be copied to the Board as soon as they can be copied to the Board as soon as they can be copied to the Board as soon as they can be copied to the Board as soon as they can be copied to the Board as soon as they can be copied to the Board as soon as they can be copied to the Board as soon as they can be copied to the Board as soon as they can be copied to the Board as soon as they can be copied to the Board as soon as they can be copied to the Board as soon as they can be copied to the Board as soon as they can be copied to the Board as soon as they can be copied to the Board as soon as they can be copied to the Board as soon as they can be copied to the Board as soon as they can be copied to the Board as soon as they can be copied to the Board as soon as they can be copied to the Board as soon as they can be copied to the Board as soon as they can be copied to the Board as soon as they can be copied to the Board as soon as they can be copied to the Board as soon as they can be copied to the Board as soon as they can be copied to the Board as soon as they can be copied to the Board as soon as they can be copied to the Board as soon as they can be copied to the Board as soon as they can be copied to the Board as soon a on became exceedingly difficult, consisting

Thus far the respected friend of our deceased altered, and if they were, gentlemen could be again presented—we defy the Minister to himself ate some of the pickles, and on the of hills and ravines, covered by thick forests.—

So steep were the hills in many places, that they were obliged to ascend by means of rattains tied to the tons of rocks. The thickets

Thus far the respected friend of our deceased afficred, and it they were, gentlemen could missionaries and their afflicted widows. Mrs. suggest such amendments as they proposed when the bill came up. He did not meet and beard, were not equal to the disclosures here the missionaries and their afflicted widows. Mrs. Suggest such amendments as they proposed when the bill came up. He did not meet and beard, were not equal to the disclosures here the missionaries and their afflicted widows. Mrs. Suggest such amendments as they proposed beard, were not equal to the disclosures here the missionaries and their afflicted widows. Mrs. The Constitutionnel, also, in remarking on the manifestations of economy in the tenest ages of the Roman Republic. He hope that the department of the government, that he had ever heard, were not equal to the disclosures here the missionaries and their afflicted widows. Mrs. Munson and Mrs. Layman will enjoy his protection while they remain at Batavia. It is of the commend the adoption of any other provi-tienest ages of the Roman Republic. He hope the following day was attacked the same as the rest of the manifestations of economy in the tenest ages of the Roman Republic. He hope the following day was attacked the same as the rest of the manifestations of economy in the tenest ages of the Roman Republic. He hope the following day was attacked the same as the providence of the commendation of the following day was attacked the same as the rest of the missionaries and their afflicted widows. Mrs. Munson and Mrs. Layman will enjoy he again presented—we defy the Minister to missionaries and their afflicted widows. Mrs. Munson and Mrs. Layman will enjoy he again presented—we defy the first the definition of the again presented—we defy the first the definition of the first the definition of the first the first the d were dense, but sheltered them from the burning sin. It was only at the end of each day's autumn, and made their home with Mr. and

Mr. Grundy said he would not persist in his bill for 25 millions, has received its death salts; the pickles were tested, and the result came boddy up to the fravellers, and examined their persons and dress with great eagerness.

St. Jan remembers but one instance, after their departure from Tappanooly, in which the natives attempted to persuade them not to proceed. That was on the second night after their visiting mind? was doubtless accepted. The willing mind? was doubtless accepted them to the process of the court, and the fatal result would have been prevented.—As it was, they did what they conceived to be, and the fatal result would have been prevented.—As it was, they did what they conceived to be, was apprehensive some error might be fallen into, and perhaps he might afterwards be said to have given his assent to all the provisions of the received with the Sanators from South Carolina. The "willing mind?" was doubtless accepted. But with regard to printing the reports, he carson.

When they fell in with a Rajah But with the sanators from South Carolina. The committee had manifested much more dispatched to the course they had pursued than the course they had pursued th The Paris Geographical Society have elected lege; the following views are embodied in its them, but by the incorporation of their senti- caused great excitement at Paris. The trial Houses for the State of Maryland, vice D. E.