We beg men caral le of reflection to pender on this subject. We beg those having influence to use their efforts to avert the evil. The local banks, unwittingly, are lending themselves to the designs of the istration party appears to be reduced to a regu- great money power. They are discounting with a freedom almost unparralleled. There never before was such a constant and copious flood of small country bank notes pouring into this city as at the present moment. Shall noto write him a dunce, an ass, or a prodigy of thing be done to avert this evil-to check and roll back this tide of ruin?
