THE GENTLEMAN'S

OR THE

Sporting and Dramatic Companion. WEEKLY REPOSITORY O Dramatic Literature, Sporting, the Turf, Fashions, Grazing, Agriculture, an Various subjects of Interest and

INTERSPERSED WITH A MULTITUDE OF

Appropriate Engravings,

INCLUDING Portraits of Celebrated Winning

Hobbs 3, Philosophical and Natural Phenomena.

LEGERDEMAIN, &C.

HIS popular journal, although but a few L months have passed since it was commenced, has already obtained an extensive and profitable subscription list, which is daily increasing, and affords ample encouragemen the publishers to persevere in their chorts to the render it useful, amusing, and instruc-

00-On the commencement of the approaching year, the VADE MECUM will undergo several important improvements-instead of four pages, it will be increased to Eight of nearly the precent size, and consequently, will contain elmost double the quantity of reading matter which is now given-Making it one of the largest and neatest duarto's ever sublished in the United States. It will be printed on new type, and fine white paper, the embellishments will be considerably multiplied, and of & superior order. Persons desirous of procuring the work at the beginni of the new volume, will please send their orders at once—as they may fail to be supplie as but few copies will be published more than are actually subscribed for at the time.

80-The subjects which are particularly em braced in this work will be more distinctly understood from the following brief analysis oi them:

The Drama forms a material portion of the Gentleman's Vade Mecum-every week an lected with a single eye to their merits alone: a preference, however, will be extended in all cases to native productions when they can be obtained. Independent criticisms, carefully excluding all invidious comparisons, and recemmended by their brevity, are occasionally inserted; as also, Biographical Sketches, Anecdotes, and Bon Mote of prominent Comedi ans of the present and past ages, of which rare and inexhaustible compilation is in store. Distinguished Actors and Actresses. No algers of the two Philadelphia Theatres, and several other gentlemen connected with the stage; has obtained a very excellent and numerous selection of Plays and Farces for the Vade Mecum; many of them have never appeared in print.

THE TURF. eases of this invaluable animal is particularly attended to.

from the most authentic sources. hoorses which have been given, are-

The imported Racing Horse Messenger. The American Trotting Mare, Lady Jack-

The American Trotting Horse, Edwin For

Eclipse. The American Trotting Horse, Top Gal-

The well known English Race Horse, Touchstone. Mundig; the winner of the Derby stakes in June, 1835.

The unrivalled American Trotter Andrew The celebrated English Horse, Glencoe. A complete treatise, on Riding, with fourfold Illustrations, for improvement of Ladies in that most healthy of all exercises. Explanation of the Automaton Chess Player, illustrated by eleven engravings. Four engravings, designed to represent the scene which took place in Paris, in July last, o the attempted destruction of the Royal Family of France, with a view of the Infernal Machine and a likeness of the Assassin, Gerard. A correct Picture of a Race Course, occu ying the width of seven columns.

SPORTING. Besisde other matters belonging to this head there will be published correct accounts of Shooting Matches, Pedestrian Feats, Gymnastic Exercises, Aquatic Excursions, Fishing, Gaming, &c. with anecdotes of noted of an excellent artist to furnish a regular sea Michaels, the 25th; and at Loockerman's mill ries of Engravings of the different beautiful the 28th, to inspect weights and measures. uniforms worn by the principal Volunteer I have always on hand a complete assortment search of a religion; Bossuet's History of the ticular information can obtain a prospectus Corps of Philadelphia, New York, Boston of Tin Ware, and will execute all orders on Variations of the Protestant Churches; The licular information can obtain a prospectus of the Seminary by sending post paid, to the lished periodically, with a particular description of each, furnished by a competent hand. pay their old accounts. This subject forms a peculiar attraction to the general interest of the work.

GENTLEMEN'S FASHIONS. A quarterly review, is made out by a gentleman connected, with a fashionable house in dhiladelphia, explanatory of the various imrovements and changes which costumes worn in the dress circles consequently undergo: by which it will be rendeered an easy task for drapers and tailors, at a distance, to suit drapers and tailors are drapers and tailors. and modern style of apparel at the earliest pos- | OTICE .- Any person or persons through- Challener's Book of the formerly occupied by Henry Clift, in the most who propose to continue taking the Magazine, criptions repeatedly given at large, and the sible period.

MISCELLANY. Although the purposes of our sheet may ap- Lotteries, or in authorised Lotteries of other tion of Ward's Errata. pear to be confined to the several leading subjects States, some one of which are drawn daily, The above is a collection of Standard Ca. proper to give him a call. Races of Amusement, Statistics, Agricul- mail, with the same prompt attention as if on and elegant Periodical for the uncommonly be sustained by a generous public. ture; Domestic Economy, Valuable Receipts, personal application, and the result given low price of about Twenty Dollars.

nished with from forty-five to fifty popular Plays or Farces - the price of which, seperately, at one of our bookstores, would be at least thir teen dollars! Here, then, isan absolute sa-I stored Dramactic Library-to be had for an unprecedented small sum!) without taking into consideration the multiplied variety which is sent along with it, free of additional charge. The Gentleman's Vade Mecum or the Sport ling and Bramatic Companion, is published market will afford, good beds, and careful ostevery Saturday, on fine extra imperial quarte lers, and to bestow all the attention he is capapaper, of a superior quality each number | ble of, for the comfort and happiness of those forming eight pages of the largest class, at $3 who may favor him with a call. From per annum. Orders from abroad, postage experience in that line of business, for ma paid, will be promptly attended to, and the years, and his untiring disposition to please. paper carefully packed, to prevent it from flatters himself that those who may be good rubbing by mail. As the number of agents nough to give him a trial will become his patwill be limited to principle cities, or such of rons. ther places where a considerable subscription may be obtained, we request those who propose to patronize the work, to transmit by mail at once to the publisher. Small notes of PROSPECTUS OF A NEW solvent banks of the different States, taken at par. By enclosing a Five Dollar Note, two copies of the paper will be forwarded to any lirection ordered, for one year. Specimen numbers will be sent to any part of the Uni on, by addressing the publisher, postage paid

THE MODERN

Has hitherto been issued in volumes of aone year's subscription, the terms of which serving Catholic in America. So limited has loring business. They can have constant em deduction of one third, when subscribing for in the country have been sufficiently enterpri sets will be thankfully received and the work bas been more than portionably high. In To the Printers of the U. States. dollar note, postage paid. Gentlemen desir- fact, so dear have Catholic books in general ous of securing a set of this work, will please been, that it has been entirely impossible for to forward their names immediately—the edi- the poorer members of the Catholic comtion, which was a small one, is going off ra- munity, who stand most in need of instruction

ment on the commencement of a new series in their religion. January, 1836. It is intended to be published entire Play or Farce is given. They are se- Every Month, or as near the beginning as fact with the utmost regret, and may certainly A faithful record is kept of all the Running to his prospectus, or he will refund the price of encouragement to enable him to conduct it sucand trotting Matches in this country and En- subscription, free of all charges. No subscrip- cessfully. He, therefore, not withstanding t gland. Biographies and correct portraits of tion received unless the terms are complied expense and risk attending it, and confidi celebrated thorough-bred Horses are publish- with. No work of this kind has ever been entirely in the liberality and generosity of ed once a month. Every fact relative to the attempted in the United States, and none is sllow Catholics of the United States and the carefully transmitted by mail.

Any person collecting four subscribers Catholic brethren, and calls on them for the THE SPORTING INTELLIGENCE. to the Gentleman's Vade Mecum, or the Mod- support and patronage. At home and abroad) occupies a considera- ern Acting Drama, and remitting the amount ble portion of our columns, and is collected of one year's subscription, ($3) for each aged by the hope that it will meet with the shall be presented with the Novelist Magazine, cordial approbation of the clergy in general Among the Portraits of celebrated Winning in two volumes a work of considerable popu- and that he will be aided by the powerful aslarity, and which is now selling for $3-it sistance of that learned and devoted body of contains the productions of eight different au- men The undertaking is one which is emithors well known to the public as among the nently calculated to disseminate the principles most interesting writers of the day.

PRIVATE SALE. three miles from Chester Town. There are fortunately blinded. one hundred and thirty acres of land-40 acres of prime arable land 40 acres of fine meadow stable. This property is now being repaired, on Saturday, November 7th.—Terms of sub-but will be ready to be put in operation in a few scription $4 Per Annum, or Eight Cents per land. possession given immediately if desired. Apply to the subscriber on the premises.

SAMUEL RINGGOLD, jr.

NOTICE.

HE subscriber having been re-appointed are requested to act as agents. Standard keeper, will attend at Easton, MILITARY UNIFORMS.

The publisher has employed the assistance f an excellent artist to furnish a regular see of Engravings of the different heaviful the 28th to inspect weights and traces.

The following is a list of a few of the works which may be instruction is carried on in full articles, which may be instructive to a regular system of Academic studies, embration.

The following is a list of a few of the works which will be issued in this publication, and which will be issued in this publication, and shift the 28th to inspect weights and traces.

The following is a list of a few of the works which will be issued in this publication, and successful and use. Shelley, Lewis, Moore, Coleridge, Rodgers, which will follow each other in rapid succession.

The following is a list of a few of the works which will be issued in this publication, and successful and use. Shelley, Lewis, Moore, Coleridge, Rodgers, which will follow each other in rapid succession.

ARTHUR J. LOVEDAY.

CLARK'S OLDESTABLISHED LUCKY OFFICE

N. W. Corner of Baltimore & Calvert streets (UNDER THE MUSEUM.) Where have been sold out the United States, who may desire to Catholic Church; Butler's Festivals and Fasts; pleasant, fashionable, and central part of the and to receive the very small sum, charged flattering notices that have been made of it by try their luck either in the Maryland State Butler's Lives of Saints; Dr. Lingard's edi- town of Easton, where he will at all times be for it in advance. GEO. G. SMITH? editors in different sections of the Union, the

NOTICE.

UNION TAVERN.

He pledges himself to keep the best table the

ELIJAH McDOWELL. march 20

PUBLICATION TO BE CALLED

Which is designed to be a reprint of all the best Catholic Works in the English Lan- sinoary Church—the house is white. guage, in the weekly numbers, at 8 cents is 3 dollars, payable in advance—10-Sub- been the sale, and so great the expense of ployment and the prices are good. scripers to the Vade Mecum are entitled to a printing these books, that but few individuals the Modern Acting Drama. An order for four sing to undertake their publication; and their idly, and it cannot be re-published at the same and for whom the Books have in general been complied, to obtain copies, even of those work, DESPECTFULLY announces

The subscriber has long since observed this possible, each No. to consist of 48 pages of fine say, that up to this time, he has at least done fetter press printing and 12 numbers to con- something to reduce the prices of the most neconstitute a volume of 576 pages. Every Play cessary Catholic works. Our religious books or Farce which will be published, is to be are still, however, extremely dear, and the accompanied by a beautiful and appropriate Subscriber, depending on the support of a libbe added as a Frontispiece a full sized steel which, by its cheapness, will place all the best Engraving, containing the likeness of six Catholic works within the reach of the poorest terations will be made from the present terms. of its execution will be found worthy of a machinery, invented for the purpose, which en- corps, eminent ability and skill in one branch Every person who desires to preserve an in- place in the libraries of the rich. Such a pro- sures the most exact adjustment. valuable collection of the best Dramatic Au- position as that which the subscriber proposes | Specimens will be published as early as posthors should forward his name forthwith, as to issue, has long been called for by the exi- sible. the edition will be limited to the number gencies of the Catholic community; and the which is absolutely subscribed for. OF The rapidly increasing number of the members of publisher pledges himself to make this work our Hely Church seems fully to justify him in equal in interest and superiority of execution the expectation that it will meet with sufficient breeding, management, keeping, and the dis- more likely to prove popular and satisfacto- Canadas has resolved to put it to press forthwith; and he therefore throws himself on his

In this undertaking he is principally encourof our holy religion widely throughout the Persons wishing to subscribe to the a- community, and to assist the clergy in the disbove will address CHARLES ALEXAN- charge of their parochial duties by affording, The Racing Mare, Ariel, and her foal by DER, Athenian Buildings, Franklin Place, at an uncommonly low rate, at all the necessa-Philadelphia, and they may 'rest assured that ry knowledge and instruction. The subscri-The true blooded popular Horse, Chateau every attention will be paid to have them ber, therefore earnestly requests that the Bishops and Clergy in general will exert their powerful influence in order to increase the popularity of the work and to obtain a sxfi-Valuable Mill-seat and Land at cient number of subscribers to enable him to carry it on with success. By these means they will augment the spiritual comforts of THE subscriber offers for sale the MILL their charges, and contribute, in a great mea- School with every apparatus necessary to PROPERTY where he resides, situated on sure, to dispel the prejudices by which our illustrate their instruction; Their Philosophithe navigable waters of Chester River, about brethren of the other denominations are un-

The Catholic Periodical Library and marsh, and the balance in wood. The improvements are a two story pages each, duodecime size, on fine royal paper and beautiful new type, stitched in handsome wrappers and will embrace the whole of the fulling Mill and Carding Machine, a two story frame Dwelling—2 rooms on the lower floor ry frame Dwelling—2 rooms on the lower floor and a showe Carriage House. Corn House and the patients, or fine royal paper and will embrace the whole of the works, together with a large fund of ecclesias-family. The first number will be issued to books of the school. Their Caomet of Indian pages each, duodecime size, on fine royal paper and beautiful new type, stitched in handsome wrappers and will embrace the whole of the works of the school. Their Caomet of Indian pages each, duodecime size, on fine royal paper and beautiful new type, stitched in handsome wrappers and will embrace the whole of the works of the school. Their Caomet of Indian pages each, duodecime size, on fine royal paper and beautiful new type, stitched in handsome wrappers and will embrace the whole of the work specimens; their Seminary is also furnish. Settled in the will cwe two in December or June 1920, and a Five Dollar note, on account. Many regretation of the work of with an ARMILLARY SPHERE, CA.

RYS, WILSON'S and GARDENER'S GLOBES, several PIANOS, and a H.v.RP: evan and erudith scholar, who has spent thirise only when a person stops the work, that a large fund of ecclesias-fine from from forwarding their dues because they work and a large fund of ecclesias-fine from from forwarding their dues because they work and a large fund of ecclesias-fine from from forwarding their dues to the work of the Liberal commissions will be allowed to A have six copies of the work sent them for one access.

N. B. Postmasters throughout the country The following is a list of a few of the works The course of instruction is carried on in Persons indebted are requested to call and Haywarden's True Church of Christ shown; aug. 22, 1835. Haywarden's Charity and Truth; Mores Catholic, or Ages of Faith; Mumford's Questions; Mumford's Catholic Scrip THE FARMER'S & OITIZEN'S as friends of improvement, of good morals tinued as heretofore. turist; Lingard's History of the Anglo-Saxon Church; Perpetuity of the Faith; Dr. M'-Hale's Evidences of the Catholic Church; Fienry's Manners of the Israelites; Fleury's Manners of Christians; Lannegan's Ecclesiastical History of Ireland; Bishop Hay's

EASTON, MD.

ESPECTFULLY informs his friends and the public generally that he still continues to carry on the above business at his old but one, that is almost universally used in Bal- knowledges with gratefulness, their liberality stand on Washington street, opposite the office timore and in the best establishments: he has and has the pleasure to announce to them that of Samuel Hambleton, jr. Esq. where he is also engaged a prepared to accommodate travelfers and others FIRST RATE WORKMAN, who may be pleased to patronize his establishhis part to give general satisfaction. N. B. S.B. will at all times pay the highest market prices for Terrapins, Oysters, and aug 29 Wild Ducks.

CASH and very liberal prices will at all times be given for SLAVES. All com-HE CATHOLIC PERICDICAL LIBRA- munications will be promptly attended to, left at SINNERS' HOTEL, Water street, at which place the subscribers can be found, or a their residence on Gallows Hill, near the Mis JAMES F. PURVIS& CO.

> or three good hands to work at the Tai-THOMAS J. EARICKSON. Easton, Sept. 26th, 1885.

> F. SPITTALL.

WOOD LETTER CUTTER & ENGRAVER No. 21 Franklin Place, Philadelphia, This work will undergo a material improve- which are nearly essential to the practice of the United States, that he has cation perhaps in the world. commenced the manufacture of WOOD LETTERS. Wood Letters of every discription from four to thirty-four lines Pica, or upwards, made to order on the shortest notice. ORNAMENTAL LETTERS.

Engraving-making in the course of the year eral and enlightened Catholic community, has splendid patterns, for heads of Newspapers, tending parties in the country, deep and abinearly Fitty Embellishments—to which will determined to issue a Periodical publication, Title Lines, &c. from two lines Great Primer ding interests will attend the debates. toany size larger. His type will be made of materials of the Congressional Globe and the Appendix.

> ENGRAVINGS ON WOOD. Executed with neatness and promptitude. Heads for Newspapers, Fac Similes, Ornamental and plain Rules, &c. &c. cut with the greatest accuracy in type metal or wood. Old cast metal cuts, ornaments &c. engrav-do well to begin their subscription with the led over, and made equal to new, for half their next session A liberal discount for cash. Six months crefrom the country promptly attended to .- All letters must be post paid. 9G-Editors of papers in the country who tions, and forward a paper containing the paying Bank will be received. the same to the advertiser, will be paid therefor in any of the above mentioned materials.

MR. and MRS. HAMILT ON'S BOARDING SCHOOL FOR YOUNG LADIES,

CORNER OF SABATOGA AND COURTLAND STREETS, BALTIMORE, WILL BE RE-OPENED ON THE FIRST DAY OF SEPTEMBER NEXT.

their Chemical is sufficiently extensive to it-

The Library contains upwards of 2000 voldo we expect to approach so near to the moon umes, connected with the studies pursued in or other planets, as to tell what are the trees, gents. Any six persons, who may live at a the school, to which the young ladies have the birds, and animals which may there grow of given under the immediate eye of the princi-

Parents and Guardians who wish more par-

RETREAT.

found ready to wait on all those who may think which have been stated, we deem it proper to Tickets from one to ten dollars, Shares in pro tholic Works, which could not be purchased His table will be supplied with the best fare of All letters and communication from agents pa say, that there constantly is, in addition to portion, are respectfully requested to forward for less than seventy dollars; and it would be which the market will afford, and his bar fur and others MUST BE POST PAID. these, a considerable space allowed for miscel-laneous matter, such as Tales, Poetry, An-laneous matter, such as Tales, Poetry, An-ecdotes, Legerdemain, an Epitome of News, thankfully received, and executed by return collection can now be obtained in this cheap The public's obedient servant,

Re. Also, a republication of the best and most popular of the old English and American Sporting and National Songs, set to music; besides many other matters, regarding which an interest is supposed to exist of Baltimore and Calvert streets, under the museum.

District Economy, rational Receipts, Receipts, and the result given (when requested) immediately after the draw-ling. Please address

JOHN CLARK, Old established Prize Vender, N. W. Corner of Baltimore and Calvert streets, under the lence.

JOHN DOYLE, Bookseller, N. Y.

Beltimore, 187.

Beltimore, 187.

Receipts, and the result given (when requested) immediately after the draw-ling. Please address

JOHN CLARK, Old established Prize Vender, N. W. Corner of Baltimore and Calvert streets, under the lence.

JOHN DOYLE, Bookseller, N. Y.

Beltimore, 187.

Receipts, and the result given (when requested) immediately after the draw-ling. All new Catholic Works will be published in the Periodical Library as soon as received; and able translators will be provided for all the European publications of peculiar excellence.

JOHN DOYLE, Bookseller, N. Y.

Beltimore, 187.

Beltimore, 187.

TAILORING.

HE subscriber presents his grateful ac-

That has never been practised in Easton;

ment.—His bar is well stocked with the choic- the none can surpass; which will enable him cst Liquors and his larder with the best pro- to neet the demands of gentlemen for any kind And the LATEST FASHIONS for BON. vision the market will afford—his stables are of garments cut and made in the first style. NETS, CAPS and DRESSES, and by the in good order and well stocked with provender. His work shall be warranted to fit in all cases; unremitted attention and general knowledge He has in his employ careful ostlers and he as- otherwise he pays them for their goods or makes she hopes to merit a continuance of their lasures the Public nothing shall be wanting on them others. He respectfully solicits a con- vors. tinuance of the favors of a generous public. The public's obedient servant,

JOHN SATTERFIELD.

PROSPECTUS OF THE

CONGRESSIONAL GLOBE. The success of the experiment we have made raish a succinct history of the proceedings of ongress, from day to day, with sketches of the lebates, induces the undersigned to per-Has hitherto been issued in volumes of a-bout 300 pages each—containing the PLAYS,

FARCES &c. which appear in the Vade

Mecum, neatly printed, and bound in clastic covers, for transportation—and published every covers, for transportation—and published every intelligent and ob
THE subscriber would like to procure two speech s of the prominent speakers, on the most severe in their plan to extend and perfect i speech s of the prominent speakers, on the most success which has crowned his former efforts to important subjects, writen out by the members signalise his work, intends, with the coming themselves, from the notes and printed sketches of the Reporters.

> will be published weekly, upon double royal paper, in octavo form, as heretofore, at one ollar for the session. It may be subscribed for separately. The appendix of finished speeches will, also, be published for one dollar. It is probable that the next session of Congress will continue nearly seven months; the work will contain between four and five to the hundred pages, and will be the cheapest publi-

The Congressional Globe, with an Index,

The next session of Congress will probably be the most eventful one which has occurred lic for future remuneration, corresponding with for many years, and will certainly be replete his exertions and unrelaxing efforts to keep fluence in fixing the destiny of the Republic pace with the rapid progress of the improvefor years to come. Immediately preceeding, as it does, the next Presidential election, and Ornamental Letters of entirely new and containing the leading minds of all the conwhole drama will be faithfully exhibited in the

of Congress, and we expect to obtain an ade quate reinforcement of capable persons in the be furn shed appropriately ENGRAVED other, py the time it meets, to fulfil our own TITLE PAGES, and a general Table of wishes and the expectations of the Members. Contents for each Volume. February, April, No pains or cost on our part will be spared to June, August, October, December, regularly, and be made permanent, authentic, and therefore highly useful, all who take an in TERMS.

APPENDIX.—Same price. Payment may be made by mail, postage ly added-with two Pages of POPULAR will give the above advertisement a few inser- paid, at our risk. The notes of any specie- MUSIC. W- No attention will be paid to any order, unless the money accompany it, or unless some ; responsible person, known to us to be so, shall agree to pay it before the Session expires. BLAIR & RIVES. WASHINGTON CITY, October 14, 1835.

American Magazine OF USEFUL

ENTERTAINING KNOWLEDGE. VOL. II.

No. 47, Court Street. the instruments they possess are the best they ty or forty years in his study;—nor to lay open liquidation of the whole amount due becomes or live and move. We leave such extraor-In all the departments, the most competent dinary feats to those who are more visionary, teachers are engaged, whose instructions are or more daring than we, are. But we hope ly unimportant to literary men. We consid- Campbell, Roscoe, Southey, &c. er the whole United States as onr field, though of persons of taste and science, to commun cate important facts, and natural scenes, an As republicans, we feel that we are of the and good learning, we wish also to be considered of the same family. If we can do any eight large octavo pages, printed on fine white thing by our labours to increase and strength ready to the good work." We should call the attention of our present encouragement. N. B. None need apply Subscribers missing a number, will please PRINTING Neatly executed at this Office.

MIPORIUM OF FASHION.

to inform them that he has just returned from formerly occupied by Samuel Mackey, Esq., next door to Messrs Wilson & Taylor's, and directly opposite to the Court House.

She presents her compliments to the Ladies of Talbot and the adjacent counties, and acshe has just returned from Baltimore, with a

Assortment of Millinery,

N. B. A few boarders by the week month year can be accommodated. Nov. 14

SIXTH YEAR OF THE THE LADY'S BOOK. A MONTHLY MAGAZINE. OF LITERATURE, FASHIONS AND

PORTRAITS. The LADY'S BOOK was the first public. cation in this country to introduce and perfect a taste for COLORED PLATES OF THE FASHIONS; and the universal popularity volumes, to introduce alternately every month. in the course of the year, SIX SPLENDID PLATES OF THE FASHIONS, SU-PERBLY COLOURED. The engavings will be copied from original designs, preparsd expressly for that purpose; therby furnishing the patrons of the work with correct and constant information of the latest and most approved styles for ladies' dresses, as they come out. This arrangement will add considerably to the publisher's present heavy outlays; and while it will materially advance the value and beauty of his work, he trusts with nfidence to the liberality of a discerning pubments of the age. The following is the order which will be adopted for the Embellishments of the Lady's Book for 1835, viz: January, March, May, July, September, November, SUPERB ENGRAVINGS.

OF THE PREVAILING FASHIONS

ELEGANTLY COLORED. With the June and December numbers will.

accomplish it. As the work will be continued FINE STEELENGRA-VINGS.

terest in the political affairs of the county will Illustrating a variety of Interesting Sub-Besides every number will be enriched with a Plate from the PORTRAIT GALLEdit on the most approved security. Orders Cong. Globe.—1 copy during the Session. 21 00 RY, containing the Likenesses of two distinctions the country promptly attended to.—All Do. do. 11 copies during the Session, 21 00 guished individuals. In addition to which, other and various Engravings will be regular-

The publisher has at present in the hands of an exectiont artist a steel Engraving, which will contain a likeness of all the present reign ing Queens of Europe, which will be given as an extra in the January No. To meet these expensive engagements, it is absolutely necessary that remittances should be promptly made. At the end of the last six months, nearly six hundred names were erased from our list, in consequence of its appearing from the books that each owed two years' subscription. Many have since paid, and some had previously settled with agents. These and other grievous inconveniences a publisher has to encounter, which should, as far as the Agent is concerned, be remedied by his rendering an Published by the Boston Bewick Company account of all the sums that he has received, at least one every six months. Subscribers become annoyed when their names are erased for delin-The Publishers are encouraged by the flat- quency, & when they settle, they will not again tering reception and extensive circulation of renew their subscription. This, consequently, al Apparatus is equal to any that can be found the Magazine for the year past, to prosecute is a serious loss to the proprietor. The folthe work with renewed assiduity and with lowing suggestions are respectfully tendered and marsh, and the balance in wood. The im- be publishished in Weekly numbers, of flity books of the school. Their Cabinet of Min- stick to our text;" and to serve those who that will cwe two in December or June next, a constant desire to fulfil the promises made for the consideration of persons who are now

> GALLERY OF PORTRAITS.—Under this head will be published every month, likenesses of distinguished Authors in this country and in Europe. Striking resemblances o Bulwer, Brougham, Hogg, Cunningham, &c. &c. have been given. The following are now and intend to keep up the character and spirit ready for press, and will be published two in

> Fac similes of the writing of Washington, not our's exclusively; and we ask the favour Jesterson, Madison, Monroe, Adams, Byron Scott, and other distinguished persons, have already appeared. Those of Napoleon, Frankworks of art, for the benefit of all our friends. | lin, La Fayette, &c. &c. are in preparation. The publication of views of beautiful scenery and remarkable public edifices, will be con-

> > Every number of the work contains forty-paper, the whole neatly stitched in covers. en this sentiment and feeling, "we should be The postage for each number is 3 cents for any distance under 100 miles-5 cents, over. To convince persons wishing to subscribe for in dollars millions of millions. Tracts; St. Bonaventure's Life of Christ; has taken and fitted up the above named house, subject It is very important to us to know and general heauty of appearance, to the des-

AGENT, publisher will forward any monthly number as a specimen, by sending him a letter, post Counties or districts, will meet with liberal Charleston-In New Orleans about the 5th.

Of-The Postage on this Magazine as established by law, is 4 1-2 cts. for 100 miles—any distance over, 7 1-2 cts.

Inform the publisher, free of postage, and a duplicate will be sent them.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION, 3 dollars per appure control of the publisher, free of postage, and a duplicate will be sent them. per annum, payable in advance. Postmasters and Agents can have two copies forwarded to any direction, by advancing five dollars.