of this place and Johnson, in the opport to uphold those principles with unabated ener- feeling did not prevail in his own colle, tunity which they had of interchanging senti- gy, you have done me nothing but justice. | the people have a singular mode of the ments. For our own part, it is well known to I sincerely thank you for the hospitable their attachment for the favourite son (1) our readers that we have ever been one of the welcome you have given me. I assure you I am state. The favourile sons of states and warmest admirers of this brave soldier and not insensible to this proof of your kindness, ally elected by the people to some distribution the contrary, he promises that the principles dered, that when the House a ljourned contess our good opinion of him has been beigh- visited your place. Then it was a prosperous of Gen. Harrison by the people of the tened by his recent visit—affording as it did, village—now I find it a large and flourishing to any station, either high or low. The state, zeal on his part. the first opportunity in our life to become per- city-a great emporium of arts, manufactures filled a seat in the Schate of the Unite actor held so high a place in our estimation, suburbs, of forty thousand inhabitants. The readers all know, was not given to him feet 9 or 10 inches in height, and denoting in been marked out by the hand of nature as a it is that they should have overlooked trange his looks much boldness and intelligence. A connecting link between the eastern and wes- markably the merits of the favourite se to reremark made in our hearing by an honest tern limits of our great confederacy. Mechan-state. He now fills the place of country and intelligent farmer, who was one of the ma- ical invention and the labor of man bave We should expect to see the favourier ny that visited him during his stay, describes strengthened with ten-fold capacity that posi- the state filling a higher station. W

aside to his friend and neighbor and remarked, country is under the deepest obligations to all those circumstances, and although Well, if nature has not written honesty and you for the skill of your artizans and mechanics. represented as competent to fill the Col. Johnson's whole appearance is strongly speed of growth the valley of the Mississippi the Presidency, but he was not the inc occupying a very prominent position in the arks which bear to the Ocean the rich products was chosen, and yet we are told that an noble, brave and generous. - In the other, the will prevent me from accepting your kin equally distinguished statesman, --defending vitation to a public dinner. his country—and the cause of democracy and equal rights, against its subtle and malignant lost to those sentiments which should warm awful occurrence, which has cast a gloom over to mark how completely changed is of fail. and animate the bosom of American ctizens, our Car. Yesterday morning it was reported position, from that which they assume their did they not by some public mark indicate the that the Steam Boat Oglethorpe, Capt. Lewis, nally to occupy. They told us that the origin From the New York Mercantile Advertiser of esteem and high regard which they entertain owned by Mr. Wm. Duncan and Messrs. be no Opposition candidate—that for one whose whole life has been distinguished Harpes of this City and Augusta, had burst would be between two members of contest of liberty.

PITTSBURG, Nov. 28th, 1835. Hon. R. M. Johnson,

Athough our country now enjoys peace and stopped to receive a supply of wood—and, disline and has assumed that around stand tressing to relate, was not only rendered there. Congress, and pledged themselve.

In any producty now enjoys peace and stopped to receive a supply of wood—and, disline form, and producty now enjoys peace and stopped to receive a supply of wood—and, disline form, and producty now enjoys peace and stopped to receive a supply of wood—and, disline form, and producty now enjoys peace and stopped to receive a supply of wood—and, disline form, and producty now enjoys peace and stopped to receive a supply of wood—and, disline form, and producty now enjoys peace and stopped to receive a supply of wood—and, disline form, and producty now enjoys peace and stopped to receive a supply of wood—and, disline form, and producty now enjoys peace and stopped to receive a supply of wood—and, disline form, and producty now enjoys peace and stopped to receive a supply of wood—and, disline form, and producty now enjoys peace and stopped to receive and the line form, and producty now enjoys peace and stopped to receive and stopped to receive a supply of wood—and, disline form, and producty now enjoys peace and stopped to receive a supply of the line form, and producty now enjoys peace and stopped to receive a supply of the line form, and producty now enjoys peace and stopped to receive a supply of the line form, and producty now enjoys peace and the line form, and producty now enjoys peace and the line form, and producty now enjoys peace and the line form, and producty now enjoys peace and the line form, and producty now enjoys peace and the line form, and producty now enjoys peace and the line form, and producty now enjoys peace and the line form, of the time when she was beset by foes from all 4 white men and two of the hands They are for Judge White first, as a backson tween France and the U. States. without and distracted and weakened by ene- colored. Tho rest five or six in number, were candidate.—but not for him if there were mies within; nor can we ever cease to remem- more or less injured by the explosion. As this danger thereby of defeating a popular lection. ber with gratitude the man who then perilled melancholy accident occured about twenty Now there are two Opposition candidates this life in her cause which the American Republic is not, and we the Engineers, who were first rate men, it is friends as aiding them, so to distract the Prince Georges, as I intimuted in my last, Phe papers are exceedingly barren of news

They still recollect the privations endured and Boat. Savannah Geo. the wounds received by you in that memorable campaign—the battle which followed—the GEORGIA.—Both branches of the Legis- Northern Whigs.

to assure you that the liberal and enlightened | The exercise of the veto power by the Pres- | who have an interest in such matters.

times a your convenience may suggest. Very respectfully, &c. John Gallagher, James Patterson, &c.

Pittsburgh, Nov. 28, 1835. ceived, tendering me, in behalf of the citizens occasioned. The States which formerly look- I It affords us much pleasure, to announce, of Pittsburgh, a public entertainment, as a ed to Congress for the means necessary to that the Hon. Robert H. Goldsborough, testimonial of regard for my-civil and military carry on their improvements, now seek them United States Senator from Maryland, has conservices. If any thing could enhance the val- from other sources, and are progressing with sented to deliver an Oration, before the associkindness of manner with which it has been in States where they were then but little of St. John's College, at the next annual It approves, in strong terms, of the system of

to take of the public acts of my past life, calls of works of great national importance. This College; and, from the numbers of the class to jected. It contains some judicious suggestions of the some public acts of my past life, calls of works of great national importance. This College; and, from the numbers of the class to jected. It contains some judicious suggestions of the November, makes the following remarks:— July for the fullest expression of my gratitude. It is as it ought to be. The States should stiend be graduated, and the prospects opened, by the in regard to a revision of the education law al Flag, and in common with the great mass sources for the means necessary for the accom- occasion will, doubtless, be full of interest. - suggests the propriety of legislation to res When repeated injury left no alternative but rally apply them to better purposes, and to the war, I telt it to be my imperious duty to vote securing of greater general advantages. - Bott. for that declaration, which was to repel the Rep. deriously efface the rememberance of Nationa

The very first stages of the war were those day.) at Taylor & McNeal's New Build suffering and disaster. It was then that I at the corner of Pratt street and Buchar in the Stage. The invitation to a it was my constant aim to embody in our. The editor of the New York ere hard M. Johnson, and strongthen those barriers which have been we are at a loss to imagine. There is this wisely thrown around the rights of conscience, nothing in any measures which eneral feeling of friendship toward him that and to protect the freedom of both political and adopted by that state, or in the indids of the republicans of this city and religious opinions. My creed always has been the feelings of the people of that state vicinity flocked to see him, and got a friendly that government was instituted for the benfit ing him, that would lead to the conclugrasp of the hands, that had lought so va- of the many and not for the few-that merit he is regarded as such in Ohio. When liantly in their defence. We do not recollect was the only true basis of distinction, and that a few years since, a candidate for a s to have ever witnessed more cordial good feel- the public power should be used equally for Legislature, he was deteated by a you ing and union of heart and sentiment, than the protection of every class and denomination who was but little known to the pa semed to exist amongst the plain republicans of citizens. If you meant that I have labored if he was the favourite son of the s virtuous and talented statesman; but we freely It is now upwards of twenty-two years since A stations; but we have never heard of the t, and shaking hands with him, he torned and steam havigation. The whole western filling the lowest places. But notwite never marked any person's character in his alone added a tremendous power to the agents, serted that he is the fovourite son of Of it as of patronage. face!" The farmer's expression was just, of nature, and accelerated with a prodigious candidate has been nominated in that and indicative of the honest man. As he is now while your architects excel in floating these selected. Judge McLean was the nividual agency here for it and the Vade Mecum. public eye, we shall at some day, not distant, of your soil and the fruits of your industry. Harrison is the favourite son of Ohigeneral Luke Tiernan, Esquire, of Ba present a short biographical sketch of his life. I sincerely trust that you will not be content suspect that the same means have be and services. For the present, suffice it to say, with this temporal great ness alone, but that ployed to transfer mine the companies of the people look upon him as one who in you will cherish the higher ambition of per- of Ohio, which have been made as a hard all his actions has had the broad cause of hu- petuating freedom in the land by holding these purpose of converting him into a hero manity and philantrophy nearest to his heart. rich bequests of providence as an inheritance Van Buren is charged with possessing -Whether in the field or in the legislative to the present generation and generations yet per hall his character appears equally praisewor- unborn. I regret that an immediate attent to make of Gen. Harrison either a her ability thy. In the one he is the patriot soldier- dance to my duties as Member of Congress With sentiments of > Great respect and esteen To Messrs. Gallagher, and others.

Dear Sir—The undersigned learning your arrival in their city, feel that they would be We have the painful task of announcing an White party from the beginning, can of the acted upon.—Nat. Intel.

miles above our City, we are unable at this openly in the field-Harrison and Webster-Ingratitude has been said to be the vice of time to state the particulars more fully, but one certainly, perhaps both, will be on. The republics—it is a vice, however, sir, with the report is too painfully true. The bodies of friends of both speak of Judge White and his morning. Benjamin L. Gantt. Esq. of fondly hope never will be chargeable. The said in their profession, were discovered after party of the Administration as to enable them is Speaker. The result of the American FOR THE YEAR OF OUR LORD. people of the United States are noble and the explosion on the wreck. The other bodies to get their leader into Congress for chance generous, and are ever ready to reward are missing. The Cotton on the tow boats, there, and Judge White's friends hersist in and honor merit whether displayed in moored to the Oglethorpe, it is stated, took fire holding them up, upon grounds adverse to the the tented field, or in the Legislative Hall. and was partially consumed, bofore the flames Jackson party, for the purpose of forcing or ten the bravery and chivalry exhibited by you - the distressing loss of human life, but cannot Congress,—and with the hope to force its ly. during the last war. They still recollect the refrain from adding our sympathy for the loss adversaries there to e ect the Judge; a hope death of an artful and sanguinary Indian Chief- lature have passed a bill providing for the contain by your own hand-acts, the bold daring struction of a Rail Road from Savannah to of which have honored your name with the Macou, and at the date of the last accounts it imperishable title of "Hero of the Thames" only required the signature of the Governor to be high, the suggestion below, from the We would also embrace the present occasion will no doubt sign it.

Philadelphia Gazette may be of value to those policy advocated by you during the long peri- ident has almost put an end to applications to od you have occupied your present distinguish- | Congress for appropriations of the public mo- | city occasioned by the width of the opening in ed station in the National Legislature, has been ney towards works of internal improvement: our grates, by which a large portion of the such as to demand our highest commends- but instead of retarding the construction of heat escapes up the chimney. The ion.

The undersigned would, therefore, in behalf promote them. It has put an end to the con- the draft, after the fire is ignited. A si of the Democratic citizens of Pittsburgh, and lentions and heartburnings which such appro- bar of iron will answer the purpose of diminits vicinity, as a testimonial of their regard, priations formerly produced both in and out of ishing the aperture, and any one who will invite you to partake of a public dinner at such | Congress. The States have themselves taken | take the trouble of trying the experiment will respectively. up the business, rely upon their own resources | be astonished at the additional heat thrown out for carying on the works, and they are planned into room by one of ordinary thickness. and prosecuted with greater zeal and industry, speak from experience. A bar of from that than they probably would have been had the will cost 25 cents, will produce twenty per old practice of contributing to them from the cent more heat." national treasury been persisted in; and with-Gentlemen -- Your letter has just been re- out producing that contention which was then ue of this Civility, it would be the unbounded them more rapidly than they then were; and late Alumni, and the other Literary Societies message to both branches of the Legisla thought of, we witness a display of the spirit commencement, February 22d, 1836. The internal improvement, and recommends a zeal rupture is a hand.

The flattering notice you have been pleased of emulation which has led to the construction. Exercises will be held in the Hall of the Old our perseverance in the schemes already prois true I was in Congress when those daring to those matters for themselves, and when they completion of the new and splendid edifice the State; reprobates, in terms of outrages and insults were offered to our Nation- are compelled to depend upon their own re- that has been erected during the past year, the ty, the wicked conduct of the abolitionists of my fellow citizens I deeply resented them. plishment of what is desired, they will natu- Annapolis Republican.

sought of the field. I did not belong to the whart, between Gay and Frederick streets, ble or digestable.—But we rather suspect ofession of arms, and was no soldier by ed- which have been hired for the express purpor ucation, But bonored with a public trust in of exhibiting to the citizens of Baltimore these | Knickerbockers will prepare for him a dish, extreme peril and alarm by a most extraordinary spicimens of the agricultual promy and patriotic District, I should not duction and domestic manufactures of our ambition. The last election in the considered myself worthy of such high country. The largest one, weighing 1400 lbs. ence had I not been equally ready with is to be presented to the President of the United be .- Ball. Rep. fellow citizens in sustain in person a war States; at is elegantly inscribed with patrioti which I had given my vote. My services, sentiments. The penmanship is executed in a erefore, as well as those of my valiant asso- masterly style, which does honour to the wri

> One weighing 750 lbs., to be presented There is also one, weighing 750 lbs., inscri-

FAVOURITE SON OF with his reply will be legislative code and carry into practical detail calls Gen. Harrison the favourite sa There is no man in our whole the great principles established by our revolu- By what means he has been enabled nsidered more emphatically a man tion. I have endeavored in my humble way to that the General is the favourite a > wers but we very much doubt his magic wourtte son of Ohio; and if the friends or the General are able to do either, they not reater magicans than the magician linst ! We strongly suspect, however, that the imself. al is about as much a hero and the fave thenerthe king of Isrnel.

From the Mobile Register.

ministration foresaw and foretold-the White party are in effect the most useful allies of the ECONOMY OF FUEL.—As the season Philadelphia Gazette may be of value to those There is a productious waste of coal in this

ST. JOHN'S COLLEGE.

DYSPEPTIC.—Mr. Webster on his way making cities, counties and incorporated towns to Washington, dined at New York, with the responsible to the individual sufferers in full St. Nichotas Society, upon such queer things as the following:—"Supaan en Melk, Rooleties, Kult, Koof Slau, heet and koud, Gefruyt Pens, Olt-koekjees, &c." We know not whether he found these Dutch dishes palatathat before this time a twelve-month, the centleman who attempted in his carriage to of the United States, by Mr. Donelson, his papers, respecting the affairs of pass to the right of a four horse team shead Secretary, covering a communication from the country.—Parliament has been of him, and was prevented from so doing, the Secretary of State, in relation to a bequest by the 10th of November to the

The subscriber in announcing his connexion ect- with this Press, does not deem it requisite that make any avowal of what may be the course consent, and adopted. the he will pursue, believing the manner in which man it has been conducted, solely by him for two and months past, sufficient evidence of his views HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVE Lying the original and avowed course of the "Whig" presentatives from Missis ction it professes and defends shall find no lack of adjourned to meet on Monday next.

THE SALMAGUNDI. We call the attention of our readers to the condition of the Banks of the District. we call the attention of our readers to the do not a state anding he is paper of the above title. It is a remarkable he is paper of the above title. It is a remarkable nay be presented to the present Congress prayer looking then by an admirable system of roads, canals, expect to see the greatest favourites of do not prospectus of the enterprising publishers of the manliness on that man's countenance—it has You have by your manufactures of machinery | Chief Magistrate of the nation, we be like of cheap and humorous publication and worthy

The publisher would do well to establish an the establishment of any other Bunk or b

THE RESIDENCE OF LINE PURISHERS AND COMMENTS OF THE

THOS. C. NICOLS has been appointed the Court of Appeals of the Eastern & vice Parrott resigned.

We learn that Roger B. Taney, of Mary of Ohio, as the editor of the N. York rite son land, was on Menday last nominated to Star is | Chief Justice of the United States, and Phillip P. Barbour, of Virginia, to be an associa Judge of the Supreme Court. Neither of these nominations has yet been

Letters from France by the Silvie de by the most unreserved devotion to the cause her boilers, on Tuesday evening last, while at party, that is friendly to the Admi same Grasse, state that Mr. Barton had received his the wharf at Purysburg, where she had been Gen. Jackson, -and in this St ion of passports, but could not leave Brance till Athough our country now enjoys peace and stopped to receive a supply of wood—and, dis
On the 16th, and probably not till the 24th took part.

Mr. KINNARO moved further to amend,

> MARYLAND LEGISLATURE. ANNAPOLIS, Dec. 29, 1835. The House of Delegates was organized this Quino, Door Keeper.

A committee was appointed to wait upon the On motion, the House then adjourned.

this morning, and the Senate was organized by of Charles, as President.

Andrew Slicer and Henry Peaco were re-appointed Messenger and Door-keeper, respec-

The Senate then adjourned. It is expected that the Governor's Mes will be read in both Houses to-morrow."

Annapolis, Dec. 30, 1835. The governor to-day transmitted his a cation, and recommends the passage of a Monday, December 21. THE UNIVERSELY.

In a late suit in Delaware, brought by a A message was received from the President There is nothing of mo camster was fined $20, and imprisoned three the late James Smithson, Esq. of London, for ber. It will again be or a literary Establishment in the District of Co- time in February. Gold and site

On motion of Mr. WEBSTER, the Mes. English money used sage, and accompanying documents, were laid. The House on the table.

Mr. W. made a few appropriate remarks bringing the most powerful emblem of on the subject of the Resolution, stating the religion to operate directly upon the free fire to be the most disastrous which had ever or upon the leading questions of the day; shil that Messrs. CLAIBORN and DIXON, re- 60 horses for the Que in of Spain. their is not effected in the least by the change, but On motion of Mr. TURRILL, it was or-

Its independent and feurless course will prohibiting the use of the Hall, on the Sal sonally acquainted with one whose public char- and commerce, with a population including the from that state, but the appointment be maintained with renewed efforts—and its bath, as a place of worship. Col. Johnson in appearance, is a plain man be. site, an important one—the head of thirty thoutween fifty and sixty years of age, about 5 sand miles of navigable waters, seems to have elected him to any office. How very have > ing for an extension of the charters of the existing Banks in said District of Columbia, in their stead; and to examine into the con-of the currency of said District, to inspec-city said Banks, ascertain whether their charters abuses or mal-practices have existed in their management—to send for persons and papers, to examine witnesses on oath, and to an clerk to record their proceedings.

Mr. BOULDIN withdrew his motion end the instructions, by limiting the time itt in which the report should be made. The House having refused to refer the ion of the Banks to the Committee on the trict, the anestion recurred on the reference he whole subject to a Select Committee Mr. Mck ENNON moved an amendo the Government.

long and unimportant debate ensued, Messis. McKennon, Beardsley, Thomas, of prove equally satisfactory to both sides. Md., Howard, Adams, of Mass., Cambreleng. Mason, Grennell, Sheppard and Wardwell

Upon this motion and the general subject, a veto of the U.S. Bank charter. The debate was still in progress at half pas

> FOREIGN NEWS. FRANCE.

question, the following paragraph is from the Temps, of Nov. 3:--

"It was confidently reported yesterday, that George G. Brewer and Eli Duvall were re- the charge d'affairs of the United States bad, is The citizens of Pittsburgh have not forgot sould be arrested. We have stated the worst helping its adversaries to force the election into elected Chief and Assistant Clerks, respective- compliance with the orders of his government demanded his passports, and was to our Benjamin Seegar, Joseph C., Talbot, Sam- | Paris within two or three days. Mr. Barton gallant regiment of mounted volunteers of sustained by the enterprising owners, which there is no possibility can ever be ac- uel W. Lucas, Jessee D. Ried, and Peter L. was going to set out for Havre, to embark on which you were the commander-its rapid we trust is not very great, as insurance was, complished. Under this change of position-a Owens were elected Communities Clerks. | hoard the ship Poland, when an unexpected march to the defence of our unprotected frontier. we are informed, effected in New York on the change which most of the ad- An order was adopted re-appointing Gotteib [incident retarded his departure for a few days.] Grammer, Sargeant at Arms, and John We know not whether this delay be owing to new instructions received by him, or whether It was then resolved that the rules and regus our ministry has made concessions to the JANUARY lations of the last House should continue to be diplomatist. Notwithstanding these facts, we the rules and regulations for the government would not consider the departure of Mr. promises to be severe, and the price of the present House, until altered or rescind. Barton to be the signal of rupture. It is an

The following is an extract from the private Revd. Mr. Poisal, and request his services as correspondence of one of the London papers. Chaplain during the session.

The letter is dated Paris, Wednesday after-A quorum appeared in the Senate Chamb J The state of the American question begin to excite a good deal of ill-disguised anxiety the re-election of the Hon. John G. Chapman, among the friends of the government. It is Joseph H. Nicholson and John N. Watkins of the United States, has within these few days. were re-elected Chief and Assistant Clerks, been making preparations for his return to nerica, in anticipation of the measures he expects to be taken at Washington, equivalent APRIL to an order for his recall, if they be not such as to provoke the French government to send him out of the country. Mr. Barton is the son-in-law of Mr. Livingston, who was dealt with so cavalierly at the time of the late dis- MAY cussion in the Chamber of Deputies. His family has already test him for the United States, so that he remains en garcon, ready to ask his passports and take his leave at a moment's notice and I may add, that among well JUNE informed Americans in this country, the opin-

in the fill Movember, when it was agreed that a subscription should be opened for mone to purchase whilike stores and supplies for th The Lord Lynedoch sailed from Spithead m the 2d of November, with 120 recruits and

LAPER FROM EUROPE.

IMPORTANT. New York, December 25th. The London packet ship WESTMINSTER, Capt. MOONE, arrived yesterday, having sailed from Ports The latest dates, says the Courier, are of the evening of the 11th November from On the 9th positive intelligence was publish-The House resumed the consideration, of the ed in London, from Paris, of the demand man owing resolution offered by Mr. THOMAS. by Mr. BARTON on the French Ministers. with the information we have, on previous occasions, laid before the public, Mr. Barton will no doubt arrive here in the packet of the 116th, and we state it as equally certain, that on his arrival M. Pageot will quit our

ADMIRAL DE RIGNY, one of the members of the last cabinet of Louis Phillippe, and his most devoted adherent, died in Paris early in lovember. The Duke of Orleans is in A1and giers, and it appears will take a prominent per of part in the military expedition against the > PARIS, NOV. Mr. Barton, who has hitherto performed the Junctions of Charge d'Affairs of the United States, at Paris, decidedly leaves this city. Monday. It is said to be in consequence of the refusal of M. de Broglie to give a satisfactor answer to three proposals which he was commissioned to make to him on the part of the government -- Messager.

The Constitution does not consider the step Haken by Mr. Barton as indicative of an approaching rupture. It observes that the consul ent for the United States is to remain at Paris to equiring the Committee to enquire and report | keep up, as beretofore, the Commercial relawhat loans have been made to Members of tions with France. It seems, in fact, that lit Congress or officers of the Government, by the or no uneasiness prevails in any part of the Bank of the Metropolis, in this city since France about a risk of a war with the United that Bank became a depository of the lunds of States, and this probably is because there exists a strong impression that no means will be lest untried to avoid a rupture, and that some mode of adjustment will be devised which may

The fact of Mr. Barton, the U.S. Charge d' Affairs at Paris, having demanded his passports of the French government is mentioned in all the papers save the ministerial organ. The Temps states that Mr. Barton made h art of pance the passports were delivered on Saturday, and the Charge d' Affairs was to juit Paris on Monday .- The Temps, nevertheless, expresses its confidence that matters will end in an amicable adjustment.

CALENDAR

Being Leap Year, and the Sixtieth Year of American Independence. 23 24 25 26 2