HIGHLY IMPORTANT TO ALL PERSONS AFFLICTED.

TED.

A Certain Cure for Dyspepsia, Liver, Bilious, and Nervous Complaints; Jaundice, General Delight, Lowness of Spirits; and Diseases incident to Females:

DR. LOCKWARD'S
Celebrated Vegetable
Anti-Dyspeptic Elixir.

Symptoms of Dyspepsia.

The first symptoms of this disease is a disengagement of food, producing pain and uneasiness at the region of the stomach; fullness of that organ; belching of wind, with sour, oily, or putrescent eructations; pain and tenderness at the pit of the stomach; pain in the right side, extending after to the right shoulder, and under the shoulder-blade; the same kind of pain is very often experienced in the left side, especially often in lying on the right or left side; pain also often in the small of the back, pain and giddiness of the head; dimness of the sight; coated tongue; disagreeable taste in the mouth in the morning after rising; coldness.

This Medicine acts as a gentle purge, by which all foul humors are removed from the system; at the same time it restores the lost energy of the Liver, Spleen, and Pancreas—and will be found singularly efficacious in diseases of the Kidneys. As a family medicine none will be found cheaper or to answer a better purpose, and being composed entirely of vegetable matter is perfectly innocent, which renders it more valuable.

As a certain remedy or cure for the above disease this medicine stands incomparably beyond any other now in use. And as nothing more could be requisite to convince the most sceptical of its utility, than the numberless testimonies which have been given in its favor, therefore, those testimonials will speak for it more than all encomiums which could be pronounced. Wherever it has been used, it has invariably been attended with complete success, and that too, in hundreds of cases, where apparently all hopes of cure have been despaired of. It was by this important discovery that the proprietor of the above Medicine, was in a few months, restored to perfect health, after years of the most distressing suffering, and after being abandoned by the profession to die without any hope of relief. Since which, hundreds, perhaps thousands, have in a like manner been restored from beds of sickness to perfect health.

DR. LOCKWARD'S—Sir I have made use of your valuable Medicine for the Dyspepsia and Liver Complaints, both of which diseases I have labored under for about three years—I have tried a great many medicines, but all to no effect—I was induced to give you a trial, and much to my astonishment & that of my friends, I was in a short space of time completely relieved of my disease. My symptoms, when I first commenced using your medicine, were, a following:—After eating my food I fel great distress at the pit of my stomach, with heatburn, sourness and vomiting of food, great tenderness at the pit of the stomach, accompanied with an acute pain in the right side, extending to the top of the shoulder, connected with this pain, was a prominent enlargement in my right side, pronounced by my physician "an enlargement of the liver." My appetite was variable, sometimes very good, at others complete loss—abdomen obstinately costive. My head very much affected with giddiness and pain; my eye-sight was also affected with dimness; I was also much infatuated in flesh, and suffered extremely from nervous feelings; sometimes I imagined that a few hours would close my existence; I was disposed to feel constantly cold (especially my feet and hands,) in the warmest days in summer. Thus I suffered until life was to me almost a burthen, when, hearing of your medicine I was prevailed upon to make use of it, and contrary to my expectation and the expectation of my friends, I was in a few months restored to perfect health, which I still continue to enjoy. Any person desirous of knowing the particulars of my case, by calling upon me, in the Bazaar, Harrison street, I will give the details both as to disease and cure.

Yours, with respect,
JACOB D. HAIR.

The following as to the standing of the above named gentleman, is from his Honor John Hunt, late Mayor of Baltimore:

"I hereby certify, that Jacob D. Hair, is personally known to me as a gentleman of first respectability and standing in the city of Baltimore."

JESSE HUNT,
Mayor of the City of Baltimore.

SIXTH YEAR OF THE THE LADY'S BOOK.
A MONTHLY MAGAZINE.
OF LITERATURE, FASHIONS AND PORTRAITS.

The LADY'S BOOK was the first publication in this country to introduce and perfect a taste for COLORED PLATES OF THE FASHIONS; and the universal popularity which the book obtained, with the aid of these beautiful and costly embellishments, although they appeared every quarter only, was unprecedented and unexampled.—The publisher, emboldened by his long experience, and the success which has crowned his former efforts to signalize his work, intends, with the coming volumes, to increase alternately every month in the course of the year, SIX SPLENDID PLATES OF THE FASHIONS, SUPERBLY COLOURED. The engravings will be copied from original designs, prepared expressly for that purpose; thereby furnishing the patrons of the work with correct and constant information of the latest and most approved styles for ladies' dresses, as they come out. This arrangement will add considerably to the publisher's present heavy outlays; and while it will materially advance the value and beauty of his work, he trusts with confidence to the liberality of a discerning public for future remuneration, corresponding with his exertions and unremitting efforts to keep pace with the rapid progress of the improvements of the age. The following is the order which will be adopted for the Embellishments of the Lady's Book for 1835, viz.: January, March, May, July, September, November, SUPERB ENGRAVINGS. OF THE PREVAILING FASHIONS ELEGANTLY COLORED.

With the June and December numbers will be furnished appropriately ENGRAVED TITLE PAGES, and a general Table of Contents for each Volume. February, April, June, August, October, December.

FINE STEELE ENGRAVINGS.

Illustrating a variety of interesting subjects.

Besides every number will be enriched with a Plate from the PORTRAIT GALLERY, containing the Likenesses of two distinguished individuals. In addition to which, other various Engravings will be regularly added—with two Pages of POPULAR MUSIC.

The publisher has at present in the hands of an excellent artist a steel Engraving, which will contain a likeness of all the present reigning Queens of Europe, which will be given as an extra in the January No.

To meet these expensive engagements, it is absolutely necessary that remittances should be promptly made. At the end of the last six months, nearly six hundred names were erased from our list, in consequence of its appearing from the books that each owed two years' subscription. Many have since paid, and some have been settled with agents. These put us in a position to continue taking the Magazine, and to receive the very small sum charged for it in advance. GEO. G. SMITH.

American Magazine OF USEFUL
AND ENTERTAINING KNOWLEDGE.

Published by the Boston Bewick Company—

No. 47, Court Street.

The Publishers are encouraged by the flattering reception and extensive circulation of the Magazine for the year past, to prosecute the work with renewed assiduity, and with a constant desire to fulfill the promises made in the outset of the work. We intend "to stick to our text," and to serve those who have so liberally cheered us with their kind patronage, with what is useful and pleasant. Little or nothing shall still be our object and aim. We do not presume to instruct the veteran and erudit scholar, who has spent thirty or forty years in his study; nor to lay open those hidden mysteries of nature which have escaped the ken of the most inquisitive. Nor do we expect to approach so near to the moon or other planets, as to tell what are the trees, the birds, and animals which may there grow or live and move. We have such extraordinary gifts to those who are more visionary or more daring than we are. But we hope and intend to keep up the character and spirit of the Magazine in presenting solid and useful articles, which may be instructive to a portion of our readers, and not considered wholly unimportant to literary men. We consider the whole United States as our field, though not our exclusively; and we ask the favors of persons of taste and science, to communicate important facts, and natural scenes, and works of art, for the benefit of all our friends. As republicans, we feel that we are of one same family as those in the south and west—as friends of improvement, of good morals and good learning, we wish also to be considered of the same family. If we can do anything by our labors to increase and strengthen the sentiment and feeling, "we should be ready to the good work."

We should call the attention of our present subscribers to the terms of the magazine, and to the notice in the last number relating to the subject. It is very important to us to know who propose to continue taking the Magazine, and to receive the very small sum charged for it in advance.

PROSPECTUS

FOR A NEW VOLUME OF THE "YOUNG MEN'S PAPER" TO BE CALLED
"THE BALTIMORE ATHENAEUM"

AND YOUNG MEN'S PAPER.

Published under the auspices of the Baltimore Young Men's Society.

The publishers of the "Young Men's Paper," encouraged by the liberal patronage extended towards them during the first year, have determined to enlarge and greatly improve their paper on the commencement of the second volume, so as to render it every way creditable to the city, and worthy of much more extensive circulation.

It was established was considered, even by its best friends, as but a doubtful experiment; and though all approved of the high stand that was taken, but few thought it would live over the first few months, or else that it would dwindle into a publication less dignified in character, and disgraced merely for a money making scheme,—from this cause many stood aloof, unwilling to encourage what it was believed would soon languish and die, or deviate in course from its original profession; these fears have, however, been indulged in vain, and the "Young Men's Paper" is now in the way of permanent establishment.

The publishers have been induced to adopt the new title of

in consideration of its being less vague in generalization than the old one. Every person has a peculiar idea of his own, as to what a "Young Men's Paper" should be, and the publishers have experienced enough of the perplexities incident to the pecularities of the name, to determine them to fix upon one less liable to so many objections. The publication is purely literary, and only as such do they wish it to be judged.

CONTENTS.—The "ATHENAEUM" will contain Original Tales, Essays and Poetry—Intelligence on Scientific Subjects—Notices of Passing Events—Criticisms on American Works—Notices of New Publications—Choice Selections from New Works—Sketches of American and European Scenery and Character—Extracts from British and American Magazines—Essays—Political and Moral Philosophy—Biographical Notices of Distinguished Individuals at home and abroad—beside a great variety of matter upon every subject in the whole range of literature.

The publishers will still adhere to their original intention of making the "ATHENAEUM" such a paper as shall be worthy of admission into any circle of society, rightly excluding every thing from its columns calculated to injure the moral character, or foster a vitiated taste, nor in doing this will they neglect the popular tone or spirit, and as guarantee will simply refer to the contents of the first volume.

The second volume will commence about the middle of November.

"THE ATHENAEUM" will be printed on a fine quarto imperial sheet, and will make a handsome volume of 416 pages, for which a next title page and copious index will be furnished.

PRICE—25 per annum, payable in advance.

Office of publication, N. E. corner of Baltimore and Sharp streets.

BLACKSMITHING.

JOHN RINGROSE

RESPECTFULLY informs the public he has taken the shop on Washington street in Easton heretofore occupied by Richard Green, Esq. where by the assistance of a well selected stock of the very best materials in his line, he is prepared to manufacture all black work in the above business at a short notice and on accommodating terms. He doubts it would be safe to say any thing in regard to his workmanship, as the public have had a fair trial of it which he carried on for Mr. Swindell, his predecessor in the said shop, and, as well as all other work will give general satisfaction; he also intends keeping a supply of iron tools on hand, such as AXES, HAMMERS, WING-KNIVES, CHISELS, CRUSHING-HOES, &c.

He also informs the public that he has in his shop a first rate saw-mill, and will execute that kind of work with all possible dispatch at moderate wages. He is also prepared to repair all kinds of cast iron work. Gentlemen who have old axes will do well to call and get them re-shod.

Jan. 6 1836 (G)

AUSTIN WOOLFOLK, of BALTIMORE, whose name is well known to the Slaveholders of Maryland and Virginia, that their friend still lives to give them comfort and the right service for their Negroes. Persons disposed to sell will find it to their interest to give him a call at his residence, Pratt street extended, near the upper end of the Baltimore & Ohio Rail road, where they shall see the justly celebrated AUSTIN WOOLFOLK, free charge.

N. B.—His charges are such as usually pay, and will convince the hirer, thereof, that "there's nothing bro't." A. W.

THOMAS HARPER.

TAILORING.

HE subscriber presents his grateful acknowledgements to the inhabitants of Easton and the adjoining counties, for the flattering patronage he has met with, since he commenced the above business, and begs leave to inform them that he has just returned from Baltimore with

A NEW MODE OF CUTTING.

That has never been practised in Easton; but one, that is almost universally used in Baltimore and in the best establishments: he has also engaged a

FIRST RATE WORKMAN,

that none can surpass, which will enable him to meet the demands of gentlemen for any kind of garments cut and made in the first style. His work shall be warranted to fit in all cases; otherwise he pays them for their goods or makes them others. He respectfully solicits a continuation of the favors of a generous public.

The public's obedient servant,

JOHN SATTERFIELD.

Aug. 29 1835 (G)

NOTICE

THE subscriber has opened a house of public entertainment at that long established tavern house, the property of John Leeds Kerr, Esq. in the town of Easton, known by the name of the UNION TAVERN.

He pledges himself to keep the best table the market will afford, good bread, and careful oysters, and to bestow all the attention he is capable of, for the comfort and happiness of those who may favor him with a call. From his experience in that line of business, for many years, and his untiring disposition to please, he dares himself to those who may be good judges to give him a trial will become his patron.

ELIJAH McDOWELL.

TIN WARE.

THE subscriber informs his friends and customers that he still continues to repair and manufacture TIN WARE in all its varieties, to which he is attached a single eye to their merits alone; a preference, however, will be extended in all cases to native productions when they can be obtained. Independent criticisms, carefully excluding all vindictive comparisons, and recommended by their brevity, are occasionally inserted, also, Biographical Sketches, Anecdotes, and Bob Mots of prominent Comedians of the present, and past ages, of which a new and inexhaustible compilation is in store.

The Country merchants or others buying to sell again, will be furnished with any articles they may order, as low as they can be furnished in Baltimore. ARTHUR J. LOVEDAY.

Jan 10 1835 (G)

NOTICE.

THE subscribers wish to take at the Coach and Harness Making business, four smart, active, well grown boys, of good moral habits, (boys from the country would be preferred) between the ages of thirteen and sixteen years: one at each of the following branches, viz.: Body Making, Harness Making, Smithing and Painting.

ANDERSON & HOPKINS.

N. B. All kinds of Silver Plating done in the best manner, such as Bridle-hilts, Stirrups, &c. &c. Persons in this and the adjacent countries, wanting any article plated, can have it done at the shortest notice and on the most reasonable terms. Coach Makers in the adjacent counties will have Plating done at a short notice and as cheap as they can have it done in the city.
