THE SENATORIAL ELECTION. The people of Maryland will repollect that on the tirst Monday in September next they same course of proceedings in the Legislature graceful an act, committed by a candidate for will be called upon to choose filectors of the as that which has reflected so much discredit the first office in the world. We do it more State Senate, which will fix the political cha- upon the State, and operated so seriously to the in sorrow than in anger, as we would rather racter of the State for at least five years to injury of the people. come. They will recoilect that the Senators It was intended by those who voted for the Live to pass through the order of public opinion but once in five years, and that therefore it is particularly important that attention be it is particularly important that attention be more, and operate exclusively to the injury of the people.

It was intended by those who voted for the do not wish it "In he told in Gath, nor the passage of the indemnity bill that the burden party claiming all the "morality, decency and it is particularly important that attention be more, and operate exclusively to the injury of respectability" in the LAND, had so stained call the members of the present Senate of the cause the fact to be seen and felt. State to an account for the course they have pursued while they have occupied seats in that body. If it is not now done, an opportunity to do so will not again present itself for five years to come; and it is therefore not only the privilege, but the duty of every citizen of the State to aid in calling them to a strict account! of their stewardship, and to deal out to thein the justice which their actions have merited. What then has been the course of the present Senater Let any man who is at all conversant with the acts of our Legislature ask himself the question, reflect upon the subject, refused to allow her any means of support. review their acts, and he will be at no loss for an answer. A more arbitrary, sell-willed body the supreme law of the land, to which every man in the state must bow in abject submission without a murmur of complaint, and that will has been displayed in the adoption of measures the most obnoxious, unjust and tyranical.

To establish the truth of this allegation it is, we presume, unnecessary to go beyond a retercuce to the shameful indemnity bill passed at of their own number, and for other wealthy fession as a dentist. and influential individuals, such as had been who were more needy and more deserving. ground that the Legislature did not possess the constitutonal power to grant her request. she had committed no act to excite popular indigeither actively or passively in disturbing the lore. public peace. But her property had been destroyed; she had applied to the Legislature for indemnity, and the indemnity was refused. A member of the Senate, however, and other wealthy and influential indly iduals whose property had been destroyed, applied for indemnitv. and how different has been the result. Whatever may be said respecting the innocence more the burden of indemnifying them for the of Lethe for ever.

told that before a letter was completed in which I'LL RUN."-W. Gaz. the fact of its passage in the riouse was intended "The effect," says the St. Clairsville "High on trophy rais'd of useless arms, to be announced, the information was returned Gazette, "which this significant ensign pro- "He sits, and threats the world with vain a- goes bravely on!

was checked upon that occasion. As soon as it was known in the House of Delegates that the indemnity bill had passed the Senate, both branches adjourned, and it is said that such another scene of indecent mirth revelry and noise as was then exhibited, was never before, perhaps, witnessed in Annapolis, or jerhaps any other seat of government in displaying their seif will, and their devotion to wealth and influence, at the sacrifice of the rights of the people and the interests of the voice comes from Harrison's own neighborhood, port to such men, and thereby give their countenance and approbation to such conduct upon such an occasion?—Surely they will determine pravity of the day. We promised our epponents, "Imprison'd fury, bound in brazen chains, that such conduct shall not pass without some weeks ago, to conduct the political camcensure; and that the men who have thus acted shall no longer be permitted to represent them in the councils of the state.

answer is a plain one. It they vote for Sena- son, Madison, and Jackson is to befal the Here. torial Electors favourable to the course that of the "I banies." Ve have become convinhas been pursued, and the men who have ced, from dear-bought experience, that it is State of Texas, and present Commander in Chief of the Army was formerly an editor of Mr. Van Buren's when he declared he would go roads, canals, &c.; April 9, 1828—among 23 of the present Senate, and as a necessary and ly acknowledge, that all the Presses devoted natural consequence of such conclusion it may to their cause are most skilful adepts in the scibe presumed that the same men will be again ence of "fibbing." Their inconsistencies, too, elected to seats in the Senate for the next five years. If, therefore, they disapprove of such conduct, as they surely must, and they desire and nothing long. Like the hyporritical possible, the absolute most prompt and energetic measures to extinct the most prompt and energy the most prompt a paid to the election which is to take place in her citizens; but like simpletons they adopted a moral escutcheon of the nation as to nominate and to make a proper regard to fall upon other portions of the state as well as station that has been consecrated by a Washthe rights and interests of the people, and to the city; or in which the operation will as ington, a Jefferson and a Jackson. Proof. popular opinion, is to hold them responsible to seriously effect others as it will the people of proof can be had, says our contemporary, and the public, and sustain them or remove them Baltimore. The money will not be paid by we have no doubt that he will give us the proof. from the stations in which they have been the people of the city; and if, the Treasurer Oh! whiggery! whiggery! how thou art fallen placed, accordingly as they have acted proper-issues the certificates for the payment of the Fred. Times ly or improperly in the discharge of the duties indemnity, it will be found that the people of appertaining to the trust which has been com- the state generally will ultimately have to pay mutted to their hands; and that the only means the amount. Are the willing, we would ask, by which they can be made to answer for to pay $200,000 in the shape of taxes under their acts, is to meet them at, and through the such circumstances, and for such a purpose. Johnson about moral character! We ask, in soballot boxes. Now, therefore, is the time to We suspect they are not, and thus they will ber seriousness, if the federalists wish to bring

From the New York Express. POLICE.

"Verily thou troublest me." Singular Development .- Yesterday morning a lady applied to the magistrates for advice under the following circumstances. It appeared that she was the wife of Mr. John Dill m, a respectable dentist residing in Hudson street but that he had recently discarded her, and

During the examination, it was suggested Hemisphere. of men-a body who has paid less regard to residing in the city. The magistrates directed the interests, the rights and the wishes of the inquiry to be made, and such was proved to Some of the friends of Gen. Harrison, and Maryland. The question mainly pending is people, has seldom, if ever, been collected together. They have acted as if their will was examination took place in the afternoon, at which his first wife, a comely looking Irish of the nominces; but it is very extraordinary reins of power for several years past, and female with her daughter, attended.

appeared that Mr. Dillon resided at Ireland, The General's triends should be mute on this in the county of Boscommon, about 25 years subject, for their own sake, as well as that of measures. ago, at which place he was married to his first their candidate. We might challenge a comwife, by whom he had a daughter. When parison, in this respect, between Col. Johnson the last session of the Legislature. The pre- the daughter was five weeks old, under some and Gen. Harrison, which could not but reamble to that bill, in which the reasons for its pretext or other be suddenly left them and sult greatly to the advantage of the former passage are pretended to be assigned, abounds came to this country. He resided alternately with the most notorious and bare-faced talse- at New York and Philadelphia, obtaining a subject, we shall go, under existing circumhoods, in which a provision was made for one handsome living by the exercise of his pro- stances, with a good conscience and honest ef-repeatedly and perseveringly denied to others of Connecticut. While there he became John Shawhan, enamoured with a young lady, attracted, it is W. H. Robinson, Mrs. White, whose property was destroyed in said, by the pearly whiteness of her teeth, of James Frazier, 1812, had been petitioning the Legislature for which he was so good a judge.—Considering, Jesse Hutchison, twenty years to indemnify her for her loss; but like many others, that the fact of the blue her claim had been constantly refused upon the waves of the Atlantic rolling between them waves of the Atlantic rolling between them An accident of the most distressing nature and their former spouses to be fantamount to a occurred last week at Trenton Falls. Mr. we hope, is now fast receding from the hands tree to be fantamount to a occurred last week at Trenton Falls. Mr. we hope, is now fast receding from the hands tree to be fantamount to a occurred last week at Trenton Falls. Mr. we hope, is now fast receding from the hands tree to be fantamount to a occurred last week at Trenton Falls. Mr. we hope, is now fast receding from the hands tree to be fantamount to a occurred last week at Trenton Falls. Mr. we hope, is now fast receding from the hands tree to be fantamount to a occurred last week at Trenton Falls. divorce, he perpetrated matrimony a second Herman Thorn who is on a visit to that place of those who have so long swayed the sceptre time. Every County and the Cay of Baltimore People's Advocate, at Easton, and also in the time, and bore away his lovely prize to this with his family, was walking on Friday last, of its much abused influence with more than should elect each one Senator and the present Centreville Times, and attested by the Chairnation against her, had offended against no law, city, to bask in the sunshine of her pretty blue last with Mrs. Thorn and two of his chiland had not been instrumental, in any way, eyes, and to attend to his profession as hereto- dren, along the rocky channel in which tyrannical folly; give us such men, we repeat, aid. At the age of sixteen the daughter also came to a narrow pass in the rock begde the ed! came to this country, with directions from the torrent. mother to discover, if possible, the fugitive An Italian servant named Vincento had parent. She obtained a place as servant in this just handed one of the children safely over the city, and about three years ago actually dis- pass, and stopped to take charge of the other, covered him. She has lately sent for her mo- a little girl named Zerline, who had jo of the individuals, it cannot be denied that they ther from Ireland, who arrived here a few tered her eighth year, and who is described as of gentlemenwell known in and out of the county idea of its filling its own vacancies is another ment between the contending parties. The weeks ago, and thus after an absence of twenty- uncommonly beautiful, amiable and chartful, as being liberal in their political views, yet e- fallacy in our system of government that would advance guard of either army, it is believed, is anind, whether justly or unjustly it is not our province to decide. In their case a law has meeting with the faithless bridegroom who had who was holding her by the hand, raigned other, and there was scarcely any probability anind, whether justly or unjustly it is not our five years has "the deserted bride" had a and intelligent beyond her years. Mr. Thorn been passed to levy upon the people of Balti- consigned her and her memory to the waters her with some reluctance, and had turied to cates of sound republican principles. The judges, were we not aware it is sustained by of the Mexican army advancing, as they were

ber of the Senate, there was supposed to be no going the rounds of the western papers, the child so lovely and so much beloved is not to cessfully combat and defeat the money and in people, and place the country of a Carroll and a the timely interference of his guards. A pistoi want of constitutional power in the Legislature particulars of which actually took place at to grant their desire. Thus it is that constitutional power in the Legislature particulars of which actually took place at to grant their desire. Thus it is that constitutional power in the Legislature particulars of which actually took place at to grant their desire. Thus it is that constitutional power in the Legislature particulars of which actually took place at the money and in the described. The body was not found at the date of the letter which communicates these to grant their desire. Thus it is that constitutional power in the Legislature particulars of which actually took place at the money and in the described. The body was not found at the date of the letter which communicates these to grant their desire. Thus it is that constitutional power in the Legislature particulars of which actually took place at the described. The body was not found at the date of the letter which communicates these the described. The body was not found at the date of the letter which communicates these the described. The body was not found at the date of the letter which communicates these the described. The body was not found at the date of the letter which communicates these than the date of the letter which communicates these the described. The body was not found at the date of the letter which communicates these the date of the letter which communicates tions and laws are sometimes made, by some The opposition at Cadiz and the vicinity made circumstances, but every exertion was makmen, to bend to circumstances, and always in large preparations for celebrating the recent ing to recover it, and it they should succeed, your watchword, be energy and action! favour of those who are the least needy and the Fourth of July, and at the dawn of this ever the remains will be brought to this city, to be memorable day, the Harrison whig liberty deposited in the family vault .- N. Y. Ev. And how was this monstrous a t passed in pole exhibited at its topmost height, streaming Post. the Senate? To the shaine of those who com- in the breeze, not the star spangled banner, posed the body, and to the discredit of the State but what was vastly more appropriate, a well it must be told that it was with the most in- hooped and wadded flaming RED PETTIdecent haste, and was followed by circumstances COAT, with the following pungent mottoes disgraceful in the extreme. After it had passed "WILLIAM H. HARRISON-REWARD "Janus Limself, before his fame shall wait, the House of Delegates it was hurried with all OF VALOR-IF CROGHAN WILL FIGHT, THE "And keep the dreadful issues of his gate, possible rapidity into the Senate; and we are BLOOD BE UPON HIS OWN SHOULDERS-that it had been passed in the Senate. The duced upon the whigs of Cadiz, was quite provision in the Constitution with regard to the amusing: some were for fighting, some were Senate has been extelled on the ground that for pulling it down, and others, partaking more such a body is necessary and useful for the pur- of the nature of their dear general, felt a pose of securing proper deliberation upon sub- strong inclination to 'run;' but after an hour or jects before the Legislature, and to check hasty two of parleying, all hands proceeded to the legislation.—Such was the manner in which work, procured another quaking asp, and after apply 11 wosawy and & William II. Harrithe present Senate are stated to have deliberated much tretting and trothing, they succeeded, by upon the subject of the indemnity bill, and the free use of axes and mottoes, in razing the such the manner in which hasty legislation other to the ground, and great indeed was the fall of the Red Petticoat."

ATTENTION WHIGS.

We call the attention of the public, and more especially that portion of them who have noti ced the indecency and scurrility displayed by the Federal Whig presses of this city in their among men professing to be grave legislators abuse of the great Hero of the West, Col. R. of a tree independent and high minded people. M. Johnson, to the two articles hereunto an They had trampled upon justice and right, and had set at naught the restrictions of the bill of Western Hemisphere, one of the leading Demrights and the constitution; they had succeeded ocratic papers in Ohio, and the second is a brief whole state, and they chose to celebrate their and indeed from his own household, and should triumph in a manner which would have been speak volumes to every impartial mind. Who disgraceful to Billingsgate fish women. And that has listened to t e foul charges of unsparing will the people of Maryland give their sup- Federalism, spouted out like water from a whale's mouth, upon one of our country greatest benefactores, an fail to weep over the political depaign fairly and honorably, and in all cases, to adhere strictly and tenaciously to the truth, So far, we have endeavored to do so. But the history of the last thirty years teaches us that Federal-What then remains for them to do? The ism despises truth, and that the fate of Jeffer-

men and their measures, and they will secure | then let him decide whether he will aid in ele the electron of other men, manifest their dis- vating a SEDUCER of female innocence to pleasure of the course that has been pursued, the Presidency of this great Republic. It and effectually prevent a perseverance in the gives us no pleasure to make known so dis-

MORAL CHARACTER.

A little contemptible federal paper, in a disup a discussion upon this subject—or in other words, if the Hirrisonians wish the election contest to turn upon such a discussion! -Whenever they are ready, we will call upon | Seventh District-John B. BROOKE. them for an explanation of a certain SEDUC-TION CASE OF THE IMMACULATE HERO! THE supporters of a DEBAUCHEE and SE-DUCER! for the highest office in the gift of the stand such a contest. Proof-proof can be McLean's friends! Upon a full and mature consideration of the forts, for Van Buren and Johnson, against Har-Shortly after his arrival, he visited the State rison or either of the other named candidates. George Kesling, Conrad Snider, Jno. Hathaway, Patric Melay.

From the Richmond Enquirer. PRINCIPLES, NOT MEN.

And so it is with the JANUS, or two faced TICKET

NEW FASHION FE-

THE NULLIFIERS and TION. SUPPORTER OF THE BLOODY BILL.

ANTI-TARIFF. ANTI--INTERNAL PROVEMENT. IMPROVEMENT. ANTI--AMERICAN ANTI-ABOLITION.

So here sits JANUS, not upon twelve al- of peril and danger, springs up among a mul- gainst the blush of inconsistency. So here sits JANUS, not upon tweive al-tars, but with his huge legs astride the Blue titude of faults, and faintly glimmers on the pa-Ridge, with his faces formed to all occasions; ges of his country's history, but when thrown West: and it may well be said, with his

"High on a trophy rais'd of useless arms. "He sits, and threats the world with vain

* Rescinded only, not ExpungeD.

EASTON, MD.

TUESDAY, AUGUST 2, 1836.

DEMOCRATIC CANDIDATES. FOR PRESIDENT, MARTIN VAN BUREN OF NEW YORK.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT, RICHARD M JOHNSON, OF KENTUCKY.

ELECTORS.

For the Eastern Shore-WM. A. SPENCER For the Western Shore-Hugh ELY. First District-JAMES A. STEWART. Second District-EDWARD LLOYD. Third District-J. T. H. WORTHINGTON. Fourth District-W. FRICK & A. THOMAS. Fifth District-Joseph Holman. Sixth District-WASHINGTON DUVALL.

This day the committees appointed by the District Meetings on Saturday are to assempeople, ought to be very modest, unless they ble in General Committee in Easton, to make the opposition. A few months will show the Gibson, Jacob W. Legg, William C. Bewley, are anxious for an exposure. Of all men on such nominations for the ensuing campaign as discernment of the Southern people in this may be deemed necessary. The gentlemen matter; nor will Mr. Van Buren abuse the and Dr. Thomas Wilson. had whenever called for. - Western (O.) who compose the committees, are, of course, confidence they may repose in him by their fully aware of the importance of the crisis that liberal support. that the above gentleman had another wife From the Address of a committee of Judge has already arrived in the political affairs of be the fact. A warrant was then issued for particularly the editor of the Cincinnate Ga- whether the people of Talbot are willing to be that this objection should be urged by any one stal it again in its dominion over the State, Their depositions were taken, from which it who advocates the claims of the General and with it all its corrupting and oppressive

All we ask of the Convention is, to give us good and faithful men-men whose political principles will bear the test of the most scrutin- lates to the manner of electing the Senate. izing examination-men who will not heed- We consider it the most aristocratic feature lessly sacrifice the interests of the people to sut- in our State Government, entrusted with powserve party views, but whose good sense and ers dangerous and alarming and incompatible sound discretion will make them the faithful with the real interests of the people. The and untiring sentinels of the people, and who members composing that body should be elecwill with a jealouseye watch over the honor ted immediately by the people; their term of and prosperity of the State. Give us men un- service abridged at least a year less than the pampered by the ruling influence of a political time now required, and they should retire al-An accident of the most distressing nature dynasty like that of this State whose power, ternately to prevent confusion and an entire flows the stream forming the cascades. and conquest is certain—the enemy are ours will of the people would by this means be Meanwhile his first wife had heard no tidings The party had proceeded beyond the tea house and Talbot will be regenerated and disenthrall-

QUEEN ANNE'S

We congratulate our friends in Queen Anne's mental to a high or supreme legislative body formation from Texas. on the strength of their ticket. It is composed that the people might be able to wield. The Bee, there is but little likelihood of an engagehore the burden of indemnifying them for the losses, to the amount, perhaps, of $200,000; Mr. Dillon is a man of gentleman'y application of the losses, to the amount, perhaps, of $200,000; Mr. Dillon is a man of gentleman'y application of the losses, to the amount, perhaps, of $200,000; Mr. Dillon is a man of gentleman'y application of the loss of the attend upon his lady, when he was started by Democratic party of Queen Anne's have every notions entirely distinct and separate, such as the short of provisions, and every necessary muniand in such a manner as to operate to the very state of the very state of one fact; should the state be wrested the informant of the Bee states that a few was refused upon the ground of the want of ment to be made three years after the offence. By gaved by reaching him the branch of a tree constitutional power in the Begislature to by saved by reaching him the branch of a tree, that much depends upon the influence, that much depends upon the individ grant it: but when it was applied for by men of the legislature of the help of which he regained the shore. The wealth and influence, and one of them a mem- The Banner of the Wigs-An anecdote is distress and dispair of the parents at losing a unit exertion of every man of the parents at losing at losing > of the most cheering nature. The Van Buren that can make them positively free or the flocking in particularly from the Western and ticket is carrying all before it, and so far as re- State sovereign-let the people exercise the Southern States, it was presumed that in a turns have been had, but little doubt remains power they are said to possess, and create on of its entire success. Should it succeed, the something of a more equal basis than now ers, are at Galveston Island. It is said to be consequence is Judge Porter "walks chalk" exists, their representative influence in the man- the intention of the Texans, in case the Mex-"With bolts and iron bars. Within remains out of the U.S. Senate and his place will be agement of their own affairs But so long as the supplied by a Van Buren man. The work present party are able to sustain themselves in ren because he is a Northern man. Pray tell cers will be restricted only by a sense of prous what is Gen. Harrison? Echo answers- priety-which indeed is a powerful corrective, which he may, enter into with the Texans. He what! he is by far more alienated from the in- yet not sufficiently strong for sustaining the terests of the South than any candidate before ends for which government was created. the people for their suffrages, and his votes too into the scales amidst the errors of his political preponderance stands in judgment against him. 288.7 He never gave a vote so magnanimous as that 2. Voted subscription to Dismal Swamp of Mr. Van Buren's when he threw his influ- canal, and afterwards to other wild projects of LATEST into the presidential chair the uncompromising nays [Senate Journal, page 288.] enemy to the abolition of Slavery in the Dis- 3. Voted against reducing the tariff; e. g. the Seminole Indians, in Florida, upon life and trict of Columbia! Nor can he bare his body, on coffee, almost a necessary article of life to the property of the defenceless inhabitants of that people; February 14, 18—: among 14 nays to ill fated territory, calculated to harrow up the to show at by the only effectual mode by which their sentiments can be clearly made known, the medium of the ballot mode by which their sentiments can be clearly made known, the medium of the ballot mode by which their sentiments can be clearly made known, the medium of the ballot mode by which their sentiments can be clearly made known, the medium of the ballot mode by which their sentiments are the most temperate people in the world. The greatest drunkards are pate in the World States and in Great Rein to the wine proportical proposed in him by the people of his neighbor-book the mode in the World States and in Great Rein to the wine growing countries are the most temperate people in the world. The greatest drunkards are pate these ruthless savages from every part of our territory, occupied by civilized inhabitation.

not find Mr. Van Buren denouncing any set yacancy occasioned by the resignation of Mr. of men acting within the pale of justice and Henry by the election of Wm. L. Jones, Est propriety. But we do find Gen. Harrison of Somerset county. Among the numerous denouncing the order of masons in fulsome opi- appointments, the following were made. thets, and in the next moment declaring he knows nothing about them! Then why does he denounce an order he knows nothing of We also and him associated with Granger in the North, which should plainly convince every unprejudiced mind of the high estimation he enjoys among the followers of that prince of abolitionists. The South will naver be so recrean as to tie her destines to the drivelling princiles that have brought Harrison into the field nor sacrifice her boasted rights in a menia manner to gratity a strangely fraught pique conjured up without a material cause.

In truth we consider Mr. Van Buren the friend of the South, and every way entitled to the support of the slave-holding States. His sentiments assert the fact and the measures which he has zealously adhered to and firmly supported incontestibly entitle him to the support of every liberal Southerner in preference to General Harrison, the available candidate of Bryan, Charles Stevens, James Embert, Elbert day on the subject of the approaching Senato- ballot for candidates and the result appeared rial Election is worthy of perusal. When we reflect upon the creation and existence of the State Senate we are amazed at the supineness of the people in suffering the Constitution to remain unaltered so far at least as reelectoral system should be abolished. The man and Secretary. more fully expressed, and their opinions and JAMES S. BAYNARD, Secretary. interests better attended to. Te Senate would be under a greater responsibility without being influenced or overawed by any check detri- Velasco, turnishes the following items of inchange be effected the people will have re- prevent any harm reaching him from the enstored to them the power which justly belongs | raged soldiery, his guard has been doubled. Louisiana.—The news from Louisiana is to them by inheritance, and the only power men, but from the number of volunteers power a long farewell to any change. The people will move along in the same careless mocke We hear much said against Mr. Van Bu ry of sovereignty as they now do, and their offi-

OLD FASHIONED plainly shew, that he always has been directly We give below an abstract of some of the appear to place but little confidence in his word, DERALIST, (hold with FEDERALISTS, ali- against southern measures. He imbibed at an votes of General Harrison, which are to be and are preparing for every exigency. They early period the evil principles of the elder Ad- found in the Journal of the U. S. Senate. of war, and we are informed would rather fight ANTI-NULLIFICA- ams, and his life throughout represents an im- From those votes the General has shown than not. becility of mind that should forever exclude him more hardihood and cool courage than he did Gen. Houston had not arrived when the TARIFF.
INTERNAL IN... Shenandoah sailed. Lamar, appointed comder-in-chief in his absence, it is supposed would resign on his return. decision of character, wise foresight, bold- Clay, & Co. can pick from the assortment one A few days previous to the departure of the ness of design and alacrity to execute, were ever vote at least that may act as a mediation and Shenandoah, an individual of the name of ABOLITION, by ap- absent. We would not, if it were in our power, soothe down their boiling opposition which like Barts died at Columbia. The general preplying the surplus to attempt to deprive Gen. Harrison of one jot of to have gone over notes century since. Rally the cashier of the Albany Bank, who absconour negroes, merit to which he is justly entitled. Far from i'. gentlemen, rally under the broad folds of the ded some time since, in consequence of the with our own money, The service he done his country, in the hour petticoat banner, and harden your cheeks a-

1. Voted for the Panama mission and all LATE AND IMPORTANT FROM THE life and the faults of his generalship, a woeful its follies and dangerous principles; May 2, preponderance stands in judgment against him 1826—among 24 yeas. [Senate Journal, page

ence into the scale in favor of the South and a internal improvement; May 15, 1826—a-mong 21 years. [Senate Journal page 345.] gainst the meendiaries of the North; nor has he | Voted subscription to stock in Columbus people their support and assistance. We do The Executive Council have supplied For the 26th Regiment, Talbot county Matthew Spencer, Major. John D. Wall, Capt. David Fairbank, Lt.

Voted against any restriction on surveys for from Jacksonville, E F.

William Caulk, Ensign.

QUEEN ANN'S

The Republican Committeee chosen from the several election districts of Queen Anticounty assembled in Convention at Centrevide on Tuesday the 2dth instant, to nominate candidates for Electors of Senate, Delegates to the Assembly, Sheriff and a member of the Levy.

Court, were present William F. Colgan, James S. Baynard John H. Moss, Benjamin Coppage, William Colgan, R. S. Ralpin, George Finley, William H. Story, James Collins, Edward Potts, Rob. ert Goldsborough, jr. Thomas Potts, Vachel Downs, William A. G. Hobbs, William & John Rigby, Peregrine Telson, John S. Blake.

William F. Colgan, Esq. was unanimonsly appointed Chairman and Mr. James S. Bay. nard, Secretary. Convention adjourned till 3 o'clock

The article from the Baltimore Republican 3 o'clock, P. M. Convention met; proceeded to nominate and

ELECTORS OF SENATE. JOHN B. THOMAS. Dr. ENOC GEORGE. DELEGATES. LEMUEL ROBERTS, VALENTINE WAREHAM. KENSEY HARRISON, ROBERT B. A. TATE. SHERIFF.

JOHN FOGWELL. LEVY. COURT. SAMUEL S. ROBINSON.

WILLIAM F. COLGAN, Chairman.

TEXAS .- An arrival at New Orleans from lew weeks it would be augmented to 6000 men icans attack them, to put all their prisoners to

The Mexicans (5000 strong,) under the command of Garrero, were at the Nueces, waiting reinforcements.

It is rumored that Santa Anna had written to President Jackson, asking him, or the government, to be his security for any treaty is said to have informed them that they have no reason to apprehend an attack from his countrymen, as he would issue his proclamation that would induce them to evacuate, without stri-depredations he committed while cashier of that institution. He had in his possesssion fifteen thousand dollars.

By last night's Mail.

SOUTH. CHARLESTON, July 23. FROM FLORIDA.-FUR-THER INDIAN MASSACRES.

The schooner George and Mary, Capt. Willey, arrived at this port yesterday morning, in the remarkable short run of 24 hours We are indebted to Capt. Willey for a de-which is through the medium of the ballot comparison with their "pure and immaculate" seen in the United States, and in Great Britain. In proof of this let every unprojudic-being a pic in the world: The greatest drunkards are boxes, they have only to vote for Senatorial chieftain. In proof of this let every unprojudic-being and whigh read the two following articles, and pear where the vine ceases to flouris h.

hood as Johnson can, but on the contrary he must acknowledge his signal defeat, by an obscure young man, when he besought of the ballot comparison with their "pure and immaculate" seen in the United States, and in Great Britain. In proof of this let every unprojudic-being the defeat, by an obscure young man, when he besought of the ballot comparison with their "pure and immaculate" seen in the United States, and in Great Britain. In France, drunkenness begins to appear where the vine ceases to flouris h.

Let of the ballot comparison with their "pure and immaculate" seen in the United States, and in Great Britain. In France, drunkenness begins to appear where the vine ceases to flouris h.

Let of the ballot comparison with their "pure and immaculate" seen in the United States, and in Great Britain. In France, drunkenness begins to appear where the vine ceases to flouris h.

Let of the ballot comparison with their "pure and immaculate" seen in the Contrary he chief and in Great Britain. In France, drunkenness begins to appear where the vine ceases to flouris h.

Let of the ballot comparison with their "pure and immaculate" seen in the Contrary he chief and in Great Britain. In France, drunkenness begins to appear where the vine ceases to flouris h.

Let of the ballot comparison with their "pure and immaculate" seen in the Contrary he chief and in Great Britain. In France, drunkenness begins to appear where the vine ceases to flouris h.

Let of the ballot comparison with their "pure and immaculate" seen in the Contrary he chief and in Great Britain. In France, drunkenness begins to appear where the vine ce