EXTRACT FROM THE ADDRESS OF THE ANTI-BANK CONVENTION OF PENNSYLVANIA.

He confirmation. Let any man examine the five millions of dollars to the capital of the ent veriods, and also the spirit of speculation the shock attending the extinction of the Uni- we have received London papers to June 23d, The two extracts below, and from a speech port of the country, the sales of public lands, the price of labor, and of the various commerthe price of labor, and of the various commerimprovements, and prepare Pennsylvania to improvements, and prepare Pennsylvania to outsition in the march of advancement and outsition in the march of advancement and projects of new outsition in the march of advancement and outsite cial commodities, and the projects of new outstrip in the march of advancement and towns, cities, turnpike, canal, and rail road prosperity, every other State and nation in companies, and he will find, in all cases, the the world. The charter of that institution latter bear a strict relative proportion to the was hailed as a new era by Governor Ritner, the consequences just enumerated increased in by after ages as the proudest in the annals of the same portion. We might have spread the the State. We were to be rescued from debt, mourning on the 22d, and the general mourning on the general mo statistical facts before you, but we do not bankruptcy and tuin, and the basis of our ing was to commence on the 24th. wish to swell the address to a greater length prosperity resting on this bank, was to be as than is necessary; and, if any doubt, let them firm and immovable as the everlasting hills. consult the records that are accessible to all.

grasp the scentre of supreme power.

very time when the issues of paper money and false alarms throughout the country, until his seat on the woolsack, when there was a public opinion, both here and abroad, is work-very full attendance of peers. chartered by the several State Legislatures, unfixed and unsteady as the wind that swayed pressures, created for the purpose. To coun- fidence, and to depreciate our credit, with comparatively speaking, remaining in circu to blame. lation. That lanking system which admits 3. The remedy to be proposed is not as country, will ensure to his name and memory to the hest interests of the people.

conclusive proof that the positions which we be radically defective and wrong in itself, the Majesty the duty of summoning a new parlie- Statesman. so intimately connected are the commercial defects. Much must be left to the wisdom of any new measure should be recommended for York, received seven stabs in his face, throat relations of England and the United States, the Legislature, but we may safely assert that your lordship's adoption, with the exception of and abdomen, inflicted with a knife by another and so blended together are the transactions of the lit is entirely practicable to restrict the bankthe Bank of England and the Bank of the ing system, so as to prevent the recurrence of public service, from the closing of the bresent ing system, so as to prevent the recurrence of public service, from the closing of the bresent ing system, so as to prevent the recurrence of public service, from the closing of the bresent ing system. affect the one, without affecting the other. out materially affecting the existing rights The Bank of England having agreed to ex- and privileges of any individuals. Render port so much of the gold and silver of that the liabilities of the stockholders direct and country as to render it inconvenient to com- effectual, restrain the issue of notes to an equal mand, at all times enough to redeem its own proportion to the capital actually paid in, pronotes, and to meet its other specie engage- hibit the issue of notes of a less denomination ments, had thought proper to require from the than twenty dollars, and eventually a larger ton to St. James's Palace. In the carriage banks of this country, its debtors, to return amount, limit the amount of capital the necessary sum for that purpose. This number of banks in the State, and we shall was either an excellent, real or pretended very speedily reduce the credit system cause for the Bank of the United States of sound practical standard, annihilate wild specto compel all the other banks to follow sunt, of specie payment. and likewise to enable their friends to put forth That Congress can do little to alleviate our was escorted by a squadron of the First Life maculate credit system, just tottering to its had not their origin with the National Govspecie payments," and the "issue of small selves, that such is the case. Some time ago, of effects, flowing from this credit system pealed, the derangement of the currency would majesty looked in good health, but somewhat commercial world. York and other large States, that our bank- to perform. ing capital does to theirs, we might have sup. In our own State Legislatures, therefore, Marquis of Lansdowne and other distinguish- and middle tier; and 14 of five oars each on by our empty credit system. As we have jutien, come what will. terminated in the present disorders of the cur- ed by loreign importations, in spite of the law. rency, but it would have constituted a sub- Our own history, and experience attest the of most extraordinary events had pluced Governor Ritner and his friends in power, just as this was about to be consumated, and they, with that blind disregard of consequences that ever signalize the speculator, and the disciples of credit delusion, snatched the expiring institution from impending dissolution, and conferred upon it a prolonged existence, with unheard of powers. So great an increase of the HARRISBURG, July 7, 1837. nominal capital of a single State, and at one point, the city of Philadelphia, in so short a time, was sought to be justified, on the ground We appeal to the history of the country for that it would be an actual addition of thirtyamount of nominal banking capital at differ- State, which would not only enable it to meet and over-trading, as indicated by the im- ted States, but would supply abundance of former. As banks have increased, so have and his adherents, which would be regarded

But how has experience falsified all these The truth of this view of the subject is fur-ther illustrated by the mad tenacity with true. The supporters of the credit system in which President Jackson's attempts at reform the other States, and in England, were struck were resisted on the part of the banks and aghast at the temerity of Pennsylvania. The their friends. The rottenness of the system bank, under whose sway as a national instituis proved by the tremor and agitation with tion, the currency of the country had reeled sales, particularly American, quite extensive. viduals."—Nales's L'agister, June 25, 1836. which the first exposure of its deleterious op- and rocked for twenty years, as soon as it beeration was received. The Bank of the Uni- came a State institution, was so obviously disted States, the great self-styled "balance proportioned to the wants and condition of the wheel" of the system, put forth its utmost en- country, as to throw the entire credit system

This catastrophe has doubtless been hasten-Instead of co-operating with the Govern ed by the rumous policy of the a lvisers of ment to remove some, at least, of the most ob- Governor Ritner, in their conduct in reference London, to Mise Catharine Sinclair. vious desects of the system, they clung with to all the measures of the National Governinflexible resolution to them all; and, at the ment. They have spread panics, pressures, contracted, they were expanded to an mordi- ed up to a state of feverish excitement, sinknate degree, and many additional banks were ing and rising alternately at every breeze, as under the influence of threats, panics, and it. They seem to have labored to destroy conteract the wide spreading evil, and a wise re- much assiduity and success, that both in this commendation of the National Executive, a country and in Europe, our merchants, busilarge amount of gold silver had been forced ness men, and hanks, are believed to be on the anto circulation; but the increase of banks and very verge of insolvency. And how rightethe expansion of the paper circulation were so ously does Divine Justice order its retribution; great, that this specie has been swallowed up for the very men who now endure these sufalready, and is now expelled or withdrawn ferings most deeply, are the authors of those that the House of Lords will participate in the United States. from circulation by small notes, or is hoarded calumnies on the country and its Government, deep affliction which her Majesty feels on the up by the banks and private individuals and which have accelerated the crisis! It is now death of the late King, whose constant desire of such results is radically wrong, and opposed easily carried into effect as it is suggested. It the heartfelt and affectionate respect of sell his is evidently to be found in removing, or in Majesty's subjects. In England, similar results have followed checking and controlling effectually, the causimilar causes, and the experience of the ses that have led to our present situation. If a period of the session, when considered in conbanking system there, affords powerful and credit system, on the principles of our system, nection with the law which imposes on her have endeavored to sustain, in regard to our own remedy must consist in abrogating the entire ment within a limited time, renders it inexbanking system, are undeniably true. Indeed system, or in so regulating it as to correct its pedient, in the judgment of her Majesty, that United States, that nothing can materially the calamity it has now brought upon us, with- session till the meeting of the new parlrament. Pennsylvania to suspend specie payments, and ulations—add for over prevent the suspension a copious supply of small notes, to take the present condition, is apparent not only from place of the specie, and to bolster up the im- the fact that the causes we have mentioned ceived by the assembled crowds of her people tall. Such is the true secret of two of the ernment, but from the admission of conspicu- loyalty and respect. At their arrival at St. most important events, "the suspension of ous advocates of the banking system them- James's, the sir was rent with the shouts of notes," that characterize the present times. Mr. Biddle, in a letter to the Hon. J. Q. Ad- knowledged these sentiments of attachment And such also is the universality and identity ams, stated that it the Specie circular was re- gracefully bowing as she passed along. throughout the old and the new world. It is be corrected in twenty four hours. Since that paler than usual. one and the same thing, wherever it reaches, time Mr. Adams has addressed a letter to his At ten o'clock, the hour fixed for the and has kindred interest in all parts of the constituents, in which he dissents from Mr. ceremonial of her majesty's proclamation at Biddle's opinion entirely, and attributes to the St. James's all the courts of the Palace, as But as this convention has been assembled same causes very nearly that we have done, well as all the approaches to it and towards thinks six the state of the sta to consider the state of affairs more particu- the disorders in the currency; and Gov. Ham Charing-cross, and the whole route of the thirty six thousand dollars, and one dollar larly in Pennsylvania, we will turn our atten- ilton of South Carolina, also a distinguished procession, were crowded to excess.—Many of and twenty six cents of specie in its vaults! tion to this State alone, for a few moments, advocate of the Bank of the United States, in those present appeared in mourning.—In the although what has been already remarked of a letter addressed to Mr. Biddle himself, takes first line of spectators were observed many the condition of things at large, has included the same view of the subject. Thus has the members of parliament, and among them Mr. was born in Gloucestershire deaf and dumb out own in a general sense. The extent of whole argument been conceded to us, and the O'Connell, who exercised his powerful lungs follows:—"This will be a year of femine Cecil County our own in a general sense. and extent of whole argument been conceded to us, and the overy great effect in hailing his new sover- the fertility of our soil—the truth reluctantly admitted, that the remedy to very great effect in hailing his new sover- the next a year of plenty and the next a year of plent inexhaustable resources of our mineral does not properly belong to the National Gov- eign. wealth—the industry, enterprise, and number ernment. But whatever aid can be afforded Precisely at a quarter past ten a preparatory of our citizens, have all destined Pennsylva in this great work, by the national adminis- bustle in the rooms of the palace which looked she fell from her chair a lifeless corpse. nia to be the keystone of the Union, and one of tration, will doubtless be cheerfully accorded. on the Court-yard aunounced the approach of the first in business and importance, among President Van Buren stands pledged to carry the sovereign, and her majesty, who was stthe sister States. That we should find here as into practical effect the great measures of remuch banking capital as in any other State, form, recommended by President Jackson; ported through this trying ceremony by the is therefore natural, and perfectly conforma- and we have no doubt he will faithfully and presence of her mother and other royal reble to the general order of things in other honestly receem that pledge. His rectitude latives, appeared at the window, amid thunders States. But that we should possess nearly of purpose—his uncompromising democratic of acclamations and shouts of "Long live the TREBLE the amount of banking capital of principles—and his firmness of character, all queen!" "Long live Queen Victoria!" the gen- of the Ship Pennsylvania, that it may not be ken in this county, at one dollar per bushel. any other State of the Union, is a most sur- give assurance, that the political "mantle of prising fact, and one that demands some ex- General Jackson has fallen on his successor." planation. Did our business operations hear To the national administration, then, we may the same relative proportion to those of New safely commit every duty that devolves on it posed that it was in some degree, the offspring will be found the only efficient power to pro ed personages. of a real or supposed necessary; but this is not vide a remedy for the present, and preventives Her majesty had to acknowledge at least a ten men to each oar, gave her a crew of four last, from Fort Wayne; the money to be dethe fact. Our banking capital is of mush-against future disorders in the currency and dozen times the spontaneous acclamations of thousand oarsmen. room growth, for upwards of two-thirds of finances of the country. From the party in her people, and was evidently very much Her height from water line to taffril was at has sprung into being within the last two power, whose measures have tended to pro- affected by the hearty congratulations of all ninety-seven and a half feet; do at her rostrum duce them, we can expect nothing but fair on whom her eyes rested; as she was observed or stem, eighty-two feet; do midships, forty-The amount of bank capital incorporated in promises and ceaseless opposition. If any to weep nearly all the time, and was frequent-promises and ceaseless opposition. If any ly obliged to use her handkerchief.

The water thing useful is to be expected, it must be by ly obliged to use her handkerchief. elected, was $17,000,000—the amount now the union and concert of all the honest and en- When the national anthem had ceased, Sir It must however, have been very great, since existing in Pennsylvania, is about fifty-eight lightened friends of practical reform. On an millions of dollars, so that, under the auspices occasion like this, all such men should, and we the heralds and read aloud the proclamation of could not get into the harbor of Syracuse. of Governor Ritner and his friends, it has trust will, rise above the shackles of party, her majesty as Queen of England, by the foreign news papers was invoked—for the purbeen impro; idently increased about Forty- and act in obedience to the dictates of patriot- style and titles of Queen Alexandrina Victoria long, 45 deet beam, and 48 feet from deck to one millions of dollars in less than two years ism alone. The present banking system is necessity can be pleaded grossly defective; admitted to be so by almost the integrity, and talents of the necessity can be present banking system is good sense of the people, and the confidence of the necessity can be pleaded to be so by almost the present banking system is not the pose of prostrating Mr. Thomas; but the first, concluding with the first, concluding with the formula, "God well.

Neither reason nor necessity can be pleaded grossly defective; admitted to be so by almost the property of the necessity can be prostrating Mr. Thomas; but the first concluding with the formula, "God well."

Neither reason nor necessity can be pleaded to be so by almost the property of the necessity can be pleaded to be so by almost the property of the necessity can be pleaded to be so by almost the property of the necessity can be pleaded to be so by almost the property of the necessity can be pleaded to be so by almost the property of the necessity can be pleaded to be so by almost the property of the necessity can be pleaded to be so by almost the property of the necessity can be pleaded to be so by almost the property of the necessity can be pleaded to be so by almost the property of the necessity can be pleaded to be so by almost the property of the necessity can be pleaded to be so by almost the necessity can be pleaded to the necessation to the necessity can be necessary to the necessity can be in justification or excuse of this ruinous poli-every man who expresses an opinion. Then but three of the eight Representatives from their candidate rendered all these attempts of this State the gain of one the gain of excitement of that wild spirit of speculation. Let every man from this day forward resolve reging gracefully the whole time, and acknow- ton Atlas. which has been always nurtured and sustained to do his duty, and abide firmly by that reso- ledging the obeisances of her subjects.

already observed, the measures of the nation- Every one of you, fellow citizens, is imme- the proclamation, not aware of what was goal administration, during the last eight years duately interested in this contest. None are so ing on, continues their shouting until the loud were calculated to impose some check on the high as to rise above its influences, none so and full-toned voice of Mr. O'Connell calling extension of this system, and in their opera- humble as to fall below them. Farmers, me- silence, was heard above all. tion, had levelled the most powerful and the chanics, tradesmen, merchants, and manufactures, belaware, and upper part of the most powerful and the chanics, tradesmen, merchants, and manufactures, and upper part of the foster mothers tures, one and all, you have a deep stake an individual in the conclusion of the ceremony.

Castle Counties, Delaware, and upper part of the chanics, tradesmen, merchants, and manufactures, and upper part of the chanics, tradesmen, merchants, and manufactures, and upper part of the change of the conclusion of the ceremony.

Eastern Shore of the foster mothers tures, one and all, you have a deep stake an individual in the conclusion of the ceremony. of speculation and overtrading with the the country, the On her departure to the state apartments, the Property of the formers, the Individual in dust. The Bank of the United States, the standard of the value of every man's property procession to march suto the city and procession to th head and front of the credit system in this country, connected with, and supported by the bank of England, was obliged to yield to the supremacy of the popular will, and had it been suffered to sink quielly to rest. and had it been suffered to sink quietly to rest, It will render the weest protective tariff whoit would have been not merely a barren vic- ly inoperative, and cause merchants, mechanics, tory over that all-pervading spirit, that has and manufacturers, to be understold and ruin-

> SETH SALISBURY, JAMES CLARKE, GRORGE M. KIEM, PAVID M. FARRELLEY, ELI DILLON. JOHN M. I BERMAN ABRAHAM K. WRIGHT.

ROPE-DEATH OF THE KING OF ENGLAND-

By the packet ship Roscoe, Captain Delane, of the approaching session.

The papers are filled with documents and prophecy. proceedings connected with the deceme of the King.—The interment of his remails was to pointed if the 'experiment,' when tested in take place on the 6th of July. Fo two or January, and by a settlement of balances in composing the Second Congressional District. The wiles and tricks of their adtake place on the 6th of July. For two or January, and by a settlement of balances in three days previous, the body was to lie is the deposite banks, preparatory to a division. Mr. Pearce has succeeded by about 294 major-with a full conviction of its great importance.

the 20th, and on the 21st the oaths of all giance which must have exercised great foresight, quite as well as could reasonably be expected. triumphed, and that whiggery is dead in Baltiwere taken by the two Houses of Par ameni. if abis to refund the deposites without pres-All things appeared to be proceeding uietly, sing their creditors. The pressure may be

The money market was in a quit state, and quite abundant, English Funds L'rely so high as quoted by this packet.

connexions with Dantzic and Berlin. tragedian was married on the 234 of Jane, in for the bank of the United States, as the only HOUSE OF LORDS—Thursday, June 22 ject or not, it will be the effect."
At five o'clock the Lord Chanceller took [Mr. Benton's Speech, Apr very full attendance of peers. Shortly afterwards Viscount Melbourne entered the house. In the course minutes the noble viscount rose, and said he United States is about to be reformed, needs had been instructed by her Majesty to present not the spirit of prophecy to foretel. Its day mon purpose, and whose only aim is power a message to the house.

ROYAL MESSAGE. The message was then read by the Lord Chancellor as follows:-

"Victoria, Regina. "The Queen entertains the fullest confidence and improve the laws and institutions of the

"VICTORIA. Regina." PROCLAMATION OF HER MAJESTY.

On Wednesday morning, June 21st; at ten o'clock her Majesty proceeded from Kensingand the with her majesty was her august mother, and their carriage was preceeded by several members of the household, and 2 other carriages. 676. Her majesty and the Dutchess of Kent appeared in deep mourning, and their attent was of the plainest description. The Royal party Guards and the Blues. Her majesty was re-'Long live the Queen'" and her majesty ac-handkerchiefs, and all joining in the most other "monsters of the deep."

The crowd during the early part of reading

detiers. $125,000 of this was for the nouse of M. de Lizardi &. Co. The echr. Levin Jones reports that the Conducts was expected will be in many cases no better than the last year's crop. If you think proper you may but a withering terror to the enemies of equal publish this, (save the name). received in this city 186,543 in Mexican we there has prevented the wheat ripening in been upon us—the liveliest interest every Frederick, Thomas's majority

From the New York Timer. DEPOSITE ACT.

The character and effects of the distribution bill will, at no distant day, come to be examined and understood. A more unhappy measure cannot be found in the annals of legislation. We opposed it zealously when it was before Congress; we trust now that its furthe operation will be arrested by the first action at Annapolis on Tuesday the 8th inst.

founded upon real causes: for a greater portion of the payments into the Treasury must by the shin plaster party last November, from Anne Arundel County, but enough is known to assure us that we have gloriously and public manifestations of loyalty to be new only temporary, but it will necessarily prosovereign were every where displayed, duce a great desaggment in the money marnever leaving his county, if he did his farm—
The following are the number of their party here. The cotton market had improved and the ket, and he destructive to many worthy indi-

"Is it the object o, breaking all the deposite Second District to measures which they have hanks! Is it the object to distress the country ever held paramount to any personal consi-Letters received in Paris mention the failure by making all the deposite banks call in all derations. While we have much to cheer us the great (Hebrew) house of Duncker and their loans in six months? In the roble triumph of our friends on the ergies, and was joined by its stricting coadju- into contusion, and bring it precipitately upon Co., of Warsaw. It was said they half large rum the currency by enabling whig States to in the noble triumph of our friends on the draw their distributive shares in a recie, com- other side of the Bay, we cannot but regret Mr. EDWIN FORREST, the American pelling the banks to stop payment, then calling the carelessness too fatally evinced on Wedremedy of the evil? Whether this is the ob- nesday last by the Democrats on this. Though

[Mr. Benton's Speech, April 27, 1836.

A REFORM OF THE BANKING SYSTEM. That the whole banking system of the of power, and rule, and corruption, is about to whose promptin," zeal is gain. be numbered.—On this subject there is more unanimity of feeling and thought in the democratic party, than we have ever known on any other. There is a determination never to cease until this good work is accomplished, the reformation of the banking system in the

The details may be a matter of difference of opinion, but the people will no longer brook exported to Europe, scarce a vestige of it, upon us, and let a candid world judge who is to promote the interests, maintain the liberties, the bold and daring interference of these institutions in their elections and their favoritism in business. They will correct the evil, and every patriot and statesman will, or ought to be busy-every tongue ought to tell its story, and perform its office in the good work. Our motto should be, "no more corporate banks-and a speedy reform of those that exist."- Ohio J. A. PEARCE

Post Offices, Changes, &c .- From the Post Office Department we learn that the post offices established during the year ending June 30th 1836 were 666, discontinuances 345 making a nett increase of 321.

During the year ending June 30th, 1837, the offices established were 956, the discon- Majority for Pearce 149 tinuances 280, making a nett increase of Whig majority last November 83 The whole numbers of Post Offices in the United States on the 1st inst: was 11 767.

The obanges of postmasters on the tormer year were 1,844, and in the latter 2,235. The appointments of postmasters in the former, including new offices, were 2,510; in the latter 3,191, being at the rate of more than | Majority for Pearce 57 ten each day, Sundays excepted.

Considering the numerous cases of complaint in which there is no action, the correspondence which grows out of them, the instruction of postmasters, &c. some idea may be formed of the buisness done in this branch of the Post Office Department. - Globe

SPECIE BASIS .- One of the Rhode Island Banks is said to have had, at the time of th "Extraordinary if true"-A lady, who the next a year of plenty, and the next a year Queen Anne's Co. of blood." After uttering the last sentence, Caroline County, New con. Such a good' un. Why is an

THE BIG SHIP.

So much has been said about the magnitude tlemen waving their hats, the ladies their uninteresting to publish some accounts of (Columbus Gaz.

proach to the window her majesty was ac- mock's Naval Architecture was 420 feet long Eve. Post. companied by her illustrious mother, by the had 13 banks of five oars each on her lower her upper tier; making 200 oars of a side and and silver, passed through Piqua on Friday

The water draught of this vessel is not given

DENTON, Md. July 17, 1837.

ARRIVAL OF SPECIE.—A slip from the discouraging that there was not more than half the usual quantity sown and the hard winter office of the New Orleans Picayune says—"By the usual quantity sown and the hard winter the arrival of the brig Ringlender, and schr. Levin Jones, both from Tampico, there was not more than half the usual quantity sown and the hard winter long it will be numbered with the things that there was not more than half the usual quantity sown and the hard winter long it will be numbered with the things that there was not more than half the usual quantity sown and the hard winter long it will be numbered with the things that there was not more than half the usual quantity sown and the hard winter long it will be numbered with the things that we think will satisfy these gentlement the reign of oligarchy is at an end.

EASTON, MD.

TUESDAY, AUGUST 1, 1837.

The Executive Council of Maryland meets

tachment and fidelity of the Democrats of the beaten here, we are not subdued. We will be ever ready to rally to the rescue of the principles of Jefferson and Jackson when invaded by the ru, hless factions of the present day, who have descrated the name of Whig to a com-

SECOND CONGRESSIONAL DIST. TALBOT COUNTY.

DIST'RICTS.

DISTRICTS.

JOHN EVANS. Federal, Majority for Pearce 112.

Whig majority last November 176. CAROLINE COUNTY.

Democrat, JOHN EVANS Federal J. A. PEARCE

QUEEN ANNS. DISTRICTS. 79 174

Whig majority last November 122 KENT COUNTY. DISTRICTS.

Evans Majority for Pearce 171

05- We have not received complete returns. from Cecil-reported majority for Evans 175. SECOND DISTRICT.—Complete.

Pearce, (W.) Evans. (V. B.) 175 maj. 130 maj. Talbot County.

Several contracts for Wheat have been ta-

Maj. for Pearce, 294

The contractors will repent their bargain .cordial and heartfelt cheering. On her ap- The great Roman Galley described in Cha- Wheat will be down to 70 cents, or less .- Cin.

> Two waggons, loaded with $95,000, in gold posited in Dayton Bank.

MARYLAND CONGRESSIONAL ELECTION. Glerious Triumph!

Contrary to our most sanguine expectations

District lately represented by Mr. Turner, santly during the day, a very large vote was Correspondence of the Phila. Com. Herald must be truly gratifying to the triends of the Philadelphia may now fire minute guns—the Administration. We now divide with our distress of their brethern here is truly pitiable. Mr. Sargent-Dear Sir-I have just re- opponents, who but lately refused us, in their The whigs anticipated in the defeat of Mr. turned from a tour through Kent and New extravagant delusion, a single representative. Thomas, the downfall of reform. His active they say that the short crop of last "our was so Democracy in Maryland is in the ascendant—the anti-reformers cannot—dere not, attempt

From the Baltimore Republicar GLORIOUS VICTORY. BALTIMORE AGAIN TRUE TOHER. SELF!!!

WE HAVE MET THE ENEMY, AND THEY ARE OURS."

The election in our city yesterday was one of the most animated contests that has ever expedient that could be devised; and had so completely arranged their plans that they felt perfectly confident of success. But we were so well assured of the firmness of the Demo-RESULT IN THE SECOND DISTRICT - Cracy of our city, that we have never suffered

The Philadelphians may now fire their hun-The following are the number of votes given Howard, (Republican.)

McKim, (Republican,) Kennedy, (Whig,) Ridgely, (Whig,) Average Republican Majority, Gain since last year Three cheers for Anne Arundel! Howard McKim Kennedy. Ridgely Whig majority last November 210 Huzza for little Annapolis! Howard

Whig majority last November 27. Average majority in the District for the Democratic Republican Ticket-251!

From the Hagerstown Mail. VICTORY! VICTORY!

GLORY ENOUGH FOR ONE DAY. We give below the result of the election on Wednesday last, as far as heard. It will be seen that our triumph is complete.—Never before were such exertions made to defeat us. In 437 this county particularly, every stratagem was resorted to by our opponents—their time, talents and money were all brought into requisition. But the Democracy of Old Washington stood firm. They could not be cajoled or frightened by their avowed opponents, nor lulled to sleep by the Delilahs of the day. WASHINGTON COUNTY.

MERRICK. THOMAS Districts. Sharpsburg, 20 maj Williamsport, Hagerstown, 21 maj. Clear Spring, 57 maj. Hancock, Cavetown, Boonsborough, Pleasant Valley, Total. FREDERICK COUNTY. Middletown, Hauver's, 142 maj. Frederick, 53 maj. Petersville, ALLEGANY COUNTY. Cumberland, Frostburg, Seven districts to hear from, in which, two years ago, Mr. Tomas beat Mr. Schley.

From the Frederick Citizen. RESULT OF THE ELECTION.

RECAPITULATION.

Washington,

Frederick,

Allegany,

GLORIOUS TRIUMPH!!! Notwithstanding the desperate efforts made by the shin plaster party, to defeat the Republican Candidate for Congress in this district, he has received an overwhelming majority in this county. No means were too despicable or low, no instrument too base to be used, villainous handbills were issued from a press, pretending to be attached to the Republican party, filled with the grossest talsehoods, couched in the most disgusting style of Billingsgate. Every effort was made to alarm we have now the pleasure of placing before situation of the currency,—and the aid of election of Wednesday last. When it it pose of prostrating Mr. Thomas; but the taken. The big wigs and the little wigs, of exertions in behalf of that cause, had rendered

Petersville,