rency of the country.

tions, that banks of their creation were mere ple vast resources, of our extended country. skeletons, powerless and helpless, and that the Surely, then, so far as experience has affordlife and health-giving principle was to be ed evidence, it offers no cause for discourage- channels, before the country could receive a 11 such continues to be the feeling of the breathed into them by an extension of the ment to the friends of the measure, and inas- shock, or the people injury.

and, he spoke from reconection, out he near succeeded in showing, that the ed the national bank had been for the whole period, the exclusive depository of the public ble to the State bank deposite system in the money, and the exclusive fiscal agent of the following respects, namely: in the safety it for the was sure it was so during the afforded to the public moneys: in the expenses.

But there was a third alternative—a national bank—which he must not omit to notice, in his extended discussion of this great subtlem according to their most firm conviction of right.

But there was a third alternative—a national bank—which he must not omit to notice, in his extended discussion of this great subtlem according to their most firm conviction of right.

But there was a third alternative—a national bank—which he must not omit to notice, in his extended discussion of this great subtlem according to their most firm conviction of right.

But there was a third alternative—a national bank—which he must not omit to notice, in his extended discussion of this great subtlem according to their most firm conviction of right.

But there was a third alternative—a national system proposed by the bill preferation according to the must not omit to notice, in his extended discussion of this great subtlem according to their most firm conviction of right.

But there was a third alternative—a national system proposed by the bill preferation according to the must not only the discharged by of right.

But there was a third alternative—a national system proposed by the bill preferation according to their most firm conviction of right.

But there was a third alternative—a national system proposed by the bill preferation according to their most firm conviction of right.

But there was a third alternative—a national system proposed by the bill preferation according to their most firm conviction of right.

But there was a third alternative—a national system proposed by the bill preferation according to the must not only the firm according to thei

natural operations of healthful business shall and reflect. Experience had tested the im- sed to notice, was that the tendency of the sys general public expectation, demanded action perfections of the State bank deposite system, tem provided for by the bill, would be to from Congress. The committee of which he Such, in his mind, were the probable influ- of which they were advocates, while experience withdraw from circulation and use, & to heard was a member had presented to the Senate the ed at Westminster in Carroll county ences of the two systems upon the general cur- had done little to approve or condemn the system proposed by the bill. It had been in sub- of the gold and silver of the country. He would now proceed to answer a very stantial operation since the suspension of specie few of the prominent objections made to the payments by the banks, in May last. It was bill, and pass, as rapidly as possible, to his forced into operation by that suspension. It nue and expenditures of the Government were and the friends of a National Bank, were alike, madmissible. he would notice, was that the system proposed the credit of the country depressed, and the by the bill was an attack upon the State bank- business of the country prostrate and at a stand. ing institutions, calculated to destroy their cre- He would not say that these were the consedit and usefulness. This, if true, was a grave quences of the State bank deposite system. He charge, and therefore required some considera- had said upon that point all he intended to say; the widely extended operations of the Treasu- real and true issue, fairly and fully to the Se- litary stores by the patriots, is also doubtful. The manifestly against the public good as to par- practical operation of that system. What had take of wantonness and immorality, or a spin to free effect of the operation, for two-thirds of a year, of the system which it was supposed to be infried a word touching any movement of the pariots in that quarter. The story of crossing and fighting is the money of tutions proposed to be infringed upon? Did their charters, granted by the States, for fixed and specified purposes, include among those country back to a state of barbarism? Foreign would vary from three to five millions of dolors. This amount was any right of these histories and proposed to be infringed upon? Did would destroy credit, depress property, distored the money was on deposite. This amount would vary from three to five millions of dolors. This amount would vary from three to five millions of dolors. The party friendly to a National Residue to the point of the money was on deposite. This amount would vary from three to five millions of dolors. The party friendly to a National Residue to the point where the evidences of our therefore a hoax. purposes the safe-keeping, or profitable use, of exchanges had been, for some time, down to the money of the whole country? Was there and below par, in our commercial markets; a provision that they should be fiscal agents of thus affording conclusive evidence that our town is daily languishing in the revenue and expenditure to the safe-keeping, or profitable use, of exchanges had been, for some time, down to lars, including the amount constantly retained tional Bank had always repudiated the State bank deposite system, as dangerous in its additions to Executive power as inefficient as to the money of the whole country: was there and country: was there are country: was the manual country: was the country: was the country: was the country was the country was the country was the country: was the country was the coun should be sustained by the money and credit of limits; domestic exchanges were rapidly apthe people of the U. States. No. No such proximating a healthful state furnishing the other, as they always should, no further or money. Was there any evidence that those incontrovertible facts; yet, as a matter of tion. Many causes could be cited to account provision was ever heard of in the charter of same evidence that internal trade was gradual-der the bill.

In the charter of same evidence that internal trade was gradual-der the bill.

In the charter of same evidence that internal trade was gradual-der the bill.

In the charter of same evidence that internal trade was gradual-der the bill.

In the charter of same evidence that internal trade was gradual-der the bill.

In the charter of same evidence that internal trade was gradual-der the bill.

In the charter of same evidence that internal trade was gradual-der the bill.

In the charter of same evidence that internal trade was gradual-der the bill. was, then, infringed by withholding from them tained a fair value, and found a steady market; both the keeping and use of the public money, credit and confidence were gaining strength; Was any faith, or confidence, due from this and the banks, as a general remark, were re-Government to the States, or to these institu- covering from their late excesses, and prepartions of their creation, violated by the proposed ing for a speedy resumption of specie payseparation? The States had chartered banks ments. Such seemed to be the history of our for particular locations, with capitals such as business prospects at the present moment. He the locations seemed to demand, but would any did not mention these things to ascribe them to the State Legislatures had counted upon the manner in which those operations had been hoarded in the suspension of the hanks.

In present to demand, but would any one pretend that, in granting these charters, and so the National Treasury, or to the manner in which those operations had been hoarded in the public Treasury, had changed their feelings to ascribe them to the operations of the hanks.

In present to demand, but would any one the credit the operations of the National Treasury, or to the credit to suspension of the hanks.

In present to demand, but would any one the operations them to the operations are every the operations of the National Treasury, and lands be collected in gold and silver, and hoarded in the public Treasury, had changed their feelings to wards it? Had endeared it to them, as one the credit to them, as one the credit to the manner in which those operations had been hoarded in the public Treasury and its development.

money, and the exclusive fiscal agent of the twenty years' existence of the last national bank, and he thought it was so under the old bank. Then the State banks were not dead to the public moneys; in the expenses and risks attending its administration; in its Bank of the United States the notes of the of all the constitutional power of this GovernState banks were not disbursed to the public ment, to produce and maintain a sound and more forcible, and from sources much more fire mind of the whole country. If they did not providing for an Independent Treasury, as port to our mechanics: we should at least give in the state of the public mind of the whole country.

flourish, and become sound, and stable, and produced for the Government and the people, sought to derive it from necessity or expedient that it is within the power, and check upon such practices, either of Banks or quilting party, met together and nominated useful? Has not a large and powerful political by the necessary action of the system. That cy; and it was due to the authors of these arguis, in some sort, and to some extent, the duty of individuals, will, we doubt not, meet their

Henry Clay for President, without any instructions from their party, and without notibank, during this period, over the State insti- and sound currency for the National Treasu- sity and expediency. It had been said that a exchanges, too, if not directly, was incidentally in the words of the Montpelier Patriot and Children and Discontinuous of the Montpelier Patriot and Children and Discontinuous of the black. bank, during this period, over the State insti- and sound currency for the National Treasu- tutions, were salutary and proper? That it was ry, and for all who might have demands upon uniform currency was necessary for the countries wheel regulators wheel regulators and equality. It as well the officers of the Covernment should Boston Post we say, that Mr. Wright's speech stamp, was chosen chairman, and has written ing the movement of the whole complex others, was most freely admitted. Indeed this duced or manufained, without a National Bant, sale-keeping of the public treasure should be appropriately termed a second Detailed. Indeed this duced or manufained, without a National Bant, to Mr. Clay. machinery? What is proposed by the bill, but was claimed as one of the principal merits of and that, therefore, Congress had the power to committed to banks, and not to the constituted claration of American Independence." Aye

Mr. Childs seems to think there are indica-ther n tes in payment of the public dues, or | ready shown that, so far as it should exert any | proved by the actual experience of several considered as evidence to those who could listen | depreciate by the same rule. Give them the receiving, shall frequently present them for national treasure, and permit them to subject conversion into specie, or specie tunds? The fluence must be to raise that currency to a lest and and currency to a lest and and currency was necessary under our system? The Bank was necessary under our system? The recommended Mr. Clay for the President of the Pr it to the fluctuations of their interest, and can only difference will be that the Treasury will vel with that secured to the Treasury. If, interest, and can only difference will be that the Treasury will recommended Mr. Clay for the Presidency. a stable currency be expected, either for the not enter into competition with the local banks then, the people were to have a base currency, could not be established and sustained in our had been advanced here, but they were sug-Treasury or the people? Who are the legi- in the business of banking; that it will leave they were to have it, not in consequence of country but by Congressional legislation, and gested from the course of argument which he enough for the Godlike, and General enough timate customers of the banks. More partithat whole field to them, and merely content the bill, but in defiance of it; they were to rethat, therefore, Congress had the power to saw constantly used in the public Press and ceive it, not from the public Treasury, but they were to rethat, therefore, Congress had the power to saw constantly used in the public press and ceive it, not from the public Treasury, but they were to rethat, therefore, Congress had the power to saw constantly used in the public press and ceive it, not from the ground which these Thomas Est of the Sangta provided. vades not the whole of their own country only, from their own State banks; not from the evils has been contended here. No one will be distriends had assumed, and he must say that it Thomas, Esq. of the Senate presided. Colonel but the whole civilized world. The laws of such benign influences to the local institutions of the legislation of Congress, but from the posed to question that a sound and seemed to him like yielding the whole field to Hamilton of Talbot assisted as Vice President the States of the Union, therefore, are regulations much too limited for them; and even the bank, should see such banelul effects to follow them institution, and some system of the desired and some system.

Townsend and Sollers are regulation. The laws of th laws and regulations of any single Govern- the same influences, when flowing from the debase any portion of the currency upon which carried on, to a considerable extent, without founded upon the principles of the bill under ment, as to either trade or currency, are but public Treasury? should see there an attack it had no direct action? He had not heard it money of any description, is a fact not to be discussion, the real alternatives before the caucus. Every thing being thus duly arrang. ment, as to either trade or currency, are but public a reasony; should see their municipal in their character, when applied to upon the institutions, a prostration of their usemunicipal in their character, when applied to upon the institutions, a prostration of their usesition would be assumed. If the currency upsition would be on which it did directly act, and the standard cy of the arguments, so far as they go to show He was sorry to have detained the Senate so frequently occur, when it is vastly more im- He was aware that the system proposed was of which it regulated, were to be base, then it that a uniform currency is highly important to long, and, as the best atonement the could make, linguises to support any man who may be portant to them that they should be able to new, and substantially untried, so far as the might be well apprehended that its indirect inevery civilized country, and that its indirect indium of exchange is at the first utility in comforther. their foreign debts, than that our local banks was concerned; and it would be admitted by currency to its level; but as the gist of the merce, but to question how far the argument at home should redeem their notes in specie. all, that, as a new measure, it had me, the full complaint is, that the standard of currency it of necessity, in either case, can be safely relied What, in such a condition of trade and of the share of denunciation to which almost all assumes for the Government its higher than upon as the basis of a grant of constitutional mercantile int rest, will always be likely to changes from established custom, almost all that of the general currency, so it follows, by power, and to show that, in either argument, be the condition of our local banks? Set aside reforms, however valuable and useful, are a parity of reasoning, that its indirect influence there is no little difficulty in settling the disthe consideration that the merchants may be destined to meet, when presented in the mere must be to raise the general currency to its pute as to where expediency and utility end, the argument rest here, and give the banks the remark he was about to make, to express any tion that a sound, uniform, and standard cur- Constitution of the United States in favor of possession and control of the national treasure. want of charity towards the course or opinions rency could not be sustained in the country, the Congress of the United States. Which interest would prevail? Would the of any side of the House, or any individual in and that, to avoid invidious distinctions be- A single remark upon the question of Treasury of the country be sustained, and the it. He yielded to all that credit for purity of tween the Government and the people, the chartering a National Bank, as a mere matas it recently has been, by the national autho- public mind, it was because they deprecated Congress to keep the currency of the National clusion. rities, to convoke Congress, relieve the banks to passage as, in their judgments, injurious to Treasury up to the standard of gold and silver, The three alternatives had been presented. be composed of parts of Somerset and Worcester.— presume not.

should be, the receipts of revenue would be ta- bill could not pass. ken in one hand, and the disbursements for ex- In this condition of the question, and of the ments in Canada between the patriots and loyalists, gister his name would deprive him of his vote. penses would be made with the other. No- Senate, he considered it to be his indispensable are contradicted by more recent accounts. The ac- A most consummate attempt at injustice, but thing could be hoarded but the amount which duty to present, what he believed to be the countof the capture of Fort Malden and all the miry compelled it to keep in transitu; and that nate and the country. And what was that? latest intelligence is from the Cleveland Herald of was just as much, and no more, hoarded than In his judgment, it was the adoption of some February 24th, as follows:

they hold, and merely assume that they are public. It was not his habit to speak dis- In all this he was constrained most respect ed all such arguments, and all arguments of the principal debtors to the banks, and are to respectfully here of the actions or the motives fully to ask where was the ground of complain- every character, founded upon simple necescontinue to be their principal customers. Let of any; and he certainly did not intend, in the unless gentlemen were ready to take the posi- sity, as establishing grants of power under the payments to the public creditors be made in purpose and sincerity of intention, which he National Legislature, possessing the power to ter of expediency, if all questions of constituspecie, or its equivalent, or would the views wished them to award to him; but he must say fix the standard of currency, should at once a- tional power were out of the way, and he would and wishes of the merchants be consulted, and that he had never seen more active, zealous, dopt a base standard, and thus conform the dismiss this topic. The experience of his own for various public documents, for which he will less of the mean by which it is attained. the currency be made to bend to private and and persevering efforts to forestall public opincorporate interests? Let the experience of the ion upon any measure of legislation, then had might be the interest at the local banking inthe United States, had sati fied his mind that please accept our thanks. last year answer the inquiry. He would ex- been used towards this, from the appearance of stitutions to maintain. He did not believe the dangers to our political and civil institutions, press his confirmed opinion, that, under such the Message of the President, at the extra that any advocate for such a doctrine was to be from such an organized money power, vastly a system, the currency of the public Treasury session, to the present hour. He had seen this found here; but if such an one should appear, overbalance any anticipated benefits, and that, the Directors of the Eastern-Shore Rail-road commust share all the reverses and fluctuations of the most respectable, intelligent, and influenforeign and domestic trade; and all the hazards the most respectable, intelligent, and influenand to assert that a sound currency could be institution ought not to be chartered by Concompleted and they only await the payment of the of corporate banking, as a private interest.— tial, of those who had been friends and supsustained in this country, without an intringegress. Neither the hour of the day, the first instalment of the State's subscription to com-Hence the operations of the Treasury itself porters of the Administration, and who, he ment upon the powers granted to Congress by patience of the Senate, nor his own strength, mence the work. must be suspended, or the law of Congress, as trusted, were yet so, were among the most ac- the Constitution, for the means of accomplish- would permit him to enter upon a further dis to currency, violated, whenever revulsions live in opposition to this measure. They so ing the object; and second, if the position cussion of this point at present; and his only shall oppress the country, and the customers acted, because they so telt and so thought; and of the banks, or the alternative be resorted to, if they used efforts to prejudice the bill in the contend that it was the constitutional duty of he had pronounced, he would pass to his con-

of the nation to sustain its Treasury, until the He would entreat them, however, to pause The next and only other objection he propo-The condition of the public Treasury, of the A convention was to be held at the same place on in the several depositories, too great a portion bill upon the table, as the action which a majority of their members proposed. This bill He had but a brief answer to this objection. was to be opposed from two sides of the house. Place next week. We beg further indulgence of compel the day-laborer to leave his work to It never could be true at times when the reve- The triends of the State bank deposite system, our correspondent "S" "Fiat Justicia" is wholly have his name recorded anterior to an election, properly adjusted. It they were equal as they and together, to be met and overcome, or the command of its confidence and credit? Never jecture, the opposers of the bill should not deobjection, as it was expressly met by a prohitherto supported both? Is there not, numerivernment and bring it to the light of day that wealth and population. Had the Federal Government, by any act, or mand of us to surrender our favorable judgvision in the bill. He referred to the twentycally speaking, a very great degree of un the people may see how their affairs are shameexpression, authorized an expectation of this patronage and confidence, except upon condimensure which repeated experiment, both in Secretary of the Treasury, whenever there the bill, at least so far as a practical and bond which tends more to the improvement of the part of the provided to be sometiment of the part of the provided to be sometiment. The people may see how their attairs are shame-fully neglected, and the aiders and abettors may be made answerable for the evil thereof patronage and confidence, except upon conditions which had been violated by the banks, adversity and in prosperity, has proved to be should be upon deposite to the credit of the banks is concerned; may be made answerable for the evil thereof.

The supposed that to be the fact and he referred. We want light and light we must have and the treasure of the country? He was The next objection he proposed to notice was, dollars, to dissipate the money so hoarded by to this division of feeling here, upon this sub. aware of no such act or expression. The that the operations of the bill would be to an investment in National, or State stocks, ject, with no pleasure. He knew and felt that the operations of allows the conclude to-day Mr. Wright's speech est and industrious character, renders prosperations and industrious character and indus esparation exists, and has been forced upon the separate the Government from the people, and nation by the banks themselves, and the simple question is, shall we renew it? In what sense question however that the decision of that question however that the decision of the position was a startling objection and the properties of the period of the position which we publish to day is well advantages without the received the difference as much as any one of the period of the position which we publish to day is well advantages without the received the difference as much as any one of the period of the position which we publish to day is well advantages without the received the difference as much as any one of the period can the decision of that question, however that

This, again, was a startling objection, and mitted to remain in the possession and keeping regretfed the difference as much as any one of the possession and keeping advantages, without due regard to the encourdecision may be made, be an attack upon the banks? The idea was a mistaken one, and the banks? The idea was a mistaken one, and the was, that the tendency of the measure under abhiection in any light in which it could be discussion would be to separate the Governobjection, in any light in which it could be viewed, was unfounded and unjust.

He proposed, however, for the purpose of illustrating the truth of this conclusion, and the second was, that the separation making it make the former and depress the latter; and the second was, that the separation measure under viewed, was unfounded and unjust.

He proposed, however, for the purpose of illustrating the truth of this conclusion, and latter; and the second was, that the separation making it make the former and depress the latter; and the second was, that the separation of public duty which he claimed for himself; and he assured them, one and all that no re Identity to elevate the Govern-to the provisions of this difference of opinion upon a particular bill. He importation of merchandise forms the bill generally, he would omit any further remarks here.

As, however, he had discussed the provisions of this difference of opinion upon a particular bill. He importation of merchandise forms the bill generally, he would omit any further remarks here. illustrating the truth of this conclusion, and making it more clear, to call to the minds of the currency to be provided for and secured.

Senators a single chapter in our financial his— of the currency to be provided for and secured.

He had now closed what he proposed to mark which he had made, or was about to make which he had been or should be, on his part, in make, had been or should be, on his part, in make, had been or should be, on his part, in make, had been or should be, on his part, in
They constitute have seemed to make the second was, that the separation of public duty which he came the proposed to mark which he had now closed what he proposed to mark which he had been or should be, on his part, in
They constitute have seemed the second was, that the second was, the second was, the second was, Senators a single chapter in our financial history During forty years of the existence of the Corrency to be provided for and secured to each. Had either of these assumptions any foundation in fact, or even in fair apprehension. He had already attempted to show and the country for the provided for and secured to the correct to the system of finance for the sub-treasury scheme, the country for their country for their constituents and the country for their constituents. the Government, under the Federal Constitution, a national bank had been in existence, and, he spoke from recollection, but he believthought he had succeeded in showing, that the
But there was a third alternative—a natical system proposed by the bill preferathat accountability would be discharged by would seriously entertain such a discrepancy individuals cannot act as agents for the growth and population.

To afford ample support to this class of citwould seriously entertain such a discrepancy and the formulation in fact, or even in fair apprehension?
He had already attempted to show, and thought he had succeeded in showing, that the
But there was a third alternative—a nadischarged by
would seriously entertain such a discrepancy
would seriously entertain such a d

State banks were not distursed to the public dues but at the pleasure of the public dues but at the pleasure of the public dues but at the pleasure of the public dues the notes of its neighbor mixtuition, to take then out of circulation, and return them promptly, to be converted into species of the species funds. Dul these State institutions and the Government of their agents of the public dues the notice of the nation, in a manner much more forcible, and from sources much more forcible, specie funds. Did these State institutions choice? He could not believe it.

But the objection assumed that this separation was to grow out of the different currencies arguments in favor of the power, but all had been honored that the successful and proper that measure which will put the most effected by Mr. Wright's bill should it pass.

The people are weary of being swindled, and that measure which will put the most effectual from necessity or expedien.

Government: that it is within the power and successful and Legislature for gallants to an old lady's arriver for gallants to an old lady arriver for gallants to an old lady arrive that, to the extent of its operations, the Nather such an institution. That a uniform authorities of the Government; did they not fear he would repeat that in assigning these true policy and to the country is about returning to

WHIG & ADVOCATE. EASTON, MD

TUESDAY, MARCH 6, 1838.

80- NEW COUNTY .- A meeting was recently held at Salisbury to determine on such steps as

OG- A new Democratic paper has been commenc-

To CORRESPONDENTS .- "Madison" shall have a tropal Treasury shall form the same check and the bill and the tendency, it would therefore currency was expedient and highly desirable four our wide-spread country; no one could positions, they were merely saiding and Bank influence. AS THE PEOPLE SUS.

TAINED THE FIRST SO WILL That it shall either not receive tollowed. On the contrary, it had been all comfortably without such a currency had been all comfortably without such a currency had been all the bill had the tendency, it would therefore currency was expedient and night positions, they were merely saiding and strengthening the friends of a National Bank. TAINED THE FIRST SO WILL good old black cockade times. The true points and correct principles, were furnishing what might be THEY SUSTAIN THE SECOND.

Townsend and Sollers acted as scribes to the and will not do. They show their perfect wilbelled with the magic words Anti Van Buren. They show, in our opinion, but little independence and certainly much less patriotism by some of their avowals. What! men who boast of venerating principle, declaring they are ready to ABANDON the man of their choice for ANY OTHER person who may be more We received no Western Mail last night. acceptable to their party throughout the Union? It is all the same whether he be Abolitionist or 10 Last advices state Foreign Wheat to be anti-abolitionist - Bank or anti-bank - Webworth $1.65. Corn is quoted at 65 a 70 cents. ster, Clay, Harrison, Biddle or Tappan, they are This is the end at aim of their valented pa-

"Cromwell, I charge thee, fling away ambition; By that sin fell the angels!"

65-Gen. Liarrison in a letter to the Editor of the St. Louis Missourian, says in answer to an inquiry, that "if elected President of the United States, he would, under no circumstances, were necessary to the formation of a new county, to become a candidate for a second term!" We 905-The committee of the House of Delegates, to whom the subject was referred have reported unfavorably on the Registry Law. So much for the unconstitutional attempt to that the privilege of voting might be either CANADA.—The reports of very recent engage- thus insured or annuffed. The failure to re-

not at all inappropriate for the consid ration of But suppose that a time should again come and were he to judge from the language of that when over trading and speculation, in every portion of the public press which was supposed the policy of the majority of our Legislators quite a fashionable custom with many to send branch of business should commence the accu- to reflect their opinions, or from what had but to resist any innovation upon the present sys- to Bah imore for nearly every article of conmulation of another surplus revenue, such as recently passed here in relation to the failure lem of Banking, though facts are daily and sumption they use, when the same article could had afflicted the country for the last few years, of a depos te bank in Boston, he should be then, for himself, he should consider this tenthen, for himself, he should consider this tencompelled to say that no change in that quarter hourly occurring to prove the necessity of a range of a transport of dency of the bill one of its most valuable fea- had taken place. But he would appeal to the dical and judicious change in the system. The own Mechanics We know of a case where a of the Federal Government, to sustain and but to prove that the practical operation of a the fair expenditures of the Government, and Are they willing to surrender their favorite the State from the heavy burdens she is made would have cost him here. Trade, we admit, make useful the banking institutions to which system for the management of our finances, they were giving life and power, as banks of such as is substantially provided for by the and injurious business excesses would proceed to bear. Taxation is high, and under the present state of things will still be higher. A Not, Mr. President, to the prostration of busi- that, with one or two solitary exceptions per- sent state of things will still be higher. A perity of our residence, should induce us to enness and credit, and the currency of the coun- haps, every man of them is for a National heavy and responsible debt has been incurred, courage and loster our own Mechanics in preftry. No, sir, the banks, instead of promoting, Bank, as, in their judgments, the only effectual would be compelled to arrest them, and to reremedy for the financial difficulties of the money are sound dend with instead of promoting, and to rewould be compelled to arrest them, and to repatronage of the Federal Government, in the shape of a profitable use of its money, and a ble or unlavorable, are little more than contact the condition, in this respect, of those who have out the corruption that exists in our State Go
The shape of a profitable and vigor to trade, & add greating of the condition, in this respect, of those who have out the corruption that exists in our State Go
The shape of a profitable and vigor to trade, & add greating of the condition, in this respect, of those who have out the corruption that exists in our State Go
The shape of a profitable and vigor to trade, & add greating of the condition of the senate in the discussion of the senate in the senat