is still here;

belong to human nature, he will forever cher- Court made no reply. ish her with tenfold more ente than the "apple The trial will terminate to-morrow. The winds of Heaven to visit her too roughly."

And what volumes does the conduct of the will be liberated on bail. Young lady of Bardstown speak for the forti- Dec. 29th.—The trial closed to-day. Dr. Denton, on TUESDAY ture, the daring, the unfaultering faithfulness Wilkinson was liberated altogether, no evidence of the gentler sex! How sublime, how de- appearing against him to satisfy the Court of 12th inst. to take into co lightful to man is the contemplation of their his having designedly participated in the affray. the course pursued by fond, their devoted love! No misfortune, no Judge Wilkinson was held to bail in the sum adversity can change them, but

"Through joy and through sorrow, through 000. glory and shame."

Wilkerson under weat an examination before done wrong to suffer. the examining court at Louisville, and that the I understand the young lady to whom the pated, or the published accounts led the public fair trial, she will be true to her plighted faith. to believe. He was accordingly admitted to bail, under a bond for his appearance of $50,-000-this heavy sum being suggested by the THE ATTACKS ON THE SECRE- tended to quit the country. Judge himself-at the same time declaring that he desired nothing but a fair trial .- Cin.

tragedy alluded to in the above article, in which of the hounds, and seems to think that the Ses Judge Wilkinson was a chief actor. - Ed. cretary will be compelled to resign. Not Whig] and is still, in considerable excitement, from honest Whig to fill the place, I know not call him. He must first abjure the bloody tragedy which took place at the where we should direct his search. Honest cal errors; that is, all the mi Galt House, last Saturday week. You have men are rare birds among the Opposition, as seen the particulars in the papers. The cir- rare almost as, according to Peter Pindar, ported up to the time of his a cumstances in brief are as follows:

Correspondence of the Philadelphia Inquirer THE TRAGEDY AT LOUISVILLE.

Judge and Murdough, afterwards called to see yet to throw Mr. Woodbury overboard, bespectable, but wealthy.

his triends at the Galt House, commenced praise him. This would bring him into dis- in favor of the Abolition of Slavery here, he was tones me i will kill your? monday, which is casting a shadow Being the pass to w be approaching, the lang took the Judge of the A A A A A A patice to his changes comety comes form the column will and the little withing by tailor and this part to be the shadow of political We hope he is awakening to a proper sense of settle advanced to Muriough, even of the fdeath. In a word, their violent praises of a bonor and discretion. Junge's friends, and said by our are one of the public officer are a just ground of suspicion; villians who drew a dirk at me in my shop." even their silence bodes no good to him, but At this Murdough drew a Spanish dick, and their constant and bitter aspersions afford ex-replied in a menacing tone, "whoever says I cellent proof that his principles and practice drew a dirk, is a d-d liar." At these words, as a Republican are in a sound and whole-during the year commencing October 1837, entirely meets his approbation. two of Reading's party fell on Murdough, who some condition. His friends could scarce de- and ending September 1838, as is shown by it is supposed administered the blow of which sire a better test of his merit, or his country the returns made to the Secretary of State, is time one or two more had knocked down Dr. The character of Mr. Woodbury requires 6,494. unless they were delivered up.

gressing before His Honor Judge Joyce. The through the battle and the storm. ablest council have been employed, and the Court house has been thronged with citizens during the examination. Feeling much interest in the case, I attended during the argu-is that of his brother. The Judge is a man of the tricks of the Federalists, and know very and after he had taken a second thought, he asstanding at home; and has recupied a high well already on which horse the saddle should sented to what was required of him, only ex-Legislature, and was deputed to Europe by his State on a mission to negociate for millions of More HELP! - A new paper has been esta- his former political principles, and his expressafter his arrest. - His age is about 35. Mur- of Democracy. dough is a young man of 25, and a lawyer, I have never seen paralleled.—While Harden to Boston. She is said to be 4 feet in height ject, we will produce such testimony as he from those who speak the truth, and underwas commenting with some severity upon the 14 feet around the waist, and weighs 865 lbs can neither evade nor gainsay. We chal- stand what they say. face and exclaimed with a voice that run length looked him fiercely in the She is moreover "quite playful and sprightly" lenge him to a denial of the facts stated, and He also gives the following information de-This was said in the two of the Court and Ciber of the Cibe This was said in the face of the Court, and Cincinnati News ought to be ashamed of it- will meet his presumption by adducing evilength Mr. Harden resumed:-"The Court ! Though the herd have fled from thee, thy home requires no comment upon what it has heard," said he, and proceeded in his argument Never I know not, I ask not, if guilt's in that heart, did I see mortification and chagrin more deep-I but know that I love thee whatever thou ly depicted than in the countenance of Judge Wilkinson, at this unfortunate ebullition of How mexpressibly precious must such a be- Murdough. The words went to his very soul. ing be to a man situated as Judge Wilkerson! After a lew moments Murdough, sensible of Tuesday Morning, Feb If he has a tithe of the feelings which usually his error, apologised to the Court, to which the

of his eye." He will not even permit "the prisoners are operating favorably to themselves on the people. The opinion of many is, they of $50,000, and Murdough in the sum of $5,- Esq. and adopt such

Previous to the decision of the Court, Judge Their heart, their devotion, is always the Wilkinson stated that he was indifferent as to the amount of bail required, he wished to be Note .- Our readers will recollect that Judge tried by the laws of his country, and if he had circumstances of the fatal aftray proved to be Judge is betrothed is in this city—and has speedy condition between Text much more favorable to him than was antici- declared, that if discharged from guilt, after a

From the Hartford (Conn.) Times.

TARY OF THE TREASURY. The Whig pack are out upon Mr. Woodbuin full cry. The editor of the Courant, ment, was manifested in every [We subjoin a full account of the fatal like an ancient courser, though unable to join public. quite so fast, gentlemen. We cannot yet abandon Mr. Woodbury to your tender mer- much difficulty in electing a United cies for a good many reasons. In the first netor. It seems that a portion of the place, if that Department were made vacant, and Diogenes were summoned from the dead Whige are unwilling to swallow Louisville, Dec. 23 .- This city has been, to look around with his lighted candle for an the Mittle Expunger" as the gentlemen were in ancient Sodom. In this fore they can take him into Judge Wirkinson arrived in this city and instance as in most others, the noise of the them. The Globe says:-We stopped at the Galt House, accompanied by Whig leaders is not the genuine note of alarmhis brother, Dr. W, and a young man named ed patriotism, but the counterfeit outcry of Murdough. They were residents of Vicks- rapacity. If a Wise or his compeers were to appearance in the Senate with M burgh, Miss., and the Julge was to have been be quartered on the Treasury, their virtuous as Federal Whig Senators, would married on Thursday last to a young lady in clamors would soon diminish to the inaudible striking illustration of the princip Wilkinson received from the tailor a coat which in New York, we might then have Prices in party! Or, rather, such a palpable him. The Judge abused the mechanic, whose cause that is not the manner in which we are their real character and objects, than all the name is Reading, who reforted, and they accustomed to back the faithful and tried ser- expositions which could be written. separated very angry. In the evening, just vants of our country. The Secretary justly before tea. Reading with several of his friends, regards the attacks made upon him, coming visited the Galt House, under the plea of ob- from the quarter they do, with the most protaining the names of the Mississippi gentle- found indifference and contempt. In thus feelmen, that he might get warrants against them, ing he is right; for it has always been the sig- question should come before the House this friends here have had repeated interviews with Here the fatal affray began in which two lel- nal curse of the party that attack him, to faslow beings were launched into eternity. It ten the objects of their assault more firmly Slavery in the District of Columbia! He furknives and pistols. Two citizens of Louisville They are adopting towards Mr. Woodbury ther said, he wished "the Abolicionists to un- we cannot help feeling the force of the discripwere the victims, one of them not only rethe course of all others best calculated to in- derstand that after reading their papers and crease his popularity. If the Whigs really documents, and all that has been publicly said It is said that Reading being surrounded by desire to ruin Mr. Woodbury, they ought to abusing the Judge in a very vituperative and re; ute at once. Nothing has so surely and not prepared to vote for it. However, he was Hicks, of Dorchester, and some other gentledisgraceful manner,—calling me a flar andly blasted public characters as Federal open to conviction on all subjects, and not fix-"scoundred," coward, contemptible Mirassing, flattery. It has proved to them a gift more plad Sir, I disregard y of agust but which eclipsed the sun of Henry that opinion."

many say, with they descent of many the resses of he Whit; is they would flee from a

Wilkinson, and were beating him with their no support from any quarter. It is written in fists and with a cane. At this moment the his able reports, in his patrictic measures, in Judge advanced and rescued his brother by his unflinching conduct of the highest branch we now proceed to specify the pledge which mit to their attentive perusal the subjoined giving Rothwell, the assailant, two deadly of the Executive during the most trying time this gentleman made, previous to his election, extract from Mr. Duncan's speech, recently gushes with his bowie knife, both of which that the country has seen for the last twenty to the leading members of the Democratic made in the House of Representatives upon the severing his ribs. Rothwell tell, and died in when the Whigs, with their customary patri- party of Caroline. On this occasion we shall subject of defalcations. about 24 hours. The Judge and his party otism, were pealing forth a yell of triumph at do no more than present such facts as are in then escaped to their room, where they were the prospect of stopping the wheels of Govarrested by the police, and carried to prison. ernment—when the Treasury, by the traud our possession, derived from sources entitled Federalists. Amo'nt. Democrats. Amo'nt. 256,200 48 856,200 48 There removal was effected clandestinely, as and bankruptcy of the public debtors, was to the highest credit, and from gentlemen who 50 the house was in a few minutes surrounded by drained of its last dollar-when, in a word, feel a deep interest in the subject. We think it a dense crowd, demanding the lives of the every thing seemed to be giving way to a recontinuance, altogether, to the malignant tury lie at this stage of the subject, for no one better This is a brief account of this first horrid of an unprincipled faction, the Democratic knows our ability to produce sworn evidence tragedy, as I have gleaned so from the testi- Secretary stood manfully, at his post, and, un- of the correctness of the facts we shall present? mony. The excitement not only in this city, dismayed by its difficulties, calmly planned but throughout the State, has been tremend- measures for the relief of the general distress. ous, and public opinion has rolled like a tor- Those measures were crowned with signal this matter is prompted by no other feeling success. Base indeed, then, would it be to than that common to every member of the For several days an inquiry has been pro- desert, the pilot who has helped to bear us

From the N. Y. New Era.

SWARTWOUT COMMITTEE. We understand that this committee, with ment, which has occupied all of to-day, and bully Wise among the number, are now in ple of the State, for us, he might "go unwhipt which will be closed to merrow morning. In this city, and have already commenced opera- of justice," torgiven and forgotten. But to behalf of the prisoners, the Court was ad- tions. In the mean time, it is well to know his pledge. dressed in a very able and feeling manner, by who they are, and in what way, and from Col. Robinson and Judge Rowen, both dis- what motives they have been selected. We tinguished lawyers. In behalf of the Com- will not say that any committee appointed by Republican party of Caroline "if he would go . monwealth, the case was argued by the Prose- the House of Representatives is a humbug with the Van Buren party, if elected, in all cuting Attorney, and Judge Harden. Harden committee; but we will say that, from the cir- matters of importance, particularly the election known to you for the power and severity with bers of this committee, and the political char- of a United States Senator," he declined anacter of some of them, that the object of the swering at the time the question was propoun-On this occasion, it is needless to say his argu- Federalists has been, and is, to humbug the ded, and intimated his intention of withdrawments against the prisoners, was bold, sarcastic people. A committee of this sort is recomand convincing—showing a mind unawed by mended in the President's message, and Mr. ing immediately from the canvass, if such were the array of opposing counsel, or the wealth, Cambreleng brought forward the resolution to the requisitions exacted of him. He was given standing or influence of the distinguished appoint this very committee. The Democratic plainly to understand that nothing short of such The deportment of Judge Wilkinson on gation, and wish the scrutiny to be thorough a pledge could secure him the vote of the Detrial, is composed, dignified and respectful, as and complete. But they are wide awake to mocratic party. After the lapse of a few days, money, and until now his character has been blished at Rahway, N. J. by Mr. Charles E. ed intention of so doing, should be held secret ments are not embraced in this estimate. to an amiable lady of this vicinity, a few days fair to be a useful auxiliary in the great cause

A scene occurred in Court to-day, which I rived there from Marlow, N. H. on her way If Mr. Boon joins issue with us upon this sub-

EASTON.

To the Democratic Republican voters of Caroline

You are requested to the circumstances may

MANY VOT Denton, Feb. 1, 1839.

TEXAS. - Recent intelligence ral party of Mexico. A running the Rio Grande, that Filasola gusted with the Mexican governm fection, and want of confidence in

VIRGINIA U. S. SENATOR sed that the Virginia Legislature sit ion in Virginia would elect M he had ordered. The garment not pleasing the Capitol, and Swartwouts in the Cabinet. | ment of all principle, honesty & hone would ted said clerkship, which might have been prehim, he sent it back, and in company with the In the next place, we cannot consent quite do more to open the eyes of the people as to ing a number of Abolition petitions, said, if the pi Julier, &c. To this Judge Winking up to the portoned shirt of Nessus. It ed in any opinion as not to be willing to alide the caucus nomination for U.S. Sena-

e splended fortunes of Rives, and! cock to fight a duel, naming time, place, weapone, &c. Mr. Adams said he had no doubt past, and shun the ca- the name of one personally known to him .-

> SAILORS .- The number of seamen registered in the various ports of the United States Vilson, and so far as his name is concerned;

ly state, than Mr. Boon himself. Our zeal in Republican party who understands the nature of the case; and if it were not for the hope of placing Mr. Boon's conduct in its proper light before his Senatorial colleagues and the peo-

When asked by a leading member of the 12 acting the promise, that his abandonment of In favor of Fewithin three feet of where his honor was sitting. The Court was silent, and the advocate two "ladies of color" through the streets in a dence of the truth of our charge in a different

We have thus briefly shown the manner in | 1. "What number of postmasters there are For Visiters of the Jail of Baltimore City and which Mr. Boon won the confidence and sup- in the United States?" port of the leading members of our party in Caroline, and we refer the reader to his course in the Senate to discover how far he has con- receive in the year?" 1839. formed to his promises.

To our friends throughout the State, and elsewhere we distinctly say, and wish them to understand, that the Republicans of Caroline had a sufficient guarantee of Mr. Boon's fidel. icet at ity to their interest before the election; but it the remained for recent events to develope that they have been grossly deceived and wickedly Boon, betrayed; that they have warmed into life a ns political hypocrite, whose first act was to repay their confidence with the blackest ingratitude. believed, however, that more than half the

We have been politely favored with the pe- posed to the Administration. rusal of a letter, from which the subjoined extract is taken. The portion we copy has already appeared in print-hence the liberty we have taken to annex it to this article.

Annapolis, January 21, 1839. Copy of a letter to the people of Caroline County; relative to the course of Senator Boon. Although we know you must be very anxious to learn the history of Mr. Boon's course here, the information has been deferred until an interview could be had with Dr. Wilson, of Montgomery; it was therefore proposed that Mr. Fountain should wait on Dr. Wilson up-Mr. Fountain, and the result has been entirely them their food and raiment. Let but the Op- William Keplinger, of Baltimore city - Luther satisfactory, and afforded additional information respecting Mr. Boon's movements. In stes Se- the onset of his political course Doctor Wilson we believe however, they never can accom- of Baltimore city. informed Mr. Fountain that on Sunday, pre- plish) we will see, beyond a doubt, a proscripvious to the organization of the Senate on Monday, he (Doctor Wilson) waited on Mr. Book, at his room, and desired a conference with him, Marius. politi- relative to the course to be pursued by them, as they were both elected independent Sena-

Mr. Boon he said seemed every way disposed to evade the interview; and when asked by Legislature. Doctor Wilson why he should do so, stated that he had been advised to this course by Mr. Eccleston, of Dorchester, and other whig friends, upon Mr. Boon the impropriety of electing a new clerkship in the Senate; and finally voted vented by adhering to Dr. Wilson; the office tions, which will be attended to next week. is now filled by Boon's son in-law, Mr. Reyper. Dr. Wilson further states, that finding all hope lost in uniting with Mr. Boon, he conceived it entirely unnecessary to say any thing Mr. Adams, on the 21st ult. after present further to Mr. Boon on any subject. Be assured, gentlemen, that nothing has been left Thompson, Esqr. for Congress. Mr. Boon, and in every conversation, we find of his constituents; and although we regret it, March next. tion that Mr. Burchenal gave of him in the Bultimore Convention, at the nomination of Mr. Steele-that he was led up like a doubtful man whose name is not now recollected. Mr. Boon has distinctly stated that he feels bound

If Mr. Boon's course in all other respects tor, in all probability, would have been over- taining the public printing. looked by his constituents. It is not deemed necessary to suggest any course to be pursued towards Mr. Boon, as a cheated and insulted people will apply the remedy,

With high respect, &c.

FEDERAL WING OFFICE HOLDERS .-That our readers may see how wrongly . the Administration has been charged with pro-

$56,200 GENERAL POST OFFICE. 14,600 AUDITOR'S OFFICE. 31,200 TREASURY DEPARTMENT. 12,000 REGISTER'S OFFICE. 27,050 FIRST COMPTROLLER'S OFFICE. 12,250 SECOND COMPTROLLER'S OFFICE. 12,500 FIRST AUDITOR'S OFFICE. 4,500 SECOND AUDITOR'S OFFICE. 15,000 FOURTH AUDITOR'S OFFICE. 10,550 Engineer. 9,700 8 FIFTH AUDITOR'S OFFICE: 11,700 TREASURER'S OFFICE. 11,750 SOLICITOR'S OFFICE. 2,800 STATE DEPARTMENT. 37,800 Aggregate, $269,055

The War, Navy, and Patent Office Departuntil after the election. These assurances feel assured that in those Departments there were satisfactory to those to whom they were ralists with proportionate salaries. I have no ance. will be found to be a large majority of Fedething but my sympathy.

A FAT CHILD.—The Lowell Courier deunderstanding, to give him a zealous support. judiciary, officers of the army and navy, and other Li States officers, are opposed to the administration.' I have assurances of what I say Washington, Jan. 17, 1839. tonishment ureyaded the whole assembly At disk night, without gas, oil, or tallow; just by The number of postmasters in the U. States, on the first day of December last, was 12,553 2. "The aggregate amount of salary they

The compensation of postmasters for the year ending with the 30th June, 1838, varied little from 8921,034. 3. "What portion of them are supporters and friends of the present Administration?" I have not information which will enable me to classity the postmasters, politically. Although, in making appointments, triends of the Administration are preferred to enemies, when their politics are known, there are many cases in which the Department has no in formation on the subject, and it institutes no inquiries into the politics of incumbents. It is postmasters of the U. States are politically op.

With high respect, Your obedient servant, AMOS KENDALL. Hon. A. Duncan.

Now let one of those federal Whig Office holders become a defaulter, and straightway the Administration is arraigned therefor, tried and condemned by its accusers, who in all such cases, constitute both the judge and the jury. The Administration is certainly blamable for keeping around it such a numerous train of officers whose chief delight would be the on the subject. That duty was performed by downfall of the administration which furnishes tic Distilled Spirits-John M'Pherson and position succeed in getting into power (which tion worthy of the worst days of a Sylla or a

> 63-The contested elections of Kent and Varden, High Auld, Chas. Berryman, Jona-Frederick have not yet been decided by the

The Ilon. Ruel Williams has been re-, and that he should and did join the whig cau- elected by the Legislature of Maine to the U- Kautt. cus the same evening. Dr. Wilson pressed nited States Senate, for six years from 4th of

We have received several communica-

The Republicans of Mississippi have nominated Governor McNutt for re-election, and Genl. Albert Gallatin Brown and Jacob John Wilmer, Hy. J. Williams.

95-The Hon. Wm.D. Merrick has been rethat he has completely betrayed the confidence elected U. S. Senator for six years from 4th of > Mr. Wright has introduced a bill in the the hands of public officers.

Co-St. Romes the Editor of the New Orleans Courier, the oldest and the most decided- services. Referred to the committee already tor, as he has attended all, either in person or ly Democratic paper in the State, has been ev Some one has challenged the old weather- by proxy; there is therefore nothing to hope lected by the Legislature, State Printer. The from his course here, and we trust nothing to Editors of the "Bee" received but 5 votes. Bee has recently changed hands, become a the challenge was a forgery, although it bore had been consistent, his voting for U. S. Sena- Whig concern, and strongly calculated on ob-

> Annapolis. January 24th, 1839. Sir.-The labors of the day have closed The Senate has confirmed some of the Exe-P. S. This letter has been shown to Dr. cutive appointments and laid others over till Thursday next, when the Senate will again sit on Executive busi ess.

consideration of the minority report of the Committee of Election, annexad to which report was an order allowing Robt. Welch, of MR. Boon.—As we promised last week, scribing individuals for opinion sake, we sub- his memorial, contesting the scat now occupied Annapolis, to produce testimony in support of by Richard Swann. In support of the minor :ty report and order, Messrs. Page and Thomas mittee to which the leave was granted, reported addressed the House in a clear, lorcible man- a bill, entitled an act to incorporate the Carner. On the other side were found battling rollton Exploring, Manufacturing and Mining against the enquiry as per order, Messrs. Company. Handy and Causin.

856,950 and Maulsby in support, and Mr. Handy in act entitled an act to incorporate the Baltimore opposition. The address of Mr. Spencer yes- Life Insurance Company. 65,980 Jerday, and that of Mr. Thomas to day, were really what might be termed masterpieces. I 38,075 the palm. Their arguments were both con clusive and unanswerable. I'll write you Very respectfully, 19,450 agam.

MARYLAND LEGISLATURE. Correspondence of the American. Annapolis, Jan 25, 1839.

7,500 The SENATE have had under consideration the nominations of the Governor to day, and it is then submitted by Mr. Stewart, and adopted 1,950 understood the following have been confirmed. DAVID RIDGELY, State Librarian. RAMSAY WATERS, Reg. Court Chan. THOMAS KARNEY, Examiner General for the Western Shore.

J. T. DUCATEL, State Geologist. J. H. ALEXANDER, Topographical AARON DUVALL, Armorer at Annap-

JAMES CARROLL, City of Baltimore. WM. BAKER,

JAS PRICE, Baltimore County. ald, Joseph Brown, Jacob Walsh, Thomas three blanks, and two scattering votes. 8239,140 Furlong, Joseph Shane, Noah Ridgely, Jacob Whereupon it was declared that the Honor-D. Hair, Wm Stewart, Jas. P. Heath, Aus able William D. Merrick is duly elected a gustus H. Pennington, John Walter, Pere- Senator to represent the State of Maryland in grine Gorsuch, Jacob White, Justus Hoppe, the Senate of the United States for six years Henry Ebaugh of Geo., Geo. W. King, John from and after the fourth day of March next. Sice, John Wright, Thus. H. Belt, Jas. Bar- IN THE HOUSE OF DELEGATES, Mr. nard jr. Wm. Ashman, Samuel Farnandis, Bowie presented the proceedings of a meeting William P. Steuert, James B. Lutimer, Thos. of the Planters of Tobaco in Prince Georges'

Justices with limited jurisdiction-Chas. A. sage of a law offering a bounty of $50,000 for Williamson, Henry R. Lauderman, Joseph the discovery of a remedy against horn worms For Directors of the Penitentiary.

GEORGE WILLIAMS, H. WILLIS BAXLEY, MARK JENKINS. Executive Committee of the Penitentiary. B. H. RICHARDSON, JACOB WHITE.

JACOB G. DAVIES,

JAMES H. MILLER,

JOHN Q. HEWLETT,

JOSEPH WHITE, JAMES HOOPER, JOHN B. SEIDENSTRICKER, SAMUEL RANKIN. CHARLES JONES, DIXON STANSBURY,

ELI L!LLY. Lottery Commissioners. MICHAEL McBLAIR, Baltimore City. SAM'L. S. DICKINSON, Talbot county. GEORGE COOK, Anne Arundel county . Tobacco Inspectors. RICH'D HIGGINS, of A. A. county.

JOHN P. WAILES, THOMAS C. WARD, RICH'D, H. GRIFFITH. Inspector General of Flour. JACOB BEAM, city of Baltimore. Inspectors of Lime.

JOHN DUTTON, WILLIAM W. AMOS. Inspector of Plaister of Paris. MICHAEL LAMB, of city of Baltimore. Managers for removing free people of color. CHAS HOWARD, WM R. STEWART, FRANKLIN ANDERSON.

Among the nominations to office made by the Governor to the Senate, and postponed for future consideration, are the following: Inspectors of Green Hides and Skins in the city of Baltimore-Richard B. Watts of Bal-

Gaugers of Casks and Inspectors of Domes-Ratcliffe, Daniel Hoover, Druwood H. Barron, of Baltimore county, and William Roney, Warden of the Penitentiary -- William Hou!-Lumber Inspectors-Wm. Robinson, Geo. C. Hall, James Norris, Robert Betts, Caleb Sheppard, Wm. W. Woodward, Richard W.

Wood Corders-Edward O. Leary, Thomas Sewall, Joshua Grindle, Andrew Hannigan, Patrick M'Donald, Jacob Stall, Amos Da vis, John E. Pollet, James Geoghigen, Thomas Henrix, William Patrick, Thomas M'-

Wharfinger in the city of Baltimore-James Cole, of Baltimore city. Coroners-Henry Staylor, Wm. W. Hilton, James Hogg, John Wright.

Notary Publics-John Gill, Wm. Eichelberger, of Jacob, Thomas Robinson, Robert M. Welch. Insolvent Commissioners-Henry Stump, Richard Frisby, Edward Palmer. Assistant Wood Corders-Daniel Ricketts, Leonard Kernan and Francis Gallagher have been nominated Leather Inspectors.

In the House of Delegates, Mr. Woolford obtained leave to bring in a bill, to be entitled an act to incorporate the Chesapeake Steam-packet Company.

Mr. Mason presented a memorial signed by S. Senate to secure the public money in one hundred and ninety six citizens of Washington county—also, a memorial signed by three hundred and twenty one ladies in same county, praying that the Thompsonian Practitioners may be allowed to charge for their raised on that subject.

On motion of Mr. Coade, leave was given to bring in a bill authorising the growing of Mulberry Trees and making Silk at the Poor house of St. Mary's county.

After going through with the morning business, the untimished business of yesterday was taken up, being the Report of the majority of the Committee on Elections, and the substitute offered therefor by the minority of the committee upon the memorials of Messrs. Kirby and Welch. This question was debated until a late hour-Messrs. Page and Thomas against the report of the majority, and Messrs. Handy and Causin for it. Mr. Causin still has the The House of Delegates to-day resumed the floor, having given way for an adjournment without having concluded.

SATURDAY'S PROCEEDINGS.

ANNAPOLIS, Jan. 26, 1839. IN SENATE-Mr. Stewart, from the com-

This is the second day of that subject on the ed the committee on Corporations to report a On motion of Mr. Stewart, leave was grants carpet. Yesterday were heard Messrs. Spencer bill, to be entitled a further supplement to an

On motion of Mr. Evans, the bill, entitled a am at a loss to say, to whom should be yielded further supplement to the act to incorporate the village of Port Deposite, was read the third time by special order, passed and sent to the The Clerk of the House delivered a message from the House, proposing to go into the election of a U. S. Senator at 12 o'clock, and stating that the Hon. W. D. Merrick was put in nomination on the part of the House. A message concurring in the proposition was by the following vote: Yeas-Messrs. Thomas, prest., Beckett, Eccleston, Donoho, Martin, Magruder, Potts, Pratt Purnell, Ricand. Stewart, Willson,-12. Nays-Messrs. Ely, Evans, Goldsborough, Matthews, of C., Maulsby, Wason, - 6.

Twelve o'clock having arrived, the Senate proceeded to the election of United States Senator. The ballot box was prepared, and the Judges of Orphans' Court of Baltimore county. Messrs, Stewart and Matthews, (of Charles,) who had been appointed, conjointly with the committee of the House of Delegates, to count the ballots and report the result. They retir-Justices of the Peace for the City of Balti- ed, and after a time, returned, and reported, 4,650 more. William Eichelberger, Robert M. that on examination of the ballot box, it ap-Welch, Thomas Robinson, Henry W. Gray, peared there had been eighty three votes given Simon Kemp, John Mitchell, John W. Peale, in all-of which, William D. Merrick re-10,385 Henry Snyder, Jesse Cloud. D H. McDon- ceived forty eight votes, and there were thirty

B. Pottinger, Maurice Bush, Samuel Purvi- county, instructing their Delegates and Senator to use their exertions in procuring the pasand tobacco flies.

On motion of Mr. Thomas, leave was granted to bring in a bill to incorporate the Easton Silk company.

Correspondence of the Bultimore Republican. ANNAPOLIS,

January 27th, 1839 A SCENE IN THE HOUSE OF DEL. EGATES,-A scene which afforded som interest and no little amesement, occurred in