MINING JOURNAL.

The Daily Herald of Chicago, after a careful estimate, computes that the cost of the intoxicating drinks annually consumed in the saloons of that city is $30,-000,000, much the larger portion of which comes out of the pockets of labor. ing men.

THE father of Vice President Hamlin called his four sons after the great warriors of ancient history-Alexander, Julius Cæsar, Cincinnatus, and Hannibal. His four daughters were named respectively Europe, Asia, Australia, and America.

MR. W. H. BEARD, the artist, has made a study for a large picture to be entitled "The Power of Death." Weirdly depicted is a half-clothed figure with a death's head, one hand grasping a tiger in the throes of dissclution, the other a withered tree, while a dead elephant. In the backgroun which is desolate and gloomy, is a dead on while a battle was in progress. It hap- attended the close of this day, that ambushed behind stone walls, fired on their

MR. BARNES of Georgia is the heaviest member of the National House of 22, 1864. Representatives. He weighs over three ouacs beyond Winchester, with ranks de- miles, and right across it, from east to At Woodstock we were permitted to rest are the portliest men in the Senate and the enemy. Everything was soon in mo- off of the table-land north of it, and as treating enemy, we skirmished with them have the fattest pocket-books. The tion; the cavalry thrown out far in the much of a fortification as if nature had de- along miles of the way. Their army is Mr. Stewart of Texas, who stands feet 3 inches in his boots.

Ice works, on Michigan street, New over since the spring of 1862. For the first | the morning of the 22d at the base of these Orleans, 700 feet deep, is now throw- time our arms were thoroughly successful natural giants, which towered up fifteen ing ou 200,000 gallons per day of per- had progressed three years and a half, a ver thread of the north fork of the Shenanfectly pure water. The stream rises Union army was following up a thoroughly | doah wound round their base. Our eyes new well solves the important problem morning. His famous dispatch about the lines of Early's army, rallying here of furnishing a supply of pure water to seending Early whirling up the Valley," after their defeat. It seemed madness to that city, which is greatly needed, as it depends almost wholly upon the cistern trifying the country. Winchester was the to thousands of others in our army. water for drinking purposes.

he should now devote his talents to the and encouragement of his army, or any was made of some bushels of grapes words. So far had our course brought us, in my hand. A card was in the corner of signed his charge and will go into the morning.

span duplicate last sheets, written in the same ink and on the same paper as sunny way what has every appearance in the world of being a virgin manu-

was pursuing his editorial duties in his heard from this position, as they fortioffice his pen suddenly dropped from fied it. his hand, and he held before him a Pretty much the whole of this day was bleeding finger. An attempt had been The Sixth Corps held the right, facing the through the window. The next issue for a movement that Sheridan was med of the Pioneer contained a still more left flank "reposed," or thrown back to severe tirade against the brothels. An sonform to the course of the Shenando answer to this was the awakening of Mr. Clarke to find his printing office our regiment to go out and relieve the One laid low by the torch of an incendiary. Hundred and Sixteenth New York. He got a new outfit and started in proved too dear for him, and the tone was not entirely certain, and he caused of his journal was consequently mod | some unnecessary marching, which did not | erated to a considerable degree.

Col. Royall, now commanding the We were directed out through the town, the bill where it sloped toward Little North Countries and the control of the bill where it sloped toward Little North Countries and the control of the bill where it sloped toward Little North Countries and the control of the bill where it sloped toward Little North Countries and the control of the bill where it sloped toward Little North Countries and the control of the bill where it sloped toward Little North Countries and the control of the bill where it sloped toward Little North Countries and the countries are control of the bill where it sloped toward Little North Countries are control of the bill where it sloped toward Little North Countries are control of the bill where it sloped toward Little North Countries are control of the bill where it sloped toward Little North Countries are control of the bill where it sloped toward Little North Countries are control of the bill where it sloped toward Little North Countries are control of the bill where it sloped toward Little North Countries are control of the bill where it sloped toward Little North Countries are control of the bill where it sloped toward Little North Countries are control of the bill where it sloped toward Little North Countries are control of the bill where it sloped toward Little North Countries are control of the bill where it sloped toward Little North Countries are control of the bill where it sloped to the bill where the b one of his battalion commanders to at full length on the sacred soil. out, and, not being in a mood for in- This was done in profound darkness, direct action, he put spurs to his horse, dashed through the stream and reined the relief, that I might learn something of the relief, that I might learn something of the Valley.

| An event like that just described, occurting to an ardent and generous youth of the relief, that I might learn something of the Valley. up alongside the victim, with: 'Didn't | the location of the pickets. But it was I order you, sir, to put your battalion useless to hope for much information in camp along the river, facing st?' extreme left of our lines, and the Captain first gun was down, of the One Hundred and Sixteenth, whom Sheridan had wai 'Yes, sir. But this isn't a river, it's of the One Hundred and Sixteenth, whom only a creek.' 'Creek, sir! Creek, River was near by the picket line. For the sir! What do not be sire. What do not be sire. What do not be sire. Thus, in some of the great and pleasure. And this was the melansir! What do you mean, sir? It's a rest, I knew that I had about two dozen were heard, and then launched both the choly ending of our journey! Lonely and proportion of the working classes are river—a river from this time forth, by picket posts, stretched over half a mile. I other corps directly at the hill.

order, sir. Now do as I tell rou, cautioned them to be vigilant, and returned There was a large earthwork by There was no further delay.'

BY S. S. LEWIS.

There is no place upon the earth Where kindred bosoms meet: There blessed peace should ever smile, And gone dissension's gloom And lurk no envy, guilt, or guile, Around the hearth at home.

When o'er life's drear and troubled waste We pass with doubts and fears. And ev'ry scene around us cast Is fraught with sighs and tears, How often will we long to leave Those scenes of grief and gloom And fonder to our bosoms cleave

The memories of home.

When childhood's joys are past away, And days of youth are gone, When time has tinged our hair with gray And death is stealing on-Ah! then what pleasure 'tis to think Of youth's bright, joyous bloom And cups of bliss we used to drink

With those we left at home. When on the bed of death we lie. And life with us is o'er, Ere death does close the glazing eye To look on earth no more-O, then on Him place ev'ry care Who triumphed o'er the tomb And bids us seek in realms more fair An everlasting home.

SEEING A BATTLE.

BY JAMES FRANKLIN FITTS.

soldiers of the war of the rebellion that uresque beauty. So remarkable, so nearly sible to overtake the scattered fragments. they were enabled to stand off and look wonderful were the military events which In several instances squads of the fugitives. pened to me once under peculiar circum- the reader will not deem the little pursuers. Our cavalry was at this time stances, and a magnificent sight it was. This occurred at Fisher's Hill, Va., Sept. | they occurred is described. The Shenan- to force a passage through, so as to cut of

THE artesian well at the Consumers' region was an old battle-ground. About that he is gazing upon two or three isolated twenty-five feet above the surface. The beaten and retreating enemy. | turned to the long, high rampart of Fish-first positive, clear-cut, decided victory that Yet it was done, and with triumphant and I. We had left the fort at noon for an our arms had gained since Sherman occu- success! How, will be told further on. hour's ride; and, tempted by the crisp, REV. GEORGE F. PENTECOST, of pied Atlanta, and both people and army The hours were on into a wild, pleasant bracing atmosphere and the magnificence the Tompkins Avenue Congregational along with the route-step, about ten o'clock isolated; the town and the trees and fences, friendly chat, we had gone on and on until . "And you never heard nor r Church, Brooklyn, is a minister whose that morning, Sheridan and his staff over- as well as the inequalities of the ground, the day was well-nigh spent. Grand speclike is seldom seen. He assumed took us. I noticed that he wore a new pair hid whatever bustle and stir there may have tacle indeed was that! A cloudless autumn this?" charge of the church when its congre- cheered him, of course, and he bowed. away off to our right. Major Curtiss visited plain stretching out everywhere to the hori- means."

gation was small in numbers and poor But it was plain to be seen that he was "all us from the reserve of the regiment, in- zon, with no living thing in view-a place "But the locality-the Western prairiein purse. The church is now powerrade. There was not much of the "banner further orders. Our picket-reserve was of Maker. We drew rein at last with a comShe smiled as she replied, "I have never ful and wealthy, and pays its pastor a and band of music" style about this man course idle, and naturally inquisitive; and looked all about us. been outside the State of Connecticut large salary. Mr. Pentecost feels that on a campaign. He would have a review some of the soldiers discovering a large Then Davenant and I exchanged glances my life." when he thought it necessary for the spirit | vineyard near by, a summary confiscation | which were quite intelligent, without | Mechanically I turned the picture over organization, and has according re- ment when he was putting the "go" into the volunteer army. This was all were beyond our vision; there was nothing it with her handkerchief. field of hard and active evangelical As the great peaks of the Massanutton high privates laid his hands on a bee-hive, have thought, what done, must be forever Don't ask me why I selected such a curi-

A WRITER in the Boston Post has a seen. The throb and boom of artillery poured out in an angry cloud, and in less evil from our thoughts. literary friend who never sends a manu- came faintly back to us. We saw staff time than it takes to write it, the whole re- "Look there!" exclaimed the child. "How script to the publisher without writing officers and orderlies flying up the pike and serve was dispersed with a fair distribution funny!" the last page at least six times, and well out to the front, and from an emilaying away in a pigeon hole all but nence, from the roof of a house, a barn, or ridiculous. Dozens of men were rolling, the setting sun, a dozen dark objects apone of these duplicate sheets. When back intelligence of the enemy. kicking, and slapping on the ground, others peared moving in our direction.

We watched them for a few meaning as if for life, pursued by the in-first journey he burns the last sheet, of the service. Their value on this cam- with shrieks of laughter. The nearest which, from its soiled appearance, paign was very great. Not only by day- pickets, observing the tumult, naturally supposed the reserve was attacked (as inmight tell to the next editor a tale of could be seen, but at night, with waving | deed it was), and faced about, ready for a rejection, takes down from its place in hanterns, from the high summits of this re- shot. When the insects had satisfied their cise, and could ride at top speed. They gion, they were known to send news at a rage upon us luckless New-Yorkers, they were mounted on the ponies common to the the pigeon hole one of his spick and distance of ten and even fifteen and Before night we halted outside of Strasthe rest, and starts again on its bright, of the town, and the enemy's at the south of it. No fires could be allowed, for they regiment was bivouacked in a ravine, before lying down that night we partook o A MAN named Jim Sommers kept a sumptuous repast of hard-tack, raw salt pork, and water. Many's the time since vile place at Manistique, Mich., the that I paid a dollar for a meal that I county seat of Schoolcraft County. relished far less than that humble "snack. Major Clarke, editor of the School- infantry charged through the town and craft County Pioneer, finally reached drove out the Confederate pickets. Sheri-A determination to use the columns of front of Strasburg, reconneitering the his paper to obliterate this evil, but the enemy's position. Some high ground, well determination proved of a disastrous advanced from the hill, Early had seized nature to him. After several publication in a disastrous for an outpost, and this Sherman determined to have, to demonstrate from. A which sloped from the river back to the ped from his pony. I pulled short up. tions the Sommers element grew des- brigade of the Sixth Corps was sent in and mountains; and not observing the least "Don't stop," he cried. "I'm done for. perate, and one night while the Major of the day the woodchoppers' axes were that there was none.

| Co-operation Among English Working took it after a stiff fight. During the rest that there was none.

made to assassinate him by shooting hill; the Eighth was held back in reserve. River, on which it rested.

improve our temper. I don't know of anyamusing and characteristic anecdote of sometimes give way under that kind of a Fourth Cavalry, but then Lieutenant beyond its eastern extremity. Had there it sloped toward Little North She unclosed her eyes and sighed, but no last returns made out) the sales Colonel of the Third. He says: "A story is going the rounds of the camp which does us all good even in this when numerous "officers and gentlemen."

Colonel of the Third. He says: "A been any light, we should have discovered that we were about to cross the Manassas Gap Railroad. We did discover the fact, but it was only by stumbling over the track when numerous "officers and gentlemen."

Mountain, entirely beyond the sight of the gentlemed, "they have have been that we were about to cross the Manassas ("Poor father," she murmured, "they have hilled him—and—and—I am dreadfully hurt."

To my horror and distress, I now saw Board was 1,157, and the total profit."

To my horror and distress, I now saw Board was 1,157, and the total profit. dismal weather. Col. Royall ordered as well as men with the musket, sprawled

'put that battalion in camp on the other | But everything has an end, and we finalside of the river, facing east.' A promiregiment. Our Major was the only fieldthat an enemy descending from the clouds no! Some time—some time—"

You have been so good to me—and so that an enemy descending from the clouds no! Some time—some time—" nent and well-known habit of the officer present; the Colonel had been would not have created more panic than subordinate officer was a tendency to Colonel at Pleasant Hill, away up the Red and rear.

Would not have created more plant of the wounded at Winchester, and the Lieutenant did Cook's men coming in upon their left hear them.

The rud split hairs, discuss orders, and, in fine, River. Major Curtiss took the left wing as All this, however, was beyond my sight make trouble where there was a ghost of a chance of so doing unpun- Cartain present was ordered to take the ghost of a chance of so doing unpun- Captain present, was ordered to take the and Nineteenth Corps, as they scaled the spot. The horse was quietly have elected from their own numbers. ished. Presently the Colonel saw that sther five companies, keep a small reserve hill in front. his instructions were not being carried further out, and relieve the pickets with the that obscurity. I knew that this was the was still, and the condition of the atmos- been gained. which some of our bands were accustomed our corps as soon as we could. tricity, I never knew.

It did not happen to very many of the with all its savage grandeur as well as pict- kept up till almost daylight, it was impos- clined at her feet. space wasted in which the theater where over in one of the parallel valleys, trying Two days before we woke from our biv- this point, narrows here to a width of four in this they failed. advance, the infantry marching through signed it as such. The narrowing of the seemed to be resolved into a long skirmishchester to Strasburg is twenty miles; Fish- Blue Ridge, making parallel valleys, and off. er's Hill is just beyond the latter place. | called the Massanutton Ranges. Just be-Kearnstown, Newtown and Middletown are low Fisher's Hill these ranges trerminate on the pike along this route, and the whole | so abruptly as to give the spectator the idea every square foot of it had been fought | mountain peaks. We found ourselves on General Sheridan felt decidedly well that er's Hill. Along its summit were stretched had gone by telegraph the night before to think of attacking such a position as that; forty-nine, an hour before sunset. We man kneeling beside her, holding her Washington, and was at this moment elec- it seemed so to me, and, I have no doubt, three were leisurely riding over the prairie hands. I gazed at it as if fascinated.

his manuscript comes back from its It was a wonderful and most useful arm furiated insects, and cries of pain mingled they seemed to increase in size. the stacks of muskets; and it was full half oughbred, the favorite mount of the co officer of General Emory's staff rode up. "The General directs," he said, "that you | destroy us-Ha!" open fire from your picket-line. He wants to make the enemy in his front across the tle of something overhead, which buried how the man would be regarded by river show themselves." I sent two sergeants out to the line, to go each way and give the order.

"Commence firing; aim anywhere to the under the whip to keep pace with him. ets' rifles ran up and down along the whole of demoniac cries in the rear told me of the front of half a mile or more, the opposite | horrible fate of my friend. In five minutes | about forty years ago. In 1844 the side of the river was suddenly awakened to | more, the fiendish troop would overtake | twenty-eight Rochdale pioneeers startclumps of trees, from the doors and win- leave her; what could be done? There dividing profits according to the dows of a brick house, white puffs of was one expedient, and I took it. Riding amount of purchases. Their business smoke started up, and we heard the hum- close beside her, I lifted her clear off the sad- capital was no more than £28, which ming of bullets about us. The range was dle and placed her in front of me. "Cling had been most carefully collected and rather long, but not too long for the rifled to me, now, for your life!" I cried; and had been most carefully collected and side; how it was on the other side I do not know. Some of our men in their zeal put lant bay stretched out in a tremendous a vast number of the working classes in double cartridges of powder, and got lame shoulders in consequence. But we pace. Redoubled yells, continual flights its present condition it is no doubt had developed the enemy's position oppo- of arrows assailed us as we tore on-so open to some criticism, but not even an hour, I ordered our pickets to stop. The afternoon passed. I could see no we were flying through the air. A glance | Kingsley, T. Hughes Ludlow, and F signs yet of anything being done. As it over my shoulder gladdened me with hope; Vansittart Neil, who urged the im-necessary to keep the moving columns screened by the woods and other covers her hands, and my tears fell on them.

suddenness; it was all over in an hour or ish it in when it began.

been placed in it, and the opening of the recurred to these things in my own sad line which I these great guns. A shell flew over Stras- had I spoken nor written of them situation would have allowed. Sometimes strife. Artillery from the enemy replied; was as surprising to myself as to any of I walked about and talked with the men and as the shells with burning fuses darted | my acquaintances. I married a wife. It

thus far seen, and made some wise guesses | the highest degree picturesque and exciting. | ion, lapse of time, all were against the about what would happen on the morrow. This opening chorus had not ceased probability of such a thing; with any other A few distant lights seemed only to inten- when we heard repeated cheers beyond the woman it would have been an impossibility sify the darkness. There were a few in town. Up from the hollow, dashing right | -but this one--Strasburg, behind us, others off to the at the hill, went line after line of blue-clad | No matter; enough of this. She was right, and some so far off in front of us men. Not less than ten thousand infantry, twenty years my janior, and it was a marthat I knew they must be across the river with bayonets fixed, were moving up its riage of affection, pure and simple. A and in the enemy's territory. Now occur- steep side, now in plain view, now hidden glorious creature!-but enough of this, too. red an incident that has always seemed to by trees, but charging straight on. Fire And she was quite an artist; much more me one of the queerest of my whole service. dotted the heights, as the enemy opened than an amateur. Young as she was she So far in front of us that the sound could with their musketry; we heard yells, cheers, only have proceeded from the Confederate and renewed pears from the large guns; right, a band began to play. The distance and then the swelling chorus of prolonged must have been quite a mile; but the night | cueering told us that another victory had to play, but in which they did not claim an | We were speedily on the move. After | was interested in tracing the progress that exclusive property. Then my ears were sur- the cavalry, the Nineteenth Corps had the these attempts showed, and certainly it was prised by "Yankee Doodle." This seemed advance; and there was nothing either with real pleasure that I looked them over strange enough, considering where it come glorious or delightful about the time we and listened to her explanations. from; but when, after rattling off "Dixie," had in overtaking it. The road up Fisher's | On one occasion, during our bridal trip, the entertainment wound up with "John Hill was filled with moving infantry and while we were stopping for a few days at Brown," I experienced a mild astonish- artillery, all pressing along in the pursuit. a seaside resort, Marian and I, accomment. Whether it was harmless bravado, All was confusion, exultation, and go; no- panied by her favorite, Zip, a pure-blooded or what was really meant by such eccen- body seemed to know what the orders were, Skye terrier, found a secluded nook com-

doah Valley, twenty miles in width north of the retreating Confederates higher up, but hundred pounds. Messrs. Sawyer of pleted by the battle, somewhat tired yet west, stretches Fisher's Hill, until it falls from about four o'clock in the morning to Wisconsin and Stanford of California pecting to march at once in pursuit of tain. The hill is simply the abrupt falling day's work. Sharply following up the resmallest man in Congress is Gen. the fields in three columns, and the ar- valley at this point is caused by the double line, which held one stone wall after an-Wheeler of Alabama; the tallest man | tillery taking the pike. From Win- | chain of mountains thrown out from the other, till the weight of our attack forced it |

O, the fatigues and discomforts of those into my head. Your face and your voice flying marches-who that was there can have always ever since reminded me of it. ever forget them. Who can forget the Strange, is it not? I am not troubled about glory, the sorrow over lost comrades, the strength of heart that came to us with our | statall; but there is something in this curious | TOOR BEAUTY AND DURABILITY their great experience. What comrade can ever forget "the days when we went soldiering." | that I can not understand."

WHO WAS SHE?

-Davenant, his little daughter Minnie.

everybody and everything—as he was this well and proper; what followed was not to guide us back. We were plainly and "This I wrote when the picture was so much so. One of those pushing palpably lost on the prairie. What we might | done," she said, "for a kind of name.

across the fields. The Signal Corps were of stings. Four of them fell to my lot. Her finger pointed to the east. Against running as if for life, pursued by the in- We watched them for a few moments as "They are Indians," suddenly cried large family Bible." The child was used to horseback exeran hour before we could regain possession | mandant of the post. He answered my burg. Our pickets were at the north end of our arms. The fellow who was at the spur with half a dozen bounds which took glad to say, a liberal share of the stings; heeded their cry, and checked him to their About the middle of the day, when every- rose behind us; our pursuers were gaining. thing wore the most peaceful aspect, an | "These wretched animals!" Davenant muttered through his teeth. "They will ought to have remained a secret with The exclamation was caused by the whis- | ing a lover considers a good deal more itself in the ground. It was an arrow. I held the curb close on my noble horse, him herself. while the ponies toiled painfully along savage whoop sounded frightfully near, I had been studying the ground opposite, and a shower of missiles clove the air injury, though by inquiry alone car around us. With a groan, Davenant drop- | the charm be dissolved.

But now, as the lively rattle of our pick- I dashed on; and a minute later a chorus . From behind walls and fences, from | the pony that carried Minnie. I could not | ed a little store on the principle of her arms were fast about my neck. And now, under whip and spur, my gal- | nings the movement has spread among

e; and when they ceased firing, in half swiftly, indeed, that to my excited fancy Robert Owen and the Christian social. the prairie seemed to sink beneath us, and ists, including F. D. Maurice, C was afterward learned, what was being done was with the utmost silence and secrecy. Sheridan could not fail to observe did not reach us. The sun had set, but a concerning our pursuers; bly have hoped at the time that the that from the gigantic Massanutton's top, fiery glow was spread half to the zenith, operation would ever reach its present the position of every one of his regiments when I drew rein. Not a savage was in development. A few figures will perand batteries and every move made by sight; we were saved. I dismounted, and haps be useful as showing the extent them could be seen. His plan was much helped my precious charge to the ground. to which the work has spread. the same as that which finished the battle | She lay passive in my arms; she had | 1862 the amount of sales by co-operaof Winchester: to send the Eighth Corps fainted. Carefully I laid her down, and tive societies in the United Kingdom that an arrow had entered her side. I took amounted to £2,500,000, and the "You cannot help me," she whispered. to nearly £16,000. In the twenty years Her faint accents failed as I bent low to

The ruddy glow of the western heavens | and the whole of this business is mancropping the short grass near by; I was To show more clearly what an im-The thing came with the most surprising kneeling by the beautiful dead child, holdmense hold co-operation has over cering her tear-wet hands.

twenty, will inevitably produce a powerful | the total population; in Yorkshire, to There was hardly daylight enough to fin- impression. So it was with me. Davenant, 27 per cent.; in Lancashire, to 27 per though much older than I, was my dearest | cent.; in Cumberland, to 24 per cent. The sun was down, certainly, when the friend. He was a widower; Minnie was his and in Northumberland, to 221 per sad, I returned to my Eastern home. So attached to the movement. At present There was a large earthwork back of the terrible were the details of this tragedy, the societies are larger and more and so sacred seemed the sufferings and numerous in the north than in the in 1862. The heaviest of our artillery had the words of that dear child, that I only south, -Harper's Magazine.

about the stirring campaign that we had through the twilight air, the effect was in | was the old story; habit, preconceived opin-

In the early days of our wedded life she delighted to show me her early work, all of phere was favorable to the transmission of In less than half an hour we received or- which she had carefully preserved. Unlike sound. First we heard "Bonnie Eloise," ders to follow the army instantly, and rejoin most workers in the arts, she was not at all BEALL'S BLOCK, - FROSTBURG, MD. ashamed of it; crude though it was, she except that we were to keep after the enemy. | manding a view of the sea. There she Morning came, the great curtain of mist It was fortunate for them that the darkness | seated herself upon a moss-covered rock, slowly rolled away up the sides of the of the night shielded their movements; and with some fancy needlework to give a semmountain, and the situation was before us | though the pursuit by the infantry was | blance of occupation, while I lazily re-Then she resumed the subject of her reached the end of the collection she seemed to hesitate, and then said: "Jasper, I have one more, a little water- Office-No. 4, Washington St., Cumberland color, that I painted when only ten years | June 30-y old. My friends called it good, and flattered me too much about it; but there was one thing that makes me almost tremble whenever I see it—that is, the way it was done. It was commenced, continued, and John Ryan & Co., finished without the least idea in my head of a subject. Scenery and figures were executed just as they occurred to me; my hand worked almost mechanically. And, Jasper"-she grew very serious here, and her voice trembled-"when I first met you, six months ago, that picture instantly came association of yourself with that picture | I Copper-Mixed Type has no equal.

dead shall rise before my waking vision, I ly Outfits for Newspapers or Job Offices, no shall not be more startled. The picture matter how extensive. ELECTROTYPING was of a ruddy twilight sky, a boundless and prompt attention. Sept 29 O. D. HARTZELL prairie, a horse freely cropping the grass, and prompt attention. October the ninth, eighteen hundred and a girly lying dead on the ground, and a "Marian," I cried, when the power of speech returned to me, "who told you of of long buckskin gauntlets. The men been among the lines of blue which curved sky overhead; a treeless, level expanse of "Never; and I do not know now what it The improvements consist of a handsome strengthening of some less vigorous part of it; but he seemed in his natural ele- for the benefit of that the fort and all the frame; Marian took it out and dusted Suitable for a Brewery, Distillery, Tannery Mountains, and the frowning wall of Fish- and brought it into the reserve in his arms. conjectured; the danger that was presently ous one; I can no more tell you that tain, this property would make a delightful She held up the card to my eyes. sweet, sad voice from beyond the tomb seemed to fill my ears as I read:

"I am not leaving you forever!" disturb me; only her hand stole quietly "Marian," I said at last, "I think you "Marian," I said at last, "I think you told me once that you had your mother's large family Bible."

was no one else to have it. "Please let me see it." She brought it, and I turned to the Family Record," where births, marriage and deaths-the brief epitome of human -were entered in a large, round hand.

"MARIAN REDMOND. "Born October 9, 1849." t was the day of Minnie Davenant'

A LADY tells us something which her sex. It is that a woman in choosother women than whether she loves

SELF-DELUSION is ever averse from

The co-operative movement began hoarded. From these humble beginthroughout England and Scotland. Ir money applied to education amounted (1862-82) the total sales amounted to £275,250,000, and the profits to nearly £22,000,000. All this, it must be remembered, is workingmen's money, tain districts, the fact may be men-

Never, after leaving the | urugs, Medicines, Paints, Wall Paper. DRUGGIST,

FROSTBURG, Mb., TEADQUARTERS FOR

Drugs, Medicines, Paints, Oils, DYE-STUFFS, FINE TOILET NOTIONS. An Endless Variet

WINDOW GLASS-ALL SIZES. Prescriptions promptly and accurately

Protessional Cards. J. SEMMES DeVECMON. ATTORNEY-AT-LAW,

Cumberland, Md. Clayton Purnell, ATTORNEY-AT-LAW.

early endeavors in art, and when we had Brace & Richmond,

Type Foundry.

Type Founders.

Baltimore, Md. ESTABLISHED 1855.

The Largest and Best in the South. She brought it to me, and, if ever the and the State of Maryland. Furnish prompt-

> Valuable Property for Sale. PRIVATE SALE

Very Valuable Real Estate. "And you never heard nor read of an incident that you intended to illustrate by Tuated at the West end of Frostburg, is of- Fresh Fish and Oysters fered at private sale.

and convenient COTTAGE, containing 10 Rooms and a good Cellar; Fountain Pump in the yard of excellent sandstone water; Coalhouse, Icehouse, Wood- Dec 27 house, Washhouse and good Stabling; a TENANT HOUSE, and a LARGE Two-Story Building,

The buildings are comparatively new. The Lot contains 3 acres, more or less, and encloses a choice variety of Fruit Trees. Title unquestionable. Terms-One-half cash; remainder in six months with interest from date of sale

For further information apply or write to WILLIAM STAPLES.

Hat, Cap, Boot and Shoe Emporium. THOMAS'

Boot, Shoe, Hat & Cap Emporium THE LATEST NOVELTIES IL.

BOOTS and SHOES RE NOW DISPLAYED on my counters. 1 Every style of Gentlemen's Hats and also keep constantly on hand a large supof Leather and Shoe Findings. n inspection of my stock before purchas-

TRUNKS A SPECIALTY. WILLIAM THOMAS Main Street, Frostburg, Md. 139 Agent for the Peerless Remington Sewing

Don't Wait Till To-Morrow TO GO TO ORT'S FOR New, Fresh Groceries, NTOT the kind that have been laying on to specialize, but bend your steps hitherward and see for yourself. Green Groceries That make glad the heart of the housewifethe very morning they are plucked. We Have Chiseled Down Prices the shelf for a score of years. No need

To the very bottom-and "still some." Tobaccos and Cigars of All Grades In the latter I have two specialties which 1 commend to the attention of the smokins

The "Baffler"..... 5 cents. Call and try them. GEORGE ORT, WEST ROOM, KELLER'S BUILDING,

The "Little Gem"

Is now in ship-shape to wait on its many friends. HIST ONE DOOR WEST OF HARDWARE STORE. TICE Fresh Goods at "Rock Bottom" Prices. Please give me a call and insure

DON'T FORGET Who is Prepared to Meet You

TXTITH a Large Assortment of CONFEC VV TIONERIES, NUTS, Tobacco, . Cigars, CANNED GOODS, GROCERIES,
MEAT and FLOUR.

A HEARTY WELCOME EXTENDED TO ALL.

Next door to F. C. Beall's Hardware store. Hotels and Restaurants.

SIMS HOUSE, DIEDMONT (Baltimore & Ohio Railroad.) West Virginia. J. P. A. ENTLER,

PIEDMONT, W. VA., T. KENNY, PROPRIETOR. THIS HOTEL has one of the finest Sample rooms on the line of the Baltimore and INSURANCE.

A long and successful experience has enabled me to seect from the great number of companies doing business in this country those among the

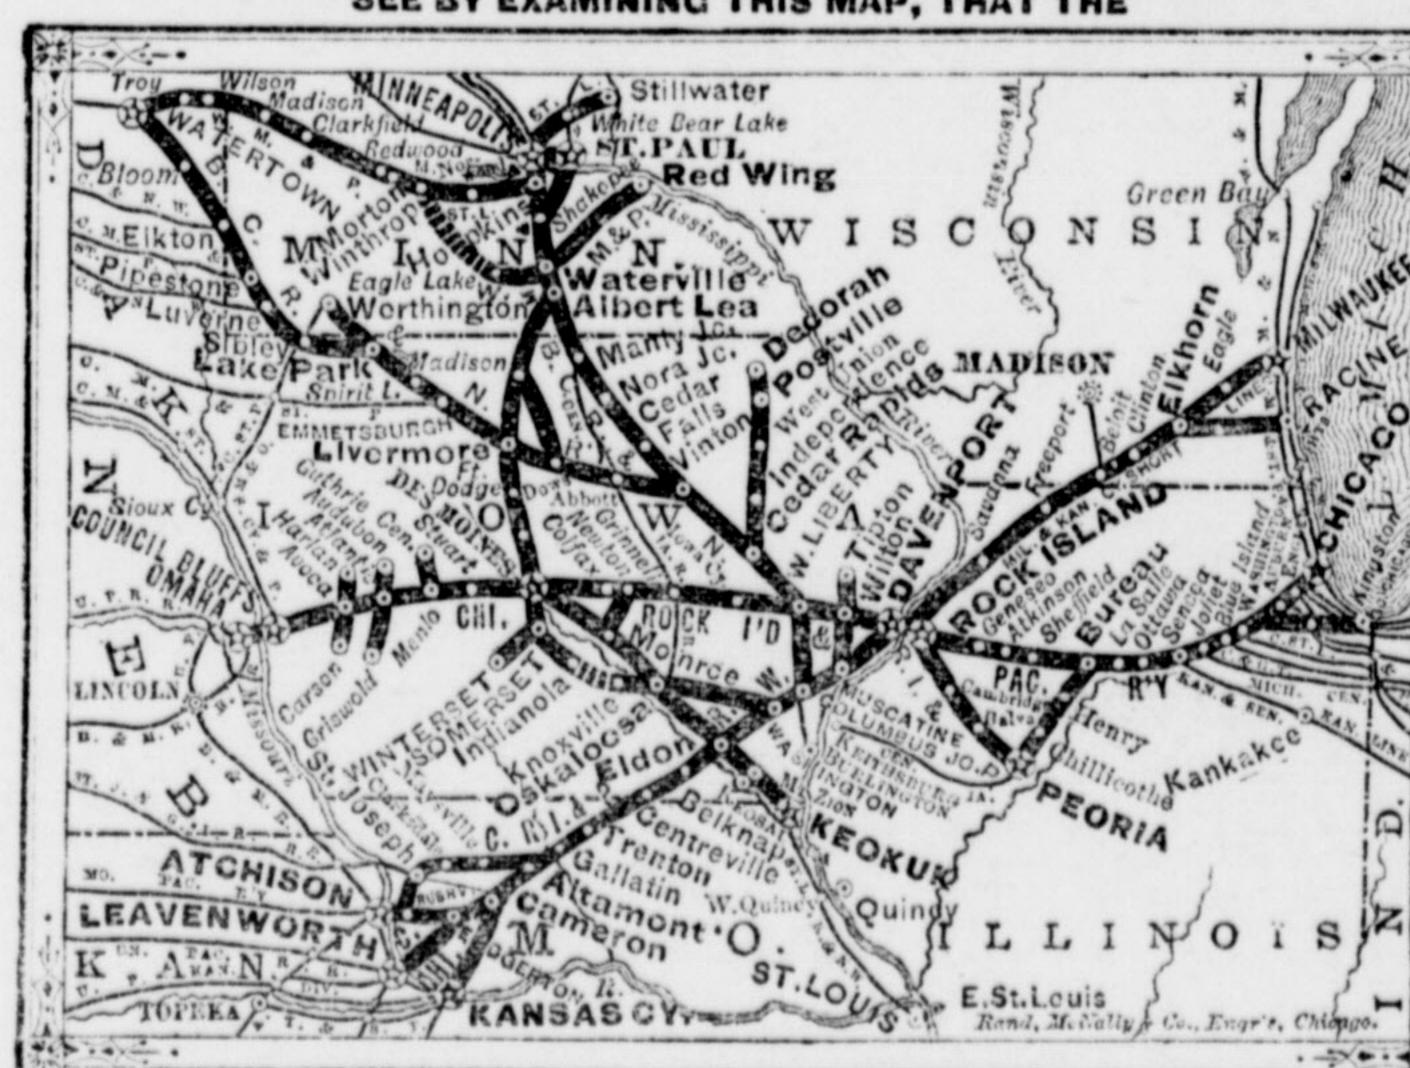

Strongest and Most Reliable,

And also to perperly Write all forms to fully protect the assured in case of loss or damage by fire. Persons in Frostburg and vicinity desiring to insure will please call

J. B. ODER, Frostburg, Md.,

Who is my agent to receive applications and collect premiums. D. P. MILLER. Cumberland, Md

WHO IS UNACQUAINTED WITH THE CEOCRAPHY OF THIS COUNTRY, WILL SEE BY EXAMINING THIS MAP, THAT THE

CHICACO, ROCK ISLAND & PACIFIC R'Y By reason of its central position, close relation to principal lines East of Chicago and continuous lines at terminal points West, Northwest and Southwest-is the tine, Washington, Fairfield, Ottumwa, Oskaloosa, West Liberty, Iowa City, Des Moines, Indianola, Winterset. Atlantic, Knoxville, Audubon, Harlan, Guthrie Centre and Council Bluffs, in Iowa; Gallatin, Trenton, St. Joseph, Cameron and Kansas City, in Missouri; Leavenworth and Atchison, in Kansas; Albert Lea, Minneapolis and St. Paul, in Minnesota; Watertown in Dakota, and hundreds is thoroughly ballasted. Its track is of heavy steel. Its bridges are solid structures of stone and iron. Its rolling stock is perfect as human skill can make it. It has all the safety appliances that mechanical genius has invented and experience proved valuable. Its practical operation is conservative and method ical—its discipline strict and exacting. The luxury of its passenger accommodations is unequaled in the West—unsurpassed in the world.

THE CREAT ROCK ISLAND ROUTE

ALL EXPRESS TRAINS between Chicago and the Missouri River consist of comfortable DAY COACHES, magnificent PULLMAN PALACE PARLOR and SLEEPING CARS, elegant DINING CARS providing excellent meals, and between Chicago, St. Joseph, Atchison and Kansas City-restful RECLINING CHAIR CARS.

THE FAMOUS ALBERT LEA ROUTE Is the direct, favorite line between Chicago and Minneapolis and St. Paul. Over this route solid Fast Express Trains run daily to the summer resorts, picturesque ocalities and hunting and fishing ground, of Iowa and Minnesota. The rich A short desirable route, via Seneca and Kankakee, offers superior inducements to travelers between Cincinnati, Indianapolis, Lafayette and Council Bluffs, S Joseph, Atchison, Leavenworth, Kansas City, Minneapolis, St. Paul and inter-All classes of patrons, especially families, ladies and children, receive from officials and employes of Rock Island trains protection, respectful courtesy and

R. R. CABLE. Pres't & Gen'l M'g'r, Chicag

E. A. HOLBROOK Gen'l Tkt. & Pass. Agt., Chicas