

MSA SC 5463-5-14

56
The first thing I noticed when I stepped out of the plane was the humidity.

The air was thick and sticky, and I could feel it on my skin.
It was a relief from the dry air of the plane, but it was also a bit uncomfortable.

Feb. May 13/71

The humidity was a relief from the dry air of the plane, but it was also a bit uncomfortable.
I had heard that the humidity in Miami was terrible, but I wasn't sure how true it was.
I had heard that the humidity
in Miami was terrible, but I wasn't sure how true it was.
I had heard that the humidity
in Miami was terrible, but I wasn't sure how true it was.

The humidity was a relief from
the dry air of the plane, but it was also a bit uncomfortable.

The humidity was a relief from
the dry air of the plane, but it
was also a bit uncomfortable.
I had heard that the humidity
in Miami was terrible, but I wasn't sure how true it was.
I had heard that the humidity
in Miami was terrible, but I wasn't sure how true it was.

To the Honorable William Fell Giles, Judge of the United States District Court for the

And now comes S. W. Haslup and Susan Haslup, his wife - and produce the body of

Mary Alice Johnson - as required by the writ of Habeas Corpus to them directed for that purpose - and claim that they have held <sup>and so now hold</sup> the said Mary Alice Johnson under an agreement for Hiring - which paper they annex to this return - and they most emphatically deny any and all of the allegations of improper treatment, deception &c

W. Fell Giles Sr
Atty for
for respondents