OFFICE OF
J. FRANK HARPER,
Attorney-at-Law.

vs.

Centreville, Md., July 11

1895

Ed. B. Emory, Esq.
Centreville, Md.

Dear Sir:-

I would be glad if you would make it convenient to settle the little R. Hopper Smith matter which has been in my hands. You will recollect that you paid the $14.<sup>76</sup> bill about a year ago which left the other, amounting to $13.<sup>75</sup>, still on my books. Mr. Smith needs the money at this time and I would like to close his accounts finally. We will appreciate an early payment of this bill.

Amount of bill	13.75
Interest	$ 1.56
	$ 15.31

Yours very truly
J. Frank Harper
