My darling Alice,

I hoped to reach you Saturday - but I have had such bad luck in getting machines over the R.R. owing to the heavy rush that I will not be able to reach Phila - before Monday if that as it is now raining very hard and it keeps us from working at all - I am now feeling rather better and I hope it is a permanent improvement.

I long to see you it seems to me it has been months since I saw you - Had have had lovely weather this week unless today only that it was very cold
