

Smith's Mistake, & comprehends all my lot of woodland lying between my shop place or lot called "Ains position" and the fifty acre lot of my nephew William Emory which is part of the last named tract; and also the use & services of the following servants, that is Pen and his wife Ann, Harriet and her daughter Harriet-Charles, Kitty, Emory & Cato, also such of my household furniture as she may deem necessary and the prints pictures and books in the house.
Item I give devise and bequeath to my three sons, William H. Emory, John H. Emory, Blanchard Emory, & to their heirs executors administrators and assignees as tenants in common all the property & estate real and personal which is above given to the use of my dear wife for her life including the increase of the personal servants to be held and possess^{ed} by by my said three sons immediately on the decease of my dear wife, and this is designed as their full share of my estate, and it is my will and I do hereby direct that my said three sons in their order of seniority shall respectively have the privilege of electing to take the whole estate real and personal above devised and bequeath to them, upon the death of my dear wife, at a valuation to be made by their disinterested