I find some crookedness, in the preparation of the evidence, on file to prove this claim -

The witness William Hampton (B.J. 10) is undoubtedly the W^m Hampton a comrade, whose deposition I took, before knowing of his connection with this case.

I afterwards took another deposition from him, in which he disclaims all knowledge of having ever testified in the claim - it has the appearance of having been prepared without his knowledge

The witness James Harrison (B.J. 9) is the same comrade, whose deposition is herewith, under his right name of James Harris. he disclaims having made the statement in his affidavit as to service origin of insanity. None of the list comrades and other comrades whose depositions were secured, have any knowledge of any signs of insanity during term of service. The soldier performed the duties of Orderly Serjt of his Company to time of discharge. very soon after, within a year, it is shown, that the soldier began to show signs of insanity, by acts which brought him under the influence of the law & from that time, was
