

charge & sent to Bay View asylum - they thought him better & turned him out was there about five months. in about 2 to 3 weeks he again became violent & he was then sent to Spring Grove Asylum - he got out & went to Edicott City & burned a house & the people there were about to lynch him but finding he was insane they sent him back to Spring Grove Asylum where he has been ever since. The doct at the asylum told me last year that he never would get any better.
