

3-474 a.

S. Div.
No. 457,010
Frank Tijler
Co. D, Reg't A.S.C. Vol. Inf

The above title should be indorsed on every paper relating to this claim.

J. F. V. Ex'r.

Department of the Interior,

BUREAU OF PENSIONS,

Washington, D. C.,

OCT. 25th, 1899

6TH DIV.
14
1900
CD.

In the above-entitled claim for pension under the act of June 27, 1890, the evidence indicated in paragraph No. 4 should be furnished.

No. 1. The claimant's affidavit stating when, where, and under what circumstances and whether said disability in any way due to his own vicious habits.

No. 2. Testimony of credible witnesses showing when, where, and under what circumstances the claimant incurred

If the claimant is unable to procure such evidence, he should state under oath the reason for his inability; and in lieu thereof, furnish the testimony of credible witnesses who have known him from a time antedating the incurrence of the alleged showing whether he was then, and has been during all their acquaintance with him, a sober, peaceable man of good habits.

No. 3. Testimony of credible witnesses showing whether the alleged by the claimant, caused by vicious habits.

No. 4. Testimony, medical if possible, showing whether the claimant was disabled by paroxysm in shell of back.

from Mar. 3d., 1897, the date of filing claim, to Nov. 7th, 1898, the date of medical examination; and if so, the degree to which he was incapacitated thereby from earning a support by manual labor.

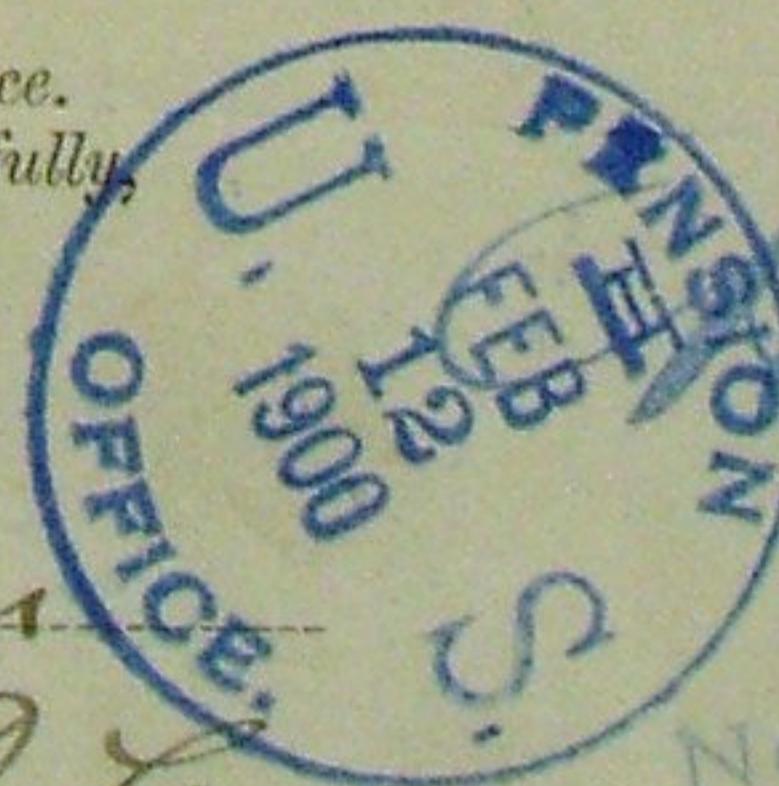

RETURN THIS LETTER
with the evidence called for.

Witnesses must state their post-office addresses, ages, and means of knowledge of the facts to which they testify, and write their names immediately after their statements, leaving no blank space over their signatures; and it should appear in the jurats that they knew the contents of their affidavits, and that alterations or erasures, if any, were made before the oath was administered.

This circular should be returned with the evidence.

Very respectfully,

David L. Gitt,
Washington

John Evans

Commissioner.

No Revenue
stamps required.