PUBLISHER'S NOTE

The following is a revision of William D. Hoyt Jr.'s original analysis and description of the Maryland State Colonization Papers as published in the Maryland Historical Magazine 32 (1937), 247-71. It should be of value mainly in indicating the nature of the contents of his subject divisions and is reproduced herewith to so assist the researcher. Certain items will be found missing and in other cases supplementary material added.

WARNING: Use the Guide and Index in searching; this is based on the Hoyt classification but has been modified as a result of missing items and for other reasons.

It will be noted that in some cases the documents have been filmed in chronological sequence despite the existence of other sequences extant in the original collection.