II A 25

Annapolis Dec 28 1860

Sir

Since you left, this part, I have concluded to dispatch the Quail, with Mr Lynch the Comptroller of the Treasury, to superintend the receipt of the transfer of ^{the} receipts, & the effect in behalf of this Government.

The Superintendent of the two Counties are to report to the Society's agents. Mr Lynch may have occasion to confer with you once or more in reference to ~~the~~ matters in connection with the receipts &c.

Yours very respectfully
