"I know, because wagons of every make come into my shop for repairs, and I have a chance to see how few are Studebakers.'

That's the opinion of thousands of blacksmiths who know the quality of Studebaker wagons.

The owners never regretted that they bought Studebakers.

Tested materials, accurate workmanship insure a wagon unequaled for durability, and this careful selection of wood, iron, steel, paint and varnish has been a fixed rule with the Studebaker Company for sixty years. That is why a Studebaker wagon runs easiest and lasts longest. It is built on honor.

Whether you live in town or country, there is a Studebaker vehicle to fill your requirements for business or pleasure — and harness of every description made as carefully as are Studebaker vehicles.

OYSTER QUETION.

CHESTERTOWN, June 4, 1913.

MESSRS. EDITORS KENT NEWS: Your editorial on the oyster question in the last issue was fine, and gives evidence of your continued loyalty for the interests of a large number of citizens of the county. I was very much gratified Would not give Lydia E.Pinkto know that you are so closely watching the results of the Haman oyster law, as it is being applied.

The contention was made several years ago, by persons who foresaw the evils that would result from the passage of said law, that barren bottoms for oyster Haman and those he represented

The purse strings that unloosened at the bidding of Mr. Haman in his strenuous efforts before the Maryland Legis. lature were in the possession of practical ovstermen who dredged for years all beds or bars that dredge or scrape could possibly reach, whether in accordance with law or otherwise. Yes, they were practically wise to their own interests, and they knew then, and know now, that they never expected to throw a! shovelful of shells or other catching materlal on barren bottoms in Chesapeake Bay or any of its tributaries.

At the very outset the fuss and fury Compound and now I am stout, well and was a gigantic, hollow pretense. And it does seem strange that so many of the healthy. I can do all my own work and good and better thinking people of can walk to town and back and not get Maryland can be duped. Mr. W--, tired. I would not give your Vegetable one of the largest oyster packers of Bal- | Compound for all the rest of the meditimore city, remarked to a personal cines in the world. I tried doctor's medfriend of mine during the session of the legislature: "You fellows have got to give in, for we are going to get just what we want so long as the Eastern Shore Ohio.

Now, please do not misunderstand me. I do not for a moment believe we have we have some here who have not been delegates to the Legislature who have and every month I had to spend a few had the disposition and have influenced | days in bed. I read so many letters about legislators in behalf of their friend Ha- Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Comfor it is possible, from the present out- a bottle of it. I feel better than I have counties, it is evident that the Shellfish for years and tell everybody what the Comn ission was incompetent, or that Compound has done for me. I believe I Mr. Haman was still on the job with would not be living to-day but for serious intent-to utterly ignore the that." - Mrs. HETTIE GREENSTREET, rights of fishery through the Commission | Nebo, Illinois. -since he could not obtain that position in the letter of his law.

The Baltimore Sun, in last Saturday's issue, stands by Haman and the Shellfish Commissioners, yet it was good enough to say: "The Shellfish Commission should take a broad view of the question and see to it that the oystering population get all they are rightly entitled to." If I understand that proposition it means that the Haman law must not be disturbed; that the Commissioners may go to such places where WILL PAY THE HIGHEST contentions of wrong have been raised, and so adjust, move buoys, or any other old thing, that will tend to allay the charges of fraud that are being made by the oystermen. Wheat and Corn

I do not like the proposition at all, and it is this that started my pencil to write this article. There is still a snake Delivered at the Railroad Station in the grass. I hold that the Shellfish at Chestertown, Worton, Lynch, Commissioners have no right or authority to go to Somerset or any other coun- Still Pond and Kennedyville. ty and hold conferences with its citizens with the view to change lines, &c. They have surveyed the waters of this State and made a map of the work, and their report as mapped out is now within the archives of the State capital. To attempt ennow to right wrongs by pilemeal or in spots would be simply ridiculous. May not any one who thinks over the matter at all see that if changes should be made upon that principle it would still leave a oop hole for Mr. Haman to continue on his job and five years from now come along with advice to a client like this: "Go to Annapolis and get the State Shellfish Commissioners' report and move that oysterman who is too near you, Move back! I am going to put my buoys on the line my State plot calls for." That would result from such procedure. The tate should move along calmly and the law or annul the report made by the to us Estimates given.

can do legitimately. It occurs to me that the cause of the chagrin on the part of the Baltimore Sun, Mr. Haman and his Kent county allies is, the oystermen will not quietly sub mit to the survey. A score of years ago the State authorities attempted, and succeeded to some extent, to compel the highway dredgers to stop stealing. It resulted in a pitched | battle with rifle bullets at Hail Point, at | | Swan Point, and even the steamer Corsica was attacked. Failing to control thus, their next move was to scheme with the Legislature, and the Haman law was the progressive (?) idea. Not getting all they wanted in this law, they now think they see their goal in the finishing touches of the Shellfish Commis-J. FRANK WHEATLEY.

The Paint and Powder Club to Visit Chestertown, Md.

The Paint and Powder Club of Baltimore have accepted an invitation to visit Chestertown on Saturday, June 14, and give the songs and dances from "Floradora" as given in Baltimore last

The beneficiary is the Federated Club of Chestertown, and the occasion is the opening of the new Lyceum Theatre or Opera House which has just been remodeled and is one of the most comfortable and complete on the shore.

The Paint and Powder Club, the noted dramatic organization of Baltimore, which was organized in 1893 and has given successful performances in the large cities such as Philadelphia, Washington and Baltimore almost every season and they have never visited a place so small before and Chestertown is much honored in having their invitation to give a performance here accepted. The songs and dances from "Floradora" as given in Baltimore and Washington last winter will fill the program.

No one should miss the opportunity of seeing these boys who make beautiful girls and dance equal to or better than professionals. They are to be entertained during their stay in the homes of Mrs. James A. Pearce, Mrs. M. P. Finley, Mrs R. D. Hynson, Mrs. James G. Beck, Mrs. Wm. B. Usilton, Jr., Miss Louisa Urie, Mrs. Lewin W.
